LATE NIGHT/ENTERTAINMENT

Good Rockin' Tonight

Nightly, in our very own late-evening dance hall, we'll feature a steady stream of classic Fifties and Sixties sock hop music . . . dance hosts included!

After the evening session tonight, the DJ will be playing songs from 1960—61. These songs will be featured: It's Now or Never, Shop Around, Crying, Little Sister, Take Good Care of My Baby, Are You Lonesome Tonight, Runaway, Tossin' and Turnin', Running Scared, Travelin' Man, Stay, Marie's The Name (His Latest Flame), Surrender, Pretty Little Angel Eyes, Please Mr. Postman, Only The Lonely, Runaround Sue, The Lion Sleeps Tonight, Those Oldies But Goodies, Because They're Young and Run To Him.

On Friday, July 25, be sure to wear your Hawaiian shirts, in honor of the West Coast tradition, "Hawaii Day." Don't forget to wear your floral shirt!

During your visit, check out Teatro Elvis, our DVD movie theater, playing a non-stop showing of dynamic Las Vegas concerts, including those by Elvis, Barry Manilow, Celine Dion and Barbra Streisand. There'll even be an Elvis photo-op with autographed CDs.

NABC Insider

Well, this just in: we received the Mitchell Report and found that our table-count down on page one has been found guilty of steroid-enhancement. Mr. Baum has deemed an asterisk shall forever be used in any reference to this record. Although there is a ton of bridge going on, it doesn't look like we're going to break the record for tables in play. But we're still shooting for the largest NABC since the Insider got involved. Team records are nice, but this one is all about personal achievement!

More bad news. The "ask me girl" will be leaving Tuesday morning to start working on the Boston NABC. Be sure to say good bye.

The Insider wants to thank the Bulletin Boys for trusting us to keep them out of trouble and printing these pieces with virtually no editorial oversight. So, thanks to them. Almost every night they finish their work around 3 a.m. (or later) and still the Daily Bulletin is returned from the printer and sitting in the racks waiting for you by 6:30 a.m. Good work guys – a little kissing up to keep our prime page two space never hurts. Let them know you appreciate their hard work and maybe you can get front page coverage like the eight big event winners clamoring for space there this morning.

Participate in tee shirt day

Come see Margot Hennings, Tournament Chair for the Summer 2009 NABC in Washington DC, and get your special DC NABC tee shirt now!

After you get one, wear your shirt Tuesday to show your support for next Summer's NABC. Adult shirts are $15, youth shirts are $12. They come in two colors and all sizes.

See Margot at the entrance into the Hilton Pavillion near the Intermediate-Newcomer area. She will be there one-half hour before the afternoon session the next two days.

Ron Sukoneck is a Grand Life Master, a rank requiring more than 10,000 points and a title in an

New Life Masters

David Bohnett of Las Angeles is a new Life Master. He needed four goldpoints and won them in the KO Teams. His teammates are Brian Reynolds, Samantha MacDouglas, Chris Moore and Jennifer Chalfan.

John Morano of Iowa City IA is a new Gold Life Master, a rank requiring more than 2500 masterponts. He earned the last points he needed while playing in the Knockout Teams with Ed Judy of Iowa City, Gordon Adkins of Westchester OH and Sali Ma of Las Vegas.

John Babb of New Paltz NV advanced to Life Master. He needed .02 gold points and won that by coming in second in his bracket of the Knockout Teams. He was playing with Farley Mawyer.

Hetty Kallman of Thousand Oaks CA advanced to Life Master playing in the Open Pairs with Jean Jolin.

Sue McHale and Phil Rutkowski both earned Life Master status in the 299er Swiss Teams. They are from Huntington Beach CA.

If you achieve Life Master rank here in Las Vegas, the Daily Bulletin wants to recognize you. Information needed is your name, hometown, which event you made it in and your partners or teammates names. The Daily Bulletin office is located in Conference Room 2.

Coffee with Elvis

Elvis is returning to the NABC to sign autographs and pose for photos with players at noon today near Pavilion 2. There will be free coffee with supplies last.

Goodwill Message

Today is Goodwill Day. My co-chairs and I invite all members of the National Goodwill Committee to join us at a reception from 5 to 7 p.m. in Pavilion 9.

We look forward to seeing you. Aileen Osofsky, Chairman National Goodwill Committee

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Players:

By Marti Ronemus

Surely by now you've heard all the evidence about bridge improving memory. It's been in magazines, news articles, everywhere.

