82nd Fall North American Bridge Championships

It's a Grand Slam!

By Bonnie Bagley and Ken Monzingo, NABC Co-Chairs
A Theater Review

My Fair (Little Old) Lady is a Grand Slam of a Show.

George Bernard Shaw may be whirling in his grave, but members of ACBL-land gave a standing ovation last night to Peter Rank's bridge musical version of Shaw's Pygmalion, which opened last night in the Grand Hyatt's Randle Room.

Four more shows are scheduled during the NABC – tonight, through Tuesday next week. All but the Sunday show will be at 11 p.m. You can watch the show Sunday at 6:45 p.m.

Rank's clever and humorous play tells the story of Eliza Bidlitt's inadvertent march to the top of the ACBL ladder with her expert partner, Henry Huddle.

In the process, Rank explores all aspects of the game we love – from the thrill of winning at a club game to the excitement of a win in the Blue Ribbon Pairs. He even gives us insight into the challenges facing directors in making their rulings "according to the book."

The production is enhanced by the innovative direction of David A. Clark, who deftly explores the divisions we all experience at the bridge table – from masterpoint holdings to the battle of the sexes.

Best of all are the enthusiastic performances of the all-bridge-player-or-bridge-family cast, all non-professional.

Diana Halliday as Eliza Bidlitt magically transforms herself from an English Sheepdog of a Junior player to a beautiful national champion (I Could Have Played All Night).

Nate McCay cleverly embodies the perfect expert attitude as Henry Huddle, who finally gives in to the charms and bridge skills of Eliza (I've Grown Accustomed to Her Bids). Melani Bruce is a hilarious Miss Ruling, the club director (At the Club that I Run) and Sheila Loftus as Alfa Bidlitt appropriates the tipsy and brassy bridge player we've seen once or twice. All this is coupled with an all-singing, all-doubling chorus of players – including three chauvinist male players (Why Can't a Woman Play More Like a Man?).

These elements make for a non-stop, laugh-a-minute hour of fun. It's an NABC event you can't miss!

Opening night for My Fair (Little Old) Lady featured lots of singing and dancing. If you missed the production Friday night, you have four more chances to see it.

Non-Life Master Pairs winners; Stephen Drodge and Dan Emmons

Virginians take Non-LM title

A pair of 18-year-old college students with about 300 masterpoints between them parlayed two big games in the Rufus L. "Skinny" Miles Non-Life Master Pairs and won the event going away.

The 2009 champions are Stephen Drodge of McLean VA and Dan Emmons of Fairfax VA. They scored 64.20% in the first session of the 13-table event and followed it with a 67.15% game in the evening session.

Their average of 65.73% for the two sessions put them well clear of the runners-up, John and Sandra Naber of Victoria BC. Drodge has slightly more than 200 masterpoints. Emmons is just short of 100.

Drodge is a student at Northern Virginia Community College, planning a physics/math major with a minor in computer science. Emmons is attending Cal Tech with a major in math and computer science.

They are not regular partners, but Drodge and Emmons were high school classmates in Annandale VA. With Emmons already in Southern California at school, they made the date to play in San Diego.

At the Fall NABC in Boston last year, Drodge and Andrew Rodriguez won the National 99er Pairs. The Nabers were second in that event.

Becker, Levin lead Nail LM Pairs

R. Jay Becker and Robert Levin scored two solid sessions to take the lead by about a board after two qualifying sessions in the Bobby Nail Life Master Open Pairs. The event concludes today.

Becker, of New York City, and Levin, of Lake Ariel PA, had games of 60% and 62.54% to end the two qualifying sessions 23.56 matchpoints ahead of Doub Doub, West Hartford CT and Adam Wildavsky, New York City. Top was 25.

In third were Steven Cooper, Fort Collins CO, and Linda Lewis Sioux Falls SD, just 3.04 MPs behind.

Winestock and Mancuso lead LM Women's

Sheri Winstock of Las Vegas and Renee Mancuso of Los Angeles scored 65.61% in the afternoon yesterday, and followed with 56.24% at night to lead the qualifiers of the Helen Sobel Smith Life Master Women's Pairs. The percentage translated to a score of 793.95 with 25 being top on a board.

In second place are Tatiana Ponomareva and Victoria Gromova, both of Moscow. Their score is 783.14. Kathy Baum of Memphis TN and Peggy Kaplan of Minnetonka MN are in third place with a score of 763.94.

