Our charity

The Atlanta NABC's official charity is Our Lady of Perpetual Help Home. This is a facility, run by nuns, that provides care for up to 48 incurable cancer patients regardless of race, creed or national origin. Established in 1939, it exists solely from donations large and small from groups and individuals. Anyone who wishes to make a taxdeductible contribution is welcome to send it to: Our Lady of Perpetual Help Home, 760 Pollard Blvd. S.W., Atlanta GA 30315.

Sister Mary Edwin of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Home in Atlanta accepts two checks on Saturday. With her are Bruce Reeve, who represents host District 7 on the ACBL Board of Directors, NABC co-chair Barbara Heller and Beatrice Kemp, charity chair. Both checks were for $5000, one from the ACBL Charity Foundation, the other from District 7. The home, accepts only patients with a diagnosis of incurable or terminal cancer who are unable to pay for adequate nursing care elsewhere. There is no charge to those who use the home's services.

Filming in progress

Stellar Media, in conjunction with Bonesteel Films Inc. and Track3Studio (all of North Carolina), are developing a documentary on the game of bridge. You may see representatives Eric Larson and Serena Dossenko during the tournament. They are looking for unique bridge partnerships to follow for the documentary and will be filming short interviews throughout the weekend.

If you are interested in learning more about the project or how you can help spread bridge to the masses, contact Eric Larson at (828) 777-8459 / www.stellarmediaonline.com or Serena Dossenko at (828) 399-0412 / www.Track3studio.com.

Register for poker and Casino Night

Starting on Thursday, you can have fun and give to a charity at the same time – in the AirTran Charity Texas Hold'em Tournament (Thursday, July 28) and Casino Night (Friday, July 29). Both events are scheduled for the Entertainment Room (Hanover Hall) on the Exhibit Level at the Hyatt.

AirTran has generously made available two round-trip tickets to any place AirTran flies for the first-place prize for the Texas Hold'em Tournament. Second prize is a two-night stay for two at the Hyatt Regency Dallas.

Because space is limited, you must make reservations for the poker tournament and Casino Night at the Information Booth. We would appreciate a cash donation of $20, which will be added to the money given by the 2005 Summer NABC to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Home, a hospice care facility in Atlanta.

This donation will assure your space in the Tournament and/or Casino Night. The AirTran Texas Hold'em Tournament will be a two-night affair. The first night's play will reduce the field to a few tables (depending on the number of players). Those still playing will vie play for the grand prize on Friday, July 29, during Casino Night.

Casino Night will feature craps, blackjack and poker. Gordon Astley will be the emcee. Prizes will be give at the end of the evening.

Correction:

In the semifinal round of the Flight B Grand National Teams, District 21 defeated the team from District 24 (not District 19). Playing on the District 24 team were Bill Begert, Roberto Verthelyi, Kevin Casey and Susan Schnelwar of New York NY.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Use your convention card

By Lynn Berg

Many players seem to resent taking time to fill out a convention card carefully and thoroughly.
While it takes a few minutes to go over a card with partner
and fill it out,
the results make this effort worthwhile.

Standard American is an elastic term—it covers a multitude of styles and approaches. So the easy (lazy) assumption that you and partner both play Standard won't serve you well, for instance, in an auction such as

West	North	East	South
You		Partner
1♠	2♣	3 ^	Pass

What's this? Is the jump raise preemptive? Intermediate? They're both common treatments. If you've filled out a card together, you know the answer to this question.

There's a great pamphlet available from ACBL on filling out the card, but if you don't have time for or access to this information as you get ready to play a tournament session, you should still read all the boxes with your partner.

Remember, some of them won't apply to you.

For instance, if you don't play negative, responsive, or support doubles, let alone Rosenkranz or Snapdragon (slightly more exotic than the others), then that whole box will require no attention from you and your partner.

The standard-issue ACBL convention card has to serve everyone from the beginners who employ few conventions to the gadget-loving experts who will check something in every box and write lots more in besides.

So, you get a great review of your practices with partner, and you avoid misunderstandings by filling out a card together. But that's only half the importance of your convention card.

