The Max Factor

November 16-November 26, 2000

Max and Mary Hardy spent most of 1999 on a year-long farewell tour before Max retired as a full-time tournament director in March.

So how is retirement? "We have stayed so busy it's been unreal," says Max.

Nineteen tournaments (including all three North American Championships) with one (Reno) to go -- that's the tally so far. "In a nutshell," says Mary, "we have been busier since he retired than in all our 19 years together."

He's retired only from directing, says Max, who began his directing career in 1961 at Los Angeles Bridge Week -a 10-day marathon that usually drew more than 10,000 tables. In those days, there were no hand records but the boards were generally duplicated in 30-40 minutes.

Those were also the days of hand-scoring and Max was known as FPIW (the "Fastest Pencil in Continued on page 4

Alex: tournament vet

Alex Phillips, attending his first North American Championship, is having a ball: he's playing afternoon, evening and midnight sessions – and he's winning masterpoints: almost 8 so far this tournament.

Alex, 12, has played in 12 sessions since the NABC began and he's played with a variety of partners: "On Thursday in the Charity Game, I played with Ed; on Friday, I played with Elizabeth both sessions. I played with Laura on Saturday and with Jala on Sunday."

North against South in Senior KO final

It's the North against the South in today's final of the Senior Knockout Teams. The Florida team captained by Jim Sternberg of West Palm Beach eliminated the Joe Harris squad with a furious fourth quarter, 165-118. The Northeast team, primarily from New England and captained by Dick Budd of Portland ME, had even a more powerful fourth quarter to come from behind and defeat the team captained by Hamish Bennett, 174-154.

The championship will be decided today when Sternberg faces Budd in a 64-board match.

Special for Toronto: Mini-Spingold event

Editors: Henry Francis and Jody Latham

Players who don't think they're quite ready for the Spingold Knockout Teams but who would like to play in an event like the Spingold are going to have their chance next summer in Toronto. The ACBL Board of Directors will run a mini-Spingold concurrent with the main Spingold at the Summer NABC in Toronto. Since the event will have national rating, players of less than expert ranking will have an opportunity to win a national championship.

The event will be contested in two flights -0-1500 and 0-5000. It will start on the same day as the Spingold and will continue for not more than five days. The conditions of contest, which will be similar to those for the Spingold, will be submitted at the Spring Board meeting for approval. These conditions will include the masterpoint awards. The event will be held for two years, after which time the Board will review it to determine the event's future.

One change from the Spingold – day-long matches will be 56 boards in length instead of 64. If there are any situations where a half-day match is called for, it will be for 28 boards. It is expected that screens will be used in the late rounds.

Alex's bridge adventure began earlier this year when his mom, Deb Phillips, began playing bridge online at their home in North Little Rock AR. "My mom was on the computer a lot, playing some kind of game. I had no idea what was involved and I kept asking her about it."

As a result, Alex was soon enrolled in Easybridge! He's now taken Easybridge! 1, 2 and 3 plus the Club and Diamond Series.

His grandparents died over the summer and his older brother and sister moved away. "Mom made a promise to me that we'd go to every tournament we could."

He likes the partners he's played with in Birmingham but his favorite partner remains Ralph Erwin, whom he met at a Little Rock club. "My partner and I came in first and Ralph and his partner came in bottom – or close to bottom. So Ralph invited me to play with him. He just said if you can't beat them, join them." nal round of the Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Krekorian and Kiefer scored 2102.20 to 2031.51 for Venkatrao Koneru and Hement Lall. Koneru and Lall were the only other pair to top 2000.

Other high qualifiers included James Kraft and Chris Compton, 1994.63; Martin De Bruin and Jay Korobow, 1992.55; Greg Hinze and Larry La Brecque, 1966.41; David Yang and Xiaodong Shi, 1965.75, and Birmingham's own Allen Hawkins Jr. and Jim Foster, 1950.96.

The Blue Ribbon Pairs ranks with the Life Master Pairs as the most prestigious -- and toughest -pair events on the ACBL calendar. Like the LM Pairs, the Blue Ribbon Pairs is played over three days and includes two qualifying, two semifinal and two final sessions.

The event was renamed the Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs in 1999 to honor one of bridge's alltime great players, writers, administrators and the authority on the laws of the game.

