He's a bridge buff(ett)

"I'm here to play a little bridge," says Warren Buffett. An investor, businessman and philanthropist, Buffett is also an avid bridge player. "I play online about 12 hours each week," he says. "When I start playing, I don't want to quit."

Besides playing bridge, while here "I may also take in some shows and do Las-Vegas-type things," Buffett says. "I'm also meeting with Bill Gates."

Gates is another bridge fan, and together they donated money for the promotion of youth bridge. The funds were used to start a program, headed by Sharon Osberg, that explored the best way to advance bridge among young people. Besides directing the program, Osberg is one of Buffett's

Seeds 3 and 6 ousted from Spingold KO

Two of the top-seeded teams – Nos. 3 and 6 – fell in the round of 16 in the Spingold Knockout Teams on Thursday.

The upset victims were squads captained by Lou Ann O'Rourke (No. 3) and Richard Schwartz (No. 6).

O'Rourke fell to the Roy Welland squad (Brian Glubok, Steve Garner, Howard Weinstein, Billy Cohen, Ron Smith). Welland jumped out to a 46-22 lead after one quarter and was never seriously threatened in a 153-120 victory. O'Rourke played with Marc Jacobus, Geoff Hampson, Eric Greco, Giorgio Duboin and Antonio Sementa.

Schwartz was sent to the sidelines by the

California team leads Mixed BAM

Sixty teams qualified for play in today's final of the Chicago Mixed Board-a-Match Teams. Leading the pack are Californians Janet Ju, George Wang and Phil and Nell Schaefer. The leaders scored 18 the first session and followed with 15 in the evening. Average was 13.

Close behind in second place are Dana De Falco, Gabriella Olivieri, Charles Weed, Pat Cayne and Jacqui Mitchell. They had a score of 20.5 in the evening to charge into contention.

This event was first played in 1929 and is one of the oldest ACBL events.

Boyd, Robinson lead Fast Pairs

Peter Boyd and Steve Robinson had two good games to lead going into today's final of the Fast Open Pairs. They scored 63.85% in the first session and followed with 58.84%. Their carryover is 229.72 matchpoints.

Ross Gabel and Mark Itabashi had a 66.26% session and followed with 55.85%. Their carryover is 224.17.

Two other pairs also are in good position. The Canadian pair of Les Fouks and Michael Strebinger are close behind with 221.55 carryover. Jack Bryant and Mark Lair are in fourth place with a 204.30 carryover.

The Fast Pairs event requires players to finish their boards in 11 minutes. It has been contested since 2000.

K. R. Venkataraman and Sunit Chokshi, winners of the Wernher Open Pairs.

Westheimer, Baker in Wagar final

Teams captained by Valerie Westheimer and Lynn Baker will play for the championship today in the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams.

Baker, seeded No. 2, came from 10 IMPs behind going into the final quarter to edge the Cheri Bjerkan squad 144-143. Bjerkan had a 20-IMP lead at halftime.

Baker is playing with Karen McCallum, Lynn Deas, Beth Palmer, Kerri Sanborn and Irina Levitina.

By contrast, Westheimer (Hjordis Eythorsdottir, Marion Michielsen, Meike Wortel) had a much easier time, defeating the Carol Simon team 180-101. Michielsen and Wortel are from the Netherlands. On Wednesday, the Westheimer team took out the No. 1 seed, Phyllis Fireman, with a big rally in the fourth quarter.

Final set in Mini-Spingold II

Teams captained by John Scibelli and Brian Duran will do battle today in the final of the Mini-Spingold II (0-1500) Knockout Teams.

In the semifinals, Scibelli knocked off the Robert Forster squad 135-92. Duran edged Justin Graver 98-95.

The Mini-Spingold I (0-5000) enters the quarterfinal round today. The matchups, by captain, are Warren Cederborg vs. Marv Dauer, Joyce Hampton vs. Fred Willis, Michael Cassell II vs. Karl Hicks and Jim Russell vs. Donald Florida.

On Sept. 8, several changes in the Laws of Contract Bridge will take effect. For an overview of how these laws will affect you, see page 20.

NABC Diary

Touched

Association meeting on Wednesday. She was blown away by a gift from players and directors, who presented her with a card and a check to help with her first year at Arizona State University this fall. She has been caddying at the NABC.

They went west

Earlier this month, Sue Bailey showed up at her bridge club in Manchester, England, and wondered where everyone had gone. Someone told her, "They're in Las Vegas for the big bridge tournament."

As it happens, Bailey – a retired lecturer on information technology – was planning a visit to Las Vegas for pleasure from July 13 to 20. Once she heard about the tournament, she extended her stay so she could play more bridge.

"I've had me name in all the papers," she said, referring to the Daily Bulletins. She was in the DB office gathering several editions so she could prove to her friends that she had been so successful at the NABC.