Well, I'm here to tell you it's true. I have exact, personal evidence.

He will remember anything he puts on a list. He remembers birthdays and anniversaries. (I suspect my list of gift suggestions in various price ranges posted on the refrigerator door helps a little in that department!) He can be relied on to pick up some milk on the way home.

When it comes to bridge, tha's a different story! He's like the Amazing Kreskin!

A couple of nights ago, I misplayed a cold slam.

"Marti, that's the same thing you did in 1987."

"Huh?"

"Sure, don't you remember? It was at the Hunt Valley Regional."

"Gary, I can't even remember who was president in 1987."

"We were playing in the ballroom. We were pair 6 East-West. I was sitting West."

"How do you know you were West?"

"The sun was in my eyes as we got to table 9, by the window, and it was 4:15 p.m. I was West. We were playing against Big John and his wife. Don't you remember?"

"Honey, I can't remember the hand I played a round ago. What makes you think I would remember something that happened last century?"

"Because you made the same mistake on that hand that you made tonight. You blew your lead to the board on the first trick. Back in 1987, it was the first time you had ever bid a grand slam.

The dummy came down, you looked at it and smiled. Then you blew your entry to all the dummy's good cards on the first trick.'

"The first time I ever bid a grand slam? Are you sure?"

"Yes. You always said you were too afraid and wanted to leave -wiggle room.' Even when you knew we had 38 points, you wanted to leave yourself room for mistakes."

Hmm. Seems I was right, wasn't I?

Since that day in 1987, I've learned to take my time before I play to trick one. I've learned to analyze the opening lead. What does it show the leader has? How does it help me place the five honors in the led suit? Then I look at the dummy and start counting tricks. In a suit contract, count losers. In a notrump contract, count winners. How am I going to get more winners? How am I going to get rid of losers (throwing them on the floor doesn't count!).

And then I've learned to plan my transportation. How many times do I need to get to dummy? How am I going to do it? Will I need wings or are there enough entries?

I really do know how to do this. I do it routinely.

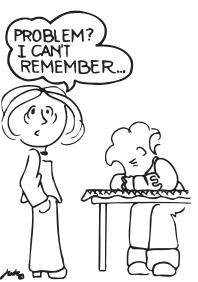

But sometimes I forget. Gary never forgets, and that's why he's a much better player than I. But watch this:

> "Gary, what did I wear to our wedding?" "Uh, uh . . . was it something blue?"

Opening lead: ♥5.

Bidding commentary: As East, you have an awkward hand. It is usually not a good idea to open a weak two-bid with a side four-card major and the hand isn't strong enough to open 1♥. After North's 1♦ response, you might try bidding 2♥ now! Why now? If you think about it, a delayed 2♥ jump overcall should show six hearts and four spades, the reason for not opening 2♥ in the first place.

Defensive Commentary: East does best to win the \vee A and continue the suit.

Play commentary: As South, you have two lines of play available. You can play three rounds of diamonds and hope they break 3-3 (35-36%). If they do, dummy's long diamond provides a resting place for your losing spade. Alternatively, you can take two spade finesses. If West has one or both of the spade honors (75%), you can set up a spade trick for a diamond discard. The double spade finesse is more than twice as likely to produce the extra trick you need, so that is the better line of

It is nice to know a little bit about suit distributions. If you have seven cards in a suit between your hand and dummy, you can expect a 3-3 break about one-third of the time, a 4-2 break close to 50% of the time. If you need one of two finesses to work, you can expect one of them will

Does this sound familiar? The opponents preempt and I don't know what to do. My opening leads never work out. Each day there will be guest speakers. Come, listen and learn. Guess what? The price is right —- they're free. Lessons are 45 minutes before the afternoon and evening sessions in Pavilion 11. Yesterday, Barbara Seagram, shown at right, gave a free bridge lesson.

West led the $J to East's ace. A second club was taken by dummy's king. Declarer played a spade, expecting to be trying for an overtrick, but when East pitched a club, such thoughts had to be given up.

Declarer won the ♠A and played a diamond to the ace and a diamond back. East won the ♠K and played a top heart. Declarer ruffed and was down to one fewer trumps than West – but his side suit was established, and dummy had the priceless ♠9.

Declarer played diamond winners. West actually ruffed low, so declarer could overruff, cash two top spades and play diamonds, losing only to the $J.

West was powerless. He could have ruffed a diamond high instead of low, then forced declarer to ruff a second heart. West would be back to having one more trump than declarer, but to no benefit. Declarer simply plays diamonds, and when West ruffs, he can overruff with the 9, draw trumps and cash out for 10 tricks.