Polisner resigns to take WBF post

Jeff Polisner of Lafayette CA, ACBL Counsel since 1985, recently resigned this post to become the counsel for the World Bridge Federation, replacing the late Bob House. Peter Rank of Los Angeles will succeed Polisner as League Counsel.

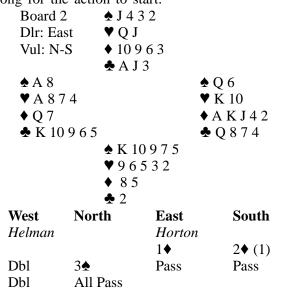

This is Polisner's second stint as WBF Counsel – he also served in 1993 and 1994 during the presidency of Bobby Wolff.

A civil litigator primarily, Polisner has a strong background in bridge. He has finished second in two North American championship events and is a Diamond Life Master. He has represented the United States in world play on three occasions.

Charity begins at Home

Monday night featured the ACBL-Wide Charity Game. Mark Horton, editor of the widely read Bridge magazine, arrived at his hotel at 6 p.m., having flown over from London, England. The first person he met in the lobby was his partner, Rabbi Leonard Helman, who told him they were going to play in this popular event. It did not take long for the action to start.

You have to take risks at matchpoints, but South's intervention on this deal was way over the top. East cashed two top diamonds and switched to the $\forall K$ and a heart. West won and played back a heart, ruffed by the jack and overruffed by the queen. East returned the $\blacklozenge J$, and declarer tried ruffing with the 10. East won with the $\blacklozenge A$ and completed a hot defense by returning his last heart, ensuring a trick for East's $\blacklozenge 6$. Plus 500 was good for all the points.

It was not long before the defenders got another chance to get in a few ruffs.

Having just written the commentary for a Europewide simultaneous event, Mark rated the ACBL deals as much more interesting, with several challenging

South led the \bigstar 7, so declarer won in hand and played a club to the 9 and king. North switched to a heart, taken by South's king as declarer unblocked the queen. South now tried the \blacklozenge Q, but that was far too revealing. Given South's initial pass, it pinpointed the location of the \clubsuit A. Declarer won in hand, passed the \bigstar 10 and ducked a club to North's ace. Ten tricks and +180.

in Open events

As pointed out in the front-page article in Daily Bulletin #4, women are definitely making their mark in open events. A few omissions have been called to our attention.

First of all, there is Edith Rosenkranz whose team won the Open Swiss Teams in Reno. This was a most interesting development because the runnerup team was captained by her husband George.

Several women other than those listed also won events back in the old days. These include Jan Martel, North American Open Pairs 1988; Dorothy Truscott, Life Master Pairs 1964; Barbara Rappaport (now Haberman), Life Master Pairs 1971; Mary Jane Farell and Marilyn Johnson, Life Master Pairs 1978; and Helen Portugal, Life Master Pairs 1960.

Bizarre bidding

There have been many bizarre happenings in bridge tournaments, of course, but the bidding on this round from the first qualifying session of the Open Board-a-Match Teams must rank up there with the most bizarre. This was the first hand:

Note that North rebid his six-card heart suit even though he had a highly biddable spade suit. Did he make a mistake? No! He knew this was a likely slam hand and he wanted to know about the $\forall K$ when he asked for key cards. So he led partner to believe that hearts was the agreed suit, and it's obvious that he made his point – partner raised to game with a singleton. The 5 \blacklozenge response showed that either the $\clubsuit A$ or the $\forall K$ was missing, so North knew he had to stop at the six level. He also knew his partner had some kind of holding in spades for his 2NT bid, so he brought spades into the picture for the first time at the six level. With nothing breaking badly, declarer brought this slam home easily.

On the very next hand, West doubled 4♠ for penalties, so North-South ran – all the way to 7NT! Look at that auction

Bart Bramley brought these hands to us – both bidding sequences took place against his teammates at the other table. 7NT looks as if maybe North-South went a bit too far, but North brought the contract home on a difficult squeeze. The opening spade lead went to queen-king-ace. A heart finesse to the jack worked, and declarer began running all those diamonds. This put terrific pressure on West. This was the position with two diamonds left to play:

Keep me off lead, please!