It's important to you and partner until you have cards in your hands. At that point, the card is not for you: it's illegal to consult it while you're bidding. But it's an essential and required courtesy to the opponents to have your cards filled out accurately and identically.

ACBL regulations say each of you should have a card, and they must agree. It shouldn't matter which way an opponent turns to consult a card. It's unethical to laze along with the card you filled out months ago when it doesn't accurately describe your agreements with this partner.

REMEMBER THAT BRIDGE QUIZ BOOK YOU GAVE HIM?

It's a good idea to review your card from time to time, even with a regular partner. Bidding styles evolve over time, and the card should change as your bidding changes.

Opening lead: ♠A (ace from A-K at trick one in unsupported suits)

Bidding commentary: North's non-forcing jump to 3♥ shows 9-11 revalued points. A response of 2♥ would show 0-8 revalued points. Facing a partner who has not jumped, the doubler assumes about 4 points. When one's partner makes a takeout double, an unbid five-card major is worth two extra points, a six-card major, four. On the minus side, North does not count the ♠J, a secondary honor card in a suit the opponents have bid. North logs in with 11 revalued points.

Defensive commentary: After cashing two spades, East exits with a red card. Given North's jump he should have the *A Q. In addition, a balanced dummy calls for a passive defense.

Play commentary: North strips the hand before tackling clubs, his only loser suit; a must do. Trumps are drawn, the ◆A K Q are cashed, and a low club is led from South. If West plays low, the 8 is played and East wins the ♣9. Now what? A club return goes into the A-Q. A spade return, a ruff-sluff, is no good either. When given a ruff-sluff in an unequal length suit (clubs), ruff in the hand with the long clubs (South) and discard (*Q) from the hand with the shorter clubs (North). If the suit is equally divided, the ruff can usually be taken in either hand.

Further defensive commentary: West wasn't dealt the $10 to admire. West can foil declarer's plan of ducking a club into East by playing the 10. This defense defeats the contract. When a hand has been stripped and a low card is led from weakness towards strength, second hand must often play high with unsupported 10s, jacks and queens to prevent declarer from ducking the trick into partner's hand. It depends upon the number of tricks that are needed in the suit.

Rules for being a good partner

By Marty Bergen

I have always believed that your attitude toward your partner is as important as your technical skill at the game. – Rixi Markus, one of the all-time great players.

Before you sit down to discuss what you are playing, you should start your partnership off on the right note. Half the battle of winning is being a good partner. Always observe the following:

- 1. Do not give lessons unless you are being paid to do so. According to an evening paper, there are only five real authorities on bridge in this country. Odd how often one gets one of them as a partner. Punch (British magazine).
- 2. Never say anything to your partner unless you would want him to say the same to you. If you are unsure whether your partner would want you to say something, don't.
- 3. Never "result" (criticize your partner for a normal action just because it did not work this time).

- 4. Unless your intent is to clear up a misunderstanding, avoid discussing the hand just played. If you cannot resist, be discreet.
- 5. Remember that you and your partner are on the same side.
- 6. Do not forget that your partner wants to win just as much as you do.
- 7. If you feel the urge to be nasty, sarcastic, critical or loud excuse yourself and take a walk.
- 8. When there is time between hands, do not discuss bridge.
- 9. When you want to consult another player about a disaster, ask about your hand, not your partner's.
- 10. Do not ever criticize or embarrass your partner in front of others.
- 11. Remember that bridge is only a card game.

From the annals of "Greed is a terrible thing ..."

By Barry Rigal

Peter Fredin of Sweden is always quick to tell a story about himself. On this deal from the first semi final session of the Life Master Pairs, he turned 100 percent of the matchpoints into zero in one fell swoop.

North led his fourth-highest club to the $\clubsuit9$, queen and ace, and Fredin had a choice of plays. He was only due to make 10 tricks, but he guessed well to lead the $\blacktriangledown9$ from his hand, trying to force an entry to dummy. North gave the matter mature consideration and ducked, so Fredin overtook with the $\blacktriangledown10$ and had reached dummy at no cost.

