SUMMER NABC

80th Summer North American Bridge Championships

Editors: Brent Manley and Dave Smith

Assistant Tournament Chair Bonnie Bagley and Chair Ken Monzingo are pleased with the Las Vegas NABC.

Volunteers make it happen

Good tournaments don't just happen. Behind the scenes, there is a tremendous amount of work that goes on.

"The support of our volunteers has been great," says Tournament Chair Ken Monzingo. "Bonnie feels the same way. I've been managing regionals and have been an assistant NABC chair for 30 years, and I've never seen anything like it." Bonnie Bagley is the assistant chair.

Monzingo says there are too many volunteers to name all of them, but he is especially appreciative of Marilyn Mason, the IN chair; Della Willis, who was in charge of the partnership desk; Jenny Pinto, who manned the Awards Desk; Adis Dombu and Justine Hancock, who helped with hospitality; Barbara Dunkley from Unit 373 and Tom Shulman from Las Vegas for general support; Pam Allen, who arranged

Welland, Gromov to play for Spingold championship

The team led by Roy Welland, down 23 IMPs at the halfway point of their semifinal match against the James Cayne team (Weed, npc), took the lead with a 42-16 third quarter and held on for a 113-95 win.

The victory puts Welland in the final against the Russian-Polish team captained by Andrew Gromov, who defeated the Rose Meltzer team 148-136.

The finalists are Welland, Brian Glubok, Steve Garner, Howard Weinstein, Billy Cohen and Ron Smith facing Gromov, Aleksander Dubinin of Russia, Cezary Balicki and Adam Zmudzinski of Poland.

The match will be shown live on Bridge Base Online (www.bridgebase.com) starting at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Cederborg, Hampton in Mini-Spingold final

Teams captained by Warren Cederborg and Joyce Hampton cruised into the final of the Mini-Spingold I (0-5000) with easy wins.

The California-based Cederborg team (Greg Michaels, Dayou Zhou, Stephen Tu) defeated the Donald Florida squad 169-84. Florida was listed in Saturday's Daily Bulletin as the loser of the semifinal match against Jim Russell. The teams discovered Saturday morning that both had scored a board incorrectly, so Florida was in.

In the other semifinal match, Hampton (Lucas Lebioda, Jon Rice, Mike Rice, David Grainger) knocked off Michael Cassel II 187-129.

Line scores

Cederborg	36	81	119	169
Florida	17	34	69	84
Cassel	39	83	90	129
Hampton	63	91	137	187

Gordon leads Open Swiss

A team captained by Phil Gordon leads 107 others who qualified for the final today of the NABC+ Open Swiss Teams. The team is Gordon and Joshua Donn of Las Vegas, Jason Feldman of San Diego CA, Terje Aa of Heimdal, Norway, and Joergen Molberg of Trondheim, Norway. They have a 30 IMPs carryover.

Close behind is second place are Steve Robinson, Peter Boyd, Kit Woolsey and Fred Steward. Their carryover is 27.86 IMP.

This is a new event, first played in 2005. The defending champions are Lou Ann O'Rourke, Marc Jacobus, Norberto Bocchi, Giorgio Duboin, Geoff Hampson and Eric Greco. They are tied for 38th.

Zur Campanile leads Fishbein

Migry Zur Campanile, a member of the winning squad in the Chicago Mixed Board-a-Match Teams on Friday, is leading the race for the Fishbein Trophy (most masterpoints at the Summer NABC) with one day to play.

Zur Campanile will have to finish well in the Open Swiss Teams because the winners of the Spingold Knockout Teams will each receive 250 masterpoints.

Duplicate any time, anywhere is goal of Danish entrepreneur

Peter Just with a computer image of Bridgespinner.

Growing up in Denmark, Peter Just knew bridge because his family played for as long as he could remember. He found rubber/party bridge to be unsatisfying, however, so he was drawn to duplicate.

Five years ago, he sold the communications company he founded and immersed himself in a project he hopes will produce his ideal scenario for bridge – the ability to play duplicate bridge any time, anywhere with real cards.

The product is called Bridgespinner, which Just envisions as a virtual bridge club – but not Internet-based. With Bridgespinner, you could play a session of duplicate, using real cards, no matter where you are.