By Barry Rigal

There was no doubt in my mind as to the wildest deal of the second qualifying session in the Life Master Open Pairs. Board 5 produced a remarkable spread of results, ranging from North-South collecting plus 850 at 5♠ doubled to – well, you'll see.

♠ A K 10 6 5 2 Dlr: North Vul: N-S ♥ 6 ♦ 8 6 4 2 뢒 K 5 ▲ J 8 ___ ♥Q4 ♥ K J 10 9 8 7 3 2 • A K J 3 ♦ 10 7 ♣ J 10 9 8 6 4 3 ♣ 7 ♦ Q 9 7 4 3 ♥ À 5 ♦Q95 ♣ A Q 2

If you look at the full deal, you will see that East-West can cash their three winners against $5\clubsuit$ via the \blacklozenge A K and a diamond ruff. Life is far more complex, however, for North-South on defense to hearts which probably made it a good thing that I elected to declare the board and not defend against Diana Lowell and Doug Hardler who timed the auction very subtly. It went

West	North	East	South
	1♠	3♣	4 🙅
Pass	4♠	Pass	Pass
5♥	5♠	All Pass

As North, I knew I was not going to find a good opening lead – after all, since East had not shown a heart fit, would you expect dummy to produce four tricks for play in hearts? On a heart lead, I can set $5 \clubsuit$ at least a couple of tricks.

Knowing my own limitations, however, I thought I was wise to bid $5 \clubsuit$ over $5 \heartsuit -$ down one on the diamond ruff.

Was that good enough to beat average? Just by a bit – but it was nowhere near as good as the result achieved by Eric Rodwell and Paul Lewis.

They sacrificed in $6 \lor$ over $5 \bigstar$ and North-South were salivating at the idea of defending this. They doubled and led a spade. Declarer ruffed, cashed the $\blacklozenge A$ K, ruffed a diamond, ruffed a spade and led the $\blacklozenge J$.

South ruffed – with the $\forall A$! Declarer pitched his losing club and claimed 12 tricks for plus 1210.

declarer ditched a heart and East let go of a club. On the last diamond, West's discard didn't matter but he actually got rid of his last heart. Declarer also let go of his last heart, and East had to make a discard. If he pitched a heart, dummy had two heart tricks. If he pitched a club, declarer would cash his \blacktriangleleft A, forcing West to bare his \clubsuit K or sluff his top spade. Either way declarer had all the tricks.

Can the grand slam be beaten? Yes. West has to abandon any hope of helping partner in clubs – he must hold onto his Ψ 9-8. Let's try it.

Once again dummy leads the next-to-last diamond, and both West and East throw a club as North sluffs a heart. On the last diamond, West tosses his ♣K – and now it's declarer who's squeezed. He can pitch his spade, but East has a safe discard of the ♥10. The ♥A still drops the king, but West still has the ♥9 to cover dummy's deuce. And by holding onto the ♣Q-10, East prevents declarer from taking two club tricks.

District 10 – its birth and colorful history

District 10 was created by the ACBL Board of Directors in 1956 when they voted to increase the number of districts from 13 to 23.

The new district, previously a part of District 9 and stretching from El Paso to Memphis, included units in Arkansas, Shreveport, (West) Tennessee, Baton Rouge, New Orleans, Mississippi and the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Alabama and middle Tennessee (Nashville) remained part of what was then District 8.

Louise Durham of Durant MS was elected in September 1956 to serve a three-year term. She was reelected in 1959 for a second three-year term.

Durham, the first Life Master in Mississippi, was cochairman of the National Goodwill Committee and a past president of Unit 138 (Mississippi Bridge Association). She also served as chairman of the planning committee for the 1960 Spring Nationals, held in Jackson MS. She was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1974.

Terry Teague of Birmingham (1904-1987) was District Director for District 8 from 1957 to 1960. Teague, an insurance agent, won several regional events – including four with his wife, Harriet, as his partner.

Teague was succeeded as District Director by Margaret Wagar of Atlanta (1902-1990), one of the great American women players of all time. Wagar's impressive tournament record spans three decades and includes 25 wins in women's and open competition – including a win in the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams in 1941 and wins in the Spingold in 1946 and 1948.

Meanwhile, back in District 10, Julius Rosenblum of New Orleans (1906-1978) was elected as district director in 1962. Rosenblum, who had served as ACBL president in 1951, had been a "permanent director" and a member of the executive committee of the ACBL Board.