There were 52 tables in play at the start of play. Twenty-six tables advanced to today's final two sessions.

Breakfast with the stars

Rose Meltzer's "Breakfast with the Stars" still had seating. Players can have breakfast with some of the best-known players in the world and chat and ask questions. The event will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased at the Registration Desk.

Senior KO in round of 32

The Senior Knockout Teams enters the round of 32 today, having eliminated only four teams from the original field of 36. Some teams had byes.

Reese Milner, captain of the team that won the event in 2008, returns but with only one teammate from last year, Matt Granovetter. The rest of his squad is new: Pamela Granovetter, Russ Ekeblad and Ron Rubin.

Goodwill message

Today is Junior Day, the day we celebrate and salute our Junior players.

These players, ages 25 and younger, are the future of the ACBL. Encourage them. Offer to partner or mentor them. You could be playing with tomorrow's superstar.

Aileen Osofsky, Chairman
National Goodwill Committee

Robinson hits 35,000 masterpoint mark

Steve Robinson of Arlington VA has moved past the 35,000 masterpoint plateau. He represented the U.S. in Bermuda Bowl play in Sao Paulo, Brazil, earlier this year. He's won the Vanderbilt KO Teams three times, the Morehead Grand National Teams three times, the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs twice and the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams. He is the treasurer for the Washington Bridge League.

Life Master news

Gerald Holland of Fairbanks AK is the first new Life Master to report in. He needed one gold point and has already won more than five in the Bracketed Knockout. His teammates, of Butte MT, are Patty and Jack Cookson and Linda Young.

If you achieve Life Master or reach a higher masterpoint milestone, drop by the Daily Bulletin office so we can let others know about it. It's located in Betsy A on the second floor.

Great discounts for local restaurants in your tournament schedule guide.

ACBL joins Facebook, Twitter

ACBL members can now discuss their favorite game on Facebook and Twitter, the popular social media web sites. Players can enjoy conversations on these free forums, allowing participants to meet other bridge enthusiasts from around the world, get the inside scoop on bridge news and events, and even leave messages for the ACBL staff.

"This provides a space for players to talk to each other and us," said Vicki Campbell, ACBL's marketing director.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

By Marti Ronemus

Dear New Player:

Yesterday I promised you I would share one of my bridge pet peeves, but first a small digression.

I always thought that as I grew older, I would become one of those nice old ladies with rosy cheeks, a smile for everyone, baking cookies and calling everyone "dearie." You know, one of those nice old darlings everyone loves. Much to my surprise and dismay, it isn't turning out that way.

Instead I'm becoming—oh all right, I'll admit it—a curmudgeon. Every day, my willingness to Suffer Fools Gladly decreases along with the fuse on my temper. Just this afternoon, the only thing that stopped me from giving the idiot who cut me off in the parking lot a piece of my mind was the fear he might have a handgun under the seat. Clerks who can't make change, doctors who keep me waiting, waiting, waiting, misplaced apostrophes on signs ... the list goes on and on, getting longer every day. Eventually, I'm going to turn into one of those old ladies, sitting in a rocker on the porch with a nasty cane and a supply of worthless old beanie babies to throw at neighborhood children, cackling madly.

Meantime, nothing makes me happier than a platform from which I can air my pet peeves. And here it is ... 750 words, all for me, every day. See me smile.

So, my bridge pet peeve, even more annoying than partners who can't remember to bid over my takeout doubles, is card snapping. Yup. The sound of a card snap drives me NUTS. Every time I hear that sound, I mentally reach for the throat of the snapper.

Why? First of all, card snapping is just plain tacky. Picture cigarette-ash-covered card players with a ratty, filthy deck of cards. That's what card snappers look like. Ugh.

Second, it ruins the cards. You'll notice that a lot of cards these days have bar codes on them. That's because they are dealt with a Duplimate dealing machine. Those bar-coded cards are hugely expensive, and when people snap the cards, it bends the corners and the card won't go through the machine.

Third, snapped cards can carry a message: "There, take that!" "Ha! Gotcha!" "How do you like that!" It's a nasty, passive-aggressive thing to do.

Classy players lower their cards to the table and then just let them go. Watch and see if I'm not right. The nicest people just play their cards with style and panache...no snapping from them!

