This quartet from India – Birat Chandra Mandal, Amal Kundu, Debasish Dutta and Dipak Majumder-- enjoyed their NABC experience.

Quartet from India enjoy KC experience

Four players from the Calcutta area in India love to play bridge. They enjoy playing in the games around town, but they wanted more. They wanted to rub shoulders with some great players, to see how well they could do against good players, to learn what big tournaments are like.

And they found the way to accomplish all three goals – they came to Kansas City!

They signed up for the Vanderbilt and had the opportunity to play against Zia. They lost, but they thoroughly enjoyed the experience. But they didn't go home (they left early yesterday) empty-handed – they won the Friday night Zip Swiss. The quartet is made up of Birat Chandra Mandal, assistant manager of the Reserve Bank of India; Dipak Majumder, State Bank of India officer and a basketball player; Amal Kundu, newspaper office staffer, and Debasish Dutta, governor office inspector of revenue intelligence for the government of West Bengal.

They were outspoken in their praise of the tournament officials. "Everyone was competent and cooperative," said Mandal.

"We enjoyed the play very much. Our opponents were always friendly and courteous," said Kundu. "It's been a wonderful experience.

ACBL, e-bridge to host Online World Open Pairs

The first e-bridge Internet World Open Pairs Championship will be played on the e-bridge website (www.e-bridgemaster.com) and the ACBL Online website (www.acbl.com) beginning April 15. e-bridge and ACBL will award cash prizes of $20,000 to the winners of the championship. Additionally, masterpoints will be awarded by the World Bridge Federation (WBF), ACBL and the European Bridge League.

Participation in the event is open to all monthly and yearly subscribers to ACBL Online and e-bridge. The matchpoint contest will consist of three prequalifying sessions, three qualifying sessions, three repechage sessions, three quarterfinal sessions, three semifinal sessions and three final sessions. All sessions will be of 24 or 26 boards. For each pair, their matchpoint score for each session will be converted to a percentage score. In the pre-qualifying, repechage, qualifying and quarterfinal rounds, the pair's two best results (out of three) are counted toward their ranking at that stage. From the pre-qualifying, qualifying and quarterfinal stages, 40 percent will qualify to the next level, and from the repechage stage 10% will qualify for the next level. The 16 highest-ranking pairs from the semifinal will qualify to the final. There will be three bi-monthly sessions in this round, with all three sessions carrying full weight. The final will be played over the Internet, but each player will have at least one of e-bridge's approved observers physically present at the player's computer to watch the play.

8 powerful teams remain in Vandy

Eight powerful teams will square off in today's quarterfinals of the Vanderbilt. Interestingly enough, 14 of the remaining players are from Europe – countries like Italy, Poland, Sweden, Russia, Norway and England.

In the closest match of the day yesterday, the team captained by Richard Schwartz was 58 down going into the last quarter. They put on a terrific drive over the final 16 boards, outscoring the Russian-Polish team captained by Andrew Gromov, 60-7. But that still left Schwartz 5 IMPs short, 144-139.

The match between Rose Meltzer and Walter Schafer was close all the way, but Meltzer took the lead in the first quarter and doggedly held on, winning

Barbara and Mark Shaw

Shaws win Mixed Pairs by 3 boards

A Maryland couple who met and married through bridge won the Mixed Pairs by a margin of almost three full boards. Barbara and Mark Shaw scored 2250.58 matchpoints (64 was top) to 2078.74 for runners-up Terry Michaels and Gary Roberts. JoAnna Stansby and Dale Beers were third with 2045.88.

The Shaws, who live in Laurel MD, met in 1995 at a local club. "It was Saturday, January 30, 1995. That's when I met Mark," said Barbara. "There was a sectional coming up the next week and I asked him if he'd play on Thursday."

"I was her bridge pro and then we got married," agrees Mark, with a hint of a smile.

Barbara was the Life Master of the Year in the 1996 ACBL-wide Mini-McKenney race. Besides Mark, she began playing with area experts Steve Robinson and Ron Sukoneck. She also met the late Bobby Goldman at the Spring NABC in Philadelphia that year. "Bobby talked me into playing on a pro team. It was through him that I met Eric Rodwell who is not just a great player but a great teacher."