Brain power

Leslie Williams of Golden CO has been caddying and playing at the NABC – and she contributed the bridge acrostic found on the back page of this edition.

She says she created the first of several acrostics years ago just to exercise her brain. Known to many as LB, the 27-year-old is a student at the Colorado School of Mines, where she is working on a double master's degree – in international political economy of resources and engineering technology management.

She is proud of the bridge acrostic and says, "That quote is very pertinent to bridge."

Gesture appreciated

Michael and Debbie Rosenberg were playing a close match in the Spingold Knockout Teams against the Ladyzhensky team.

The Rosenbergs were playing against Doug Simson and Walter Johnson. There was a failure to Alert by the Rosenbergs that resulted in a poor result for Simson-Johnson. The tournament director called to the table ruled in the Rosenbergs' favor, but Michael didn't agree with the decision, and the teams agreed that the score should be adjusted.

The opponents praised Rosenberg for his ethics in the case.

It ain't over

David Kempe of Los Angeles overheard the following the other day.

After 28 boards of a 56 board match:

"At the half, we're up by 1 IMP."

"Did the opponents concede?"

Registration desk open

Be sure and drop by the Registration Desk to get you gift bag with Ethel's gourmet chocolate and other goodies. Hours are 8 to 10 a.m., 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. and 6 to 7:15 p.m.

Lost and found

A lost and found has been set up in the Daily Bulletin office in Conference Room 2. There are six pairs of glasses, convention cards and other items. The hotel also has a lost and found.

Prize Desk

Jenny Pinto and her staff will be giving out section tops and other prizes at the Prize Desk. It is open from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m., from 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. and before the evening session at 6 p.m. to 7:15. If you are coming from the casino, turn left after exiting the hallway. The desk will be on your left.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Players:

By Marti Ronemus

You've been here in Vegas for a while now, and you've got a grip on things. You know where the restrooms are, and can find your playing area with no trouble. You're starting to feel secure, and are smirking at new arrivals who look like bunnies in the headlights.

Well, don't get too confident, Binky. Things are about to change! Have you seen the new wireless scoring systems yet? Wow!

But before I tell you about them, I want to talk about change in general in the bridge world.

I stumbled into bridge about 18 years ago, and I've come a long way since that first night when I looked at the bulletin board, saw "Swiss Teams" listed, and asked how long the Swiss would be visiting and what language did they speak, Swiss or English?

When Gary and I started, negative doubles were still unusual enough that they were Altered. Can you imagine? Same with transfers. And limit raises. Newcomers today can't even imagine playing without those tools. For some reason, I don't mind changes in bidding. In fact, I enjoy trying out a new convention, but . . .

Technology – I just don't get it. My Faithful Readers have heard me grumble about Blackberries (Blueberries?), iPods (still have no idea what they are) and are aware I organize my life on a flurry of 3x5 cards. Then, along came bidding boxes . . . I know, I know. . .but in my world, they are "technology."

Oh, Lordy, the fuss I made. I hate change. I grumbled about the bidding boxes, saying they were nothing but trouble and resisting them until there was no option. I considered them to be Communist Plots, on a par with fluoride in the water.

Then one day, I thought I heard my Gary open 2♣, and started bidding accordingly. We ended up in some goshawful contract resulting in yet another bottom. Turned out I only thought I heard him say 2♣. It was the man at the table next to us.

That was the day I tried bidding boxes for the first time. Naturally, I loved them from the first minute, and now none of us can imagine playing without them. (I played party bridge at a friend's not long ago, and had to keep asking people to repeat the bidding. No wonder they don't bid more than once or twice!)

Well, it's time for another transition. When I started, you only saw computer ACBLScore at tournaments; we still used travelers and hand-scoring at the club levels. Most of us "old-timers" have recurring nightmares about the hours spent trying to straighten out and factor some boards. We welcomed ACBLScore, although not without a lot of cursing during the learning-curve period. And now it's time for wireless scoring.

This is so great, so user-friendly, so easy, that I actually begged to get it for our club. You can already see it at some tournaments. Look for it. On each table is a gadget about the size of a calculator. You enter your ACBL number at the beginning of the game, and the contract and results after each board. I won't go into any details, but it is foolproof. No more scoring errors! No director errors entering scores. The instant the last score is poked into the gadget, the final scores are done!

There are no wires! The numbers go through the room by magic. They find their way to the base unit, and shazaam! Into the computer. This is the future, and you are in on it at the beginning.

However, in 20 years (or less!) when the next wave of technology hits, you will be the ones remembering the old days. Hah!

In closing, I have a metaphysical question that maybe one of you will answer. All of those numbers are floating through the room, trying to find the base unit. If we are standing in the way, do the numbers go through us or around us? Are we altered in any way by the numbers going through us? If we are particularly large—like myself—are the numbers slowed on their appointed path? Just how does this work? Can two things occupy the same space at the same time?