Notice to players who live outside North America

Participation in the NABC+ events is limited to ACBL members who have achieved the rank of Life Master.

Players who reside outside North America and who do not meet this criteria, but feel they are otherwise eligible to participate, must receive a waiver in writing prior to the commencement of the contest. Please contact ACBL Chief Tournament Director Rick Beye in the Tournament Operations office or at the sale site. Please note that players who have been waived into previous Life Master Pairs do not have to re-apply.

Zero Tolerance: Learning from other sports Part 1

By Simon Cocheme

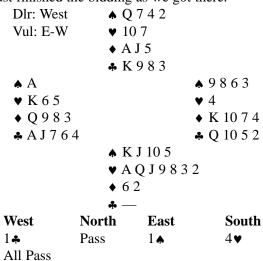

Aileen Osofsky, chair of the ACBL Goodwill committee and a leading proponent of the ACBL's Zero Tolerance initiative, is keen to find out what bridge could learn from other sports, so she invited other sporting bodies to send bridge teams to a special event where they could be observed in action.

The play had already started by the time I got there. The first room seemed a bit rowdy. As I entered, a player got up and ran round the table with his arms outstretched. Then he dropped on to his knees, slid forward a few feet and lifted the front of his shirt over his head. Tournament Director Mike Flader, dressed in black and wearing shorts, came over to remonstrate with him.

"It's the soccer players," sighed Aileen. "This pair does it every time they make a contract. We're trying to persuade them to keep it just for slams. Their other pair are fine," she went on, "They've yet to play a hand. They think passing all the time is a good idea – they say it's the David Beckham way."

We stayed to watch the next board. I looked at their opponents. From the white outfits, and the lemon barley water on the tables beside them, I guessed they were tennis players. My suspicions were confirmed when one of them started grunting loudly every time she placed a bidding card on the table. Her partner gave a clenched fist pump and a stifled cry of "Yes!" as his 3NT bid was passed out. The play was somewhat disjointed because the pair of them insisted on touching hands across the table after every trick, whether won or lost. "We would have to have screens in all the clubs to take care of that," commented Aileen, as declarer won the game with an ace.

I was almost barged over as the new pair came to the table. The ice hockey players had arrived. We went into the second room, which was almost funereal in contrast. The table nearest the door had just finished the bidding as we got there.

South took a glove off his left hand and put it into the hip pocket of his garish check trousers as the ♠A was led and dummy went down. West switched to the ◆3. A second man, whom I had taken to be a kibitzer, leaned over declarer's shoulder and pointed at the dummy.

"What are they doing?" I whispered to Aileen. "That's his caddy," she answered. "He's pointing out the best line."

They finished their consultation. Declarer nodded and called for the \blacklozenge A. He then played the \clubsuit K from dummy and threw the \blacklozenge 6 from hand, exchanging one loser for another. West won the trick but was unable to cross to his partner's hand and get a spade ruff. Declarer ruffed the diamond return and soon wrapped up 10 tricks.

"A Scissors Coup," said Aileen. "Wasn't that neat!"

South smiled at her. "We golfers try to avoid the rough," he said. "It was just a matter of selecting the right club."

Unlucky?

By Brian Senior

This is a busy time of year for me – a week ago I was playing in a big bridge festival in Biarritz, and I also played a three-day tournament in Scotland between Biarritz and Las Vegas.

The bridge culture in France is quite different to that in the U.S. Where an NABC offers the opportunity to play several sessions a day, the schedule in Biarritz featured just one session a day. There is worthwhile prize money in French tournaments, and there is only one event being played at any given time.

The French have a teams format, called a Patton, which is not seen here. In Biarritz, we played four-board matches. Eight victory points were available according to the IMP difference, with 19+ IMPs required for an 8-0 win. Also, 8 VPs were available from a slight variant on boarda-match, 2 for a win, 1 for a draw on each board. However, a difference of 10 - e.g., plus 120 against plus 110 - counts as a tied board. How would you declare this one?

Dlr: East ∧ K 10 9 7 2 Vul: Both ♥ K 9 6 ♦ 9 ♣ Q J 10 4 ♠ 3 ♥ AQJ1087 ♦ 763 ♣ A 8 6 West North East South $1 \blacklozenge (1)$ 1♥ 2♦ 2 Pass 3♥ Pass 4♥ All Pass

(1) Four-plus diamonds, playing 12-14 1NT openers and four-card majors.