Mark agrees. "We follow a lot of his principles. We play a complicated, souped-up version of Washington Standard." "There's something to learn every day," adds Barbara. "Even the best players learn every day."

The two were married in August 1998. They played 5-6 times a week but now play only 2-3 times

Another Merrimac blocks the harbor

Linda Smith found the only play to beat  $4 \bigstar$  at the key point in the play. It was another case of sinking your own ship to keep your foes from using their harbor. Her ship was the  $\P K$  and it accomplished its goal.

The conjurer

By Barry Rigal

Geoff Hampson found a magical way to conjure up a vulnerable game and was appropriately rewarded on this deal from the first qualifying session of Open Pairs I.

🕈 K 3 ♥ A K 10 6 5 2 ♦A73 ♣Q9 ♦ 10 9 7 6 ♦ A J 5 4 ♥43 ♥ 7 ♦Q92 • K J 6 5 7532 🕈 A J 10 6 ♦ Q 8 2 ♥ O J 9 8 ♦ 1084 🕈 K 8 4

Geoff and his partner, Eric Greco, reached the normal (but apparently doomed) 4♥ after East made a takeout double of  $1 \mathbf{V}$ . They bought a temporary reprieve when East led a trump. One way to try to steal the game would be to lead an immediate  $\clubsuit$ 9, hoping East erred by taking the  $\clubsuit$ A. Today, however, you would expect East not to fall for the bait, wouldn't you, looking at dummy's losers. Geoff did better when he drew two rounds of trumps, ending in dummy, and led a diamond to his 7. From East's perspective when he won the  $\mathbf{A}$ , declarer could have only the AQ – in which case a shift to a black suit was essential. East decided to play a club, hoping his partner had the  $\mathbf{A}Q$ , and that let Geoff win the  $\mathbf{\Phi}$ Q and lead another club, setting up dummy's  $\mathbf{\Phi}$ K and giving him a parking spot for his losing diamond. Contract made!

Close but no cigar

By Barry Rigal

Ken Barbour gave me a couple of deals from his losing Vanderbilt match. The first might be entitled: "Little things mean a lot."

(1) Support double.

3NT looks comfortable enough on a spade lead, with all sorts of minor-suit chances and a heart finesse to fall back on.

Ken (South) took his fractional extra chance by overtaking the  $\bigstar J$  with the  $\bigstar Q$  at trick one and leading a diamond up. Surprise, surprise! His left-hand opponent did have a singleton  $\bigstar A$ . Now the contract was assured. When Ken played safe by cashing the  $\blacktriangledown A$ , he produced an overtrick when the  $\And K$  was singleton offside. The complete deal:

(2) 10-11.

On the  $\forall 3$  lead (fourth highest), Barbour played his  $\forall Q$  and declarer won the  $\forall K$ . Now declarer ran four diamond tricks, ending in hand. Barbour pitched a heart to unblock the suit and two spades.

Linda led a small diamond to the queen and ace, and declarer immediately went after clubs, the jack losing to East's ace. Ron Smith led back the  $\blacklozenge 9$  to the jack and king, and Linda led a third diamond, forcing dummy to ruff with the 8. Declarer cashed dummy's trump queen and tried to get back to his hand by ruffing a club low. Linda overruffed and led . . . the  $\clubsuit K!$  That Merrimac Coup killed declarer's entry to dummy for the good clubs, so he had to lose the fourth round of hearts for down one.

Nelson Atkins tour

There is limited space for the Nelson Atkins tour which will take place Saturday at 9:30 a.m, with a return by 12:30. The fee for the tour, which is hosted by Jean Howard, is $5. Get your tickets at the Tour Desk in the lower lobby of the Hyatt.

Attendance report

Yesterday marked the first time this week that attendance topped the 1000-table mark. The turnout for the day was 1007 tables, best of the week by 31 tables. The total so far for Kansas City 2001 is 6009. That's well behind the Kansas City 1993 total of 6426, but the trend is up, and that's good. To his surprise, declarer next led the  $\bigvee 10$  from hand. Barbour won and carefully returned the  $\bigstar K$ . This turned out to be essential since if you cash out the hearts, it suicide squeezes the East hand.