If you can answer these or any other of my inane questions, please email me. mronemus@comcast.net.

Opening lead: ♠10.

Bidding commentary: As South, you have a maximum vulnerable preempt. As North, you have to decide between responding 3NT, gambling on the spade position, or raising to 4♥, exposing you're A-Q combinations to an immediate attack from West. As it happens, the opponents can only run four spades, so 3NT would have been okay. As East, you have too much not to act over 4♥. Your double is for takeout. As West, even though partner's double is for takeout, with a weak balanced hand, take your chances and pass.

Defensive commentary: As East, cash three spades and exit safely with a heart.

Play commentary: As South, after East exits with a trump, it appears that you have to guess which minor-suit finesse to take, fearing from the bidding that neither is going to work.

However, you have an extra chance. Play the ♦A and ruff a diamond. Return to dummy with a trump and ruff another diamond. If the ♦K appears (it does!), there is no need to take the club finesse. You can discard a club on the ♦Q. If the ♦K does not make a royal appearance, take the club finesse, but don't hold your breath.

When missing two kings and having to decide which finesse to take, check to see if one of the suits includes a singleton (diamonds). If it does, try to ruff out the king of that suit. If that doesn't work, take the finesse in the other suit (clubs).

Al and Connie Etheridge of San Diego are enjoying their visit to Las Vegas. They've played bridge for one week, with two days off for sightseeing. "We've won some gold," said Al. When asked how much, he joked, "Just a little —- enough to fill one tooth."

Heart trouble

On this deal from a regional pairs game, Neil Montague of Swampscott MA found himself in 4♥ despite the fact that his right-hand opponent opened the suit. He needed some help, but he brought the contract home. He was playing with his wife, Brenda.

Montague was delighted when his partner balanced with a double, and he cuebid the opponents' suits twice, hoping to get her to bid a minor. Despite the void in the South hand, 3NT was a good contract, with nine top tricks and good possibilities for 10 tricks.

Making 4♥ was his task, however, after his partner passed the second cuebid. At least he had more trumps than the opponents.

West started with a spade to the 3 and queen. Montague ruffed, cashed three rounds of diamonds, followed by his three top clubs. East ruffed the third round of clubs and played the ♥K. Montague won the ace and played the 13th diamond, ruffing with dummy's 10. East overruffed and could have assured the defeat of the contract by play either of his spades. No matter what Montague did, he would eventually have to lead from the ♥8 6 into East's ♥Q 7.

Instead East played the ♥7. Montague won the ♥8 and conceded only one more trump trick for plus 420 and 9 out of 11 matchpoints. That was one of many good results for the Montagues, who posted 67% in that session and finished second overall in the Daylight Open Pairs.

(1) Fumble with bid box.

Facts: East displayed indecision as to what to bid over 4♠. 6♦ by West made six for a score of East—West 1540 after the ♠A opening lead.

Director's ruling: The UI demonstrably suggested not passing, and pass was determined to be a logical alternative. Therefore, the table result was adjusted to 5♣ doubled by East, down two, and a score of East—West minus 500.

The appeal: These were the agreed facts:

1. South indicated a Stop card warning to West before bidding 4♠ and West hesitated appropriately.
2. East started to pull out a bid in tempo, paused, dropped his bidding cards back in the bidding box, and then bid 5♣.
3. West took a very long time to bid 5♥.
4. South called director when 6♦ was passed to him.

North, South, and West appeared before the committee. West affirmed the facts above. He suggested that he "knew" the opponents had 10 spades between them. He felt that South doubled 5♣ confidently so the only question was which red suit to bid. He was afraid redouble would lead to a misunderstanding.

On questioning West indicated that he and East played occasionally. They play leaping Michaels, and a cuebid shows a one-suiter and asks for stopper. They have no agreement about jump cuebid or a direct 4NT call. He was confident that both partners would interpret a later 4NT as clubs and secondary diamonds.

The decision: Unauthorized information accompanied the 5♣ bid. The UI demonstrably suggested alternative actions to a pass by East, but pass was a logical alternative. Therefore, the committee ruled as the director had, and adjusted the score for both sides to 5♣ doubled by East, down two for a score of East—West minus 500.

Committee members: Doug Doub, chair, Robb Gordon and Ellen Kent

Stiff upper lip

When the auction takes off like a rocket, sometimes you just have to guess what to do. Mike Hancock of Hertfordshire, England, and his partner came out on the right side of the guessing game on this deal from a knockout teams.