West led the \blacklozenge J, and East overtook with the \blacklozenge Q to switch to the \clubsuit 3.

Declarer was a strong player, fresh from representing his country in the European Open Team Championships just a week earlier. He read the prompt switch as a singleton, in which case to finesse would lead to swift defeat.

But if the *K was offside, East rated to hold the A, suggesting an alternative line. Declarer rose with the *A, ruffed a diamond, played a heart to hand and ruffed the last diamond. Now he played the *K, expecting to lose to East, the hand that couldn't hurt him. He would ruff the next trick, draw trumps and give up a club. But this was the full deal:

★ K 10 9 7 2
★ K 9 6
★ Q J 10 4
★ A J 4
★ 5 4 2
★ J 10 8 4 2
★ A K Q 5
★ K 9 5 3
★ A Q J 10 8 7
◆ 7 6 3
★ A 8 6

West won the AA, led a club to the king and received his ruff for down one in a "cold" contract.

Unlucky? Perhaps, but declarer was playing for East-West to hold something like

A Q 5 4
A J 8 6
✓ 5 4 2
✓ J 10 8 4
A K Q 5 2
A K 9 7 5 2

Would West really bid only 2♦ and East not compete over 2♠ with this layout? I'm not convinced. Certainly, my defense of overtaking the diamond and switching to a club was superior to that found at the other table, where the ♦J was allowed to hold the first trick and West switched to his doubleton club (the contract was made with an overtrick), but I don't think it should have been successful.

The Hilton is trying to make bridge players feel welcome. Some blackjack tables now feature the Las Vegas NABC logo (front) and the ACBL logo (rear left).

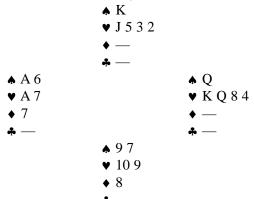

Just enough to be squeezed

By Barry Rigal

What's the greatest indignity you have been subjected to at the bridge table? Steve Landen sat South on this deal from the second semifinal session of the Von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs and found himself subjected to a squeeze despite his meager assets.

Landen led a diamond, and his partner won the ace and continued the suit to declarer's king. Note that only a spade lead sets 6NT (6* is cold because declarer can ruff a diamond for the 12th trick).

After winning the \blacklozenge K, declarer ran six club tricks to reach this ending:

Note that, under the pressure of the avalanche of clubs, North had been forced to discard all his diamonds, hoping that Landen could guard the suit. North also had to come down to a singleton AK because if he ever discarded a heart, that suit was running. Of course, declarer also had discard issues. He, too, had to save hearts, which is why the East hand also came down to a singleton spade.

Declarer played the \bigvee A and a heart to the king, and when he cashed the \bigvee Q, Landen was squeezed between diamonds and spades and declarer finished with 12 tricks for plus 490 and a fine score.

GNT Champs

The winners, all from Florida, are Becker, Warren Spector, Jeff Meckstroth, Eric Rodwell, David Berkowitz and Larry Cohen.

The runners-up are the New England sextet of Merblum, John Stiefel, Lloyd Arvedon, Victor King, Doug Doub and Sheila Gabay.

With the victory, Meckstroth now has eight GNT championships to his credit, one of 44 North American championships. Rodwell won his 7th GNT and now has 45 North American titles.

In the semifinal round, the winners were on the verge of elimination, trailing by 44 against the District 16 squad captained by Bart Bramley with a 16 boards to play. The Becker squad, however, won the final quarter 61-5 to get their chance at a repeat.

In the final, Becker started with a 22-11 first quarter, increasing the margin to 13 at the halfway point. They stretched the lead to 40 after three quarters and won the final set 18-1.

An NABC reunion

Swedes Johan Upmark and Martin de Knijff have known each other for several years. Upmark still lives in Sweden, but de Kniiff moved to Las Vegas. When they found out the NABC was to be held in Las Vegas, it seemed like a good excuse to meet and play bridge together.

Upmark is a member of Swedish team that finished fifth in the Bermuda Bowl in Shanghai, China. He recently competed in the European Bridge Championships.

De Knijff learned both bridge and poker as a youngster in Sweden. He now lives in Las Vegas and concentrates more on poker, but still likes to play bridge. He won a World Poker Tour championship and was second in a World Series of Poker event. In 2002, he finished 13th in the WSOP Main Event. He has more than $3 million in prize winnings. De Knijff earned the rank of Swedish Life Master of Bridge when he was 21 and was the youngest to do so at the time.