The core of the product is a unit that can connect – via wifi or mobile phone – to a central server that allows for downloading of randomly dealt hands, previously played tournaments, lesson deals – you name it.

The Bridgespinner holds two decks of cards with invisible coding for dealing purposes. The device deals the cards according to the desired type of game. The cards come out of slots in the device, which looks like a small model of a flying saucer. It can be seated in a specially built table so that the surface of the table is completely flat. The dealer can also stand alone in any setting. It is battery operated.

Today's Goodwill gesture: Say 'Thanks!'

As we prepare to leave this wonderful Lss Vegas NABC, let's all take an extra moment to say "thank you" to our hosts. The hospitality and entertainment have been spectacular.

I look forward to see you at the Fall NABC in Boston.

Board-a-match bidding quiz

By Karen Walker

Many players consider board-a-match (BAM) scoring to be the toughest form of the game. It's similar to the head-to-head competition of IMPs, but each board is scored like matchpoints with a top of 1. You either win (1), lose (0) or tie (1/2) the opposing team, and the smallest scoring increment makes a difference.

The second qualifying session of the Mixed Board-a-Match teams featured several bidding decisions that are particularly interesting at this form of scoring. Try these problems:

(1) Board 14. You are West.

Dlr: East ♠ A K 9 3 2
Vul: None ♥ A 10 8
♦ 8 3
♣ Q 8 7

West	North	East	South
		1♣	Pass
1♠	2♦	Pass (a)	Pass

(a) Denies three-card spade support

(2) Board 15. You are South.

Dlr: South ♠ J 9 3 2
Vul: N-S ♥ J 4 2
♦ Q 9 4 3
♣ 5 4

West	North	East	South
			Pass
Pass	1♦	3♣	Pass
4♣	Dbl	Pass	?

(3) Board 19. You are North.

Dlr: South ♠ K 5
Vul: E-W ♥ A K 8 6
♦ J 10 9 8 5
♣ 7 5

West	North	East	South
			1♥
2♣	3♣	Pass	3♥
3♠	4♥	4♠	Pass
Pass	?

(4) Board 20. You are North.

Dlr: West ♠ K Q J 10 9 3
Vul: Both ♥ K 9 5 3
♦ 7
♣ 9 6

West	North	East	South
Pass	?

(5) Board 23. You are West.

Dlr: South ♠ A 8 4 2
Vul: Both ♥ A J 10
♦ 6 4 2
♣ 9 6 5

West	North	East	South
			Pass
Pass	Pass	1♣	Dbl
1NT	Pass	2♣	Pass

The analysis:

(1) If you play support doubles, you already know there's no future in spades, so the task is to get your side to 3NT. 3♦ is the most straightforward way to force to game and ask partner for a diamond stopper, but the greedy BAM player is always looking for a bigger score. Try for it by reopening with a double. Partner will appreciate the opportunity to pass, as he holds:

♠ Q
♥ Q 4 3
♦ Q 10 9 5
♣ A K 10 9 2

3NT would have made at least 10 tricks for plus 430. 2♦ doubled, however, goes down three or four tricks for plus 500 or 800.

(2) The overly optimistic might try 4♠, but a 4♦ bid seems the safest retreat. You need plus scores at BAM, though, and with this hand, you can be fairly certain you won't be getting one on offense. Partner has a strong hand for his high-level double, so pass and hope he has enough quick tricks to scrape up a set. Partner held:

♠ K 7 6
♥ A K 8 5
♦ A 10 7 6 5
♣ K

4♦ will go down one, two or three, depending on how partner guesses the layout, and 4♣ goes down one or two.

(3) At IMPs, you might consider a 5♥ bid as "insurance" – you're willing to go minus 100 or even minus 300 to avoid a possible minus 620 for defending their vulnerable game. That type of compromise offers no benefit at BAM, though, because any negative point differential – whether it's 10 points or 1000 – will still be a zero.

Essentially, you need to guess right now whether you can set 4♠ and whether a bigger plus score might be available if you declare 5♥. The redvs.-not opponents seem pretty happy with their 4♠ contract, and it's sounding like both sides have a big double fit. When in doubt at BAM, it's often wise to put on the pressure, so try 5♥. Maybe the opponents will be so anxious to declare that they'll bid 5♠, or maybe 5♥ will make.

