Goodwill Committee honors the Stengers

The highlight of yesterday's Goodwill Committee meeting was to be a tribute to Charles and Jeanne Stenger. But Jeanne suffered a heart attack last weekend and is now hospitalized. The tribute took place, but only Charley was there to accept it.

Aileen Osofsky, president of the Goodwill Committee and master of ceremonies, first called upon ACBL President George Retek to talk about Charley.

"When it comes to dedication and responsibility, nobody could top Charley," said Retek. "There aren't many like him."

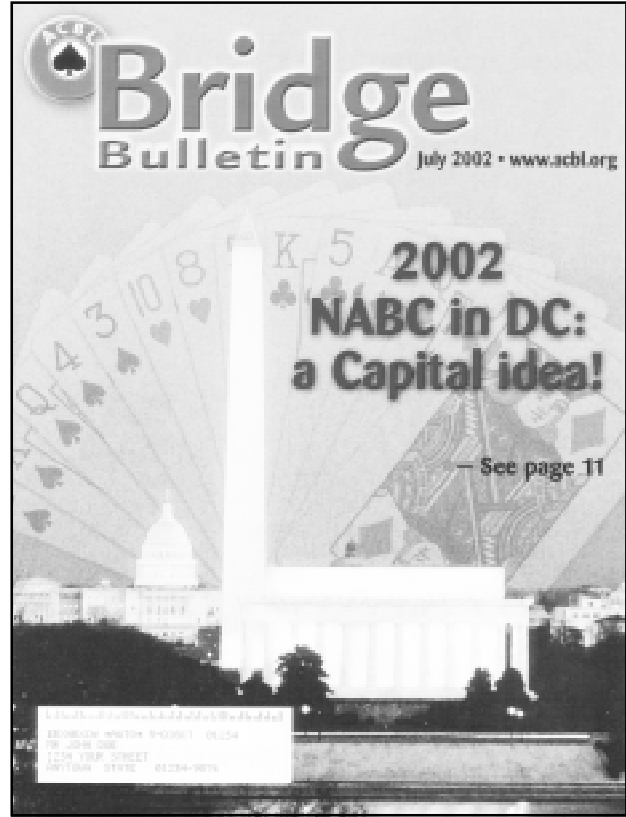

Gail Rust, a close friend of both the Stengers, told how she met Jeanne. "I went to a party and was surprised to see all those bridge players jumping up and down all over the place. Somebody told me they were celebrating Jeanne becoming a Life Master. Back in 1957 that wasn't easy.

"I met Jeanne and asked her what a Life Master was. I told her I had just had two lessons about weak two-bids. She explained about red points and Life Masters, then she told that it's OK to open one-bids as well as two-bids."

Rust pointed out that Charley is one of a set of identical twins. "Can you imagine two Charleys?" she asked.

"I'm speechless," said a highly emotional Stenger. He told about his wife being in the hospital, but the emotion overpowered him and he left the podium as the assembled throng cheered for him.

Makeover: The Bridge Bulletin gets a face lift.

Redesigned Bulletin premiers in January

Members can expect to find something new in their mail starting in January, 2003. The Bridge Bulletin, a digest-sized publication since the early Fifties, will become a full-size magazine beginning next year. The two-color, newsprint format will be replaced by a four-color publication on glossy paper, similar to magazines such as Newsweek or Sports Illustrated.

Brent Manley, executive editor of The Bridge Bulletin, led a team from the editorial and publishing departments of ACBL in a six-month-long redesign effort. A limited number of sample issues of the new magazine was presented at the Washington DC NABC, where the project was overwhelmingly approved by the Board of Directors.

The content of the new magazine will be very similar to the current one. One of the major changes will be the inclusion of Audrey Grant's Play Bridge magazine — a 12-page publication targeted to newer players — in every issue of The Bridge Bulletin. Play Bridge will take the place of the Bridge Bulletin's "New Player" section.

Members will also receive their masterpoint up-

Three upsets in first-round Wagar action

The first round of the Wagar Women's Knockout saw the seventh-, eighth- and ninth-seeded take an early exit. The #7 seed (Marinesa Letizia, Carlyn Steiner, Libby Fernandez, Carol Sanders, Susan Wexler and Margie Gwozdzinsky) lost 158-92 to the squad of Nancy Sachs, Linda Wolber, Diane Travis and Judy Cohn. The #8 seed (Jacqui Mitchell, Amalya Kearsse, Laurie Vogel, Lynne Tarnopol and Gail Greenberg) was shown the door by Jane Segal, Judy Kay, Gloria Rabinowitz and Donna Morgen, 138-111. The #9 seed (Peggy Sutherlin, Karen Allison, Barbara Sion, Suzy Burger, Rhoda Walsh and Gloria Silverman) was ousted 168-91 by the team of Linda Perlman, Mickie Kivel, Mickie Chambers and Wendy Sameroff.

