Mahaffey rally earns win in top GNT flight

The District 9 team from Florida captained by Jim Mahaffey rallied from 35 IMPs down in the fourth quarter to win the Grand National Teams, Championship Flight 146-144 over the District 16 squad led by Malcolm Brachman.

For Mahaffey, of Winter Park, and Barnet Shenkin of Boca Raton, the victory was their first in the event. Teammate Jeff Meckstroth of Tampa has won the GNT six times, while Eric Rodwell of Clearwater Beach and Michael Seamon of Miami Beach have captured the title five times. Gary Cohler of Miami is now a two-time GNT winner.

The runners-up, from Texas, are Brachman, Bart Bramley and Sidney Lazard of Dallas, Mike Passell of Plano and Eddie Wold of Houston.

Brachman jumped out to a 55-47 lead after one quarter, but Mahaffey was ahead by 7 IMPs at the break. The Texans blasted their opponents 53-11 to take the lead with a quarter to go but could not hold it.

Floridians are champs in Bruce LM Pairs

Brian Gunnell of Jacksonville FL and Henry Meyer of Vero Beach FL came from back in the pack after the first two qualifying sessions to win the Bruce Life Master Pairs, for players with up to 5000 masterpoints.

They finished more than 40 matchpoints ahead of the runners-up, Jane Dillenberg of New York City and Jerry Goldberg of Yonkers. Top on a board was 28. At the halfway point, the winners stood 10th in the field.

With the win, Gunnell, a computer consultant, has now won all three of the ACBL's 0-5000 events, including the Mini-Spangold last year and the GNT Flight A in 2002.

Meyer is retired from the investment business.

Alzheimer's Assn. racing to find a cure for disease

If you don't think Alzheimer's disease is a growing problem, consider this statistic: at present there are 4.5 million Americans affected by the disease – not counting the families and care givers of those with the devastating illness.

If researchers don't find a cure by 2050, the number of Alzheimer's cases could grow to 16 million.

"As Baby Boomers enter the age of greatest risk," says Susan Sugarman of the New York City chapter of the Alzheimer's Association, "Alzheimer's is becoming the leading public health crisis of the 21st century."

Sugarman visited the Summer NABC Saturday night to receive a check from the ACBL Charity Foundation for $100,000. The association was selected by the ACBL Charity Foundation as the Charity of the Year for 2004. Charity Foundation President Jayne Thomas and Foundation Treasurer Shirley Seals presented the check.

Sugarman, vice president and director of marketing and communications for the NYC chapter of the association, said there is a lot of Alzheimer's research going on at present.

"There are many reasons to be hopeful," she said,

Signs, signs, everywhere signs – just the kind ACBL leaders hope will be on display Monday morning during the CBS Early Show. You can be part of the live TV show Monday if you get to CBS – 59th Street and 5th Avenue – by 7:30 a.m. A bus will take you if you don't want to walk. The network is reserving space for bridge players in the outdoor broadcast plaza. Just be outside the Hilton at 7:30 a.m. CBS host Dave Price will talk about the NABC and interview players if they show up in force. Showing off some of the bridge-promoting signs on Sunday are, from left, Ruth Basu, co-chairman of the NABC Intermediate/Newcomer program; Joan Gerard, District 3 director; bridge teacher Sandra Jones and Jim Schneider, volunteer chairman for the NABC.

Katz, Rosenberg lead LM Pairs

It's an international field at the top of the standings in the Von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs. Ralph Katz and Michael Rosenberg are well ahead of the field as 104 pairs head into today's two-session final. A pair from India, S. Sundarram and P. Ridhar are running second, followed by Bryan Maksymetz of Canada and Lars Andersson of Sweden.

Others well up in the standings are 4, Brian Glubok and Fred Chang; 5, Jacek Pszczola of Poland and Jared Lilienstein.

District 6 stampedes to GNT Flight A win

The way Sumner Steinfeldt sees it, baseball great Ted Williams had a lot to do with his District 6 squad's victory in the Grand National Teams Flight A – a win by nearly 100 IMPs against a District 12 team that withdrew after three quarters.

"It was the Ted Williams tee shirts," said Steinfeldt, who lived in Boston for many years but now calls Washington DC home. Steinfeldt has four Ted Williams tee shirts, which he wore four days in a row in the district qualifying tournament. In New York, he wore the same four tee shirts in the same order during his squad's run to the championship.

Whether Steinfeldt's teammates were aware of the tee shirt magic, they were happy winners: team captain Marshall Kushner, Reston VA; Hal Hindman, Annandale VA, and Mark Chen, Oak Hill VA.