Dlr: West ♠ 6
 Vul: Both ♥ A K 10 9 5 4

Fortunately for Hancock's side, East did not lead his partner's suit. Instead, he started with the ♦A. The play was over swiftly. North ruffed the diamond, pulled the one outstanding trump and played on hearts. With the ♥Q J doubleton onside, he didn't even have to guess, claiming for plus 2330 and a massive swing because East-West at the other table were allowed to play 4♠, losing only two heart tricks for plus 650.

You are West in this auction:

Peter Rank offered this problem with the question, "Is that a Lightner double or a you-can't-make-it double?"

Consider your opening lead before reading on.

This was the full deal:

At the table, West started with ♦A, not a success. As you can see, the correct defense is a low heart, allowing East to ruff. An initial club lead and a heart switch would accomplish the same thing: one down.

Larry's dilemma

On this deal from a regional Swiss teams, Larry Cohen found himself in slam with three possible and plausible lines of play. Cohen was playing with David Berkowitz.

Vul: None ♥ Q 10 9 7 6 2

Pass	6♥	All Pass

(1) Splinter: shortness in clubs and good heart support.

(2) Stronger than bidding 4♥ (5♥).

(3) Cuebid showing the ♠A.

West started with the ♣A, ruffed in dummy. Declarer played a round of trumps, finding the suit 1-1. If the opponents' spades were divided 3-2, there would be no problem. In Cohen's mind, if the spades were 4-1 (not unexpected in the context of the auction) there were three possible ways to achieve 12 tricks:

1. Ruff out the minor suits and play on spades, hoping that East holds a singleton 9, 10, jack or queen if the suit lies 4-1.

After stripping out the minors, declarer plays low from hand, playing low from dummy whatever card West plays. If West has ♠Q J 10 9, the contract will fail, but if the holding is another combination of the outstanding spades, you are home. For example, if West holds ♠Q J 10 5 and West splits with the 10, he will be on lead and have to offer a ruff-sluff or play the spade suit to declarer's advantage, eliminating further losers in the suit.

2. Ruff two more clubs, cashing the ♦A and ruffing the low diamond along the way, then play the ♠K and a spade to the ace and, if spades prove to be 4-1, exit dummy with the ♦J, discarding a spade from hand when East covers. East would then have to give a ruff-sluff, allowing Cohen to pitch his other spade loser.

3. Ruff one more club and two diamonds, then cash the ♠A, followed by a spade to the king and, on 4-1 spades, play the ♣Q, pitching a spade from dummy. East would again be forced to concede the 12th trick via a ruff-sluff.

As it happens, any of those lines of play work, so Cohen was pleased when he chose No. 1 and brought the small slam home. The full deal:

Science prevails

On this deal from the NABC+ Fast Open Pairs, Steve Robinson and Peter Boyd had an impressive auction to a grand slam. Although it wasn't the best spot – it could have been defeated – it was good for a cold top.

(1) Game-forcing spade raise.

(2) No diamond control but some extras.

(3) Do you have a club control?

(4) Club control, heart control and two key cards but no trump queen.

As you can see, 7♥ is the top spot – it cannot be defeated, whereas a heart lead from West – almost impossible to find – defeats the spade grand when played by South. 7♠ by North is cold, but that, too, is almost impossible to achieve.

As it was, West did not find the heart lead and 1510 was recorded for 25 out of 25 matchpoints.

Déjà vu, sort of

By Barry Rigal

Bob Jones tells the following story.

Vulnerable against not, he is roped in to play one deal for a missing player at his club.

Picking up a 3=3=3=4 hand with 4 high-card points, he hears 1♦ on his right, 1NT on his left, double from partner. He bids 2♣ and has to play there.

♠ A K 10 4
♥ J 9 2
♦ Q 7 6 5
♣ A 3

♠ J 7 5
♥ 8 6 4
♦ K 9 2
♣ 10 9 8 3

Exercising all his talent, he escapes for two down and minus 200 – the kiss of death. His partner sheepishly apologizes for her action. Bob reassures her and tells her not to worry. He is only due to play the one board. She will keep her minus 200 for the rest of the afternoon.

As the last round is called, Bob gets a phone call. Ora Lowrie's best friend has broken her wrist and needs transport to the hospital. Ora is playing in the duplicate. She hands Bob her hand, telling him the auction has been completed: can he take over?

Of course, it's the same deal! What's the contract? Two hearts! (Don't ask – you don't want to know the bidding.)

Of course, the right action might be to award an average, but Bob figures that anyone who bids this badly deserves a bottom. Playing double dummy, he emerges with six tricks. Well done, but when he opens the traveler, he finds he has achieved an absolute bottom – tied with himself!

favorite bridge partners.

"The plan has been successful," says Osberg. "The first year we had 11 programs that were experiments to see what would work. The programs we established were mostly in schools. Some worked better than others, but in no school was it a mistake. We did find, however, that students who were less than 10 years old were less likely to benefit."