Of the 27 teams that entered the Wagar, 16 remain for today's matches.

Spingold, Day 1: Milner squad bounced

The 103-team field in the Spingold Knockout Teams was pared to 64 for today's action. The first round saw an enormous upset, however, as the star-studded squad captained by Reese Milner failed to advance from their four-way match.

The Milner team (Milner, Sam Lev, Chuck Burger, Ron Smith, Piotr Gawrys and Jacek Pszczola) finished last in its four-team grouping in the afternoon, then lost the evening match against the third-place team from that group.

There were no other major upsets from the first day.

Women's BAM Trophy to honor Marsha Sternberg

Marsha Sternberg was a woman of many talents who was struck down by cancer suddenly last year. Her husband, Jim Sternberg of West Palm Beach FL, is honoring her memory by donating a trophy for the Women's Board-a-Match Teams, an event that takes place at the Fall NABC. The trophy will be known as the Marsha Sternberg Memorial Trophy. Each member of the winning team will receive a replica of the trophy. The Board of Directors has given its approval for the new award.

Marsha was outstanding in many fields — she was a sailing instructor and she was very successful in golf, tennis and of course bridge. She took up the game and joined ACBL in 1990 and became a Life Master in 1997. She won many regional championships. She also was an excellent pianist.

But it was in the publishing business that she really

Parking information

When parking for commuters is available at the Marriott Wardman Park and the Omni Shoreham, the charge is $19 per day. There is 24-hour access but no in-and-out privileges. There is a $5 rebate on weekdays, but there are special conditions for the rebates. Please note that this rebate plan is for commuters only. It is a subsidy underwritten by the local unit for local players.

The rebates cannot be applied to your parking charges. Instead they are in the form of scrip that can be used to buy entries to events at this tournament. When you get your parking ticket, bring it to the Information Desk where someone will stamp the ticket and give you the scrip good for part of your bridge entry fees.

Note that street parking is available in the vicinity of the hotel only on weekends. On weekdays, zone parking permits must be displayed on your vehicle. This is strictly enforced.

Extra parking spaces are available at the University of District of Columbia (UDC) garages for only $8 a day, but there are no in-and-out privileges. A free shuttle bus operates between the garage area and the hotel from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. and from 10:30 p.m. to midnight.

Offsite parking also is available under certain conditions. Anyone using offsite parking must stay at the tournament for a minimum of four days. Those who use the offsite plan are escorted to the North Virginia suburbs and will be driven back to the area when they are ready to leave. For further information contact David Rodney at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel. A shuttle schedule is available at the Information Desk. If you have a return reservation and wish to make a change, it is necessary to let Mr. Rodney know at least 24 hours in advance.

Montreal World Championship Quiz #5

For solution see tomorrow's Daily Bulletin

To heighten awareness of the Montreal World Championships that will take place in August, the organizers are offering a daily problem. There will be a daily drawing among those who turn in the correct answer to the Daily Bulletin office in the Taft Room of the Marriott Wardman Park.

Every day five prizes will be awarded as the result of the drawing. The winners will have their choice of a 1995 or 1996 World Championship book or a 2002 World Championship hat.

Opening lead: ♠9. East wins the ♠A and returns a spade, West playing the 3. Plan the play.

Kantar's answer: The danger is that East will win the first heart and lead a third spade, allowing West to make the ♥J. There is no recourse if West has ♥J 3 2, but at least you can protect against J-x.

Cash the ♦A at trick three, enter dummy with a club and discard both remaining spades on the diamonds. Now lead a heart. If East rises and returns a spade, ruff high and cash the remaining high heart hoping to drop the jack. This play loses if East has ♥A J x and is smart enough to play the ace immediately. You can't have everything.

Restaurant shuttle

There will be a restaurant shuttle daily through Friday departing at 5 p.m. Stops are scheduled at Cleveland Park, UDC, Adams Morgan and Cupont Circle. The return trip is scheduled so that everyone will be back in time for the evening session. Printed schedules are available at the Information Desk.

Naomi Weissenberg is the winner of two nights stay at this Marriott. Nancy Arnold has won dinner for two at Medici's.

Non-material squeeze, part 2

By Barry Rigal

Since the Daily Bulletin has already featured one non-material squeeze, here's a second.