The runners-up, from Michigan, are Mark Leonard, Ypsilanti; Thomas Rozinski, Ann Arbor; Barry Lippitt, Southfield, and Richard Mydloski, Taylor.

Kushner is a part-time tournament director whose wife Candy, is a full-time TD. He and Steinfeldt, a retired web master for the U.S. Postal Service, have been playing together for more than 20 years.

Hindman, an OB-GYN doctor, and Chen, a software developer, have been regular partners for about seven years. Chen was anxious to mention his wife, Yin-Ching and their two daughters, Erica and Grace.

The District 6 team started strong, opening a 48-16 lead after one quarter and extending it to 110-55 at the halfway point. Their opponents withdrew after three quarters, trailing 190-93.

Long Island duo take Young Pairs

Marvin Levine of Northport NY and Robert Frick of Stony Brook NY scored a solid victory in the Young Life Master - 1500 Pairs, a four-session nationally rated event. Wieslaw Kalita of Woodbridge IL and Marian Krasowski of Prospect Heights IL were second, followed by Sandy Johnson of Ho Ho Kus NJ and Benjamin Rottman of White Plains NY.

Frick just barely made the Life Master qualification – he won his gold card a month ago. He is a stay-at-home dad who takes care of his two daughters, Kiana 8 and Sarah 6. His wife, Darla Broberg, is a psychologist.

Levine, a retired psychologist, does some writing these days. His most recent book is "Psychology of Buddhism."

Serendipity

It's amazing how things work out sometimes. Alan Kleist, East, lost his concentration for a moment and passed a forcing bid at the six-level. But the result was a near top and enough matchpoints to just barely qualify for the second day of the Life Master Pairs with partner Noble Shore. They were playing against Kit Woolsey and Fred Stewart.

- (1) Kickback Blackwood.
- (2) Zero or three keycards.
- (3) Asking for specific kings.
- (4) Showing ♠K.
- (5) Asking about ♣K.
- (6) Some sort of club control plus the ♠Q.
- (7) OOPS!

Kleist couldn't believe that he had passed! The director was called, and he ruled that the Pass stood. So Kleist was sure he had blown the slam and the qualifying.

And then he saw the dummy after Stewart led a trump. Seven spades to the king-queen – he couldn't believe his eyes. Don't forget – his partner had never bid spades showing spades.

He won his trump ace, cashed his ♣A, pitching a heart, and ruffed a club. He drew the rest of the trumps, then led to the ♥A and ♥K and ruffed a heart. That set up the suit, so he crossed to the ♦A and pitched his losers on hearts to wind up with all 13 tricks.

Lots of pairs got to slam, but they played in hearts, where they had to lose a trump. It also made a difference that the contract was played from the singleton side. If Woolsey, North, had been on lead, no doubt he would have started with a diamond, and then it would be extremely unlikely that Shore could take all 13 tricks.

Bird book wins ABTA prize

By Lynn Berg

David Bird's No Trump Contracts won Book of the Year (Intermediate/Advanced Level) at the American Bridge Teachers Association awards banquet Thursday evening. Ginny Shuett of Chicago, representing Ed Marzo and the awards committee, commented on the high quality of the book and its usefulness for teachers and students.

The dinner, the penultimate event of the 27th annual ABTA summer meeting, also awarded to Harry Lampert the Apple Basket Prize for best teaching tip.

Harry and his wife of 61 years, Adele, were attending their 23rd ABTA convention. Harry is also the author of a series of student texts distinguished by his trademark cartoons and gentle humor. At 87, he has not lost his zest for the game and for teaching bridge.

Three teachers were tested for and awarded the recognition of Master Teacher by the ABTA: Sanda Enciu of Israel, Jane Friend of Washington DC and Amy Nellissen of Ramsay NJ.

Dinner was followed by a panel discussion

Sandy Schlyer and Teryl Burke

'It's so much fun I had to come back'

Sandy Schlyer of Westlake CA, one of the Newcomer players, is attending her third NABC here. "It's so much fun that you have to keep coming back."

Her partner, Teryl Burke of Thousand Oaks CA, believed her and flew cross-country to play in her first NABC. "I'm trying to stay young. My 85-year-old mother told me to play bridge and do crossword puzzles if I wanted to stay young. So I have to play a lot of bridge because I don't do crossword puzzles."

They're doing a lot more besides winning masterpoints here. They have already seen "Hairspray" and they're going to see "The Boy from Oz." They took the Radio City Music Tour, and today they're going to Yankee Stadium to see the Yankees play. Teryl especially enjoyed the Rockettes. She wanted to be a Rockette in her younger years, "but my legs weren't long enough."