Now, he ran the ◆Q, which held. He could have cashed out for 11 tricks, but he was sure that hearts were breaking 4-1, so he repeated the diamond finesse. Disaster!

North ruffed the diamond and exited with a club, ruffed by Fredin. Now Fredin was back to ten tricks, and he wanted that eleventh trick back. He ran all his trumps to reach this ending:

Fredin cashed his \triangle A and South unblocked the \triangle Q. Fredin exited with the \triangle J, hoping South held the \triangle K or \triangle 10 and would now have to lead a diamond. In either case, he would be back to 11 tricks.

No luck. North won the $\bigstar K$ and cashed out – down one.

Even worse, Fredin realized that he could have made 12 tricks after he won the ♥10 at trick two. He could have taken the ruffing finesse in clubs, then drawn trumps and given up a diamond to South. That would allow East's club winner to take care of the spade loser.

Don't know much about history?

This is Atlanta's sixth NABC. Previous tournaments were in 1954, 1971, 1977, 1986 and 1995. This, however, is the first Summer NABC.

Revisiting the Fall 1995 NABC in Atlanta

Atlanta last hosted the North American Bridge Championships nearly 10 years ago. There were 10,269 tables in play. Some highlights from 1995:

- Aileen Osofsky of New York and Phoenix, who made "goodwill" a bridge watchword, was selected as the 1996 ACBL Honorary Member.
- Other tidbits: Section top prizes were teeshirts, the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams final was shown on vugraph, and the Travelers Insurance Co. gave away one of the company's red-logo golf umbrellas in daily drawings. Jack Feagin and Barbara Heller (the 2005 co-chairs) were co-chairs in 1995.
- Playing bridge on the Internet was in its infancy. A group called bridgeplayer.com had a booth with demonstrations of this new phenomenon. The ACBL announced its new home on the Internet a web page that members were invited to view online.

Here are some interesting deals from 1995:

Beware of Greeks bearing gifts. That's what the Trojans learned a couple of millennia ago. A couple of modern-day bridge players learned the same lesson in the Life Master Open Pairs first qualifying session.

Look it over. The heart game looks like a leadpipe cinch, doesn't it? How can you possibly go down?

Glenn Lublin led the $\bigstar K$ (!) after considering the bidding. Bjorn Fallenius of course saw the opportunity to get rid of one of his losing diamonds and make an overtrick for a possible top. He won the ace, crossed to the $\bigstar A$ (the fatal move as it turned out) and threw a diamond on the $\bigstar Q$. Then he went after trumps, but Rick Holber held up his ace until the third round.

Then he led a spade, forcing Fallenius to ruff in hand with his last trump. And now there was no entry to dummy to draw the last trump! He did the best he could — he tried to run clubs. But Holber was able to ruff after Fallenius had discarded only one diamond from dummy. So the defense wound up with three diamonds tricks, the trump ace and the ruff — down two.

Now Fallenius knows first-hand how the Trojans felt.

How would you like to pick up a hand with all the aces, all the kings and all the queens? Mike Polowan did exactly that in a Swiss match — a people-dealt hand, mind you — and went minus.

Have you ever held such a hand? Have you ever seen such a hand. Thirty-six high-card points! And it was dealt at a table where players were doing the dealing.

Can you blame Polowan for opening the bidding with 7NT? We can't. In fact, every person we've given the hand to has made the same bid. And 7NT was the bid at the other table as well, so the board was a push. But just imagine getting a minus on a board when you hold 36 HCP!

It's interesting to note that $7 \spadesuit$, $7 \heartsuit$ and $7 \spadesuit$ all are cold. The 3–3 splits in the majors make the major grands possible. And the fall of the $\spadesuit J$ on the first round of diamonds does the trick in diamonds — you can take eight top tricks in the outside suits and get your other five tricks via a crossruff.

Hakan Nilsson and Gunnar Hallberg got to a good slam in the second qualifying session of the Life Master Piars. Then Hallberg found a neat endplay to bring home his slam.