Apparently I'm not the only one bothered by this. Here's an actual e-mail I received recently:

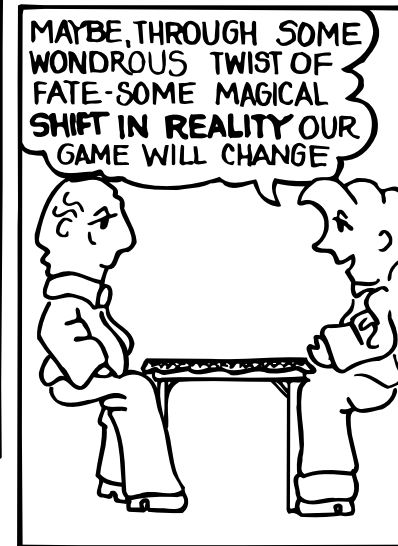

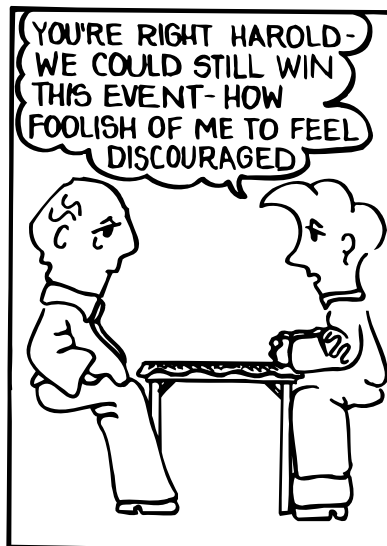

"People with hearing aids (that's me) have a very difficult time with people snapping the cards. It sounds like a shotgun in my ears when they snap the cards. After a couple of hours I get a splitting headache. And I know that I'm not alone in this. I've had many people tell me it bothers them too. I've read in the ACBL Bulletin that it is rude! I guess some people don't read the Bridge Bulletin.

"I made a little sign and put it in the center of the table saying 'Please don't snap your cards.' I needed to call the director three times about it in Houston. One partner told me that everyone does it and if you can't take it, you shouldn't play bridge. Well, I'm going to take her suggestion after the next big tournament in which I'm obligated to play. I quit!"

My gosh. And I thought I got upset about it! Yowza. I really think this gal needs a new hearing aid. Imagine her around a popcorn machine, or a gum-snapper (another of my pet peeves). Wow. At any rate, I am eager for you to be the most desirable, most pleasant, classiest players at the tournament. So stop snapping those cards. Grrrr.

Well, I feel much better having aired one of my peeves.

Okay, here's today's bridge tip. When the opponents are in a partscore contract and you don't have a great lead, try a trump. Why? When the opponents are in game, they usually have the point count and powerful hands. When they are in a partscore, they will frequently need their trumps to ruff losers. A trump lead could keep declarer from ruffing losers in dummy. That's a good thing! You're going to be amazed how often you will set the contract.

Please e-mail me with your pet peeves, bridge questions, life problems or newcomer experiences. I'm one of the few people who actually want to hear them, and as you see, I depend on you for material for these columns. mronemus@comcast.net

All Pass

Opening lead: ♦10.

Bidding commentary: North's passed-hand cuebid shows a hand too strong to raise to 2♥, typically 11-12 support points. A raise to 2♥ is an underbid. A jump to 3♥ is weak (jump raises of overcalls show good trumps but not good hands). The cuebid replaces the jump raise – the best of both worlds.

Defensive commentary: From East's point of view, with the ♦9 in dummy, the lead must be from shortness. If the ♦9 had not been in dummy, the lead could have been from 10-9-x-(x). East goes up with the ♦A and returns the ♦4, suit preference for clubs in case West ruffs.

Play commentary: South should be aware of what is going on. West is now void in diamonds, and when East gets in with the ♥A, he will give West a diamond ruff. That, along with the ♣A, will be four defensive tricks. As declarer, you have an answer. After winning the ♦K at trick two, overtake the ♠K and discard the ♦Q on the ♠Q. A queen for a queen. Now it is safe to lead trumps because there is no longer a threat of a diamond ruff. East can play a diamond, but your heart spots are bigger than any outstanding spots. West is helpless.

When an honor card (♦10)

is led and the next lower card (♦9) is visible, assume the lead is from shortness.

When partner leads from known shortness and you, third hand, win the trick, the card you return in that suit is suit preference in case partner ruffs.

Intermediate-newcomer players come in all ages. These three are students at UCLA. They are Julie Curtis, Bobby Liu and Michael Shindler.

Just like Mr. D. Finesse

By this time, everyone knows about Deep Finesse, the computer program that can tell you how to make or defeat any contract that can be made or defeated, although DF has the advantage of being able to see all the cards.

It is worth noting, therefore, when a human picks the one and only card identified by DF as the killing defense. The deal was played in the World Transnational Open Teams in Sao Paulo, Brazil, earlier this year. The hero was Peter Boyd of USA1.

Boyd led the ♥9, taken in dummy with the ace. Declarer could have made his contract by simply taking the club finesse, cashing the ♣A and exiting with a low diamond. It's not as easy when you can't see all the cards, however, so declarer played on diamonds at trick two, leading the 9 to his king and Boyd's ace.

At this point, there was only one card in Boyd's hand that he could play to defeat 3♠ – and he found it: the ♠Q.

Say Boyd exited with a heart. Declarer ruffs, ruffs a diamond, ruffs a heart and ruffs a diamond, noting Boyd's discard. If Boyd discards a club, declarer ruffs a heart, plays the ♣A and exits with a club or a diamond. Boyd would be down to all trumps and forced to ruff and then lead into the ♠A K 10.

A low spade does not do the job because declarer can take the trick in dummy, take the club finesse, cash the ♣A, ruff a diamond and eventually get South down to the point where he would have to ruff one of his partner's winners and lead into the spade tenace.

After the play of the ♠Q, declarer can win in hand, ruff a diamond, take the club finesse, cash the ♣A and exit with a diamond, but North can win a diamond, cash another and give South a ruff while he still has an out card in hearts. Boyd would still have a trump trick with ♠8 7 3 against declarer's ♠K 10 5.

Plus 100 was a 5-IMP pickup because at the other table, North-South played in 4♥ off two.

Husband and wife Wendy Turk and Chris Champion are two of the volunteers staffing the Prize Desk. Prizes awarded for section tops and first overall. Hours are 8:30 to 10:15 a.m., 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. and 6:15 to 7:20 p.m.

Safety first

On this deal from the Seniors Bowl at the World Bridge Championships in Sao Paulo, Brazil, England's David Price made a 100% correct expert play in the fifth set of his team's semifinal match against Indonesia. The play cost him one trick and could have cost two, but it assured the success of the contract.

 ♠ K Q 9 6
 ♥ A Q 3
 ♦ A 5
 ♣ A 10 8 6

Price was in 4♠ from the North hand on the lead of the ♥5. He guessed well to put in dummy's queen and played a trump to East's ace. East continued with what looks to be the worst card he could possibly have selected, the ♥K. All Price had to do was to win the ace and claim the rest of the tricks, but he called for dummy's 3! East failed to give his partner a ruff, so Price made an overtrick and, with the Indonesians stopping short of game in the other room, that was worth 10 IMPs to England.

But why did Price duck the ♥K? The answer is that he could afford to see the ♥A ruffed out on the third round of the suit but not the second.

Consider the two lines of play if hearts are 4-1. If declarer covers the ♥K with the ace and it is ruffed, a diamond switch establishes a winner for the defense, and that winner can be cashed when declarer concedes a heart to the jack – down one.

But when declarer ducks the ♥K, the defense is powerless. If the heart ruff is not given there is no possibility for a fourth trick. If the defense does take its ruff and switches to a diamond, declarer has time to ruff out the ♥J and that creates a discard for dummy's diamond loser. Again, 10 tricks are secure.