The bad news is that 4♠ was going down because partner held wasted spade cards:

♠ Q J 6
♥ Q 10 9 7 2
♦ A Q 4 3

The good news is that he had the diamond fit you were expecting and the ♦K was onside, so you score up 11 tricks.

(4) Open 2♠. Yes, you have that side four-card major, and you're vulnerable in second seat (the worst position for a preempt). Even those who are fanatical about their weak two-bid requirements, though, usually loosen up at BAM. If you open 2♠, your LHO will double and partner will bid 4♠ with:

♠ A 7 4 2
♥ A J 6 2
♦ Q 6 3
♣ 7 3

The opponents will probably double and you'll score up plus 790. If you instead pass at your first turn and try to describe this hand later, you may give East-West room to find their double fit in the minors and take a 5♣ or 5♦ sacrifice, which goes down just one.

(5) Some would call your notrump response a "BAM hog bid," but RHO's takeout double and your flat distribution make 1NT an attractive alternative to 1♠. Should you suggest more notrump now, or do you think you've done enough?

The typical BAM player will stand on his head to avoid playing in a minor if he thinks a notrump contract might be available, so try 2NT ("when in Rome ..."). Partner will raise to 3NT with:

♥ K 9
♦ 10 5 3
♣ A K Q 8 7 3

You'll make 10 tricks with a heart lead, nine with a spade or diamond lead.

Fred Hamilton shared this interesting defense from the second final session of his team's win in the Truscott Senior Swiss Teams. Fred's partner was Mark Lair and his teammates were Reanette Frobouck, John Carruthers and Allan Graves.

Fred, South, led a low diamond against East's 1NT contract. Mark played the ♦Q, won by declarer's ♦A. Declarer now laid down the ♣A and Fred promptly dumped his ♣K.

Fred knew declarer held the ♦J, but he didn't know it was unguarded, so he didn't want to be on lead at this point. He was also fairly sure his partner held the ♣J, as if declarer held that card, he likely would have gone to dummy with the ♠A to finesse clubs.

Declarer now had two fast club tricks, but he couldn't establish a third without giving North the lead. When he did, Mark played back a diamond and declarer pitched a club, a heart and a spade while Fred ran his suit.

Fred exited with the ♠Q to the ace and declarer's now-singleton jack. Declarer cashed dummy's good club, but that was his last trick. Down two meant plus 200 for Fred's team and a 3-IMP pickup. His teammates were minus 110 defending 3♦.

"Three IMPs doesn't seem like much, but when you win the event by just 2 victory points, it means a whole bunch!" said Fred.

Death trap revisited

Barry Rigal wrote about this deal earlier in the tournament. Rigal called it a death trap, and Deep Finesse says the limit for North-South is nine tricks in diamonds.

Don't tell that to Barbara Ames of Bethesda MD and Ellen Cherniavsky of Silver Spring MD.

West twitched over 6♦ but passed, and East started with the ♣A. Cherniavsky ruffed in dummy, cashed two high spades, pitching a heart, then ruffed a heart, ruffed a club and ruffed another heart. She then drove out the ♦A. When the suit split 3-1, she was home with plus 1370 and nearly all the matchpoints.

Unlike Deep Finesse, East could not see all the cards.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Players:

By Marti Ronemus

Well, our time together is nearly over. You're packing to go home, wondering how much weight you've gained, looking at that pile of dirty clothes, dreading getting pulled out of the airport line for that little extra body pat-down. You've had a spectacular time . . . made new friends, played bridge till you couldn't tell the suits apart . . . seen and done things that are best left in Vegas.

But . . . you didn't win as many masterpoints as you would have liked to, and you're remembering the words of some coach who said that people who don't mind losing must do a lot of it. Hmm. I think it's time to re-define "winner."

You're a winner. . .

. . . If you're going home with more money than you came with. Did you hit a slot? A blackjack? Or did you resist all that clanging temptation and not bet at all?

. . . If you've become blasé about seeing a room with a couple hundred tables of bridge players. Remember the first time you saw it? That little shock when you realize you weren't in Kansas anymore? And now, not only are you used to it, but you can find your room and section without an usher. You know where all the water stations and restrooms are, and you're on a first-name basis with all the directors. And vendors.