The deal was reported by Bruce Ferguson, who felt that the fine play by Hallberg should be noted. Ferguson led his singleton diamond to the 2, 10 and king. Declarer ruffed a heart, finessed to the ♣J, ruffed another heart and cleared trumps. He cashed three more trumps and cashed the ♥A, leading to this position.

How do you play A–8–6 opposite the singleton queen for two tricks in a grand slam contract? Dave Meyer found the way on this deal from the second semifinal session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

The opening lead was the $\clubsuit 10$ and Meyer could have ended the hand fast by putting in the jack — but he didn't — he won with the ace. He drew trumps in three rounds and led a club to the king. He cashed the top spades, ruffed a club and ran two more trumps. Then on the last trump, South had to keep the $\clubsuit Q$, so he threw a heart — and North had to keep the $\spadesuit Q$, so he too threw a heart. So Meyer led his $\blacktriangledown Q$ to the ace and cashed the $\blacktriangledown 8$ for his 13th trick.

It's no fun to be drilled at the bridge table, but when it happens you might as well make light of it. That was how John Adams of Gaithersburg MD saw it on this deal from the first final session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs. He and Richard Popper of Wilmington DE were playing against Dave Smith then of Raleigh NC and Richard Oshlag of Germantown TN.

Adams, North, opened 1NT and Smith, East soon reached 4♥. Popper led the ♦8, taken by Smith with dummy's ace. After the 1NT opener (15–17), Smith knew where virtually every high card was, so he played the ♥8 to the 10 in his hand. Back in dummy with the ♠K, Smith finessed again in hearts.

The deal was an open book at this point, so Smith claimed, saying he was going to run trumps, leaving the ♣A Q and ◆J in dummy. North would have a choice. If he blanked one of his diamond honors to keep his club guard, he would be thrown in with the diamond to lead into the club tenace at trick 12. If he blanked his *K, Smith would play a club to the ace and concede a diamond trick at the end.

This was obvious to everyone at the table and Adams conceded. Showing that he had a sense of humor, Adams tore one of the pickup slips in half and inserted it in the board on top of Smith's hand. Smith laughed when he pulled out the note, which read, "Bid slam."

Quick as a wink, Oshlag wrote his own note and slipped it into the South slot in the board. Oshlag's message: "Lead clubs."

Indeed, that breaks up the squeeze and holds declarer to 11 tricks.

P.S. The notes didn't stay in the boards.

It was only a 1NT contract, but that's the great thing about duplicate — low-level contracts are just as important as 7NT redoubled. Here Bart Bramley, winner of the Life Master Open Pairs with John Sutherlin, had to find a route to seven tricks. The deal is from the second final session.

After opening a three-card minor, the opener does not mention a four-card major at the one level unless supporting partner. This is Alerted.

South, Doug Doub, led the &Q, which meant the &J was destined to take a trick. North, Jim Krekorian, followed with the 9 as Bramley won the club and led a spade to the king and ace. North returned the &8, South ducked to dummy's jack. From North's play, Bramley knew South had started with five clubs.

Bramley cashed two spades and when North discarded a diamond on the third, Bramley knew South had started with four spades.

Bramley also knew North stared with nine red cards. When Krekorian pitched a diamond, Bramley figured the discard most likely was from this five-card suit. Therefore North's distribution was 2=4=5=2, so South had to have just a singled diamond. Suiting thought to action, he cashed the • A to remove South's out card and got out with a club to South.

After Doub took his four black-suit tricks, he was forced to lead a heart, giving Bramley his seventh trick with the $\forall K$. Bramley's play guaranteed the $\forall K$ as a trick no matter who held the $\forall A$.

In the movie Wall Street, one of the main characters gives a speech which begins with the statement, "Greed is good."

Every matchpoint player knows the temptations of greed — and the pitfalls of giving in to the temptation at the wrong time.

On this deal from the second semifinal session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs, Steve Weinstein (playing with Fred Stewart) showed that he knows when to be greedy — and the right way to go about it.