Rosenblum became secretary-treasurer of the World Bridge Federation in 1966 and a voting member of the WBF Executive Committee in 1968 when he was appointed to replace Waldemar von Zedtwitz, who retired. He was elected WBF president in 1970, 1972 and 1974 -- the first person to serve three terms. He was elected to the WBF Committee of Honor in 1974.

He was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1970. The International Bridge Press Association named him "Personality of the Year" in 1974.

District 10 underwent re-districting again in 1965 with Alabama and middle Tennessee (Nashville) becoming a part of District 10, effective Dec. 31, 1965.

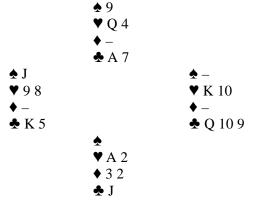

Durham won a third three-year term in 1965.

She was succeeded by Nate Silverstein of Memphis (1909-1992). Silverstein was a devoted promoter of bridge for more than 30 years. He was largely responsible for the move to ACBL Headquarters from Grenwich CT to Memphis.

He was a tireless worker for charity and because of his drive, Unit 144 (West Tennessee) had the highest donations per capita for many years.

Silverstein served one term and was succeeded by Louis S. Gurvich of Metairie LA, who served three three-year terms. Gurvich (1921-1986) had been chairman of the Board of Governors from 1968 to 1971.

He was ACBL president in 1977 and chairman of the Birmingham where?

The team Julian Wernick, Liam Johnstone and Jon Downing of Birmingham and Simon Wernick of Hants, which has done well in several knockout events, didn't seem unusual at all at first. What's so unusual about a team being from Birmingham when the tournament is in Birmingham? Well, what's unusual is that this team is from Birmingham, ENGLAND! Board in 1978. He was general chairman of the 1978 World Olympiad in New Orleans, a member of the WBF executive committee and co-chairman of that committee in 1978.

Gurvich did not seek re-election in 1980 and was succeeded by Thomas K. Sanders of Nashville. Sanders, who has represented the United States in international competition, was non-playing captain of the 1981 Bermuda Bowl champions. He is a WBF World Master and an ACBL Grand Life Master.

Sanders served as ACBL president in 1986 and as chairman of the Board of Directors in 1987. He was instrumental in getting the ACBL Educational Foundation started, served as its first president (1987-1990) and was elected President Emeritus in 1990.

Sanders did not seek re-election in 1989 and was succeeded by Chuck Wilkinson of Jackson MS, who was re-elected in 1992, 1995 and 1998.

Wilkinson, an investment adviser, was the founder and editor of the Jackson Bridge Club newsletter. He is a past president of District 10 and Unit 138 (Mississippi Bridge Association).

the West"). He recalls the 1969 NABC in Los Angeles when he and another director were given two sheets to matchpoint and score. "We both put down our red (matchpointing) pencils about the same time and picked up the black (scoring) pencils. We finished almost in a dead heat."

Curious about who could keep up with him, Hardy inquired as to the identity of the other scorer: Henry Francis, then a tournament director from Massachusetts and now Editor Emeritus of the Bridge Bulletin.

Hardy also remembers a later tournament when he won a scoring duel with a young New York director, one Sol Weinstein. "I saw Solly later," says Francis, "and his chin was dragging. Who was that guy, he wanted to know? That guy who beat me?

"When I told him that Max was known as the fastest pencil in the West, he cheered up considerably." Some 30 years later, the one-time FPIW has put down his pencil for "more time to teach, to write and to play."

He's just finished the first of a two-volume set: Standard Bridge Bidding for the 21st Century. "This volume," he says, "is for people who want to learn to play 2/1 – the basics in depth." The book is endorsed by former and current world champions John Swanson, Jeff Meckstroth, Mike Lawrence and Eddie Kantar.

Volume two, Advanced Bridge Bidding for the 21st Century – "the bells and whistles," according to Mary - is in the works. It's already won endorsement from Meckstroth, Grant Baze, Marty Bergen and Mike Passell. Also in the works is a column, "Max's Maxisms," that will debut in the Bridge Bulletin in the January 2001 issue.