They're having success at the table as well. On Friday they had a first and a second.

Teryl has been playing cards all her life – pinochle, poker, hearts and cribbage) – but she didn't try bridge until she saw an ad for bridge lessons. She took some lessons from Jim Lynch, and now bridge is her only card game.

No smoking means NO SMOKING!

New York law prohibits smoking in public places. Players found smoking inside the Hilton (including restrooms, stairwells and interior corridors) will be assessed a Zero Tolerance penalty of one-quarter of a board, applied to the event in which they are playing.

moderated by Alan LeBendig. Panelists Jerry Helms, George Jacobs, Norma Sands and Haig Tchamitch presented an irreverent and highly skilled view of the game and teaching.

ABTA President Leslie Schaefer also recognized past president Mary Jane Von Moss for her contributions and called on all ABTA members to attend the next national convention in Atlanta, 2005.

Shocked and amazed

Paul Soloway, ACBL's top masterpoint holder, many-time North American and world champion, is not easily impressed. During the evening session of the Life Master Open Pairs, one of his opponents gave Soloway something to talk about.

Here's what happened.

Soloway, East, was looking at

♠ A K 7 4 3 2 ♥ 3 ♦ J 8 4 2 ♣ K J 8 7 5

Soloway's partner passed and his RHO bid 1♠. Soloway bid a natural 2♠, LHO and Soloway's partner passed and RHO, the 1♠ bidder, ended the auction with a bid of 3NT.

Intent on not giving up a trick by leading his spade suit, Soloway started with a low diamond. Dummy hit with ♠ J 5 ♥ K Q 10 7 6 4 ♦ A 6 ♣ Q 10 9.

Declarer won the ♦A in dummy as West signaled with the 9. Declarer then played a club to his king. Soloway took the ♣A and, still trying to avoid giving up a spade trick, continued with a diamond.

At that point, recalled Soloway, his opponent "fopped it (his hand) on the table, claiming 12 tricks." When Soloway saw declarer's hand, he could only look on in admiration. The full deal:

Dlr: South ♠ 10 8 6

Soloway was impressed with North's 1♠ bid on three to the 10 – but he liked his opponent's bold 3NT bid even more, especially after Soloway showed a long spade suit.

"It was like re-raising in poker with nothing," said Soloway. "He made a terrific bid of 1♠ – and his 3NT bid was out of this world. He earned his top."

New Life Master

Ann D'Addario of Garden City NY became a Life Master playing in the Bracketed Knockout Teams on Friday. She needed 6.75 gold points and she got 10.57. Celebrating her achievement were her partner, Selma Rubin of Uniondale NY and their teammates, Iris Hertzberg of Little Neck NY and Mildred Bromberg of Great Neck NY.

As the first person to earn her gold card at the NABC, D'Addario will receive a 14-carat gold Life Master pendant from the Gold Group, whose jewelry is for sale at the ACBL Product Store.

New Life Masters

Anne Derkat of Edmonton AB earned her gold card playing with her husband, Floyd, in the Senior Pairs Saturday. It was especially enjoyable for the Derkats, who are on their honeymoon. They were married about a month ago.

Also joining the ranks of Life Masters was Jason Bribitzer-Stull, who earned his gold card in the Stratiflighted Pairs, Flight A/X, playing with Matthew Bribitzer-Stull. Both are from Minneapolis.

Congratulations are also in order for David Amsterdam of Wayne PA. He became a Life Master by winning the B/C/D Open Pairs.

MIT tops Stanford for college crown

A young squad from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology took a big lead at the halfway point and fought off a determined foursome from Stanford to win the College Team Championship 123-82.

The winners are Ljudmila Kamenova, Jason Chiu, John Hopkinson, all of Cambridge MA, and Kevin Chu of Somerville MA.

Chu is studying financial economics at MIT. The others are studying math.

Kamenova, 25, came to the U.S. three years ago from Bulgaria. She was on a fellowship and had a lot of free time, so she gravitated to bridge. She has been playing with Chu for about two months.

Chiu takes credit for assembling the team, doing so in a week after finding out about the event at the last minute. In the college championship, he and Hopkinson played together for only the third time.

The MIT squad opened a 69-13 lead at the break against Stanford, represented by Samuel Ieong of Menlo Park, Ho-Lin Chen and Joon Pakh of Stanford and Eric Mayefsky of Chappaqua NY.

Bracelet lost

A woman's gold link bracelet with a snake clasp has been lost at the Hilton. It has great sentimental value to the owner, who is offering a reward for its return. If you find it, turn it in to a tournament director.