Johan Upmark and Martin de Knijff played in the Life Master Pairs.

Fast start

On the first deal he played at the NABC, Mark Itabashi found himself with an unusual opportunity in the Thursday evening pairs game (hands rotated). Itabashi was playing with Steve Love.

West started with the $J, taken by Itabashi in hand with the ace. He played a low heart to the 10 and East's queen, winning the club continuation in dummy. Itabashi the played the ♦A and a diamond to his jack, then played the ♥J to the king and ace. Next came a low spade from dummy, ducked to West, who persisted in clubs, East pitching a spade.

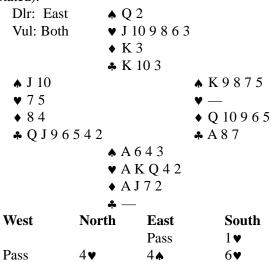

Itabashi was at the crossroads at that point. What layout of the opponents' hands should he play for?

After some thought, he got it right, discarding the blocking ♥7 on the ♣K. He then played a spade to his ace, removing East's last card in that suit, then cashed his ♦ K and exited with a diamond to East, who was left to play from the \mathbf{v} 8 3 to lead into dummy's \mathbf{v} 9 5.

It was a stepping stone end position that resulted in 10 tricks and a tie for top.

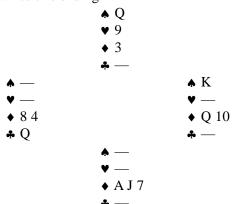

Showing off the show-up

Mark Itabashi found himself in slam on this deal from the first qualifying session of the Von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs. Given the form of scoring, Itabashi (South) had a strong incentive to take 13 tricks rather than settling for 12 (hands rotated).

West led the AJ. On the bidding, Itabashi knew it was futile to cover, so he played low from dummy, winning the ace in hand. He played a low heart to dummy and called for a low club. East rose with the ace, which was ruffed high, now a second heart to dummy was followed by the *K and a club ruff high. Itabashi returned to dummy with the ♦K and ran trumps, coming down to this ending:

All Pass

The ♥9 completed the demise of East, who had the choice of discarding the AK or coming down to a singleton ♦Q. Making seven was good for 19.5 out of 25 matchpoints. Taking only 12 tricks in 6♥ was about average.

Swanson is Platinum LM

John Swanson of Mechanicsburg PA has advanced to Platinum Life Master, a rank that requires 10,000 masterpoints. He and wife Selena, won the national Ace of Clubs race for 2005 in the Emerald Life Master category. The two claim to be one of the few married couples who play together without yelling at each other. Swanson is often confused with manytime national champion John Swanson of California. Marshall Miles once called him to play in the Spingold Knockout Team. He is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. While there, U.S. presidential hopeful John McCain was in his company and roomed across the hall from him. Swanson is now a retired Navy Captain.

Swanson tells of his favorite bridge deal:

Several decades ago, my wife and I traveled to Ireland with a group of 40 American bridge players. We were there to play in the Irish Bridge Classic, a bridge tournament hosted by the Irish. Section top prizes were embossed Irish lead-crystal glasses. While we were much-less experienced players then, we very much wanted to win a least one section top, to have a souvenir of our trip.

Alas, the final day of the tournament arrived, and we were still without a win. In the final event, we were determined to try our best. We were playing well with many good results. The last round arrived and we felt our game had been good enough to win. Therefore, I hoped for only innocuous hands to finish with. That wasn't to be, as this was the final deal:

When East opened 2*, I decided to muddy the water by bidding 2. West passed and my wife jumped to 4. I thought I had just committed suicide. East doubled, a bid that reverberated throughout the room. Look what happened:

West lead the ♦6 to the ace. The ♣Q was covered by the king and ruffed. I led a low heart, ruffed in dummy. The &J was covered by the ace and ruffed. I ruffed another heart with dummy's $\dagger$8 and cashed the $10, discarding a diamond. The $9 was led and East ruffed with the $10 and I overruffed with my ace. A third heart was ruffed in dummy with the $9. When I led the $8, East ruffed and so I discarded my last diamond.

East drew two rounds of trumps, but I was left with a long trump and the good ♥J, making 4 doubled. So, we finally got our section top and our souvenir Irish lead-crystal glasses. Ireland, what a beautiful country. We even kissed the Blarney Stone.