The idea behind the writing is to "travel less and teach more," says Max. The preferred teaching method is a five-day, eight hours per day course offered at the Hardys' home in Las Vegas. The 40-hour course has three features: all lectures are taped and students receive a copy; students are never dummy but either declare or defend each deal; "bid 'em ups" where 12 low cards are removed and students bid with a 40-card deck.

One of their earliest students, Mary Keeler, described the course: "It's as though I went to driving school and came away with the keys to a Porsche."

The Hardys have had about 150 students to date and hope to expand the program. That fits in with their plans. "Being together is the most important thing in our lives," says Max. "We hate it when we're apart."

A husband and wife earned their gold cards together in the Knockout Teams. ELIZABETH and BILL DANI of Coronado CA became Life Masters together in the Stratified Senior Choice Pairs.

It happened again! KATHLEEN TELKAMP made the grade when her team advanced to the semifinal of the Charity Knockout Teams. A day later RICHARD TELKAMP joined her in the Life Master ranks when their team made it to the Charity KO finals.

CHARLES BAUKNIGHT of Anderson SC became a Life Master in the Tuesday night Knockouts. His teammates were Dale Soik, Gigi Blackwell and Reese Blackwell.

RACHEL BETHE of Alexandria VA went over the top in the Knockouts also. Her partner was Ken Kaufman of Derwood MD, and her teammates were Bob Schwenk of Silver Spring MD and Mark Steele of Livingston TX.

CAROL DAVNE of Boca Raton FL and Linville NC made the grade in the Steelworkers Knockouts, Bracket 6. On her team were George Pledger, Shinming Shih and Gemma Min.

Jack Wachter

Jack Wachter of Deland FL, who played most of his bridge in the Wisconsin-Illinois area, died recently just three days before his 81st birthday.

Tournament Director Max Hardy called him "The Scourge of the Midwest" because he was a winner in that area so often. He was only 20 points shy of 8000 masterpoints when he died.

He ran a beauty supply business in Milwaukee for many years until he retired. He played very little over the past 10 years because of his illness.

Tournament appeals

In order to keep the bridge public informed of appeals results in a timely fashion the NABC Daily Bulletin staff publishes write-ups. Every effort is made to ensure that these reports are accurate and complete. However, before they are published in the NABC Appeals Casebook revisions may be made.

(1) Break in tempo

The Facts: $4 \triangleq$ made four, +620 for N/S. The opening lead was the $\forall Q$. The Director was called to the table after the $3 \triangleq$ bid. E/W objected to South's long hesitations before opening, bidding $3 \triangleq$ and bidding $4 \clubsuit$. South said the pause before opening $1 \clubsuit$ was to allow the others time to sort their hands. The Director ruled that the 3NT bid was not suggested by the break in tempo, but by the strength South had shown with his rebid. The Director allowed the table result to stand (Law 16).

The Appeal: E/W appealed the Director's ruling. There had been a slow initial pass by South. (This was the first round.) E/W claimed that the slow pass and slow 3♠ bid in combination implied extras, making 3NT a more attractive action. N/S said that the slow 3♠ bid could have been based on all sorts of reasons. Extras was one possibility but not the only (or obvious) reason. Just for clarification North's 3NT was not slow. There was no suggestion by E/W that South's 4♠ bid was based on an out-of-tempo action by North.

The Committee Decision: The Committee quickly established that the Director had correctly ruled that the initial break before $1 \triangleq$ was irrelevant and that the slow $3 \triangleq$ bid pointed in no direction. The Committee members were all in agreement that the 3NT bid was not made more attractive by the slow $3 \triangleq$ bid. To their minds it was unattractive whatever the tempo of the $3 \triangleq$ bid. Given that the Director had made the correct ruling and that E/W had brought no new facts to the hearing, an appeal without merit warning was issued to East and West.

Appeals Case 2

Subject: Tempo Event: Life Master Open Pairs, 18 November, First Final Session Bd: 14 Dave Treadwell Dlr: East ▲ A983 Vul: None ♥ J83 ♦ 952 🕭 A97 Perry Johnson Jeff Meckstroth ▲ 105 ♠ K ¥ ----♥ K10742 ♦ AQJ8 ♦ K764 ♣ KQJ10852 ♣ 643 Bob Schwartz ◆ QJ7642 ♥ AQ965 ♦ 103 ÷ West North South East 2♦(1) Pass 3 (2) 3♠ Pass Pass 4 🙅 Pass(3) Pass 4♥ Dbl Pass 4 Pass Dbl All Pass (1) Alerted; weak two-bid in either major (2) Alerted; non-forcing (3) Break in tempo

The Facts: 4♠ doubled made four, +590 for N/S. North hesitated before passing 4♣ and South called the Director to note the hesitation. The Director ruled that unauthorized information was available to South and that pass was a logical alternative. The contract was changed to 4♣ made five, +150 for E/W.