The organization has been taken over by The League, a service-oriented youth group. "They have the resources to scale the program," says Osberg. The League is the umbrella organization, according to Osberg, and the School Bridge League is the arm that advances youth bridge. Their web site is www.schoolbridgeleague.org.

Buffet and Osberg played together yesterday. They scored well in the second session of the Daylight Open Pairs on Thursday. They had a little more than 61% which was good for a section top.

"We are going to play later in the week in a team game with Bill (Gates) and his partner," says Osberg. "We're not sure what event — it's still up in the air."

Answer to Matchmaker, matchbreaker deal from page 20

The opponents have bid 7NT after a bidding misunderstanding and partner presumably has an ace. Your hand is:

♠ 7 3 ♥ 8 6 4 2 ♦ K Q 8 3 ♣ 8 7 3,
and the winning lead is a diamond.
Partner's hand is:
♠ 5 2 ♥ Q J 10 3 ♦ A 10 9 8 6 5 ♣ 2.

If you lead anything except a diamond, the opponents have enough tricks to make 7NT redoubled for a score of 2280 and a 14 IMP loss. If you lead a diamond, you collect 2800 — only a difference of 5080.

My partner, Andy Kaufman of Smyrna DE, found the diamond lead, for a 23 IMP pickup — our teammates bid 6♣ making for plus 920. He drew the inference that partner would be more likely to bid the sandwich NT with long weak diamonds headed by the jack.

Caddy

It's not a recording. It's "live" from Kyle Ruggles, a rookie caddy from Oregon who is also a prodigious flute player.

Kyle just turned 16, but has already won numerous competitions and performed professionally. He took his first flute lesson in fifth grade when he joined the school band, and by sixth grade, he had won his first scholarship. Since then, numerous sponsors have helped Kyle develop his talent.

He now studies with Pam Hughes, who is the daughter of Jackie Mathews, ACBL's tournament director in charge of caddies. Kyle travels every week to Bend OR, 150 miles from his home in Burns, to meet Pam for a two-hour lesson.

Pam, who assists Jackie with caddy management at NABCs, knew Kyle had a grandmother living in Las Vegas, so she suggested that he combine a visit with a caddying job at the NABC. Kyle took the job, which is helping him finance a trip to the National Flute Players convention in New York next year.

Kyle maintains a rigorous practice regimen at home and is trying to stay "in shape" by practicing after his last caddying session every evening. He's rehearsing the Mozart concerto for a professional performance this fall at a music festival in Sun River OR.

Jackie and Pam say Kyle is serious about not only his musical studies, but every endeavor. He studied the caddy handbook front-to-back before reporting for duty, and he's also learning bridge with ACBL's Learn to Play Bridge software.

Kyle tried playing on Bridgebase Online after completing just a couple of the software lessons. The first few times he played, though, he was "booted" from the table by some impatient table hosts who evidently thought he didn't yet know enough about bidding, even for play in the beginner rooms. He's anxious to learn more and play a full game.

Kyle is learning a lot more about the game by working as a caddy. He says he's picked up two important bridge terms so far – "grand slam" and "kibitzer" – and is meeting lots of interesting people.

"Most people have been really nice", Kyle said. "I've made some mistakes and run into a few players who could maybe use an attitude check, but overall, it's been fun."

One final question for the expert: Is the proper term a "flutist" or a "flautist"?

"I'm a flutist," Kyle replied. "I don't play the flaut."

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

A bad break isn't so bad

Leonard Helman and Cam Doner won the Wednesday Afternoon Open Pairs. Doner found a way to overcome a 5-1 trump split in 4♥ doubled on this deal:

Dir: South	♠ A K 9 6
Vul: N—S	♥ 9 8 7
	♣ K J 6 3 2
	♠ J 10 3		♠ Q 7 5 4
	♥ Q J 10 4 3		♥ 2
	♦ J 5		♦ K Q 10 3 2
	♣ Q 9 8		♣ 10 5 4
		♠ 8 2
		♥ A K 6 5
		♦ A 9 8 7 6
		♣ A 7

West	North Helman	East	South Doner
			1NT
Pass	2♣	Pass	2♥
Pass	3♣	Pass	3NT
Pass	4♥	Pass	Pass
Dbl	All Pass

Helman decided to play in the heart fit. He had a singleton diamond and prime values that looked better for suit play.

West led the ♠J won by the ace. Doner played the ♦A and ruffed a diamond in dummy. He then played ♠K and the ♣A K. Because West led the ♠J and followed with the 3, he guessed it was safe to ruff a spade in hand. Declarer led a diamond. West ruffed in with the ♥10, but declarer was able to win 10 tricks now for a score of plus 790. This was 10.95 matchpoints on an 11 top. The pair won the event by 0.23%.

Computer champ determined today

The 'robots' (computer software) play today for the title of World Computer-Bridge Champion. Defending champ Wbridge5 (France) takes on five-time winner Jack (The Netherlands) in today's final.