Tribute to a champion

Earlier in the tournament, a short obituary on John Armstrong was published. Armstrong was one of England's top players and a regular in recent years at NABCs.

What follows is a tribute to Armstrong that was published in The Times of London. The author is not known.

John Armstrong was a mainstay of British bridge for 25 years. Just before his death, he had competed for England in the European Championships in Pau, southwest France, where, although the team achieved little, his partnership with John Holland finished second in the individual rankings.

Armstrong was popular in the bridge world, but he was not a typical player. He did not drink or smoke and he played for the game for the pure love of it rather than for pecuniary gain. He also played the piano, went to church (he was a devout Christian and would need to be rested from play on Sunday mornings), orienteered and climbed hills.

Andrew Robson, the Times bridge correspondent, recalled that the day after Britain won the European Championships (by a record margin) in Killarney, County Kerry in 1991, the two of them did not sit back and bask in the reflected glory at their achievement but instead climbed up the long, arduous mountain range of Macgillycuddy's Reeks.

John Armstrong was born in 1952 and brought up in Ashbourne, Derbyshire. He did not come from a bridge-playing family, and indeed learnt from library books, having been inspired by newspaper columns. He went up to Cambridge to read mathematics and there met such bridge luminaries (all destined to become international players) as Richard Fleet, Brian Callaghan and, most significantly, Graham Kirby.

In 1977 Armstrong formed a 20-year partnership with Kirby. They represented Britain in two Bermuda Bowls (world championships), two Olympiads and seven European Championships. The highlights were a silver medal in the 1987 Bermuda Bowl and a gold medal in the 1991 European Championships. In domestic bridge they won six Gold Cups and represented England in 31 Camrose matches (won 28, lost 3). After Kirby retired, Armstrong had success in partnership with Danny Davies, Paul Hackett and John Holland, finishing in the top four of the English trials each year from 2005 until 2008.

Armstrong will be remembered for his buccaneering bidding style – where he usually stayed just the right side of the bold-reckless divide – and his accurate and thoughtful card play. But perhaps most of all, bridge players worldwide will remember him for his trademark loud belly-laugh. This would dissipate any tension, such as when scoring up bad results with disappointing teammates.

Armstrong's outward joviality belied great focus and determination. In the 1991 Bermuda Bowl in Japan, five of the six British players were hopelessly jetlagged and consequently underperformed. But not Armstrong, who had prepared for the trip by going to bed immediately after work (he was an actuary in Liverpool before taking early retirement in 2003).

In bed at 6 p.m. and up at 2 a.m. (he had played the piano until dawn) meant he had no jetlag and played fine bridge. Indeed, Japan was always kind to him, as a four-time winner of the NEC Cup in Yokohama, twice with Paul Hackett and twice with Brian Callaghan.

Armstrong never married.

John Armstrong, bridge player, was born on Jan. 23, 1952. He died of a brain hemorrhage on July 3, 2008, aged 56.

A reception for bridge teachers of Junior players was held yesterday. The purpose was to exchange ideas and get to know others with the same interests. Patty Tucker, who founded Atlanta Junior Bridge, planned the meeting. Shown here are Julie Greenberg, ACBL Education Director, Cindy Sealy, a player from Huntsville AL who is interested in teaching Junior bridge, and Tucker.

Mini-Spingolds play today

Mini-Spingolds I and II — one for players with 0-5000 masterpoints, the other for players with 0-1500 masterpoints — will begin play today.

The Mini-Spingolds will run concurrently with the Spingold Knockout Teams and continue for not more than five days. The length of a match will be similar to the length of regional knockout events. Screens may be used as appropriate in later rounds.

The 2007 winners in the 0—5000 Mini-Spingold Knockout Teams are: Brian Alexander, Jim Gordon, Mike Betts and Karl Hicks.

Previous winners, Mini-Spingold I (0-5000):

2001 1. Brian Johnston, John Lloyd, Bill Woodcock, Gary Whiteman, Brooke Nelles, Dale Freeman; 2. Howard Gianera, Barry Purrington, Vernon Evans, Monte Evans, John Koch, Tony Ames

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an announcement, use the announcement word —- such as "transfer" —- and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or announcement has been made.

Wagar KO starts today

The Wagar Women's Knockout Teams gets underway today, and at stake is the Wagar Trophy, which honors one of the all-time great players.

Margaret Wagar (1902-1990), inducted into the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame in 1999, became Life Master #37 in 1943, the fifth woman to earn the rank. She and Kay Rhodes share one of the most remarkable achievements in ACBL history — they won the Women's Pairs four consecutive years: 1955, 1956, 1957 and 1958.