. . . If you are no longer embarrassed about sprawling on the nearest piece of furniture for a little power nap. The first time you saw people doing that, you remarked how tacky it was. Now you know better, and have developed nifty techniques to grab and establish your turf.

. . . If you now recognize at least five world champions when you see them. You'll be looking for them in the next Bridge Bulletin, won't you?

. . . If you've built up your endurance so you can play all those boards at the required speed and live to tell the story. Remember when 21 boards seemed like an impossible dream? When the thought of playing a board every seven minutes left you reeling?

. . . If you announced your notrump range and transfers without being reminded. That took a while, didn't it?

. . . If you actually remembered your new conventions almost every time.

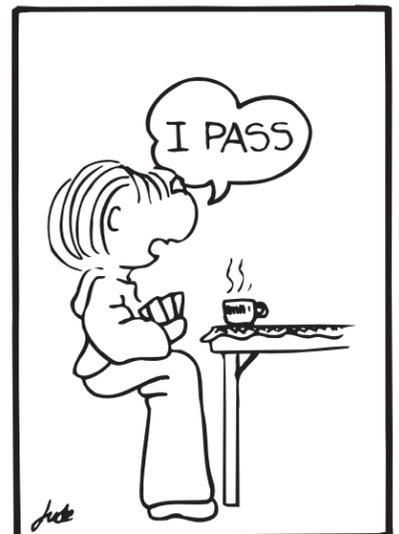

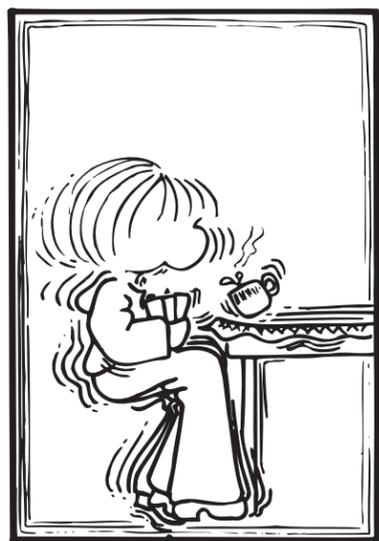

. . . If you can push your way to the front so you can get a good look at the recap sheets. And know what they mean!

Mostly, though, you're a winner for being here in the first place, for being willing to give it a try in the Big Time. And what an adventure. It was worth it. And now you're hooked!

You only have a couple more things to do to ensure your place in the winner ranks.

Make your reservations for Boston while you're here.

And go put a couple more coins in a slot.

Opening lead: ♥8.

Bidding commentary: As South, you have a minimum for a one level overcall. As North, 16 support points (not counting the ♥Q) facing a one-level overcall "usually" produces game.

Defensive commentary: As East, decide what partner is leading from to determine what declarer has in the suit. The lead is a likely top of a doubleton. With 9-x-x(x) in an unsupported suit, partner leads low. If partner has a doubleton, declarer has the A-J-10-x. If you cover, declarer will eventually be able to discard two clubs from dummy on the ♥J and ♥10. If partner has the ♣K, your cover costs a club trick, the setting trick! When partner's lead shows no honor cards, dummy has a singleton honor, and you have a higher honor than dummy, cover if you can promote a second or third round trick for yourself. For example, cover holding the ♥K J or the ♥K 10. If you can't promote at least a third-round trick, play low.

Play commentary: As South, If East covers the ♥Q, blow East a kiss, draw trumps and discard two clubs on the two high of hearts.

Instead of losing two clubs, you lose only one and bag a miracle game.

Defensive commentary #2: As West, give count (♦4) when a diamond is played. As East, make sure you take four tricks in the minors, assuming you played low at trick one on the heart. Partner needs the ♣K to defeat the contract and you know two diamonds are cashing.

Who makes the Intermediate-Newcomer program work? It takes many people, and Tournament Director Judy Cotterman heads the list.

(1) Agreed as forcing, but was not Announced.

Facts: The director was called prior to the opening lead. East started to speak up to inform his opponents of his partner's failure to Announce that 1NT was forcing. The director instructed the table to play the deal. South stated that had he known that 1NT was forcing, he would not have balanced.