The full deal:

If East leads a top spade, he cuts the communication for declarer for the squeeze but a heart back in this ending sets you up for a squeeze on yourself – embarrassment city.

They won the battle but lost the war

Sidney Lazard brought home a difficult 2NT contract on this deal from the Vanderbilt, but it wasn't enough to bring his team, seeded 15th, a victory against the #50 seed captained by Edward Wojewoda. Wojewoda (Farid Assemi, Richard Meffley, Jim Tritt, Leszek Rabiega, Steve Cavanaugh) defeated Jack Coleman (Chris Compton, Sidney Lazard, Bart Bramley, Ira Chorush, Bobby Wolff), 199-144. Here's the deal where Lazard shone.

Meffley led his fourth best club to Lazard's jack. He led a spade to the ace and crossed to the  $\forall Q$ . A second spade went to Tritt's queen, and he continued with the  $\bigstar5$  to partner's 10. Meffley switched to the  $\bigstar K$  – but Lazard ducked! That killed all possible communication with partner for a third round of clubs through declarer's king. So Meffley cashed the  $\bigstar A$  and got out with a club to declarer's king. This was the position at this point:

Lazard now led a heart, dummy's 8 losing to the 10. East was forced to lead a diamond away from the queen, and Lazard's jack held the trick as Meffley discarded his good club. When Lazard then led to the A, West was hopelessly squeezed. He couldn't discard a spade, of course, and a heart discard would let Lazard overtake the  $\forall K$  and cash his last card for his eighth trick.

Aviv was the author

Did you enjoy the three endplay hands from the Juniors-Wei Sender match in yesterday's Bulletin. The byline was omitted – the article was written by Aviv Shahaf, originally of Israel and now of New York. He directs games at two clubs in New York, Honors and Culbertson.

It was easy to tell where the Mixed Pairs were being played- just look at the section letters.

These diamonds proved expensive

Unusual things happen in a Mixed Pairs event, but one thing was for sure at this table – diamonds were NOT a girl's best friend during this round. Of course, as is often the case you make your own bad luck.

It's Moms' week out, and it's a lot of fun

For four women, three from the Minneapolis area and the other from North Dakota, the spring North American Bridge Championship is Moms' week out.

The foursome – Amy Staska, Fargo; Janis Ellis, Lakeville MN; Jackie Moneypenny, Burnsville MN, and Edie Siemenn, Prior Lake MN – met in Minneapolis at a newcomers' group. They began playing party bridge and a friend of Staska's suggested they try tournament bridge.

Accordingly, the group packed up and went to the 1996 Spring NABC in Philadelphia. They played in Intermediate-Newcomer games and had a ball. Unfortunately, the group missed the 1997 Spring tournament in Dallas (although Staska and her mom attended for about three days) but were back in full force for the 1998 Spring tournament in Reno.

That's where they met Elaine Ware. Ware is a longtime caddy at NABCs and her husband, Martin, a tournament director in real life, works as part of the set-up crew at NABCs. "I've always talked with new and inexperienced players because they're fun," said Ware.

"I remember when I first started playing, other players played head games with me. I made up my mind not to become an 'expert player' but one who talked to new players and made them feel welcome."

When Ware met the foursome, they played only in I/ N events. Gradually she began introducing the idea of playing up and moving on to knockouts.

The first KO was last year in Cincinnati. "I remember Elaine's advice," said Ellis, "bid vulnerable games. If you're down at the half, get more aggressive. We were down 38 at the half but came back and in 12 boards, gained 48 and won by 10."

"She's just been wonderful," added Moneypenny.

"She's given us lots of strategy tips," agreed Siemenn. Their opponents also agree. "They are just so nice," said Judi Rich of Marblehead MA, an opponent in Wednesday's second round match. "It was a pleasure to Wednesday's second-round match. "It was a pleasure to play against them, even though we lost."

So far in Kansas City, the foursome has won a Compact KO worth 4.98 points (including 1.66 gold). They're into the finals of another KO (where they're guaranteed more than 7 points if they lose and more than 12 points if they win) and into the third round of yet another.