Wagar and Rhodes share another record —- one of frustration. They were second in the Women's Teams for seven consecutive years, 1952-1958.

Wagar's impressive record spans three decades and includes wins in women's and open competition. Her open wins include the Reisinger in 1941, the Open Pairs (the fore-runner of the Blue Ribbon Pairs) in 1947 and 1948 and the Spingold in 1946 and 1948.

Wagar served on the ACBL Board of Directors from 1960 to 1972 and was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1979. She was non-playing captain of the U.S. World Women's Teams in 1968 and 1972.

Winners and runners-up

Until 1976 the Women's Teams was a four-session event scored by Board-a-Match. It was contested as a three-session championship until 1972 and again in 1975.

The Women's Teams was held at the Fall NABC until 1963. In 1976 the event became a Women's KO with Swiss qualifying.

The 1954 Spingold champions were Cliff Bishop, Milton Ellenby, John Moran, Lew Mathe and William Rosen.

They won in 1957: (standing) Sidney Silodor, Tobias Stone, Al Roth; (seated) B. Jay Becker, John Crawford, George Rapee.

First in the 1958 Spingold were Paul Allinger, Cyrus Neuman, Robert Rotheim, Sidney Lazard and William Hanna.

Tops in 1960 were (standing) Peter Leventritt, Boris Koytchou, Harold Ogust; (seated) Charles Goren, Helen Sobel (inset) and Howard Schenken.

History of the Spingold

The Spingold Master Knockout Teams, first known as the Challenge Knockout Teams, was contested for the Asbury Park Trophy in the early days.

The runner-up team in the regularly-scheduled portion of the event had the right to challenge the winners to a playoff. This right was never utilized.

In 1934, 1936 and 1937, the Masters Teams-of-Four and the Asbury Park Trophy were separate events, providing two sets of winners.

In 1938 the event became the Spingold Master Knockout Teams and a part of the Summer NABC.

At one time, the Spingold was a double elimination event, usually lasting nine or 10 sessions. It was scored by International Match Points and was restricted to players with 100 or more masterpoints.

In 1965, the double elimination method was replaced by three qualifying sessions (subsequently reduced to two), followed by single elimination knockout matches. The preliminary qualifying session were dropped in 1970.

The Spingold Trophy, donated by Nathan B. Spingold in 1934; the Vanderbilt Trophy, awarded to the winners of the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams at the Spring NABC, and the Reisinger Memorial Trophy, donated by the Greater New York Bridge Association in memory of Curt H. Reisinger and awarded to the winners of the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams, are ACBL's most highly prized team trophies.

Spingold (1886-1958), a New York publicist, motion picture executive and patron of the arts, was one of the most influential men in bridge administration from 1937 to 1943.

Born in Chicago, he became a reporter on The Chicago Examiner, The Chicago Record Herald and The Chicago Tribune. Spingold's interest in show business brought him to New York City in the Thirties.

In 1932 he joined Columbia Pictures in a public relations capacity. He was named to the board of directors in 1940 and three years later was appointed vice president in charge of advertising, publicity and development. He became a vice president of the company in 1954.

Active in bridge from its earliest days, Spingold was named ABL Honorary Member in 1936. He was instrumental in effecting a peaceful merger between the American Bridge League and the United States Bridge Association in 1937 and became president of the newly formed American Contract Bridge League the following year.

He served for many years on the League's Board of Governors and Board of Directors. Spingold was also president of the Cavendish Club in New York.

ACBL bans electronic devices in national events

The ACBL Board of Directors approved a comprehensive ban on electronic devices for all national level events, but not to regional or Intermediate Newcomer contests:

Electronic devices, excluding health related equipment, capable of sending or receiving communication, including but not limited to, headphones, earphones, cellular phones and minicomputers: (1) shall not be allowed in the playing areas, adjacent hallways, restrooms or accessible break areas; and (2) shall not be used during a session.

These restrictions shall apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, recorders and kibitzers and shall apply throughout any actual playing session or segment.

A violation of this policy shall result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense shall result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team.

Kibitzers violating this policy shall be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

The Summer North American Bridge Championships in Las Vegas will be the first NABC impacted by the new policy.

