TDs from Texas

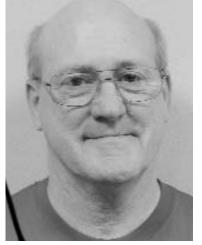

Check this space each day for profiles of Texasbased ACBL Tournament Directors that are working here at the Dallas NABC.

> Ask Tom Marsh why he became a tournament director and you'll get a strange response.

"I have absolutely no idea. It really doesn't fit my personality. This is a job that requires patience, but I'm impatient by nature," he said.

Ask those who know Marsh, however, and they'll describe a TD who is indeed patient as well as competent and humorous.

Marsh, of San Antonio, began directing club games in 1996 while he was still in the Army. A 22year veteran who held the rank of Master Sargent, Marsh spent the last six years of his active service at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio. He fell in love with the city and stayed there after leaving active duty.

Marsh also fell in love with tournament directing which is obvious from the way he talks about the job. His stories are many, and most are hysterically funny. Some examples:

• Marsh recently worked a tournament in San Angelo TX. How did he like it? "West Texas tournaments are the best! Great people, super food and they make their own rulings at the table which gives me more free time."

• At a tournament in Orlando, Marsh was called to the table after a player had made an insufficient bid. Marsh explained all the options to the players and then asked them to continue the auction. The players appeared confused, however, so Marsh repeated his ruling more slowly. The players seemed satisfied, so Marsh left the table. A minute later he was called back to the table, upon which the insufficient bidder complained, "Your explanation Continued on page 4

District 18 Pair Grabs NAP-Flight A Title

Bulletin

Canadians Gordon Campbell and Piotr Klimowicz posted two solid games in Thursday's final sessions of the North American Pairs, Flight A, to win the event by a full board. It was the first NABC title for both players.

Campbell, of Calgary AB, and Klimowicz, of Edmonton AB, scored 57.54% in the afternoon session and followed it up with 56.33% in the evening.

When the duo was asked after the victory if they knew they were leading during the set, Campbell replied, "We knew we were close. We faltered somewhat in the middle of the last session, but we felt it was close. Nobody was

Goodwill Message

Welcome to Dallas and the Spring 2006 North American Bridge Championships. Tournament chairman Gerrie Owen and her group of volunteers, staff and sponsors have gone all out to make sure that Dallas will be one of your most enjoyable bridge experiences ever.

I look forward to seeing and greeting you at the table.

Aileen Osofsky, Chairman National Goodwill Committee giving us a bushel of matchpoints."

The pair overcame a dreadful first qualifying session where they finished 51st out of 72 pairs. A very strong second qualifying session, however, moved them to fourth place going into the second day of the four-session contest.

Of the 28 pairs that qualified for the second day, Campbell and Klimowicz were fourth after the first final session.

Campbell, a "retired computer guy," has twice won the Canadian National Team Championship, and has represented Canada several times in international events. Klimowicz is a systems analyst. The pair — who play a Polish Club system — has been playing together for two years. They are planning to attend the upcoming world championships in Verona, Italy.

In second were Henry Lortz and Wayne Ohlrich of Seattle WA. They were the winners of this event in 2004.

The North American Pairs is a grassroots contest open to all ACBL members. Players must qualify at the club, unit and district levels to be eligible to participate in the final level at the Spring NABC.

Flights B and C of the North American Pairs will be played on the final weekend in Dallas.

Today is Louise Childs Freed Day

The local NABC staff has named today's bridge events in honor and memory of Louise Childs Freed, a force in the Dallas bridge community and chair of the previous NABC held in Dallas in 1997.

Freed, who died in Nov. 2003 from ovarian cancer, was a national champion. At the Summer 2002 NABC in Washington D.C., she won the Senior Swiss Teams playing with teammates Gene Freed (her husband), Derrell Childs (her former husband), Roger Clough, Rebecca Clough and Nels Erickson.

An Emerald Life Master, she earned more than 9100 masterpoints during her career.

Freed, a doting grandmother, was "best friend" to many in the world of bridge, and her talents were well respected.

Upon her death, District 16 Director Dan Morse said that Spring NABC in 1997 (of which Freed was the chair) was "one of the best nationals ever. She was a lovely lady and she'll definitely be missed."

Friend Joan Jackson said that Freed was "a very perfect Southern lady and very funny. She was a good, warm, loyal friend."

Pendant for first LM

The first person to report to the Daily Bulletin about making Life Master will receive a 14K gold pendant from the Bridge Gold Group, now selling a variety of bridge jewelry at the ACBL Product Store.

The Bridge Gold Group has pendants, rings, pins and cufflinks for all ACBL ranks, including Mini-McKenney and Ace of Clubs winners. Generic ACBL pendants, pins and rings are also available.

The winner of the pendant will be determined by the Daily Bulletin staff, whose decision will be final. Only one pendant will be awarded.

Welcome IN crowd

By Bruce Greenspan

Welcome to the Spring North American Bridge Championships. If this is your first NABC, you are in for a real treat. First, sign in at the ACBL Registration Desk. A welcome packet with a gift and information awaits you. Sign in again at the IN Registration Desk for more goodies.

The ACBL has organized a terrific program aimed to improve your game. Every day, 45 minutes prior to the afternoon and evening sessions, some of the best and brightest players and teachers in the universe will participate in the "Celebrity Speaker Program."

On Friday, one of the all-time great daily doubles will appear. In the afternoon, ACBL Bridge Bulletin columnist and noted teacher Jerry Helms is scheduled to speak, followed in the evening by Larry Cohen, 2002 Player of the Year and author of "To Bid or Not Bid: the Law of Total Tricks." These lectures are not to be missed. Believe me, there will be a lot of "A" players in the audience. Check your Daily Bulletin each day for the schedule of speakers.

In addition, check out the entertainment and hospitality. The organizers have something planned for you every day after the evening session, including food.

Now, I know most of you are here to win masterpoints. If you're willing to venture outside the IN games, here's a secret (just between you and me): play knockouts. The most popular events at the NABC are bracketed knockouts. This is a team event (you need four players). Are you here with only your partner? No problem. The partnership desk will be happy to find you teammates.

Normally, 16 teams are in a bracket. In most cases you will play against people of similar experience. I know what you're thinking: how can they possibly find people who play at my level? They can and they will.

For the most part, your team plays one on one against another team. If you are sitting North-South, your teammates play East-West (at least, we hope your partners are sitting East-West please check).

You play 24 boards with a break after 12. At the break, you compare scores with your teammates using the IMP scoring system (more on that tomorrow). The winner of the match advances in the event, the loser finds another competition (it could easily be another KO). If you win two matches, you'll earn GOLD points.

It takes four matches to win a

KO, and most events are done in two days. If the unthinkable happens and you are knocked out, there is always a single-session event in the evening you may enter. Remember, the sun will shine tomorrow and another bracketed KO begins (I think I may have a musical hit on my hands).

Finally, have a wonderful time. For bridge players, this is the "Greatest Show on Earth."

honor — the queen or the ace. It is the equivalent of playing the queen from the queen-jack when partner's lead shows the ace-king. If East had the AQJ52, East should play the AQ at trick one promising the AJ – in blood!

Play commentary: If the defense doesn't cash the first four tricks, declarer makes the contract easily – six hearts and four clubs.

On Sunday, April 2, ACBL Accredited Teacher Marti Ronemus will give a free twohour lesson at 10 a.m.

Bidding commentary: Not much – unless East-West play preemptive jump raises. If so, East might risk 3♠ directly. Lead commentary: Even if your partnership leads ace from ace-king, the king is led from ace-king in supported suits. The lead of an ace in a supported suit denies the king. In supported suits one often wishes to lead the ace without the king. Defensive commentary: East plays the \blacktriangle 10 at trick one to show an equal honor. West leads a low spade at trick two to East's promised queen. East shifts to the ♦Q, finishing South off before he can get his motor started. was so confusing that somehow my left-hand opponent now has one of my cards in her hand!"

"He was right," said Marsh, who verified that one of the players had 12 cards and the other 14, "but my rulings have never had that effect before."

Marsh is a sports enthusiast, but he has recently been smitten with the poker bug.

"I play lots of poker, exclusively online. And my son is a professional poker player, who will participate in the upcoming World Series of Poker this year."

While at the NABCs, Marsh isn't a floor director. He's part of the setup crew that includes Martin Ware, Brian Russell (also tournament directors) and ACBL staffer Jeff Johnston. Their job includes loading and unloading the trucks that the ACBL uses to ship supplies from the Memphis office, setting up and taking down tables in all of the playing areas and making sure that every playing area and meeting space has everything that's needed for smooth operation. It's a physical and timeconsuming assignment, but Marsh doesn't mind.

"The NABCs are great because I adore the travel and the people, especially the other TDs."

Open Pairs I competitors vie for Silodor Trophy

The Silodor Open Pairs I is a four-session event consisting of two qualifying and two final sessions. The winners' names are engraved on the Silodor Trophy, presented in memory of Sidney Silodor, winner of the Bermuda Bowl, the McKenney Trophy and more than 30 North American championships.

Silodor, a member of the team that won the first Bermuda Bowl World Championship in 1950, won the Vanderbilt eight times, the Reisinger six times, the Spingold, the Open Pairs and the Master Mixed Teams three times each and the Mixed Pairs five times — a record.

Silodor was an original member of the Bridge Hall of Fame, elected in the Sixties when the institution was the province of its creator, The Bridge World magazine.

The trophy was presented in 1963 in memory of Silodor and made retroactive to include winners of the event, which began in 1958.
