District 9 sails to GNT Open victory

The all-star final of the Championship Flight of the Grand National Teams saw the District 9 squad captained by Russ Ekeblad in the winner's circle after they topped the District 17 team captained by Lou Ann O'Rourke.

Playing for District 9 (Florida) were Russ and Sheila Ekeblad, Jeff Meckstroth, Eric Rodwell, Michael Seamon and Mark Molson. The District 17 team (Southwest) was composed of O'Rourke, Billy Miller, Marc Jacobus, Garey Hayden and Roger Bates.

This was the first NABC victory for Tournament director Mike Flader was named the latest recipient of the Jane Johnson Employee Recognition Award.

Mike Flader wins Johnson Award

Just before the start of the first semi-final session of the Life Master Pairs yesterday, President George Retek honored several key persons.

The most significant was the presentation of the Jane Johnson Employee Recognition Award for customer service and special performance – going the extra mile – to Tournament Director Mike Flader. There are two Jane Johnson awards annually – one to a headquarters employee and one to a tournament director. The awards honor the late Jane Johnson who did such an outstanding job as club department manager at ACBL

Shi and Gu ahead in LM Pairs

Xiaodong Shi of Des Plaines IL and Jiang Gu of Edison NJ opened a 50-point lead during yesterday's semifinals of the Life Master Pairs. The qualifiers will compete for the title today in two final sessions.

A Texas pair, Greg Hinze of Grand Prairie and Nagy Kamel of Plano, were second, followed by John Hurd of Charleston SC and Joel Wooldridge of Buffalo NY. Rounding out the top five were Ulf Nilsson and Magnus Ericksson of Sweden, followed by Richard Katz of North Versailles PA and Robert Levin of Bronx NY

Phillips-Rohr lead Red Ribbon Pairs

Janice Phillips and Sharon Rohr of Pittsburgh had two superb sessions in the Red Ribbon Pairs qualifying – they were 77 points ahead of runners-up Kevin Perkins of Austin TX and Al Remer of Fort Lauderdale. The qualifiers will vie for the title in today's two-session final.

Close behind in third place are John Cobb of Apex NC and John Marriott of Rocky Mount NC. Only two points further back are Jon Rice and Mike Rice of Winston-Salem NC. In a virtual tie with them are Kenneth Kaufman of Derwood MD and Lloyd Rawley of Greenbelt MD.

Montreal World Championship Quiz #3

Answer in tomorrow's Daily Bulletin

To heighten awareness of the Montreal World Championships that will take place in August, the organizers are offering a daily problem. There will be a daily drawing among those who turn in the correct answer to the Daily Bulletin office in the Taft Room of the Marriott Wardman Park.

Every day five prizes will be awarded as the result of the drawing. The winners will have their choice of a 1995 or 1996 World Championship book or a 2002 World Championship hat.

The contract is 4♥. West leads the ♥5. You seem to have received a fortunate lead. Can you take full advantage? Plan the play. Thanks to Eddie Kantar for the problem.

♥ A K 10 2
♣ Q 8 6 4 2

The contract is 7♥. West leads a trump. Plan the play.

Kantar's answer: To say the least you're in a bit of trouble. You're going to need the diamond finesse in any case so you might as well take it early before ruffing spades, as West might be able to discard a diamond on a spade ruff, making it impossible for you to ruff three cards in your hand which you might have to do if spades go 4-2. Phew!

Proper technique is to win the ♥K, finesse the ♦Q, cash the ♦A and ruff a diamond with the ♥2. Now the two top spades followed by a spade ruff with the ♥A. If spades break 3-3 (ha-ha) you have the balance by simply drawing trumps. If spades break 4-2, enter dummy with the ♣A and ruff another spade with the ♥10. Now ruff a club with the ♥8, draw the remaining trumps with dummy's queen-jack and take your last spade to make your grand slam. You play so beautifully.

3 charities get ACBL grants

Guide dogs, a hotline and bridge-playing kids will all benefit from this NABC as a result of checks that were presented last night just before the start of play. The ACBL Charity Foundation made presentations totaling $5,000.

Three nonprofit organizations -- Guiding Eyes for the Blind--Montgomery County Region, CrisisLink and BridgeAtSchools, Inc. -- were the recipients

Guiding Eyes for the Blind is a national organization dedicated to "enriching the lives of blind and visually impaired men and women by providing them with the freedom to travel safely." Founded in 1954, the organization raises and trains dogs to be paired free-of-charge with blind/visually impaired individuals. Volunteer puppy-raisers work with the organization to identify future guide dogs. Professional trainers take over when the puppies are about a year and a half old to teach them the skills they need to become guide dogs. Guiding Eyes for the Blind estimates that it costs about $25,000 to breed, raise and train just one guide dog.

CrisisLink is a 24-hour a day, 7-day

a week telephone hotline service designed to respond to individuals facing life crises, emotional distress and potential suicide. The organization's goal is to prevent tragedy and provide immediate support and resources for those facing challenges for which they are unable to find help elsewhere. In its 30 years of operation in the Washington metropolitan area, it has answered more than 600,000 calls, nearly one-fifth from teens. Certified staff members have trained 3,000 volunteers in crisis call management, de-escalation and reflective listening.

BridgeAtSchools is dedicated to using the game of bridge to make a positive difference in the education and development of children and youth. The organization utilizes school research to quantify bridge's contribution to math, critical thinking and social skills, and it develops approved curricula for classroom instruction and after-school clubs. Local communities supplement BridgeAtSchools with adult mentoring and various competitions. The program serves students in elementary school, high school and college.

Guiding Eyes for the Blind receives a check for $2000 from the ACBL Charity Foundation's Jerry Fleming. Roberta Huy (left) with puppy-in-training April, and Margie Coccadrilli with canine friend Winsome were on hand to receive the check.

The latest inductees into the ACBL Junior Corps include Noble Shore, brothers Michael and Paul Ferman and brothers Marc and Robert Glickman.

Parking information

When parking for commuters is available at the Marriott Wardman Park and the Omni Shoreham, the charge is $19 per day. There is 24-hour access but no in-and-out privileges. There is a $5 rebate on weekdays, but there are special conditions for the rebates. Please note that this rebate plan is for commuters only. It is a subsidy underwritten by the local unit for local players.

The rebates cannot be applied to your parking charges. Instead they are in the form of scrip that can be used to buy entries to events at this tournament. When you get your parking ticket, bring it to the Information Desk where someone will stamp the ticket and give you the scrip good for part of your bridge entry fees.

Note that street parking is available in the vicinity of the hotel only on weekends. On weekdays, zone parking permits must be displayed on your vehicle. This is strictly enforced.

Extra parking spaces are available at the University of District of Columbia (UDC) garages for only $8 a day, but there are no in-and-out privileges. A free shuttle bus operates between the garage area and the hotel from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 4:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. and from 10:30 p.m. to midnight.

Offsite parking also is available under certain conditions. Anyone using offsite parking must stay at the tournament for a minimum of four days. Those who use the offsite plan are escorted to the North Virginia suburbs and will be driven back to the area when they are ready to leave. For further information contact David Rodney at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel. A shuttle schedule is available at the Information Desk. If you have a return reservation and wish to make a change, it is necessary to let Mr. Rodney know at least 24 hours in advance.

Of course you can use the Metro – the Red Line’s Woodley Park/Zoo stop is near the hotel. It runs to 2 a.m. on weekends.

As for transportation to the airport, there is limo and taxi service, but neither is complimentary.