Ian Boyd had his chance in the GNT B event. He blew his opportunity, but in the spirit of true contrition here is his penance for the Daily Bulletin.

Boyd was South. On the auction shown, Boyd got the lead of the ♠9 which he won in hand.

Since West appeared to have five or more spades to the A-K-10-9 and one heart, the clubs might quite reasonably be expected to split. Boyd played for this and went down even though East produced the ♣J 10 on the first two rounds of the suit.

But if instead of cashing all the clubs you take the king and ace then run the diamonds to finish in dummy, West has to keep two clubs and thus either has to let go of his heart (in which case he gets endplayed with either black suit) or to pitch a spade winner. Then declarer simply plays a low heart: East can win and play a spade through, but since the defense has only three spades to cash, declarer takes the last two tricks.

New Life Masters

Reese House of Washington DC became a Life Master in the bracketed knockouts, partnered by Ted Guthrie of Washington. Another of his teammates – Michael Warchol of Hyattsville MD – advanced to Bronze Life Master. His partner was Dick Whittington of Hyattsville.

Two members of the same team won their gold cards together in a knockout match. David Zimmer of Portsmouth VA and Ginne Ryan of Virginia Beach VA both went over the top. Their teammates were Larry Ryan and Beth Reshevsky of Virginia Beach.

Kids! You don't get no respect!

By Barry Rigal

Laurie Kranyak reported that she and her partner were doing dismally in the Life Master Pairs semifinals. When the director came to their table and told them they were about to get fined, it hardly mattered.

Apparently in Laurie's absence, her partner and the opponents had muddled the duplication of a hand. But Laurie was amused when she discovered that it was her son John who had reported the error to the directing staff.

Sharper than a serpent's tooth is the ingratitude of a son.

Triple squeeze without the count

By Alan Truscott

Mark Molson took full advantage when his opponents failed to find the optimum defense on this deal from the Championship Flight of the Grand National Teams. Molson and his teammates won this event.

(1) Lebensohl, asking partner to bid 3♣.

West led a club to East's ace, and East switched to his singleton spade, won in dummy with the king. Molson found out about the diamond situation when he cashed the ♦K. He switched to a heart, and East was surprised to win the trick with the 6. Another club would have been best for the defense at this point, but East actually returned a trump. Molson took his ace and gave up another heart to East. He fired back another trump to dummy's 10, and Molson ruffed a heart. Molson ruffed a club, leaving this position:

Molson led the ♦Q, and what could West do? He couldn't throw a spade – both spades would be good. He couldn't throw a heart – North's 10 would be good. His only hope was to ditch the ♣K. But Molson was ready for that – he led dummy's heart to West's queen, and West had to lead away from his ♠Q-10 to give Molson plus 670 on the board. West had been caught in a triple squeeze without the count.

This was worth 13 IMPs when Eric Rodwell and Jeff Meckstroth made 3♠ at the other table. They were happy with the plus but a little unhappy they didn't get to 5♣.

Junior Team Trials

The United States Junior Team Trials will take place here starting Saturday, July 27 and will continue through Sunday, July 28.

The Sarasota newspaper is interested in publicizing local players who are competing at this tournament. If interested, please call Bill Hutchinson at 941-486-3071.

Georgia Heth and Bob Sievers were runners-up in the Red Ribbon Pairs.

Momentum is great

Prospects weren't bright for Rick Atwater and Chris Pesce, winners of Red Ribbon, on this deal from the first final session. But this was the session where everything went right – they wound up with a 74.78% game, scoring 75 or more on a 90 top on half the boards in the set.

Apparently Pesce's 2♠ bid steered South away from the killing spade lead. Instead South led the ♦5 – queen, king, ace. Pesce found this interesting – he decided South must have led away from the 10. He cashed the ♥A, dropping the jack, and continued the suit, South winning his king.

South led another trump, apparently to make sure declarer couldn't score a spade ruff. Pesce won the ♥10, cashed the ♣Q and crossed to the ♣K. He then led the ♣A, pitching a spade as South ruffed.

South now realized what was happening and led a spade, but it was too late. Pesce won, took a finesse to the ♦9 and ruffed a club. He got back to dummy with the ♦J and got rid of his other losing spade on dummy's fifth club. 86.5 matchpoints out of 90.

After Pesce and Atwater were crowned champions, Pesce said that he was happy that their opponents were so set on self destruction.

Georgia Heth and Bob Sievers, the runners-up, enjoyed this deal from the second final session.

 (2) Shows one key card – 1430 convention.

When Sievers was able to make a two-level response to her opening bid, Heth knew they were in slam territory. She didn't waste any time – she went right to Blackwood. Discovering that her side was off only one key card, and also at the same learning the club situation from the double, she jumped to the heart slam.

Actually the double of 5♣ backfired. North might well have cashed the ♠A without the double, but he followed his partner's instructions and led a club. Heth and Sievers would have earned 72 matchpoints just for getting to the slam, but they got another 16 when they made the overtrick.

Women begin battle for Wagar Trophy

The Wagar Women's Knockout Teams, which enters its second day today – is a battle for the Wagar Trophy, which honors one of the all-time great players.

Wagar of Atlanta (1902-1990), inducted into the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame in 1999, became Life Master #37 in 1943, the fifth woman to earn the ranking. She and Kay Rhodes share one of the most remarkable achievements in ACBL history -- they won the Women's Pairs four consecutive years: 1955, 1956, 1957 and 1958.

Wagar and Rhodes share another record -- one of frustration. They were second in the Women's Teams for seven consecutive years, 1952-1958.

Wagar's impressive record spans three decades and includes wins in women's and open competition. Her open wins include the Reisinger in 1941, the Open Pairs (the forerunner of the Blue Ribbon Pairs) in 1947 and 1948 and the Spingold in 1946 and 1948.

Wagar served on the ACBL Board of Directors from 1960 to 1972 and was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1979. She was non-playing captain of the U.S. World Women's Teams in 1968 and 1972.

Until 1976 the Women's Teams was a four-session event scored by board-a-match. It was contested as a three-session championship until 1972 and again in 1975.

The Women's Teams was held at the Fall NABC until 1963. In 1976 the event became a Women's KO with Swiss qualifying.

This District 20 team was second in the Grand National Teams Flight C: Rohan Coelho, Todd Zimnoch, and brothers Ralph and Maurice Henderson.

Underleader, overachiever

The Grand National Teams Flight C winners from District 21 — Stephen Tu, Steve Chen, Shih-Ming Shih, Paul Cornelius and Rajeev Gupta — put on a convincing show in the event. On this deal from the semifinal round, team captain Tu, playing with partner Chen, delivered a first-rate defense.

Tu, South, led the ♣A against East's 3♥. After seeing the dummy, he underled his ♦A to partner's 10 to get a club ruff. At trick four, Tu again underled the ace to receive a second ruff, thereby defeating the contract by one trick.

At the other table, Rajeev and Shih-Ming reached 4♥ as East-West, but succeeded after the ♣A lead and a spade switch. 12 IMPs to District 21.

The Stengers weren't the only ones honored. Tournament Director Millard Nachtwey told how novice programs became an integral part of Washington area clubs, then sectionals, then Mid-Atlantic tournaments, then North American Championships. "Years ago a very innovative lady came up with a plan to get more people into the bridge world," said Nachtwey. "Edith McMullin finally convinced our bridge club to try a novice program. Of course everybody knew it wouldn't work. Imagine everyone's surprise when we had 20 tables the very first time. Eventually it worked up to 25 or 30 tables.

"Next she went after the people who were in charge of our sectionals. Again nobody thought she would succeed, but she certainly did. And then she got intermediate and novice games to be a regular part of our regionals.

"When she suggested a novice-intermediate program for the 1984 NABC here, she was told she was out of her mind. But you know Edith – she just kept battling until she got the OK. Reasonable turnouts on Saturday and Sunday didn't impress anyone – those were weekend days. But when 40 tables showed up on Monday, Edith had proved her point. Games for intermediates and novices became a must for all future NABCs."

Charity Sack, McMullin's daughter, said there was never a dull moment in her mother's house. "We had to do all the usual household tasks, but we also had to make boards and caddy. We were very much a project-based household."

Sack was inducted into the Goodwill Committee by Nadine Wood, district director for District 6, later in the meeting.

McMullin, visibly emotional, thanked everyone for their backing and good wishes.

Osofsky told of Jim Wood, a long-time Washington enthusiast and worker who was unable to appear because of ill health. "He served three terms as president and was the conscience of the Washington Bridge League," said Osofsky. "He was a maverick but you could always count on him to be helpful. People near and far turned to him because he was a true friend of bridge."

Osofsky also honored Margot Hennings, chairperson of this tournament. When Hennings took the podium, she said, "I've learned the meaning of goodwill -- it means keeping a smile on your face no matter what happens during the tournament."

She told of a couple of strange things she's heard this week. At the Partnership Desk -- "I've lost my wife." "I've read the Club and Diamond books. Can I play?" "I have fewer than 50 points. Exactly how many, you ask. Well, about one and a half."

Among those attending were Goodwill Members of the Year Tom Gardner (1996) and Kay Afdahl (2002). Also present was Richard Freeman who has been a member of the Goodwill Committee for 43 years. Osofsky also introduced Richard Bowling, president of the American Bridge Association. He is the first ABA president to become a member of the Goodwill Committee.

Osofsky thanked the many people who sent in contributions to the Norman Kay Memorial Fund of the Goodwill Committee. "The $3000 received from all over the country will enable us to fulfill Norman's wish that the person selected as GW Member of the Year will receive appropriate transportation – most likely airline – plus one day's on-site housing, food and bridge entries. The money collected to date will hopefully fund our next three recipients."

Goodwill message

How pleasant it is to hear a player call, "Director, please" – instead of a shouted "DIRECTOR!"

Why not extend the same courtesy to our caddies? Don't you think "Caddy, please" has a rather nice sound?

Remember that Washington DC is the first NABC for some of our players – and it's also the first NABC for many of our caddies.

Aileen Osofsky, Chairman
National Goodwill Committee

Knockout mathematics

How do you match up 103 teams in knockout competition to wind up with the manageable number of 64 for the second day?

Here's all you have to do. Give the #1 seed a bye. Next have seeds 2-13 play in four-way matches with two teams from the middle of the seeds and one from the lower end. In each four-way match have two teams face each other for 32 boards. The two winners are through for the day – they've qualified for the next day's play. The two losers battle each other for 32 boards, and the winner advances. That's 48 teams with 36 qualifying.

The remaining 54 play head-to-head matches, setting up 27 more qualifiers.

Add them up – the #1 seed plus 36 from four-way matches plus 27 from head-to-head matches. The total is 64, right?

What about the women where there were 27 teams? How do you reduce the field to 16?

Easy. Give the #1 seed a bye. Seeds #2 and #3 play in four-ways, so six of the eight advance. The remaining 18 teams play head-to-head, for nine qualifiers. That's one plus six plus nine – that's 16, right?

Bridge teachers pick Book of The Year

The American Bridge Teachers' Association awards banquet was held Thursday evening. The prestigious ABTA Book of the Year Award was presented to David Bird and Marc Smith for their Bridge Technique Series. This series of books is a set of short instructional texts for intermediate players. Chairman Ed Marzo, of Agawam MA, presented the award to Ray Lee of Masterpoint Press on behalf of the winners.

Rhoda Cohen, of Baltimore MD, and Pam Schaeffer, of Annapolis MD, were awarded the title of "ABTA Master Teacher" after successfully completing a written and oral exam given by their peers in the membership. Chairman of the Master Teacher Committee, Ed Gentino, congratulated the successful candidates.

This year's ABTA "Applebasket Contest" for the best teaching tip of the year was won by Sandra Lovering of Toronto ON.

A special award was also presented by local Unit 147 President Barb Doran to ABTA member Leslie Shafer for her 10 years of volunteer service as editor of the "Non-Life Master Pointers" column in the Washington Bridge League Bulletin. Shafer also writes a national newsletter for bridge students and is a teacher at the Washington Bridge Center in Silver Spring MD.

Cell phones: turn 'em off

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or the event.

The attitude of the user is important. An immediate shut-off followed by an apology will usually earn only a warning. However, a violation of the intent of the regulation (answering) will usually result in a penalty.

41 years ago today

By Barry Rigal

No, it wasn't that Sergeant Pepper taught the band to play.

41 years ago Jill Levin made her appearance on the front page of the Washington Post.

Naturally she was not featured playing a bridge hand – she was a little young for that. At the time she was 17 days old.

Her parents, Steve Shane and Gail Greenberg, decided on a whim to bring her to a bridge tournament and they parked her under the table in a bassinet. An enterprising reporter snapped her picture and published the resulting photo on the front page of the paper to show what odd people bridge players are.

41 years later Jill is hoping to see her picture on the front page again soon – she and Sue Picus are members of the #1 seeded team in the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams.

Correction and amplification

We were told that the 0-5, 0-20, 0-50 results from Saturday evening did not appear in the Sunday Bulletin. Actually they did, but under the wrong heading. The results are listed under Saturday Evening 49er Pairs. List E is for 0-50, H for 0-20 and G for 0-5.

The results of Saturday's Senior Pairs were listed under a heading of Saturday Afternoon Senior Pairs. The heading should have been Saturday Senior Pairs – it was a two-session event.