Director's ruling: The director determined that there was misinformation because of the failure to Announce in a timely manner. In accordance with Laws 75 and 12C2, the result was adjusted to 1NT by West down two and a score of East—West minus 100.

The appeal: All four players attended the hearing. East—West stated that that the difference between a forcing and non-forcing 1NT seemed so slight that it ought not matter that the other side was misinformed.

The decision: The committee felt that doubling 1NT was a hairline decision. It felt that one would double on some days and not others. That the 1NT call could have been stronger was, therefore, relevant. It pushed the tight decision a little bit in the direction that would be successful. Therefore, the committee judged that the MI damaged the North—South pair.

The next question was whether North—South's bad result was due directly to the MI or was it due to North's decision to bid rather than pass the double? While many of us would pass without pause, the committee learned that both North and South thought the double was takeout of hearts — not penalty. Given North—South's experience level and given that they appeared to be on the same (albeit unusual) wavelength, the committee judged that this did not constitute subsequent damage.

The number of tricks East—West would take in 1NT was rather hard to decide. Deep Finesse calculated and the director judged five. Some lines of play will lead to four. Whether those lines are likely enough to invoke Law 12C2's "at all probable" standard is another matter.

Because this was a NABC+ Fast Open Pairs, the committee decided not to try and to guess that and concurred with the director's adjustment of 1NT by West, down two and a score of East—West minus 100.

Because the bridge judgment was very close, East—West were not assessed an appeal without merit warning.

(1) Break in tempo, no stop card used by East.

Facts: The director was called at the conclusion of play. All parties at the table agreed that there was about a 20-second hesitation preceding the double of 4♥ by South.

Director's ruling: The BIT did not demonstrably suggest that bidding would be advantageous to passing. This was based on the possibility that South was debating double versus pass in which case bidding on might turn a plus into a minus. In accordance with Law 16, the table result of 5♥ doubled, down two, East—West minus 300 was allowed to stand.

The appeal: Only East attended the hearing. The slowness of the third double suggests a desire to bid; therefore, bidding is demonstrably suggested.

The decision: The committee believed that an in-tempo double would indicate normal shape (4=2=3=4) and extra values. An out-of-tempo double indicates a desire to bid something else — not pass. Because of that, the committee decided that the BIT demonstrably suggested bidding and that pass was a logical alternative (LA). In accordance with Law 12C2, the most favorable result that was likely for the non-offending side and the most unfavorable result that was at all probable for offending side was 4♥ doubled, down one, East—West minus 100 and North—South plus 100.

Although double dummy play would produce 10 tricks, the committee adjusted the result as above.

Committee members: Aaron Silverstein, chair, Jerry Gaer, Abby Heitner, Chris Moll and Michael Rosenberg.

2. Three key cards, but no side king.

West, Marion Michielsen, led the ♥8 and East, Meike Wortel, played low. If Wortel had played the ♥K, declarer could concede a diamond and claim six. Deas played the ♠A Q J ending in dummy with the third round in dummy with the king. Declarer next led a diamond to her queen and West's king. West exited with the ♦9, won by Deas with the jack. Declarer now led the ♦8 to dummy's ace, as West played low. Notice that if she covered with the 10, dummy's 5 would be good. Deas could have passed the ♦8, but because West led the 9, she couldn't be sure who had the 10.

Declarer played the ♠10 and both defenders discarded a heart. This was the position as Deas cashed dummy's last spade:

On the last spade, East had to save a heart and so discarded the ♣4 as Deas discarded the ♣2 and East the ♥2. Declarer led a club to the king and cashed the ♥A. Now it was West's turn to feel the pressure. She had to save the ♦10 (or the 5 in dummy would be good), so she discarded a club. Now dummy discarded the ♦5. Both East and West held only one club and so the ♣A 10 took the last two tricks. The team won 11 IMPs on the board as 6NT was defeated at the other table.