The Appeal: N/S appealed the Director's ruling. South knew North had taken extra time. Some of that time was absorbed by North reading the Defense to Artificial Conventions booklet, but North also took some 10-15 seconds to call after reading it. South said he needed to find as little as Kxxx in either major and a doubleton in the other to go down one against a making 4. South also stated (in screening) that he thought he could expect even more in his partner's hand from the authorized information of the auction itself. West believed that bidding was dangerous since he could easily have strength and length in one major, his partner in the other. He further stated that in his opinion slow passes almost always were marginal raises and not close penalty doubles.

The Committee Decision: The Committee focused on two issues: whether unauthorized information from the slow pass demonstrably suggested that bidding would be more successful than passing; and whether pass was a logical alternative to bidding. In discussing whether there was message content in North's hesitation, the Committee agreed that North might have been debating between pass and double or between pass and bidding. The Committee then focused on what holding would cause an out-of-tempo action and concluded that this would almost always be "hard values," e.g. aces and kings, not queens and jacks. From South's perspective, aces and kings rated to be good and transferable to offense. Thus, the conclusion was that the slow pass did suggest that North would have useful values for offense, even if the alternative considered was double. The Committee also concluded that had North passed in tempo; a pass by South was a logical alternative. The Committee then considered whether East had "failed to continue to play bridge" when he did not bid $5\clubsuit$ over $4\clubsuit$. They decided that his action did not constitute such a failure.

The ACBL Charity Foundation has given each member of the ACBL Board of Directors $1,000 to be disbursed to a charity in their own district. District 2 Director Jonathan Steinberg recently presented a $500 check to his sister, Ivy Steinberg, executive director of the Cancer Research Society Inc. of Montreal. The Society funds basic research throughout Canada and "we appreciate that the ACBL has chosen to donate to a cause that affects so many bridge players and their families," said Ivy Steinberg. Jonathan Steinberg donated the remaining $500 to the ACT (AIDS Committee of Toronto).

The magic 200

By Barry Rigal

Erik Secan (South) produced an interesting defensive problem here. Defending $2 \triangleq$ on an unopposed sequence, he judged well to lead the $\diamond 10$ rather than attack a black suit. The $\diamond 10$ held – what next?

	♠ 10 8
	♥ K 5 4 3
	♦ A Q J 7
	♣ 8 6 3
▲ K Q 9 3		♠A654

	▲ J 7 2
	♥ A 10 8 7 6
	♦ 10 5
	🛧 A 7 4

The right answer, Erik believes, is to cash the \mathbf{VA} and then play a second diamond. The key must be to cash the heart winners before playing for a trump promotion – unless declarer has some very specific club holding, the losers in that suit won't go away while the chance of a trump promotion in diamonds is really very high.

To get the magic 200, you must take all five redsuit winners, then lead the fourth diamond to promote the $\bigstar J$.

Erik's actual diamond continuation might have worked – on the \blacklozenge A, he pitched a discouraging club to persuade his partner to play a heart away from the king (yes, an encouraging heart might have been better but Erik and his partner play reverse signals and that \clubsuit 6 looks awfully big). When North led the fourth diamond before cashing out the \clubsuit A K, plus 200 became plus 100 when declarer simply pitched a heart loser to avoid the trump promotion.

Blum overtake took the $\bigstar J$ with the queen on the opening lead of the $\bigstar 10$. He took the heart finesse, crossed to his A and led another heart, picking up West's queen. After cashing the \forall J, he led the \clubsuit 8 off dummy to tempt East to cover. That's exactly what East did, to his eventual dismay. His 9 held the trick, and he switched back to spades, Blum winning with the king. He led the $\clubsuit10$, and East covered with the king as Blum won with the ace. He went back to the A and led a diamond to the queen. That led to this three-card position:
