Meet Your TDs

This is part of a series of profiles of tournament directors working at NABCs.

In 1965, Mike Flader entered the University of Minnesota as an earnest student of sociology with a minor in child psychology. In his junior year, he discovered bridge.

He finally graduated from college in 1986. That's the way it is with a lot of people who end up with careers in our favorite game.

He was living the adage that "Life is what you do between bridge tournaments."

"That was me in the Seventies," he says. "I basically played as much as I could." He did meet some pretty good players on the tournament trail, including Howard Weinstein, Steve Garner, Dick Melson and Dave Lehman.

After bridge took over his life, Flader "kind of" dropped out of school, going to work for the U of M on the golf course in the summer and the ice rink in the winter. During that time, he became friendly with Herb Brooks, who made a name for himself as coach of the U.S. ice hockey team that stunned the world in 1980 by winning the gold medal in that sport at the Winter Olympic Games.

About that time, there was an opening in management at the Bridge Center in Minneapolis. Flader applied for the job and got it, launching his career in running bridge games. He has been

Senior KO enters Day 3

Eight teams advanced to today's play in the Senior KO Teams. All the higher seeds but one advanced. Said, the #11 seed, upset Anten, the #6 seed, by a score of 148 to 107 IMPs.

The closest match involved #8 seed Kantor, who won by 2 IMPs over #9 Brownstein.

Today is Japanese Contract Bridge League Day, and Reiko Umylny, Japanese Publicity Chair, offers a special welcome to all JCBL players at the Fall NABC. All ACBL players are urged to join her in making our guests from Japan feel welcome in Hawaii.

Baker repeats in Women's BAM

The squad led by Lynn Baker dominated the final of the Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams. Their final score of 36 was nearly three boards ahead of the second place team.

Baker was captain of last year's winning team that also included Lynn Deas and Beth Palmer. Added to the winning team this year were: Karen McCallum, Kerri Sanborn and Irina Levitina.

The Baker team led going into today's play and topped the field in the first final session with a score of 20. They followed that up with a score of one board below average at night, but their lead was sufficient.

Jacobs takes Open BAM

The team captained by George Jacobs, more than two boards out of first with a set to go, scored 17.5 out of 26 in the final session to overtake the leaders and win the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams by about half a board.

Jacobs played with Ralph Katz, Zia Mahmood, Michael Rosenberg, Steve Weinstein and Bobby Levin.

Second place went to the team that lay third entering the final session – John Onstott, Steve Beatty, Drew Casen, Jim Krekorian, Joergen Molberg and Terje Aa.

Jacobs' final score was 36.93 to 36.37 for Onstott.

Time for tributes at Goodwill reception

The game of bridge runs on the contributions of countless individuals who devote themselves to the world's favorite intellectual sport.

At Monday's Goodwill Committee reception, many of those who have given the most were recognized.

Goodwill Chair Aileen Osofsky presided over a series of tributes to the men and women who keep the game going – and a few of the stars who find the limelight.

Topping the list of those receiving plaudits was Grand Life Master Zeke Jabbour, selected as ACBL's Honorary Member of the Year for 2007.

Other honorees included the late Dr. Joanne Clark, who had been nominated as Goodwill Member of the Year before her death this year.

She was instrumental in the development of the Kona Bridge Club. Osofsky presented a plaque to Joanne's husband, Chuck, who said, "If Joanne were here, I know she would have appreciated this honor."

Another figure familiar to the bridge players of

Hawaii is Tom Lum, who Osofsky said has long been known as Mr. Hawaiian Bridge. Lum has been chairman of countless tournaments in Hawaii and is a legendary bridge figure on the island.

Hawaii State Attorney General Mark Bennett took the podium to talk about his friend and partner,

Hawaii for Dummies

Ever wonder why Hawaii's freeways are called "interstate highways?" The word interstate" means "going between two states.'

But does Honolulu's highway "H-1" connect us to another state? Well, if you really gunned your car, you might make it part of the way to California.

Let's face it., our H-1, -2 and-3 freeways are not interstate highways, but we desperately need them to help us get around.

And that's why Hawaii got an exception. It's all about government funding. The feds are the guys who provide the big subsidies to build major highways. It was part of President Eisenhower's massive interstate highway initiative, to ease commerce and bind the country closer together.

But we had to keep the "Interstate" designation. After all, rules are rules.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Be more competitive!

By Pat Harrington

I hope you are having fun at this tournament. That's the most important thing, but let's face it, those who are winning are probably having even more fun. If you haven't won your share of masterpoints yet, it might be because you are not fighting hard enough for those partscores.

Take a look at your convention card from previous sessions. You do keep a private score, don't you? Keeping your own score makes it easier to go over the boards later using the hand records if you played in a pairs game.

The directors appreciate it, too, in case there are any questions on the scores. Team games don't have printed hand records, but it's imperative to keep score so you can go back and compare with your teammates. I remember one Swiss teams match where I played with a fellow I had never played with before and he took my convention card to see what we were playing. I had no place to keep score and he didn't write our scores down either, which I didn't discover until we went back to compare at the end of the round. It's quite embarrassing to have to go back to your opponents to find out what happened on each deal!

But I digress. Look at a simple auction that you probably hear frequently.

WestNorthEastSouth $1 \checkmark$ $1 \spadesuit$ $2 \checkmark$ $2 \spadesuit$

First, let's clear up one possible misunderstanding. Both East and South have shown hands worth from 6 to 9 or 10 high-card points. A raise of partner's suit to the two level shows a minimum responding hand with or without competition. Forget about free bids if you've ever heard about them. Bridge players today are aggressive.

How likely is it that the auction is over? Not very. When both sides have a fit, you almost always get a poor score for allowing your opponents to play in their fit on the two level.

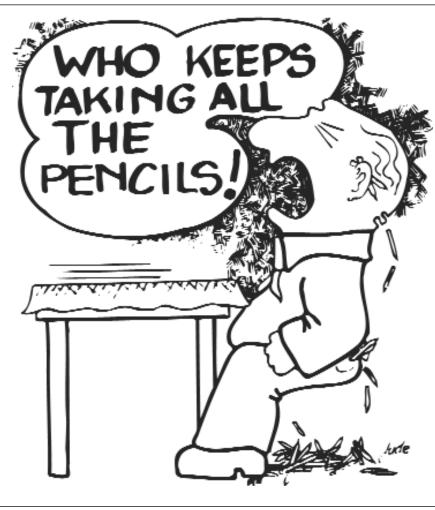

Either East or West might go on to 3. East's hand is already limited so there is no danger of West taking that as a game try. But what if opener bids 3. Don't bury your partner for being competitive. Bidding three of our suit in competition is NOT a game try. All we are trying to do is win the auction.

It is quite likely that both pairs have about half the points in the deck.
Why should North-South get to play just because spades rank higher than hearts? They are at an advantage because East-West are forced a level higher. How might East-West benefit? 3♥ could make. But even if 3♥ goes down one, North-South were probably making 2♠.

If you are playing matchpoints, compare the scores from the perspective of East-West. If North-South play in 2♠, East-West score minus110. If East-West play in 3♥, they might score plus140 or minus 50 or minus 100 if vulnerable.

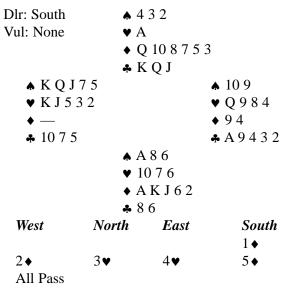

There is some risk of scoring worse if the opponents can double a vulnerable 3♥ bid and cause East-West to go minus 200, but it is often tough to know who can make what. Matchpoints is all about getting a plus score whenever possible and giving up the smallest minus score otherwise.

Say East-West do bid 3♥. Will North-South push on to 3♠ or will they sell out? If North-South are clairvoyant, they will push on when they can make 3♠ or even when they know East-

West can make 3♥. But who is clairvoyant? Fortunately for bridge players, the law of total tricks gives us a good guideline for situations like this. Once your opponents reach the three level, bid more only with extra distribution. The most common extra distributional feature you will have is an extra trump. So, if North overcalled with a six-card spade suit, North should bid 3♠. If South raised with four spades instead of the required three spades, South should bid 3♠. There are no guarantees, but if you follow this simple guideline you will come out on the winning end of more partscore fights. Get out there and fight!

Thinking bridge By Eddie Kantar

Opening lead: ♠K

Bidding commentary: West's 2♦ is a Michaels cuebid, showing 5-5 or 6-5 in the majors (either way) with typically 7-11 HCP. North has a choice of responses. One is to leap to 5♦, another is to cuebid 2♥, one of the opponent's known suits, showing a strong hand with diamonds. A third is to make a game-forcing jump in one of their suits to show a singleton in that suit with great support. There is no point in bidding hearts naturally when West is known to have at least five!

Lead commentary: Even though East has shown something in hearts, dummy has shown a singleton heart, so a spade lead stands out like a beacon.

Play commentary: The spade position on this deal is recurring. It is very likely that the suit is breaking 5-2. If so, by winning the second spade, you cut the spade communication between the East-West hands. Observe. You win the second spade, draw trumps and drive out the *A. East wins, but has no spade to return, so you can discard a spade on a club. If you win the first spade (ugh!), East can return a spade upon winning the *A, and now you lose two spades and a club. The general rule when playing a trump contract holding A-x-x facing x-x-x in the suit that has been led is to win the second round of the suit.

Section tops

Prizes are given to players who top their section or win events. These can be picked up at the section top desk, manned by Dick Towne and his group of volunteers. The desk is open 11:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. and again at 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. The prize desk is located outside the Coral Ballroom near the escalators to the IN area. Please wait until the day after you win as The Daily Bulletin is used to verify winners.

Wendy Wheeler and John Chapman of Little Rock AR are enjoying playing in the Intermediate-Newcomer games held each day in the South Pacific Ballroom. If you need a partner, come early and the partnership desk will help you. If you already have a partner, come early anyway and listen to one of the celebrity speakers.

Goodwill

"Tommy" Lum.

"He has dedicated a big part of his life to bridge," Bennett said, "and he is the archetypical gentleman at the table." Bennett recalled a big tournament he played with Lum, noting that their first session was very good and the second very bad, mostly because of his (Bennett's) errors.. "Tommy's demeanor never changed," said Bennett, "and the worst thing he said to me was, 'Bad luck.'"

Lum thanked the Goodwill Committee for the special honor, noting that bridge made it possible for him to meet people from all over the world "who have enriched my life. I am proud to be part of the committee."

Osofsky noted the presence of several members of Team USA from last September's inaugural Warren Buffett Cup in Dublin, where the Americans prevailed in a close match against a contingent from Europe, some of whose members were also on hand for the reception.

As the 2006 Fall NABC is the first with Jeff Johnston at the helm as meeting planner, Osofsky took the opportunity to provide some little-known info about Johnston, who this year was race director for the largest road race in Memphis (home of the ACBL), the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure 5K, which attracted 15,000 runners last month.

"We applaud you, Jeff," Osofsky said. "We think you are a star."

More player introductions were made, including four members of the American squad that won the World Junior Team Championship in Bangkok, Thailand, earlier this year – and the World University Games foursome who earned a silver medal in that competition in China.

NABC Chair Busaba Williams bade the group "Aloha – welcome to our beautiful island."

Williams noted that there are about 170 volunteers who have been working at the NABC to assure that all players enjoy themselves, and she said she hopes it won't be another 23 years before the ACBL schedules an NABC in Hawaii (the last one was in 1983).

Goodwill member Sue Kroning of Seaside OR was asked to talk about outgoing ACBL President Harriette Buckman, who spent the year spreading the word about bridge teachers and their important contribution to the game.

Kroning said Buckman attended the Seaside Regional earlier in the year, "and she spread so much good will . . .there were 26 teachers at a dinner (Buckman attended) and they all felt like she was their mother."

Added Kroning: "No one listens better than Harriette."

Reflecting on her year as ACBL president, Buckman said, "What a kick it has been."

She reminded all in attendance to "honor your teachers. They are the ones who will bring your new members for the next five, ten, twenty years."

Goodwill Chair Aileen Osofsky presents a plaque to Chuck Clark honoring his late wife, Joanne.

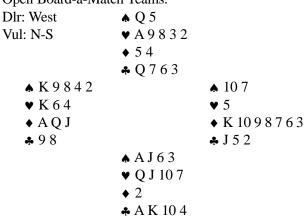

Fred Gitelman (right) presented a guided tour on playing bridge online. Sally Clark of Carlsbad CA was one of the participants. Gitelman's web site is: www.bridgebase.com.

Fun with the weak NT

By Brian Senior

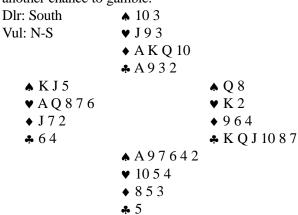

Playing a weak (or mini) 1NT allows the users to try the occasional speculative shot. Take this deal from the first qualifying session of the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams.

When West opened 1NT (11-14) and North passed, East gambled that his opponents would have a sufficient major-suit fit to go with their 22-25 high-card points that they had either game or a high-scoring partscore available, so he raised to 3NT! That ended the auction and, after a low heart to the king, West had eight tricks for minus 50. Of course, West had a dream hand from East's point of view.

This effort won the board. At the other table, North-South had collected only plus 100 from 4♦ doubled, missing their cold game, so something special was needed.

As it happened, the very next board gave East another chance to gamble.

After a pass by South, West again opened 1NT (1♥ might have been a better choice) and again East blasted 3NT, this time with hopes that it might make on a blind lead. But North-South were one of the pairs of young Swedish girls, and North doubled. East ran to 4♣, and we will never know if North would have followed through with a second double, as West bid 4♥ (he should not do so – East can redouble to invite West to the party, so 4♣ should be strictly to play) and South doubled. Three top diamonds, a spade to the ace and a club switch collected the ruff—three down for minus 500.

This time, North-South at the other table had done well. South opened 2, and East-West got to 3NT, doubled by North for minus 300. Had our East-West pair played 4, minus two, that would have been a win, 4, doubled down two a tie, but 4, doubled down three was a loss.

NABC Diary

Just fine, thanks
Henry Cukoff, the veteran tournament director from Montreal, has a wry sense of humor. The other day, an ACBL staffer encountered him near the Coral Ballroom in the Conference Center.

"How are you doing, Henry?" was the question.

His response: "I'm doing as well as ever – sad to say."

Fine work, Barry

Barry Rigal was in the office on Monday and received a welcome compliment on his contributions to the Daily Bulletin.

As it happens, Barry is a key person in deciding on annual prizes for excellence in play, defense, etc., for the International Bridge Press Association – and the journalist who writes up the winning entry also receives a prize.

So Barry was told, "I'm just trying to butter you up for the IBPA awards."

Barry's response was to quote a verse by Humbert Wolfe:

You cannot hope to bribe or twist Thank God, the British journalist

But seeing what the man will do Unbribed, there's no occasion to

Good egg

Les Brown, who traveled to the NABC from England, had some nice words for Mike Passell, who is known as one of ACBL's top players but is also a gentleman at and away from the table.

It seems that Brown and his partner, Karen Bradley, were playing Passell's team in a knockout. Bradley has a vision impairment and needs special lighting to play, but because of a misunderstanding, there was none when they sat down to play.

Brown reports that not only did Passell look around for a spot in the conference center where there was adequate lighting, he moved the table to the new location.

Birthday, part 4

Chief TD Rick Beye just can't get away from his birthday, which was on Saturday but has been written about every day in this space since then.

On Monday, Beye met with Linda Granell (head of marketing for ACBL) and Trung Luu, who works for OKbridge and is attending the NABC.

"So," says Luu to Beye as they sat down for coffee, "I hear it's your birthday."

For those who don't know, Rick is the proud father of Ann, a recent graduate from the St. Louis Police Academy. Ann called her dad on his birthday, of course, but it was reportedly a short conversation. After all, what's a girl to do with a pocket full of felony warrants to serve?

Table scraps

NABC Tournament Chair Busaba Williams attended the Goodwill reception on Monday and made short remarks. Before the reception was over, Williams approached Goodwill Chair Aileen Osofsky and suggested that any leftovers from the event be made available to the caddies at the tournament.

"Busaba may be sweet," Aileen told the gathering as she observed a completely empty serving table, "but she is a little naïve."

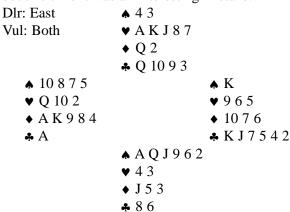

Weighed in the balance – and found wanting

By Barry Rigal

Yet again with the mea culpas, you say? Yes, but this time it was an interesting mistake.

At both tables on this deal from the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams, West overcalled a weak 2 • opening with 3 • (not recommended for those with weak stomachs) and played there.

Declarer at both tables went down 100 for a flat board.

I had my chances to be a hero. I led the ♥A and shifted to a spade to the king and ace. Back came a heart, and I cashed a third round of the suit for South to pitch the ♣8. At this point, I should have put on my counting hat. West almost certainly had four spades, three hearts, five diamonds and thus the singleton ♣A. So leading a club, as I did, accomplishes nothing. Best is to lead a fourth heart to let South pitch his second club. Declarer does best to ruff in dummy and pitch his ♣A, but when South ruffs the ♣K, all declarer can to is overruff and start a crossruff.

North ruffs the third spade with the $\mathbf{\Phi}\mathbf{Q}$ and returns a trump, and now declarer has only seven tricks.

Don't mess with me

By Barry Rigal

Antonio Sementa is a double world champion – and he can read his opponents like a book, apparently.

This was the auction (Sementa was West, playing with Christal Henner-Welland). The deal occurred in the second qualifying session of the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams.

He elected to bid Roman Key Card Blackwood for spades, and over partner's response showing one key card, he checked on the ♠Q. Henner-Welland bid 6♥ to show the ♠Q and ♥K and Sementa passed!

The full deal: ↑ J 10 8 4 2 Dlr: South Vul: Both ♥ 8 5 ♦ 10982 4 9 5 ∧ AQ963 ∧ K 5 ♥ A 10 9 7 4 ♥ K 3 2 ♦ A 3 ♦ J ♣ A K J 10 ♣ Q 8 7 2 ♠ 7 ♥ Q J 6 ♦ KQ7654 4 643

As you can see, $6 \heartsuit$ is laydown after taking the diamond ruff. Even though this turned out to be a flat board, Sementa's auction achieved its real target – letting North know that it does not pay to mess with this particular pair of opponents.

When I checked out a couple of deals from the Nail Life Master Open Pairs final, I saw two defenders attempt the same deceptive maneuver — with very different results. The first South was defending 3NT by East after a 2 & opener by West (spades and a minor, 7-10 high-card points). A low heart went to the king and ace. When declarer played the AA, South smoothly dropped the AJ. Now when declarer advanced the A8 and saw a low spade from South, he went up with the AQ—you have to get up very early in the morning to get up before Paul Marston.

When Marston cleared the spade suit, South mistakenly shifted to a diamond and declarer had nine tricks.

By contrast, Danny Sprung as South led a diamond against the same contract at another table. Declarer won the first diamond and led the A. Sprung also dropped the J, and declarer continued with his other spade to the 9 and 10 – the idiot's finesse since it assumes South has blown a trick by wasting his jack from J-10-x. Back came a diamond, and seven tricks was the limit.

The next deal (hands rotated) comes from the same session.

It is very easy – and very tempting – for West to let this contract through. West leads the *A and *K and sees East discard. What could be more natural than to cash the *Q and lead a fourth club? Not good enough.

Declarer ruffs in dummy, cashes the ♥A then ruffs a diamond to hand and draws trumps. With the aid of the singleton ♠Q, declarer has 10 tricks.

Lynn Deas did very well at trick three to shift to a trump, Now, though declarer can make the contract double dummy, he could not find a way home at the table.

But note what happens if East makes the "natural" discard of a spade at trick two. After drawing trumps and leading a spade to king and a spade back to the 10 and jack. This ending is reached:

Declarer plays the AA and another spade to East for the diamond endplay and 10 tricks, right? Wrong! EAst unblocks the A9 under the ace and West takes the last two tricks.

Ask declarer

Playing in the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams, you hold as East

The auction is simple:

West North East South

Pass Pass 1NT (1)

Pass 3NT All Pass (1) 15-17.

Your partner leads a fourth-best ♠5. Dummy hits with Declarer calls for the 3, and the spotlight is now on you. What do you play and why?

Declarer can help. Put yourself in the South seat for a moment. What would you be likely to play from dummy holding the following combinations?

a. AA x x
b. AA J x
c. AA x
d. AA J
e. AJ x x
f. AJ x

With the first three holdings you would most likely play the queen from dummy. With the last three, you would most likely play the 3.

Okay, now you are East again. You play the &K because you know that declarer probably holds d, e or f from the list above. If declarer holds d or e, the play probably will not be material to the final result. If declarer holds f, your teammates will be proud to compare their plus 630 with your plus 200. The full deal:

teaching bridge since the mid-Seventies.

Flader worked his first tournament, a sectional, in 1989, becoming a full-time ACBL TD five years

Flader says he owes a lot of his development as a director to mentoring he received from Ron Johnson, Chris Patrias and Larry Brobst. The latter, he says, "is the hardest worker I ever saw."

Now an associate national director, Flader took over the Ruling the Game column for the ACBL Bridge Bulletin several years ago, volunteering for the job after the previous author, Brian Moran, died.

"It's nice to be in contact with the members to help them understand the laws better," Flader says.

In 1992, Flader married Jill, one of his bridge students. "It's the best thing that ever happened to me," he says. They live in Eagan MN with their two dogs, Casey and Trump.

Early in his bridge-playing days, Flader was a frequent winner on the tournament circuit, and he still plays as much as he can, given a busy schedule that includes a lot of bowling (he has had a 200-plus average for 35 years). In the spring of 2005, he and Warren Foss of Omaha NE came in 11th overall in the national IMP Pairs.

Soft-spoken as a rule, Flader does allow that his bridge results have been better this year, with three regional victories "just when I thought I was washed up."

No matter what, he says, there's always the TD gig: "I love my job. I love the travel and interacting with bridge players. They are intellectually stimulating.'

76 trombones for Sidney

Sidney Lazard didn't make the long trip to Honolulu, but he is doing just fine in Dallas, where he celebrated his 76th birthday last Saturday with wife Betsey. Here is a deal we defended on our way to victory in the 2002 Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Sidney led the \(\black \)8. Declarer played the jack and I encouraged with the 7. Declarer led hearts from the top, as Sidney held off until the third round, while I discarded low cards in both minors.

When Sidney finally won the ♥K, he knew that declarer had the AQ and AA, so he did not have the \wedge A Q. He shifted to the \wedge K, therefore, setting up our third trick before declarer could knock out the A. Surprisingly, holding the contract to 10 tricks was worth 80% of the matchpoints.

Happy birthday, Sidney!

We seemed to have got lucky on this one when we stopped in game. In the Acol style, where 2♥ was non-forcing, South was completely maximum, and North could have splintered with 3., which would have got us to slam (I was South).

After a spade to the queen and ace, I cashed the ♥A and was delighted to see the 4-0 split. It was easy to make 11 tricks by playing on diamonds now, throwing spades from hand, and plus 450 had some potential to be a winning board.

But most likely auctions to slam attract a club lead – for instance, where North does show the spade shortage - and our teammates duly led a club against 6♥. After either a club or spade continuation, declarer has the communication to draw trumps then run the diamonds for 12 tricks, and we lost the board, so justice was done for our poor auction.

After a club to the ace, a diamond switch will beat 6♥ as declarer can no longer get to the long diamonds after drawing trumps - but could anyone find the defense?

Of course, Deep Throat, excuse me, Deep Finesse, assures us that $6 \checkmark$ is unbeatable, but DF plays double dummy. After a club lead and diamond switch, declarer must win the queen, take a firstround finesse of the ♥9, take a spade ruff, throw two remaining losers on diamonds, unblock the ♥K and cross to the *K to run the trumps.

Rae Dethlefsen

Rae Dethlefsen of Reston VA died Oct. 21 of respiratory failure. Dethlefsen, a Gold Life Master and member of the National Goodwill Committee, was a familiar face at NABCs, and was often a proxie to the Board of Governors. She was active in District 6 governance. Dethlefsen won many regional tournaments and had several top 10 finishes in NABC events. The District 6 Board has voted to name all District Grand National Team events in her honor.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6 board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

Hawaii 1983: A look back

It has been 23 years since Hawaii hosted a North American Bridge Championship. In 1983, the Spring NABC took place at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, and 11,697 tables were in play. At that time, it was the third largest Spring NABC ever (behind New York, 1968 and Pasadena, 1977).

Even though it was 23 years ago, many of the winners' names are familiar. How many of them do you recognize?

Men's Pairs: Marty Bergen and Allan Stauber Women's Pairs: Jo Morse and Evelyn Levitt Vanderbilt Knockout Teams: Norman Kay, Edgar Kaplan, William Root and Richard Pavlicek

Women's Knockout Teams: Brenda Keller, Linda Peterson, Nancy Passell, Patsy Arndt and Nell Cahn

Men's Board-A-Match Teams: Grant Baze, Tom Sanders, Harold Guiver and John Sutherlin Grand National Pairs (now called the North American Pairs): Jim Felts and John Griscom

Open Pairs: Barry Crane and Mike Passell An NABC is all about bridge. Here are some of the deals that were reported in the Daily Bulletins.

How to nullify a bad split

On a Grand National Pairs deal that didn't seem too bad a slam bid, David Siebert found a way to nullify a 5–0 rump break and make 11 tricks. The hand occurred in the first qualifying session.

Siebert won the opening heart lead with the ace, then cashed the ♠K. Bad news — East showed out. He led a second spade and won with the queen when West put in the 10. The ♦J was ducked all around. Then Siebert cashed the ♥K and ruffed a heart, went to the ♣A and ruffed another heart.

The ◆K went to North's ace, and West ruffed the club return. West was able to get out with a diamond to the queen, but that didn't help. Dummy had the ♠A 8 left and West had the ♠J 7. Siebert led a club and West was the victim of a trump coup. Making five earned Siebert a fine score.

There's nothing as sharp as pinpoint defense

Karen Allison and Halina Jamner cooperated to perfection on the defense of this deal from a qualifying session of the Women's Pairs.

See next column.

Jamner, West, led the ◆10, and the queen won. Declarer led a club and passed it to Jamner, hoping she would shift — but she didn't. She cashed the ◆A, and down fluttered the king. She led the ◆9 to Allison's jack, and Allison correctly read this as suit preference. She returned a spade to Stayman led the $\clubsuit 9$, and Tornay covered with the 10, which won. He continued with the $\spadesuit K$, won by declarer. Declarer went to the board with a diamond and led a club for a finesse, which lost to the queen. Stayman returned a diamond to the queen, and declarer tried another club finesse — this time it won. Declarer then cashed the $\spadesuit A$, preparatory to endplaying East, but Tornay discarded the $\spadesuit Q$!

Next came the ♥A and then the ♥K, and declarer was ready with his endplay. He led the ♠8 from dummy, but Tornay was having none of that — he knew he'd have to give up the last two tricks if he took his ♠J. So he played the ♠5 under the 8! And there was declarer — in dummy with all hearts. Stayman of course won with his ♥10, and his diamonds were good for the rest of the tricks and a one-trick set.

A bizarre contract

Jim Felts and John Griscom won the Grand National Pairs (now called the North American Pairs). This eccentric contract helped them win. See next column.

The 2♦ bid was negative and 3♣ was Stayman. Griscom hoped partner could respond in a major, but when the 3♦ response came around to him, he decided to pass.

The spade opening lead was won with the jack, and East surprisingly switched to a heart.. Griscom gratefully took the jack, king and ace, then cashed the A, the K and the A.

If they interfere, make them pay

Marty Bergen and Allan Stauber won the Men's Pairs. This deal shows one of their pet conventions: A 2 ◆ opener shows the majors, but less than an opening hand. It was from a qualifying round.

It looked to Bergen like all of his cards were working, so he bid 2NT showing interest in game and asking more about East's hand. North chimed in with 3.4 and Stauber's double showed a good hand and some clubs. South should have passed, but decided to show the diamond suit which Bergen was happy to double.

Dummy won the opening spade lead and led a club, won by Stauber who led another spade to dummy. Another club was led to East who now played a heart through. Bergen won the jack and led back the ♥K, declarer winning the ace. South now played a diamond to dummy, cashed the ♠A pitching a heart, and played a high club pitching his last heart as Bergen ruffed in.

Dummy had the lone $\blacklozenge J$ and three clubs. South had the $\blacklozenge K Q 7 3$ and Bergen had a spade and the $\blacklozenge A 8 6$. When Bergen exited with a low diamond, declarer had to let dummy's jack win as he couldn't afford to overtake. Now when he came off with a club, if he ruffed with the $\blacklozenge 7$, Bergen can overruff with the 8. If he ruffed with an honor, Bergen could discard his spade.

This was an important trick, setting the opponents for 300 instead of 100 and gave E–W 12 matchpoints out of 12.

Second place in the Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams were: JoAnna Stansby (front left), Hansa Narasimhan, Debbie Rosenberg, Jill Meyers (back left), Jill Levin and Rozanne Pollack.

They were second in the Open BAM: seated, Drew Casen, Terje Aa and Joergen Molberg; standing, Jim Krekorian, Steve Beatty and John Onstott.

David Berkowitz, one of ACBL's top players, earned 45 masterpoints by finishing sixth in the Nail Life Master Open Pairs, pushing his masterpoint total past 25,000. He was playing with regular partner Larry Cohen in the event.

Berkowitz, who moved to Boca Raton FL about a year ago, lived in New Jersey before that, working for 25 years as an options trader.

He has more than 20 North American championships to his credit, including six with his wife, Lisa. They have two children: daughter Dana, who is nearing graduation from Princeton, and son Michael, a sophomore at Wake Forest.

It was déjà vu in the Smokeys last spring:

Gatlinburg shattered ACBL all-time attendance records for the sixth consecutive year.

Some quick facts and figures from this past April: 9,565 tables, with 3,943 participants. Every state but one represented (hello, Wyoming?). Gold point knockouts: 207 brackets. Fifty-nine players with more than 100 masterpoints for the week. You get the idea. If you haven't been, join us April 9-15, 2007, to see what it's all about. If you have been, you already know, and probably have made reservations for next spring.

Making a difference

There are many people who make a difference in this game we enjoy. This section of your Daily Bulletin recognizes individuals who have contributed time, talent and other resources for positive change. Although space constraints limit what can be communicated about each person's contributions, we are sure that you will agree that each individual has made a lasting impact on this wonderful activity called bridge

To Reiko Umylny, Japanese Publicity Chair for the 2006 Fall NABC Thank you, Reiko for your hard work.

Today's entertainment is twofold – Polynesian dance and entertainment at 5 p.m., and the Michael Baker quintet at 11 p.m. For more information, see page 2.