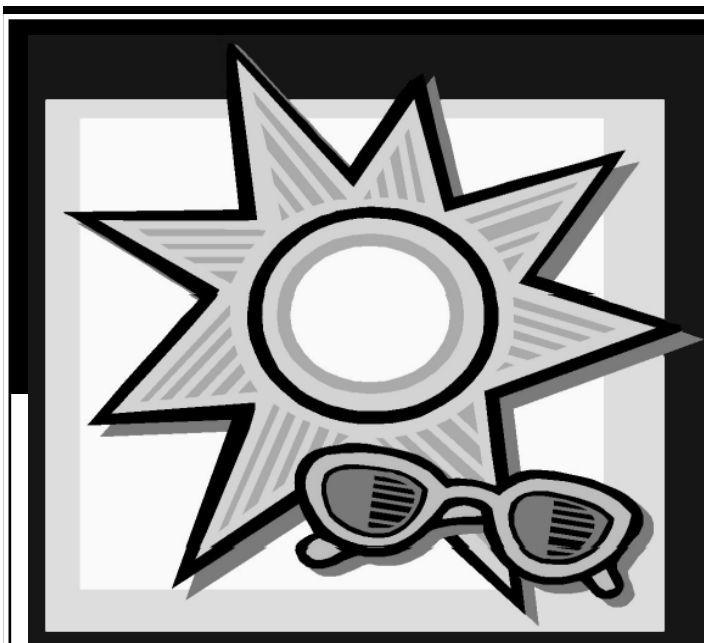

Teachers and club owners are the backbone of the ACBL. They were honored at a reception yesterday. Attending were: ACBL Education Director Julie Greenberg, teacher Dick Morris of Portland OR, ACBL Director of Club and Member Services Carol Robertson and Club Manager Steve Shirey of Fort Worth TX.

Slow Play

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents -- and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time are subject to penalty.

In general, pairs who are rarely late will be warned while pairs who are habitually tardy and/or pay no attention to time limits will be penalized.

Debbie's delight and Welland's wish

By Patrick Jourdain (Wales)

At the World Bridge Championships in Sao Paulo, Brazil, your reporter joined a transnational team with four Brazilians and one American. After two days we were doing well enough to meet a former teammate from my Scottish era, Michael Rosenberg, now of the USA, and his wife, Debbie. I didn't spot any deals worth reporting from our match but heard later of Debbie's fine inference on this deal from the event:

(1) Natural, unbalanced, 9-13 HCP.

Michael Rosenberg's double of 4♦ was intended for penalties but Debbie expected this to be suitable for spades. The opponents can hold their loss to one trick, so it was right to be in 4♠ despite the work required to succeed in that contract.

The defenders led two top diamonds and East signalled for a heart by pitching the ♥3.

West obediently shifted to the ♥5, suggesting three. Debbie needed the spades to be 3-2, and West had 10 red cards, so she placed him with short clubs.

Having drawn this conclusion, Rosenberg won the ♥A and found the fine move of advancing the ♣J. Had this held the trick, she would have drawn two trumps with the ace and king then unblocked clubs and pitched the heart loser on the ♦Q.

Whether East ruffed or not, declarer could ruff one heart and throw the other on the club ace.

In fact, East covered the ♣J, so declarer took the trump ace and queen, set up the clubs via the ruffing finesse and made 11 tricks.

Here is another deal from the World Transnational Open Teams, actually the last of the qualifying Swiss.

Roy Welland wished to make the top eight so as to qualify for the knockouts, but assessed the need for a big swing to do so. This was the deal. Welland was playing with Mike Kamil.

The defense to 2♦ doubled started with the ♥10, which went round to the king. North let the ♣K win in case East had the ♠A, but took the next club to switch to a low spade to the king and ace. Back came a heart to the jack. Welland carefully avoided cashing the heart ace, first leading a trump through. This told Kamil that Welland still had an entry, which had to be the ♠J. The diamond went to the king and ace, and Kamil underled his ♠Q to Welland's jack. Now came the ♥A, on which South pitched a spade, and the fourth round of hearts promoted a fourth trump trick for South for down 800.

Welland's wish was granted. The swing was enough for his team to make the knockouts.

NABC Insider

The Insider stayed up late last night to take in the show of shows here at the San Diego NABC. Like everything else about the tournament, it was a phenomenal performance (see page 1). Peter Rank and David Clark put together a super cast. All the actors hit their marks and the high notes. The crowd loved it and has demanded encore performances. My Fair (Little Old) Lady will return for four more shows. If you didn't make it last night, be sure to catch one of the next four, or, if you were there, come back for an encore of your own. The curtain rises in the Randle Ballroom again tonight following the evening session.

Ask Me Girl has established the second floor landing of the Seaport Tower escalator as her home base. Those of you who are NABC+ players who never left the lobby level yesterday, but failed to qualify for the second day of the LMs can take some solace in knowing they can see her on their way to the regional room. She is in her usual great mood and, so far, still has her voice.

While on the second floor, be sure to visit the vendors, pick up your registration gift and get your Bridge Bucks. The Insider usually spends the first full day of an NABC making excuses for the things that didn't go exactly as planned, but the hotel staff, the Tournament Services guys, the Memphis staff and all the TDs seem to have covered all the bases and the only thing the Insider had to do yesterday was deliver a box of push pins to the Registration Desk message board. As mentioned before, even the S.C. is especially mellow – blue skies, full sections, a luxury suite and a bottle of single malt will do that. Thanks for doing your part by playing some bridge.