Lost and found

Waiter, I'll take the rare NY strip

Adam Wildavsky of New York City and Doug Doub of West Hartford CT won the NABC+ Fast OpenPairs. A strip squeeze is a rare play and more so when it is executed against the dummy. This is board 24 from the first final session (hands rotated):

Dlr: North	♠ Q 10 8 6
Vul: None	♥ K J 8 3
	♦ Q J 5 2
	♣ 9
	♠ K 7 5 4	♠ J 9 3
	♥ 10 7 2	♥ A 9 6 4
	♦ K 9 7 4	♦ 8 3
	♣ A 8	♣ Q J 10 2
	♠ A 2
	♥ Q 5
	♦ A 10 6
	♣ K 8 7 5 4 3
North		South
Pass		1♣
1♥		1NT
Pass

Wildavsky led the ♠4. Declarer played the 8 from dummy, Doub covered with the 9 and the trick was won by the ace. Declarer advanced the ♦6, won by dummy's queen. The ♥3 was led to South's queen, and the ♦A was cashed. Declarer continued with the ♦6, won by West as East discarded the ♥4. West now led the ♠5 to the 10, won by East's jack. Doub shifted to the ♣Q, which was ducked all around. East continued with the ♣J, South ducked and West won the ace. On this trick dummy was strip squeezed. If declarer discarded a spade from dummy, both of West's spades cash. If he discarded the ♦J, West's 9 would be good; so he pitched a low heart.

West shifted to the ♥7, declarer played the jack and East won the ace and returned a heart. After cashing the diamond, declarer had to lead a spade from dummy's ♠Q 6 to Wildavsky's ♠K 7.

The North—South pair had done well to reach 1NT. Plus 50 was only worth 46 on a 77 top for East—West because many pairs were going down in 2♣.

A rare play

In this deal from a pairs game, Simon Kantor of Agawam MA had fun with a rarely seen play – a winkle (hands rotated). He was playing with Murray Melton.

Dlr:	♠ K 6 4
Vul:	♥ 10 6 4 3
	♦ 5 3
	♣ J 6 3 2
	♠ A 10 9 8	♠ J 7 3 2
	♥ A 9	♥ K J 7 2
	♦ 9 4 2	♦ 10 8
	♣ K 9 8 7	♣ J 6 3 2
	♠ Q 5
	♥ Q 8 5
	♦ A K Q J 7 6
	♣ Q 10

In second seat after dealer passed, Kantor, South, opened 1NT and got to play it there.

West led the ♠10: 4, 2, queen.

Kantor then rattled off six diamond tricks, pitching three hearts and a club from dummy to reach this position:

	♠ K 6
	♥ 10
	♣ J 6 3
	♠ A	♠ J
	♥ A 9	♥ K J 7
	♦ —	♦ —
	♣ K 9 8	♣ A 5
	♥ Q 8 5
	♣ Q 10

Kantor exited with a low spade to West's now-singleton ace. West played the ♣8 to East ace, and East switched to the ♥J, covered by the queen and ace. West now cashed the ♣K and played the ♥9. Kantor discarded the ♠K from dummy and the defenders were fixed. If West was allowed to hold the trick with the ♥9, he would have to give Kantor his eighth trick by playing a club to the good jack in dummy. If East overtook the ♥9 with the king, he would be left with only the ♥7 to play to Kantor's good 8. Plus 120 was good for about 80% of the matchpoints.

Drawing the right inference

After a spirited auction, NABC+ Fast Open Pairs winners Doug Doub and Adam Wildavsky played 6♥ on Board 14 of the second Qualifying Session. It's not often you have to take a finesse for the jack when your side holds nine trumps to the A-K-Q, but that was the case on this deal:

Dlr: East	♠ 10 2
Vul: None	♥ Q 9 3 2
	♣ A 10 7 6 5 3
	♠ K J 9 8 5 3	♠ A Q 6
	♥ 6	♥ J 7 4
	♦ J	♦ Q 10 8 7 2
	♣ K Q J 9 4	♣ 8 2
	♠ 7 6
	♥ A K 10 8 5
	♦ A K 9 6 5 3
West	North	East	South
	Doub		Wildavsky
		Pass	1♦
1♠	Dbl	2♦	5♥
Pass	6♥	All Pass

West led the ♣K and Wildavsky won the ace, pitching a spade. He led a diamond to the ace and ruffed a low diamond, getting the bad news as West discarded a spade. Declarer ruffed a club, ruffed a diamond and ruffed a club. He now lead another diamond and ruffed with the ♥Q.

Wildavsky inferred that West rated to hold six spades, giving him a singleton heart. If he ruffed low and cashed the ♥Q, he would have to shorten his trump suit to return to his hand. After ruffing high, however, he was able to play a heart to the 10, draw trumps and claim his slam for 25 matchpoints on a 25 top.

When asked about the 6♥ bid, Doub said he bid it as a two-way shot. He didn't like his chances of defending against 5♠ because his side might not get 500. Also, after 6♥, the opponents might save in 6♠ or make the wrong opening lead.

NABC Insider

And then there was one – day, that is. Today marks the end of the 2008 Summer NABC. But the memories will live on. The crowds pouring down the hallway from the casino. The sea of tables in the Conrad/Barron complex. The 30 tons of equipment and supplies we brought in. 3000 hot dogs on Friday night. Elvis – three times. And, the bridge, lots and lots of bridge. This is the largest NABC the Insider has been associated with and, judging from the comments, one of the best. We appreciate the input you have provided. The good, the bad and even the ugly. We try to react to the bad and ugly. Usually we succeed, sometimes we meet brick walls – literally in the case of moving the upstairs restrooms down one level to make them more convenient. But, we do want to hear what you have to say, it helps us do our job better – now and in the future.

The Insider will be making periodic entries on The Insider blog found on each NABC web page linked to the main ACBL home page. Check it out to see what tips and hints we can provide for upcoming NABCs. We hope we are able to inform and entertain, just as we hope our little space in the Bulletin has done. We'll be back in the Boston Daily Bulletin – as long as the Bulletin Boys and Boss Baum will tolerate us. Ask Me Girl will also be in her selected spot in Boston offering directions, answers and a smile. The usual cast of ACBL characters will be there. And, an energized group of local volunteers are just chomping at the bit to show you all a good time Boston style.

Thanks one last time for coming, playing and staying in Las Vegas, see you on the other coast starting on Nov. 20 at the Copley Connection. Make your reservations now, if you haven't already. The whole team will be ready to welcome you for another great NABC – don't miss it.

the pre-tournament hospitality; and Marty Hageman, who coordinated recruiting caddies..

“Other volunteers came from Southern California, Colorado, New Mexico and Texas,” says Monzingo. “Many of them will be with me at the San Diego NABC in the Fall of 2009.”

Monzingo also praised Bagley. “Bonnie just loves bridge, she loves the people and she loves being part of the whole thing,” he says. “The smartest thing I ever did was to recruit her.”

“The overall success of the tournament has been very, very good,” adds Monzingo. “The entertainment was outstanding. I had people coming up to me and saying how much fun they were having. That means a lot to me. Bonnie feels the same way. The Elvis shows were great as well as all the other entertainment.”

When asked if he was disappointed that this tournament didn't set a record for attendance, Monzingo says, “We set our table count expectations too high — they were unrealistic. We care more that players came and had a good time. Still, it wasn't bad. We have the record for the new century and it will be hard to beat.”

Were there any disappointments? “The entertainment was terrific,” says Monzingo, “and we wish more people had come to see it.”

Life Master news

Jim Schorner of Vero Beach FL became a Silver Life Master (1000+ masterpoints) playing in the Friday Open Pairs with his wife, Judy.

Mischel Postas of Campbell CA earned her gold card playing with her husband, L. John Postas, in the knockouts. Their teammates were Robert Ehlman of Locust Grove CA and Lucia Teulecke of Laguna Woods CA.

Rockford IL has a new Life Master. It's Robert J. Coffey, who earned his gold card in the knockouts. His partner was Judy, his wife. Their teammates were Louis Poisson of Tampa FL and his brother, Tom Poisson of Windsor ON.

When she entered the Daylight Open Pairs, Susan Stone of Kingwood TX needed 1.52 gold points to become a Life Master. She earned 1.67 gold playing with Rosa Materson of Houston.

Michaele Olesen of Scottsdale AZ is now a Silver Life Master. Her masterpoint total went past 1000 at the Summer NABC.

NABC Diary

Nowhere to go but up

Peter Benjamin of Culver City CA was playing in the NABC+ Open Swiss Teams when his squad was assessed a Zero Tolerance penalty of 1 victory point for minor misbehavior. The team was blitzed, so they started the next round in a minus position – “less than zero,” as Benjamin put it. Their opponents in round two were even worse off. They, too, had been blitzed, but they were assessed a procedural penalty of 5 VPs, so they were even farther down the ladder.

Asya, Irina and Nikita Ladyzhensky.

Mother knows best

National champion Irina Ladyzhensky visited the Daily Bulletin office with her two children, Asya and Nikita for a makeup photo from their appearance in the first Youth NABC in Atlanta. They came in first in Strat C in the Baron Barclay National Youth Open Pairs, but the photo of them taken in Atlanta was out of focus.

Mom won the Whitehead Women's Pairs in St. Louis last year and has been teaching bridge to her young ones. “I tell them never to claim,” says Irina. “People don't understand it, and you never know when an extra trick might come.”

Taking names

If you believe your name should be in the next edition of the Official Encyclopedia of Bridge, please send an e-mail to brent.manley@acbl.org. The next edition is scheduled to be published in 2010. Please include personal information as well as important bridge achievements.

Not groovy yet

Alice Kinningham of Denver CO retired as a tournament director a year ago last January after 30 years, much of it working the newcomer games. She and her husband, Wayne, have enjoyed several bridge cruises (he teaches the beginning groups) since she put her law book on the shelf.

Alice showed up at the Summer NABC to play, lamenting that “I haven't found my groove yet in playing.” She also allowed that she misses the TD job: “I miss my co-workers.”

Nick of time

Donald Florida and Annette Clark, who thought they lost in the quarterfinal round of the Mini-Spangold I (0-5000), were on their way to the airport Saturday morning to head home to Illinois. Florida was idly looking over his scorecard from the previous evening – and it hit him! One of the pushes on his scorecard was actually a 12-IMP gain, and they had “lost” by 5 IMPs.

Both teams – Florida and the squad captained by Jim Russell – had scored one of the boards as a push, but Florida and Clark defeated 4♥ at their table and their teammates – John Burgener and Karen Erlanger – made the vulnerable game at the other.

All Florida could think was, thank goodness for cell phones. He called Burgener right away, and he and Clark changed their flight reservations and headed back to the Hilton.

While Florida and Clark were hustling back to the hotel, Burgener called a member of the Russell team. They agreed that both sides had scored the board incorrectly, and the tournament staff was informed about the proper winner. Unfortunately, they lost in the semifinal round 169-84.

Publicity

Barry Harper called the Daily Bulletin office with a message: “I've had such a bad week at the tournament I'll do anything to get my name in the Daily Bulletin. Could you please make an announcement for me?”

Here it is: At the 2008 Spring NABC in Detroit, Harper was appointed to the Convention Approval Committee along with Jeff Meckstroth and Chip Martel.

TODAY'S SPONSORSHIP

Ethel's Chocolates

As you register at the Summer NABC here in Las Vegas, you'll be treated to a gourmet bar of Ethel's chocolate. From an experienced chocoholic's view, I promise you it is as good as it gets! You'll also find chocolate silver dollars each day at the tournament . . . again, gourmet goodies from Ethel's, whose "Chocolate Factory" is located in Henderson NV just 10 miles from the Las Vegas Strip. It's the location where all of the Ethel's chocolates – including their Ethel M brand — are manufactured. The company distributes their products mainly via phone and Internet sales, although they operate several retail outlets located in and around Las Vegas and Chicago. Also located at this plant are the famous Ethel M Botanical Cactus Gardens — a great sight seeing break — and a small branch of M&M's World. Ethel M is owned by Mars, Inc. and was named after the mother of Forrest

Mars (hence the "M" in Ethel M).

In 2007, the company made the transition from Ethel M Chocolates to Ethel's Chocolates. The new branding boasts a whole new line of 48 different handmade gourmet chocolates designed by their master chocolatier Jin Caldwell.

We are fortunate to have this unique Las Vegas institution as a sponsor of our NABC, and we're proud to showcase their chocolates throughout the event for your enjoyment. Want seconds? Just win your section (section top in any strat) and you get another bar, along with your winner's prize!