Stewart and Weinstein make attitude leads, so Stewart led the ♥2 to the queen and king. Declarer attacked diamonds immediately, playing the 2 to the 8. Weinstein's contribution to the trick: the four.

Declarer, with visions of five diamond tricks dancing in his head, played a spade to his ace and continued with the ◆5 to the jack. When Weinstein produced the queen, dummy suddenly looked a lot like the proverbial doornail and declarer finished down three.

Weinstein could have defeated the contract one trick by taking the queen and returning a heart, but he couldn't be sure that plus 100 would be a good score, so he gambled for a better score. He was right. Plus 100 would have been worth 29 out of 51 matchpoints. Plus 300 gave Weinstein and Stewart 47.5.

NABC Sponsors

Throughout the week, you will see a list of sponsors of events – and some background on the companies and individuals who are supporting the tournament.

Art Mathews Stratified Pairs

The Art Mathews Stratified Pairs are 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Sunday, July 24. Art, a longtime Atlanta player, died May 26 at age 56. The local tournament committee, on behalf of his many longtime friends, wished to honor him with a named event. His wife, Carol, put a good deal of work into this tournament even as it became apparent that Art would not be here to enjoy it.

Art's soft heart was hidden beneath his droll, irreverent sense of humor and his competitive nature.

Carol and Art's longtime partner will be playing in today's event. Matchpoints will be gratefully accepted in lieu of flowers.

Cuebids

The Official Encyclopedia of Bridge defines a cuebid as a call made in a suit previously named by the opponents. Cuebids in the context of this article are generally not Alertable. While it's too difficult to compile an exhaustive list of all possible cuebids you might run into at clubs or tournaments, let's take a refresher look at some common examples of direct cuebids.

> RHOYou 1♥ 2♥

If $2 \checkmark$ is some form of takeout (for example, two-suited or just a very strong hand), don't Alert. Only if 2♥ shows hearts must you Alert.

> RHOYou 1 **^

If $2 \blacktriangle$ is takeout, no Alert. Alert only if $2 \blacktriangle$ shows spades.

> RHOYou 1 🚓 2*

Again, an Alert is required only if this shows clubs. This is a little more complicated than the previous examples, however, since the 14 opening can have a variety of meanings depending on what system the opponents are using. Some examples:

If the opponents Announce 1 as "could be short", the 2* bid still requires no Alert unless it shows clubs. (This is also true for the analogous situation where a "short" 1♦ opening is followed by a 2♦ cuebid.)

If the opponents play that 1 could be short or show a strong hand (as in Polish Club systems, for example), the 2* bid needs no Alert unless it shows clubs.

The exception: if 1* is artificial and strong (as in Precision and other "big club" systems), 2. could easily be based on a real suit. Hence, if 2. is natural, don't Alert. If 2* shows anything else, an Alert is required.

More examples:

RHO You

2♦ (majors) 2♥

If 2♦ shows the majors (such as the Flannery convention), the 2♥ "cuebid" requires an Alert only if it shows hearts. Similarly, if you had instead overcalled 24, an Alert is required only if this shows spades.

> RHOYou 2♣ (natural) 3♣

If 2* is Precision-style (natural, showing an opening hand with five or more clubs), the 3. cuebid should be Alerted only if it shows clubs (unlikely as that may be!).

The general rule for direct cuebids, therefore, is this: an Alert is required only when the cuebid is natural and is an offer to play in that strain.

Of course, there are exceptions, such as the previously mentioned case where a direct, natural 2♣ overcall follows a Precision 1♣ opening. Here are some more exceptions, but the pattern is fairly easy to understand:

RHO2* 3♣

2* is artificial and strong. If 3* is natural, no

Alert is necessary. If 3. is anything else, Alert it. You RHO

> 2♦ (majors) 3♦

If 2♦ is Flannery-ish, your 3♦ call doesn't need an Alert if it's natural.

RHO You

2♦ (three-suited) 2♥, 2♠, 3♣, 3♦

If 2♦ is artificial showing any three-suited hand (such as Roman or Mini-Roman), none of the listed calls requires an Alert.