In the semifinals, Wbridge5 pulled out a narrow win against Shark Bridge, 139—121. Jack overwhelmed Micro Bridge in the other match. Kibitzers are welcome in Conference Room 8 & 9, starting at 10 a.m.

Reward

Donna Rodwell has lost a diamond and sapphire bracelet. She is offering a reward — call room 11-114 to collect it.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an announcement, use the announcement word — such as "transfer" — and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or announcement has been made.

NABC Insider

The Insider has used this space to talk about various people who help to make the NABCs successful. There is a special group of guys who start work several days before any players arrive and don't leave until the last table is stowed on the truck for return to Memphis. They work early in the morning, all day long and late into the night. These guys work behind the scenes to be sure everything is ready for play. They are directors in real life, they are the backbone (and the muscle) of the NABCs. Thank you, Martin, Brian, David and Ken – you are the best.

To bring you late arrivals up to speed: the table count of 24,222 (on page 1) was our goal — breaking the record for the largest NABC ever. It was later determined that this was a steroid-enhanced goal and it became obvious we would not reach it. But, we have continued the countdown, knowing we would fall short. Instead, we are going to settle for the largest NABC of the century. The Insider heard a couple of ladies who said today that they thought this tournament might be as large as the Gatlinberg Regional — rest assured, it will be.

The Insider would like to thank those of you who are starting to leave us for coming and being a part of this extravaganza that has had it all. We're looking forward to seeing each of you again soon, starting in Boston this fall. Thanks for coming.

199er Pairs to win the event by less than half a board.

The winners are Mitch and Terri Miladinovich of Acampo CA. On an average of 132, they scored 162 and 162.5 to edge the runners-up – locals Connie Jones and Mel Fineberg – by 5 matchpoints (top was 11).

The Miladinovichs learned bridge in college – they met at the University of California at Davis – but gave it up for 30 years while they worked and reared their son, who recently graduated from their alma mater.

Mitch runs an insurance brokerage in Lodi, near where they live. Terri is a dietician.

They play pretty basic Standard American, and they play mostly in tournaments because their community does not have a bridge club.

While many husbands and wives have difficulty playing together, the Miladinovichs get along well. "If he says something," Terri said, "I just let it go over my head."

One thing is for sure, having the time to play has revved up their enthusiasm for the game. "We're really into it now," said Mitch.

Second in the National 199er Pairs: Connie Jones and Mel Fineberg.

Goodwill message

Today I might meet a new friend.
I might learn a new play.
I might have a few laughs.
I should have a good day!

A player's guide to the changes in the laws

A new version of the Laws of Duplicate Contract Bridge will take effect in September. Here is what you need to know about the changes.

As a player, you may be asking what impact the changes in the laws have upon you. The answer is, as usual, very little. This is because the changes deal with restoring equity when there has been an irregularity. There have been no changes of the basic rules or laws - e.g., scoring is unchanged and the ranks of the denominations are the same.

One overall change in wording is reflective of the original intent of the laws to "redress damage and not to penalize." To emphasize this intent, the laws now use the word penalty only in reference to procedural and disciplinary penalties. In all other cases, the Laws use the word "rectification."

There was a global attempt to reorganize laws or sections of laws to put the sections of law dealing with a topic in one place. However, the numbering system remains intact - there are still 93 laws and the general topic of each is unaltered.

The changes in Laws 1-15 will not be noticed by ACBL players. Many of the changes are in wording and organization. Of the content changes, most only codify and clarify current ACBL practices.

While Law 16 has been reorganized and reworded, there is only one change affecting ACBL procedures and current practice. Under the revised law, when an opponent has made extraneous or unauthorized information available (e.g., an unmistakable break in tempo - hesitation), an ACBL player may announce that he is reserving his right to call the director later. If an opponent disagrees that unauthorized information might have been conveyed or made available (i.e., believes there was no break in tempo), the director should be called immediately.

In Laws 17-21, again most changes, if any, are in wording and organization. In Law 20, however, some current ACBL practices and procedures have been codified or clarified and should be noted:

- A player may not ask a question (at the appropriate time) solely for partner's benefit.
- If your partner asks a question at his turn to call or play, you may not ask a supplementary question until it is your turn.
- Declarer's first turn to play is from dummy except when accepting an opening lead out of turn.

Law 22 now defines the time between the end of the auction and the end of the auction period as the clarification period. This is the time when questions can be asked before the opening lead is made and faced.

In Laws 23 and 24, there are no changes that affect current application of the laws.

Law 25, Changes of Calls, has been substantially changed by deleting the current "purposeful correction" option. Under the revised law, if a call is deemed unintended (inadvertent), it may be changed if done without pause for thought. This is identical to current law.