Yes, old dogs can learn new tricks

Pat McCammon remembers the first time this situation came up – and once again it was Dave Treadwell putting him to the test. In a notrump contract he had 10third opposite queen-third.

When this came up the first time, Treadwell led the jack of the suit through dummy's queen. McCammon thought his best chance was that RHO had a doubleton honor so that the suit would be blocked, so he played low. Treadwell smiled as he cashed the ace-king and two more to defeat the notrump game.

It happened again yesterday – the same cards and the same lead through the queen by Treadwell. "Oh no you don't," thought McCammon. "You can't fool me twice." He put up the queen, losing to the king, and the contuation trapped the 10. Treadwell once again cashed out five tricks for down one.

Lunch for Seniors

All Seniors playing in the 10 a.m. Senior game today are invited to Suite 1814 in the Westin for a light lunch at 1:30 p.m.

Wernher Trophy rewards Open Pairs II winners

The Wernher Trophy, donated by one of the originators of the masterpoint system, will reward the winners of Open Pairs II. The trophy was donated in 1934 by Sir Derrick J. Wernher and presented to the winners of the National Men's Pairs Championship.

The event was contested at the Summer NABC until 1962 and subsequently at the Spring NABC. From 1969 through 1971, it was contested as a three-session championship.

In 1992 the event became Open Pairs II, a foursession event which consists of two qualifying rounds and two finals rounds.

Wernher (1889-1947) was a resident of London, England, and Deal NJ. A leading personality in American bridge in the Thirties, Wernher was president of the American Bridge League (ABL) in 1933, chairman of its Master Plan committee and a member of the board of directors of the American Whist League (AWL). e-Bridge Continued from page 1

Preregistration for the tournament is absolutely required. Pairs can register at www.acbl.com. Registration ends April 14. The qualifying rounds begin April 15 and the finals will be held during the month of December. The full schedule for all rounds is available at the websites. Additional information on conditions of contest, systems permitted, the detailed schedule and much more are available at www.acbl.com.

The team led by npc Andrew Robson, usually known as the Rita Shugart team, got off to a fantastic start against Russ Ekeblad, leading 42-2 after 16 boards. Ekeblad closed the gap to 13 at the three-quarter mark, but Robson dug in to win, 108-93. The other matches were blowouts, with George Jacobs and Steve Robinson winning early when their opponents withdrew. The other winners were Nick Nickell, George Rosenkranz and Billy Eisenberg. Today's pairings: Nickell vs. Meltzer, Jacobs vs. Rosenkranz, Robinson vs. Robson and Eisenberg vs. Gromov.

3 trials to determine USA entries for Bali

Five teams will emerge winners in three different team trials, earning the right to represent the United States in the 2001 Bermuda Bowl, Venice Cup and World Senior Teams.

The world championships are scheduled for Bali, Indonesia, Oct. 20 through Nov. 2. A secondary event, the World Transnational Open Teams, is open to anyone nominated by their National Contract Bridge Organization. The event dates are Oct. 28 through Nov. 2.

The International (open) Team Trials are scheduled June 3–14 in Memphis, the Women's International Team Trials are scheduled June 18–26 in Las Vegas and the Senior International Team Trials are scheduled Aug. 14–18 in St. Louis.

The ITT will be played at the East Memphis Hilton. For reservationshere in Kansas City, contact Rena Hetzer in the Press Room (Liberty Room, ballroom level of the Westin). After the tournament contact her at ACBL (phone 901–332–5586 Ext. 307 or e-mail rena.hetzer@acbl.org).

Teams with byes must apply no later than April 12 while teams with no bye must apply by April 26.

The WITT will be played at the Riviera Hotel and Casino. For reservations, contact the hotel directly (702–734–5110). Teams with byes must apply no later than April 2. Teams with no bye must apply by April 20.

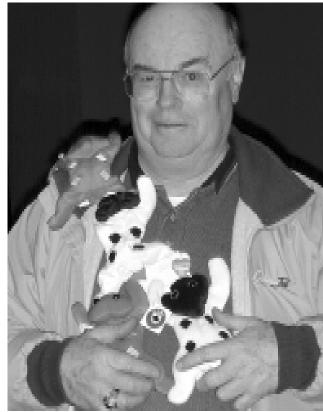

The SITT will be played at the Renaissance Hotel. For reservations, contact the hotel directly (888–340– 2594) and mention the St. Louis Regional Bridge Tournament for the special bridge rate.

Teams must apply by Aug. 1. Teams may be a mix of players from the four Zone Two countries: United States, Canada, Bermuda and Mexico.

Entries may be submitted by phone or e-mail (see above addresses) or by mail: Rena Hetzer, 2990 Airways Blvd., Memphis TN 38116.

The entry should contain the names, ACBL player numbers and e-mail addresses of all team members, the designated team captain and e-mail, phone, fax and address for the captain.

Women's Pairs compete for Whitehead Trophy

Play begins today in the Women's Pairs with two qualifying sessions, followed by two final sessions tomorrow. At stake is the Whitehead Trophy, donated in 1930 by Wilbur C. Whitehead of New York, one of the world's greatest bridge authorities and a member of the team that won the Vanderbilt Cup in 1928, the first year it was in play.

Whitehead (1866-1931) was president of the Simplex Automobile Company, but bridge held such a fascination for him that he retired from business in 1910 to devote his whole life to bridge.

He was the inventor of many bidding and play conventions, the quick-trick table of card values, the Whitehead system of requirements for original bids and responses and the Whitehead table of preferential leads.

Bull Gets Olympic High

An exhausted Bull departed the Birmingham vugraph after Jacobs-Katz and the Olympiad World Champion Italians, Bocci-Duboin and Lauria-Versace, captured the 2000 Reisinger. Grazing lightly on various herbs and grasses in Arkansas, the Bull received official word that Bridge will be a demonstration sport for the Salt Lake City Olympics.

In a spirited fit of snorting frenzy, the Bull, in a bizarrely unlikely dream, actually envisioned a cooperative ACBL and WBF working together for the good of bridge. However, the effect soon wore off and the Bull jolted back to the reality of two bridge organizations focusing on the Olympics as a way to avoid confrontation. Can the newly incorporated United States Bridge Federation attain the Olympic goal and function apolitically? Can bridge survive its administrators?

VS

Arriving in his home country, Kansas City, the Bull notes that in this day of casual inter-continental travel, the ACBL's Reisinger, Vanderbilt, and Spingold are jammed with the world's best players.

INTRODUCING OKBRIDGE UNIVERSITY: LIVE ONLINE BRIDGE CLASSES

Turning to the 2001 Vanderbilt in the Round of 8:

#1 Nickell v. #8 Meltzer.

In the match of the day, the #8 Spingold champs Rose Meltzer-Kyle Larsen, Sontag-Weichel, and Stansby-Martel take on the 2000 Bermuda Bowl champion #1 Nickell-Freeman, Bob and Paul Ham-Way, joined by Meckwell. Overtime finds Rodwell in a last-train 3NT contract redoubled, but plus 1000 wins the match for Nickell by 1 IMP.

#2 Jacobs v. original #10 now #6 Rosenkranz.

Captain George Jacobs and Ralph Katz are joined by the Italian Renaissance of the new millenium Lauria-Versace and Bocci Duboin. Hall of Famer Dr. Jorge is 85 playing with John Mohan who swings with Lev and Gawrys-Pszczola who play all the boards. Five-handed wears out against the reigning World Champs in the second half. Jacobs by 3.

#3 Robinson v. #6 Robson (NPC).

In a battle of four-handed squads, Robinson-Boyd and Woolsey-Stewart, versus femme fatale Rita Shugart with The Wild West's Bruce Ferguson filling in for British star Andrew Robson, (who broke nearly 20 bones in a freak fall in early February) and Air Shugart's raw power, the Norwegian Lion Helgy and brilliant Britisher Tony Forrester. Robson's inspiration carries the team from across the Atlantic. Shugart in a small upset by 1.

Origninal #29, now #4 Eisenberg v. Orginal #12, now #12 Gromov. Hall of Fame Cinderella Broadway Billy Eisenberg, with a wheeling fivehanded Aleenspach, Maksymetz, Stomberg, Nystrom, comes head-to-head with the red-hot Russians Gromov-Petrunnin and the top Polish phenoms Balicki-Zmudzinski. Gromer by 5.