If 2♦ specifically shows short diamonds, however, a direct 3♦ (natural) needs no Alert, but the others $(2 \lor, 2 \land \text{ or } 3 \clubsuit)$ would if they're natural.

The exception to our previous rule, therefore, looks like this: if the opening bid is artificial, a direct cuebid doesn't need an Alert if it's natural.

Finally, here are two auctions that can cause confusion about whether an Alert is needed.

LHOPartner RHO You Pass or

LHOPartner RHO You Pass 1♥ 2♦

While a plurality seems to play both of these auctions as natural ($2 \checkmark$ shows hearts, $2 \checkmark$ shows diamonds), some do indeed play them as showing some kind of two-suited hand. In neither case is an Alert necessary.

LM Pairs for everyone

The Mini-Life Master Pairs, a spinoff of the Mini-Spingold Teams, allows more players to compete in three separate categories.

The von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs – for the Gold Cup – is open to all Life Masters.

The David Bruce LM–5000 Pairs is open to players who have earned LM status and have won up to 5000 masterpoints.

The Sally Young LM-1500 Pair, completed today, was open to players who have earned LM status and have won up to 1500 masterpoints.

The three divisions honor three of ACBL's alltime great players, all members of the ACBL Hall of Fame.

Waldemar von Zedtwitz (1896-1984), ACBL president emeritus, was president of the ACBL in 1948 and of its parent organization, the American Bridge League, in 1932. He was named Honorary Member by the ABL in 1931.

When dissension threatened to break up the ACBL in 1948, the contesting factions agreed to von Zedtwitz as president and chairman with carte blanche power. He is credited with saving the ACBL. In 1949, upon the League's rehabilitation, he immediately returned his carte blanche power to the Board of Directors.

He helped found the World Bridge Federation and played a major role in the formation o the ACBL Charity Foundation.

As a player, von Zedtwitz was noted for his versatility in playing with exponents of different systems. He was one of the first 10 to be named Life Master — he was #4 — when the category was created in 1936.

Von Zedtwitz won many national auction bridge championships and nearly all the contract bridge championships. He and Barbara Brier won the World Mixed Pairs in 1970 when von Zedtwitz was 74 and legally blind.

Like von Zedtwitz, David Bruce (1900–1965) was one of the first 10 to be named Life Master in fact, he was #1. A tremendously successful player in the early Thirties, he was known as a soothing partner but an unsettling opponent. Bruce played with Oswald Jacoby and Howard Schenken on the first of the outstanding teams, the Four Horsemen, captained by P. Hal Sims.

In 1933 with Schenken, Jacoby and Dick Frey (joined shortly afterward by Michael Gottlieb), he organized the Four Aces. This team took the leadership in competition and held it for the next decade.

Unlike von Zedtwitz and Bruce, Sally Young (1906–1970) was not one of the first 10 to be named Life Master. She was, however, Life Master #17 and the first woman to earn the rank. Young earned success in open and women's events — she is the only woman to "three-peat" in the Reisinger. Young and teammates John Crawford, Charles Goren and Charles Solomon won in 1937 and 1938. They added B. Jay Becker to the squad in 1939 and won again.

Young also won the Reisinger in 1947 with teammates Jane Jaeger, Paula Ribner and Kay Rhodes. They remain the only all-women's team to win a major open team event.

Microsoft chairman drops in Microsoft Chairman Bill Gates surprised participants in the Junior Reception Saturday when he dropped in for brief chat.

Gates was grilled by the young players on his system – he told them it's 2/1 – and online play.

He was complimentary of the Bridge Base web site, created by Fred Gitelman, one of Gates's bridge mentors.

Gates also posed for photos with the young players. He was in Atlanta for a Microsoft conference, so he stopped in to the NABC to play some bridge. He has made appearances at other NABCs, usually playing with Sharon Osberg in mixed team events.

Asked about his interest in bridge, Gates told the youngsters, "It's a fun game, and it makes you think."