The new part is that if the call was not unintended, it stands unless the caller's left-hand opponent accepts an attempt to substitute another call. Law 16D applies to the call that was withdrawn: Knowledge of the withdrawn call is unauthorized for the offender's partner.

Law 26 has no changes that affect current application of the laws.

Under Law 27, which addresses insufficient bids, a player who makes a natural insufficient bid may still make it sufficient at the lowest sufficient level without any bidding restriction on partner.

Law 27 has been amended such that the director may permit an insufficient bid to be corrected, without rectification/penalty (i.e., bidding restriction), by another call that has, in the director's opinion, the same meaning or a more precise meaning. For example: 2NT - Pass - 2♦ (over 1NT this is a transfer to hearts), the 2♦ bid may be corrected to 3♦ without a bidding restriction (rectification) on partner if the 3l bid is also a transfer to hearts. However, part D of Law 27 allows the director to assign an adjusted score if without the insufficient bid the outcome (result) may well have been different and the non-offending side was damaged. Also, the withdrawn 2♦ call is regarded as unauthorized information, but this will rarely matter because the legal 3♦ replacement conveys essentially the same information

One major caution: If you make an insufficient bid and an opponent brings it to the attention of the table, do not do anything until the director arrives. If you change your call prior to the director's arriving, unless the opponent next to call accepts your original insufficient bid, you will be stuck with that call (the changed, sufficient one) and the director will apply the correct section of Law 27 - i.e., if the change requires your partner to pass for the remainder of the auction, that will be the director's rectification. So wait until the director arrives and explains your options before correcting the insufficient bid.

Laws 28-39 have no changes that affect current ACBL application and procedures.

Law 40 has been extensively reworded and reorganized. However, there is little change to current application and practice. There are two items of note:

- The law in the ACBL is now explicit in prohibiting pairs, by prior agreement, to vary their methods dependent upon and following a question asked, response to a question or an irregularity (e.g., after an insufficient bid).
- In the ACBL, a player is permitted to consult his opponent's convention card at his right-hand opponent's turn to call (i.e., after his partner has called). This is permitted because many times it is necessary to know what your left-hand opponent's call means to determine whether to Alert your partner's call or to know what your partner's call means in order to fully explain its meaning.

In Laws 41-63, there are mostly wording and organizational changes that cause no change in current application and practice. It is now specifically stated in Law 54 (with reference to Law 24), however, that an opening lead by declarer or dummy may not be accepted.

Law 64, Procedure after Establishment of a Revoke, has two significant changes.

- There is a return to the fairly simple one- and two-trick penalty (rectification) of the 1973 Laws - i.e., generally, if the revoking player won the trick on which the revoke happened and the offending side won another subsequent trick, the non-offending side gets two tricks. If the revoking player does not win the revoke trick and the revoking side wins some subsequent trick, the non-offending side gets one trick. However, part C requires the director to restore equity on deals where the non-offending side would have won more tricks without the revoke, even after taking into account the additional trick or tricks awarded in accordance with part A of this law.
- When each side has revoked, there is no rectification (penalty) for either revoke - sort of offsetting infractions. However, the director is required, under part C, to adjust the result to that result that was most likely had neither revoke occurred.

The revised law 65 now addresses specifically the matter of drawing attention to the fact that a card has been incorrectly pointed - i.e., indicating that the player's side had won the trick when, in fact, they had lost the trick, or vice versa. While declarer may require that a card incorrectly pointed be corrected at any time, dummy's or either defender's right to do so expires when a lead is made to the next trick (the one immediately after the one on which the card was incorrectly pointed). If done later than that by dummy or a defender, the director may apply Law 16B if he determines that this extraneous information could have affected partner's play.

Laws 66-71 contain for the most part wording and organizational changes that lead to more specificity and clarity. However, in the laws dealing with claims there are some things to note:

- While Law 68 mandates that play cease immediately when a claim is made, Law 70 gives the director the option of using play after a claim as evidence of players' probable plays.
- Law 69D2 now addresses defenders' claims.
- A section of Law 70 gives ACBL the authority to determine an order of play of the remaining cards in a suit when such was not clarified in the statement of a claim. Presently, for example, directors generally rule that declarers, in leading trumps from their hand or dummy, lead from the top down. This will probably be codified by regulation prior to implementation of the Laws.

Laws 72-91 contain a great many wording and organizational changes. In addition, many sections of the 1997 laws have been incorporated into earlier laws in the 2007/8 version. However, none of these introduces any significant changes or different applications or practices.

Law 92, Right to Appeal, has a slight change. Under the present law in a pairs contest, an absent pair member is deemed to concur. In the revised law, both members must actively agree to lodge the appeal. If not, the appeal is not heard.

Law 93 was modified quite a bit in part C, Further Possibilities of Appeal. However, ACBL has already approved legislation about further appeal. That regulation states that a further appeal may be made only on a point of law to and at the discretion of the ACBL Laws Commission or, on an allegation of bias of a committee member or members, to and at the discretion of the ACBL Appeals and Charges Committee. In the latter case, the appellant is required to present evidence that the bias was not known at the time of the hearing.

World Transnational Mixed Teams

You can play in a world championship this fall without having to qualify in a team trials. Just sign up for the World Transnational Mixed Teams Championship, part of the World Mind Sports Games in Beijing, China, starting Oct. 3.

The mixed teams likely will start Oct. 12. The format will depend on the number of entries but probably will be Swiss teams qualifying to a knockout phase (round of 16 or eight) to determine the gold, silver and bronze medalists. The bronze medal will be awarded to the losing semifinalist placed higher in the Swiss rankings.

Teams must consist of two or three mixed pairs playing in partnership.

Teams can be made up of players from different countries, and there is no quota restriction for this exciting and challenging championship.

Players must be members in good standing of their national bridge organization (ACBL, for example) which must, in turn, be a paid-up member of the World Bridge Federation.

Teams should contact their NBOs and request nomination to play in the mixed teams.

NBOs may nominate as many teams as they wish.

ACBL bans electronic devices in national events

The ACBL Board of Directors approved a comprehensive ban on electronic devices for all national level events, but not to regional or Intermediate Newcomer contests:

Electronic devices, excluding health related equipment, capable of sending or receiving communication, including but not limited to, headphones, earphones, cellular phones and minicomputers: (1) shall not be allowed in the playing areas, adjacent hallways, restrooms or accessible break areas; and (2) shall not be used during a session.

These restrictions shall apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, recorders and kibitzers and shall apply throughout any actual playing session or segment.

A violation of this policy shall result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense shall result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team.

Kibitzers violating this policy shall be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

The Summer North American Bridge Championships in Las Vegas will be the first NABC impacted by the new policy.

Participants in the following contests will be reminded not to approach the playing area with a personal electronic device in their possession, even if the device is turned off: all flights of the Grand National Teams, the von Zedtwitz, Bruce and Young Life Master Pairs, the Spingold Knockout Teams, both Mini-Spingolds, the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams, the Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss Teams, the Wernher Open Pairs, the NABC+ Fast Pairs, the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams, the Open Swiss Teams and the National 199er Pairs.

Matchmaker, matchbreaker, make me a lead

By Mike Cassel

During the round of 32 in the 0—5000 Spingold Knockout Teams, the opponents had a bidding mix-up and bid 7NT missing an ace. You are West and you hold:

♠7 3 ♥8 6 4 2 ♦K Q 8 3 ♣8 7 3,

and this was the auction:

West	North	East	South
		Pass	1♣
Pass	1♠	Dbl (1)	4NT
Pass	5♣ (2)	Pass	5♠
Pass	6♠ (3)	Pass	7NT
Pass	Pass	Dbl	Redbl

All Pass

- (1) Could have made a sandwich 1NT bid.
- (2) Shows 0 or 3 key cards in spades.
- (3) Three key cards.

The opponents obviously have had an accident and are off an ace. South realizes there has been a Key Card Blackwood misunderstanding and presses the action with a redouble. What would you lead? North—South have many black-suit winners, and will make the contract if you don't find the winning lead. To increase the pressure, you won't play the next round if you guess wrong.

After you decide, turn to page 5 to see if you'll continue play in this event.

TODAY'S SPONSORSHIP

Ethel's Chocolates

As you register at the Summer NABC here in Las Vegas, you'll be treated to a gourmet bar of Ethel's chocolate. From an experienced chocoholic's view, I promise you it is as good as it gets! You'll also find chocolate silver dollars each day at the tournament . . . again, gourmet goodies from Ethel's, whose "Chocolate Factory" is located in Henderson NV just 10 miles from the Las Vegas Strip. It's the location where all of the Ethel's chocolates – including their Ethel M brand — are manufactured. The company distributes their products mainly via phone and Internet sales, although they operate several retail outlets located in and around Las Vegas and Chicago. Also located at this plant are the famous Ethel M Botanical Cactus Gardens — a great sight seeing break — and a small branch of M&M's World. Ethel M is owned by Mars, Inc. and was named after the mother of Forrest

Mars (hence the "M" in Ethel M).

In 2007, the company made the transition from Ethel M Chocolates to Ethel's Chocolates. The new branding boasts a whole new line of 48 different handmade gourmet chocolates designed by their master chocolatier Jin Caldwell.

We are fortunate to have this unique Las Vegas institution as a sponsor of our NABC, and we're proud to showcase their chocolates throughout the event for your enjoyment. Want seconds? Just win your section (section top in any strat) and you get another bar, along with your winner's prize!