David Levy and Julian Evans

A great concert on for tonight

Be sure to be in the Trianon Ballroom at 11:15 this evening. Two superb pianists, David Levy of Cannes, France, and Julian Evans of Cologne, Germany, will offer a piano concert to die for. The feature arrangements will be Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" and Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite."

They usually give solo concerts, but they have appeared together in many concerts all over Europe. They have received glowing reviews. Their next European concert will be in Cannes, France, next month.

They've known each other since they were 15 when both were students at Manchester, where one of Great Britain's best music colleges is located. They have found some places to practice together since arriving in New York. Special pianos have been rented for their concert tonight.

Evans is not a bridge player, but Levy loves the game. As a matter of fact, he's going to play in the Spingold tomorrow. He'll be playing with Paul Hackett, John Armstrong and Connie Goldberg.

Canada names team for World Juniors

The Canadian Bridge Federation has announced that Canada's team for the World Junior Championship next year will be made up of Vincent Demuy, Laval ON; David Grainger, Etobicoke ON; Daniel Lavee and Gavin Wolpert, Thornhill ON. They won the Junior Team Trials last May.

Tim Capes and Charles Halasi of Toronto, undergraduates at the University of Toronto, won the Butler Scores at the CBF Team Trials. As a result, they were added to the team. The non-playing captain is Jonathan Steinberg.

The team will represent Canada in the 2005 World Junior Championship in Sydney, Australia in August 2005.

Membership meeting during BOG session

The annual ACBL Membership Meeting, originally scheduled for 11:30 a.m. Sunday, will occur during the Board of Governors Meeting, starting at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. The Membership Meeting will begin at approximately 9:45 a.m. The meetings will take place in the Grand Ballroom.

District 21 tops in Flight B of GNT

The District 21 team that won the Flight B Grand National Teams championship had to do a lot of regrouping along the way. Their original captain couldn't make it – he's still in Europe. But the new captain, Jim Leuker of San Francisco, found the players he needed for a winning combination. Playing with him were Bruce Tuttle and Shelley Lapkoff, Berkeley CA; Sathya Bettadapura of Campbell CA and Tanakorn "Big" Lavanakul of Dublin CA.

They triumphed over the District 14 team which included Jonathan Cohen of Prior Lake MN, Charles Nauen of St. Paul MN, Mark Krusemeyer of Northfield MN and Patti Stuhlman of Minneapolis.

Leuker, Tuttle and Bettadapura were original members of the team. Leuker, a retired computer consultant, knew that Lapkoff and Lavanakul had had some experience playing with other members of the team, so he asked them to join.

Why is Lavanakul called Big? It turns out that he is the only boy in a family with six sisters, so he was always the big brother. He's a software engineer, as is Bettadapura. Tuttle is a retired project planner for Charles Schwab. Lapkoff is a demographer.

Ann Arbor team wins C in GNT

A team of Ann Arbor MI players representing District 12 defeated the District 24 team from the New York City area to win the Flight C Grand National Teams championship. Playing for the winners were Amy Kiefer, David Harty, Han Peters and Grigoriy Blekherman. Arthur Wasserman also played in the qualifying but not in the final.

They triumphed over Ryan Connors, Chester NJ; Mark Dean, Daniel Wilderman and Helena McGahagan of New York City.

All five players for District 12 are connected in some way with the University of Michigan. Blekherman and Peters, who are roommates, both are graduate students majoring in math. Kiefer is a psychology graduate. Wasserman is a math professor. And Harty is a cabbie – but his wife, Christianne Myers, is a member of the faculty.

Snack bar Alert!

The expansive snack bar on the third floor of the Hilton will operate from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily. After 3 p.m., there will be a beverage station set up outside the Marketplace Restaurant on the first floor of the hotel. So stop by for a beverage before you start the evening session.

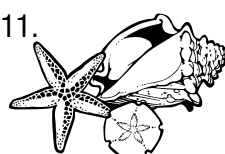

Caddies will be available during the games to get drinks for players.

Bridge to Broadway

Did you see that great show, "Bridge to Broadway," last night? The cast did a great job, and kudos to Augie Boehm for his work as director and producer.

The cast included Lesley Decker Lucas, Melissa Hubner and Paul Bufano, whose names were inadvertently misspelled in yesterday's Daily Bulletin. Also in the cast were Fred Jarvis, Amy Treitel and Diana Schuld.

Get online with Bridge Base

Come by the Morgan Room at 10 this morning and learn about the ACBL's Learn to Play Bridge program. The speaker will be none other than Fred Gitelman, the author of the program

Gitelman will explain how you can use this program for promotion. You'll also get a guided tour of the Bridge Base site and learn about its outstanding features. The seminar is free.