Now that most everyone is checked into the hotel, the S.C. is looking for some really good table counts, some fierce competition, a bunch of new Life Masters (and another bottle of single malt). Play well.

Child care available

Child care is available during the Fall NABC from noon to 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. to midnight. Activities include swimming, art and bridge lessons (noon to 12:30 p.m.). There will be a pizza party on Thursday. For more information, contact Donna Compton in Room 631 at the Manchester Grand Hyatt.

Parking

The Manchester Grand Hyatt is offering discounted self-parking for $17 (no in and out). The rate is good for overnight guests of the hotel and drive-in guests. Valet parking is $22.

No Smoking

Per California law, smoking is not allowed within 20 feet (six meters) from an entrance. Please use the designated smoking areas.

Alice Leicht and Joo Hee Janicki help Marvin French (Leicht's husband) register. The desk is open from 8:30 a.m. to 10:15 a.m., 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. and 6:15 p.m. to 7:20 p.m. It's located on the second floor.

W. C. "Cam" Cameron 1931 - 2009

W. C. "Cam" Cameron of Memphis died Nov. 9 of complications from diabetes. He was a Tournament Director in Western Canada and Northwestern U.S., and retired from the staff of the ACBL.

Early in his career, Cameron supplied tournaments in Western Canada. With a trailer attached to his car, he transported tables, boards and other bridge supplies.

At ACBL Headquarters, he did NABC tournament setup. He was also the Special Events Coordinator.

"Cam was a real upbeat guy," said friend and fellow ACBL staffer Jim Lopushinsky. "He will be missed."

Cameron is survived by his wife of 19 years, Dena Cameron. Memorial contributions may be made to the Diabetes Association.

Come to Philadelphia
1st-16th October 2010

Philadelphia, an historic city 1 1/2 hours from New York City and 45 minutes from Atlantic City. For the "World Bridge Series" Championship. Most of the events will be held at the Marriott Hotel Downtown with a few at the Convention Center connected to the Hotel. You will find all the information (dates and schedule of events, entry fees, reservations in partner hotels) on the official websites of the World Bridge Federation www.worldbridge.org and of the USBF www.usbf.org

The order of events: Mixed Pairs; Open Women's and Senior's Teams; Open and Women's Pairs; Mixed Teams. All these events are transnational. The timings - 10:30 and 15:30 - have been chosen to enable participants to have their evenings free. A full 16 Day Regional Schedule will be offered at the same time in the Convention Center.

Nancy Watkins runs the check cashing desk. It is open each day one hour before the afternoon session.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Notice to players who live outside North America

Participation in the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs and the 0-5000 Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs is limited to those ACBL members who have earned a Blue Ribbon qualification (or for those members on the Lifetime Top 100 masterpoint list).

Foreign players must receive a waiver. They should be aware that waivers are granted on a one-time-only basis. Previous waivers can't be used. This is a change from last year.

For waiver information, please see Tournament Director Millard Nachtwey here at the tournament. He may be contacted through the Tournament Headquarters office, and he will also be available at the selling sites.

Entry fees

Players must be ACBL members whose service fees or dues are current in order to compete in any of the following nationally ranked events: Nail Life Master Open Pairs, Smith Life Master Women's Pairs, Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams, Keohane North American Swiss Teams, Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams, Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams and the Senior Knockouts. The entry fees for these contests are $20 per player per session.

Players must also be current ACBL members to play in the Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs, Miles Non-Life Master Pairs or National 99er Pairs. The entry fee is $17 per player per session.

Regional championships are $16 per player per session for ACBL members, $18 for non-members.

All other events are $15 per player per session for ACBL members, $17 for non-members.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

Cell Phones and Electronic Devices: Know the Rules

• If you're playing in a national-level event:

All electronic devices are banned from the playing area.

“Electronic devices, excluding health-related equipment, capable of sending or receiving communication, including but not limited to, headphones, earphones, cellular phones and minicomputers: (1) shall not be allowed in the playing areas, adjacent hallways, restrooms or accessible break areas; and (2) shall not be used during a session.

These restrictions shall apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, recorders and kibitzers and shall apply throughout any actual playing session or segment.

A violation of this policy shall result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense shall result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team.

Kibitzers violating this policy shall be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.”

Participants will be reminded not to approach the playing area with a personal electronic device in their possession, even if the device is turned off.

• If you're playing in a regional or Intermediate-Newcomer event: Turn those phones and pagers off.

“Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or event.”