7 members inducted into Junior Corps

The ACBL Junior Corps inducted seven new members at the Junior reception last evening. ACBL’s Goodwill Chairman Aileen Osofsky and Charlotte Blaiss, head of ACBL’s Junior program, awarded Junior Corps pins to brothers Marc and Robert Glickman of Woodland Hills CA, Susan Doty of Durham NH, Noble Shore of Pittsburgh PA, Daniel Korbel of Toronto ON and another pair of brothers, Paul and Mike Ferman of Bremerton WA.

The Junior Corps is an organization founded to honor those Junior players who actively promote bridge and are good citizens of the bridge world.

Also, the recipient of the Homer Shoop Pre-teen Scholarship Award — a $5000 scholarship award — was announced. Angela Collura of Elizabeth PA is this year’s winner. Collura is a student at South Allegheny Middle School.

Montreal Quiz 2 winners

Sheila Ekeblad. The other members of the winning team each have multiple national wins to their credit. Seamon, Meckstroth and Rodwell were members of the winning GNT squads in 1999 and 2000.

District 9 jumped out to a 61–25 lead after the first quarter. District 17 never managed to rally from the initial deficit, so the Floridians stayed on top for the whole match. District 9 won 172–119.

District 9	61	96	122	172

District 9's Gunnell noted that his team trailed in four of the five earlier matches in the event, sometimes by large margins.

"We dodged so many bullets in this event you wouldn't believe it," he said.

The District 9 squad actually trailed slightly after the first set, but posted a huge 76–7 score in the second set to take a commanding lead.

The District 20 team included Rohan Coelho and Todd Zimnoch of Portland OR and brothers Ralph and Maurice Henderson of West Linn OR.

The winners, whose non-playing captain Vidwans helped put the team together, are all engineers from Silicon Valley. The team practiced by playing in sectional tournaments during the last year, and even scored two Swiss teams victories against squads captained by world champion Lew Stansby — who was on hand to cheer his co-district players.

New Life Masters

John Ferman of Alexandria VA went over the top by winning a section top in the first qualifying session of the Red Ribbon Pairs. His partner was his brother Paul from Bremerton WA, and his reat was reported by another brother, Michael of Bremerton.

Yixin Tang now has a gold card.

Shelley Kuan of Toronto went over the top in a bracketed knockout match last night. She was playing with fellow Torontonians David Kraft (partner), Andy Risman and Merrill Chin.

Hollis Barry and Gerry Barry earned their gold cards in a knockout final. Steven and Piri Farkas of Lynchburg VA became Life Masters together in the Saturday evening knockouts.

Goodwill Message

“Only a few of us will win championships but all of us can win new friends. And, unlike the coveted silver trophies, we keep the friends without having to win them again and again.”

The late Dick Frey, editor of The Bridge Bulletin, wrote these words in 1960 but they are still applicable 42 years later:

Aileen Ososky, Chairman
National Goodwill Committee

Happy New Year! (the Mid-Atlantic likes to be first)

The folks who bring you the ACBL's biggest and best regionals are proud to invite you to two exciting and unusual tournaments this winter.

December 26-Jan. 1 — Charleston, SC. Spend the winter holidays in one of North America's most charming and tourist-friendly cities. Lots of bridge, mild weather (average high: 60 degrees) and fine dining are guaranteed. A wonderful rate ($84) includes two-room accommodations, a FREE cooked-to-order breakfast each morning, a FREE cocktail party each afternoon, and lots of other amenities. Site: Embassy Suites, North Charleston, (843) 747-1882. Contacts: Spencer Hurd, (843) 577-2919, ctown2002@yahoo.com and Lindsey Butler, (843) 886-8813.

January 13-19 — Roanoke, VA. We haven't hosted a tournament in the Blue Ridge Mountains for more than two decades, but we'll return in style. The host committee has been planning this event for years. Please see the brochure in your registration bag or take one from the regional information table. Site: The historic Hotel Roanoke & Conference Center, (540) 985-5900. Contact: Lynn Rattinger, (540) 776-9116, lynnrattinger@cs.com.