Before he left the reception – he was playing in a knockout teams - Gates was made an honorary member of the ACBL Goodwill Committee by the Aileen Osofsky, chair of the committee.

Notrump city By Mark Horton

IF you can meet with Triumph and Disaster And treat those two imposters just the same; Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it, And - which is more - you'll be a Man, my son! —Rudyard Kipling

When the game is matchpoints there is a tendency to steer towards notrump. The following three deals from day one of the Von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs represent two disasters and one triumph.

There was a sensational start when the Rabbi Leonard Helman found himself in a position to apply his world famous rule on the very first board he faced.

It was very tempting to bid on with the North cards, but the void in partner's suit was a minus, and in a club contract the lead would be through

West led the ♠8 and the Rabbi overtook the 10 with the king and advanced the $10. When West played low, so did declarer – and the defenders cashed out for two down.

I have been playing with the Rabbi in the NABCs since 1999, and this is the only time he has failed to drop the *K offside!

James Rosenbloom of New York City, playing with Jo Morse, found a good lead on this deal:

(1) Transfer to spades.

3NT was bid on the principle that you might as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb.

East led the ♠4, and the entry situation was such that declarer could not afford the luxury of playing low in case West had the singleton queen. When the ♠J held, declarer ran the ♥J, and East won with the queen. With declarer known to have the A, presumably something in hearts and a club stopper, it should not have been impossible for East to find the switch to the ◆J. When East played a second spade, declarer was in the game. He won with dummy's king, unblocked the ♥10 and played a club. West had to play low, so declarer won and cashed his major-suit winners. That caused West a considerable amount of discomfort, and it was not too difficult for declarer to read the ending, a diamond exit, forcing West to provide the game-going trick when she reduced to A Q and A 10.

Book signings

Five authors will be on hand Monday at 2 p.m. at the ACBL Product Store to autograph their books.

David Berkowitz and Kathie Wei-Sender will sign copies of Precision Today, and Wei Sender and Linda Green will autograph copies of Logical Gold Tips to Winning Bridge.

England's Mark Horton, with several titles, will also be on hand.

Bridge Bulletin Editor Brent Manley will autograph copies of The Everything Bridge Book and the Tao of Bridge.

Sundaes on Sunday

There will be ice cream - make your own sundaes - at 1:45 p.m. today in Hanover Hall.

Monitoring

At this and future North American championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Elahmady, Zia won the Life Master Pairs in 2004

Egyptian expert Walid Elahmady and Pakistani/Londoner/New Yorker Zia Mahmood topped the field in last year's von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs. Their partnership was formed at the last minute. Zia asked Elahmady to play after Zia's team was knocked out of the Championship Flight of the Grand National Teams. It was only the second time the two had played together, the first being in Jamaica in the Eighties.

The play

The Life Master Pairs is a six-session event with two qualifying, two semi-final and two final sessions. It is restricted to Life Masters. At stake is the von Zedtwitz Gold Cup.

In 1930, Waldemar von Zedtwitz donated the Gold Cup, which was presented to the winners of the Life Master Pairs. The first winners: von Zedtwitz and P. Hal Sims.

The trophy was initially contested by master players who had qualified by winning a national championship. It was a four-session event, and the field was limited to 64 players so that a complete movement could be played.

The trophy was originally presented on the basis that three wins by one player would secure him outright possession of the trophy. This feat was achieved by Howard Schenken in 1934. (Schenken won in 1931 and 1933 with David Burnstine and in 1934 with Richard Frey. He also won in 1941 with Merwyn Maier and in 1943 with John Crawford.)

The cup, put back into competition by the donor, was stolen in 1954 while in the possession of John Hubbell, who held the LM Pairs title. The theft followed a television appearance during which Hubbell had exhibited the trophy and given the address of his bridge club where the cup was normally displayed.

The trophy was never recovered and the present cup is an exact replica.

Mary Jane Farell and Marilyn Johnson are the only women's partnership to win the event. Their victory came in 1978.

The record score for the event belongs to S. Garton Churchill and Cecil Head, who won in 1948 scoring 65% as an average for four sessions and 77.4% in a single session.

The winners are Howard Perlman of Franklin MI, Chuck Burger of West Bloomfield MI, Perry Johnson of Bloomfield Hills MI and Michael Zerbini of Clarkston MI. The foursome has been playing weekly rubber-bridge games for more than 20 years, and Perlman and Burger have a 35-year partnership. Burger has placed second in this event three times.

The Johnson team maintained a small lead through three quarters, then posted a 53-15 fourth quarter to win by a total of 154-115.

The District 9 runners-up were Jim Mahaffey of Winter Park FL, Barnet Shenkin of Boca Raton FL, Eric Rodwell of Clearwater Beach FL, Jeff Meckstroth of Tampa FL, Gary Cohler of Miami FL and Michael Seamon of Aventura FL.

GNT Flight A

District 7 (Georgia-South Carolina) maintained their lead through all four quarters to defeat District 24 (New York), 171-125. Foran and Hammond have been playing together for about three years. Foran is a certified public accountant and the father of a six-year-old daughter. Hammond is a stay-at-home dad with three children, ages six, four and two. His six-year-old is already a bridge fan and played at this tournament on Thursday.

Ring in the new year ... in Atlanta

Your NABC hosts couldn't quite handle the traditional Labor Day regional this year, but they vowed to do the next-best thing:

New Year's regional, Dec. 26-Jan. 1, at the Crowne Plaza Ravinia, 770-395-7700. Our popular regional venue is convenient to scores of restaurants and across the street from Perimeter Mall and all of the massive post-Christmas sales. Prime playing times of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. leave Lorg, Leisurdy evenings for a third session of bridge or a great meal and holiday camaraderie. Book early: The $84 bridge rate rooms will sell out. Chairman Jack Feagin, jfeagin2@bellsouth.net, 404-252-9246.

The Mid-Atlantic hosted the ACBL's largest New Year's regional last winter, in Charleston, and we return for New Year's 2007. Then it's to Myttle Beach for New Year's 2008, Charleston for '9 and Myrtle Beach for 2010.

Mid-Atlantic: George and the gators

Here's where to play your first two regionals of 2006

Williamsburg, VA, Jan. 16-22, the Marriott, 50 Kingsmill Road, 757-220-2500. A town steeped in history, and where George Washington slept around. Take a nice midwinter break in a relaxed and pleasant atmosphere. Bridge? It's our usual array of knockouts, events for the Intermediate/Novice crowd, and the Mid-Atlantic's trademark: hospitality. Chairman: Wyatt Mapp, mapppowell@yahoo.com, 757-597-0000. Hilton Head Island SC, Feb. 6-12, Marriott Beach & Golf Resort, 843-686-8400. Our biennial first hint of spring on a semi-tropical island. The Low Country Classic draws the nation's top players, with plenty more to make those brackets and brackets of knockouts. Enjoy the beaches, golf, shopping and dining, but as our hosts always request: Please do not feed the alligators. Co-chairs: Carol Wilson, cjwdw@adelphia.net, 843-681-3083, and Nancy Pruitt, pruittnw@aol.com, 843-671-3556.

Mid-Atlantic bridge can be a beach ...

Join us this fall (after hurricane season) with TWO regionals on the sandy shores of the Atlantic Ocean.

Virginia Beach, VA, Nov. 7-13, Cavalier Hotel, 757-425-8555, honors $81 bridge rate through Oct. 9. In a conference renown for its hospitality, this tournament REALLY goes all-out, including complimentary on-site suppers between sessions several days and an open suite every night. Co-chair: Nancy Cook, nancycook5@cox.net, 757-410-4274.

Myrtle Beach, SC, Dec. 5-11, Marriott Resort at Grande Dunes, 843-449-8880, honors $89 bridge rate through Nov. 3. THE most talked-about tournament of the year. We've been looking for a first-class venue at this popular destination, and we've got it: A brand-new oceanfront hotel. Co-chair: Evelyn Brandon, cbrandon@sc.rr.com, 843-449-3279.