Participants in the following contests will be reminded not to approach the playing area with a personal electronic device in their possession, even if the device is turned off: all flights of the Grand National Teams, the von Zedtwitz, Bruce and Young Life Master Pairs, the Spingold Knockout Teams, both Mini-Spingolds, the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams, the Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss Teams, the Wernher Open Pairs, the NABC+ Fast Pairs, the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams, the Open Swiss Teams and the National 199er Pairs.

best for the two final sessions to earn a win in the Von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs by slightly less than a board.

The winners, by about 43 matchpoints on a 51 top, were Jan Jansma and Ricco Van Prooijen. Second place went to Geoff Hampson and Eric Greco.

The champions entered the final day of play in 19th place, but their 66.94% game in the first final set, paired with a 57.43% game in the evening, helped them to a relatively comfortable win.

The two have played together previously, but only infrequently. They were teammates in the Olympiad Teams in Istanbul in 2004, earning the silver medal. Van Prooijen is a former computer programmer who now makes a living playing poker online. Jansma is a math teacher who also earns money playing online poker. He is a frequent competitor in ACBL tournaments.

Bruce LM Pairs

They had 47% in the afternoon and had 47% with two rounds to go at night.

"We were looking for a pair to play in the team game with," said Johnson. The last two rounds, however, were good enough for them to advance to the semifinals.

They had two big games the second day and came into the final day of the Bruce LM—5000 Pairs in second place. They moved into the lead after the first final session and held on to win. They claim that steady plan was their secret. "We kept hanging in there," said Teaford. They have been a regular pair for nearly two years now.

Johnson, of Seal Beach CA, works for the U.S. government. Teaford of San Diego works in hotel management.

In second-place pair, Daniel Lavee of Thornhill ON and Barbara McLendon of New York City, were 18 matchpoints behind the winners. Top on a board was 35. Third place went to Bill McKenna of Darien IL and Frank Pancoe of Glen Ellyn IL.

Young LM Pairs

their goal was the get to the second day of play in the three-day event. They did that and more, putting together two solid sessions on the final day to edge out an Oregon pair for the championship.

The final score for the winners, both from Santa Cruz CA, was 509.21, just ahead of the 496.12 posted by Christopher Gibson of Beaverton OR and Paul Craviotto of Eugene OR.

Friedberg is a retired school psychologist, Llacera is retired from the software industry. He now manages the Santa Cruz Bridge Club's web site.

Friedberg and Llacera play a 2/1 game force bidding system. About two months ago, Friedberg said, they decided they were bidding too much. They changed to a more conservative style. "We don't stretch for stuff we don't have," he said. Added Llacera, "We just play solid bridge."

The two were well back in the pack starting play on Sunday, but they climbed into second with a 58.82% game in the first final session, posting a 55.76% game in the second final session.

NABC Diary

Perspective

Bridge is a game, something that is forgotten from time to time. For those taking it just a bit too seriously, the Daily Bulletin recommends that you read the following item closely.

The Goodwill Ambassador of the Las Vegas NABC

I was playing in the Life Master Pairs and I sat against an opponent wearing a bad, "Goodwill Representative." I thought to myself, "I should be the Goodwill Ambassador."

I arrived on Wednesday to play in the Grand National Teams, Flight B. My team, led by myself, managed to lose seven out of eight matches, leaving the opponents happy and gleeful.

The next event was the Life Master Pairs (LM-1500). I sat next to 13 pairs in the afternoon and 13 in the evening and managed to go down in makeable contracts and give up the one trick that would give them a top board. Boy, were they happy.

I played the next day in the knockouts and, unfortunately, won the first match but managed to again spread my goodwill by losing the second.

I probably will lose my wonderful partners and make my teammates unhappy, but what are three or four people compared to the others.

I am now applying for the Goodwill Ambassador of the Las Vegas NABC.

P.S. If you see me, please say hi. While making others so happy, I need a bit of cheering up myself.

- Ilene Grabel

Good deed

Four members of a knockout team had just finished playing and were walking past the registration desk when they spotted a large wallet on the floor. Turns out it belongs to Tournament Chair Ken Monzingo. The players quickly took the wallet to the Daily Bulletin office to make sure it was returned to its owner.

Monzingo said later that he didn't even know the wallet was missing until it was returned to him.

The players who did the good deed are Brian Reynolds and Samantha MacDouglas of Los Angeles and Jennifer Chalfan and Chris Moore of Bellevue WA (Seattle).

When it was suggested that their actions should probably be good for a few masterpoints, Chalfan said she would prefer "karma points."

Diamonds are forever

It happens every summer. Tournament Directors David and Judy Cotterman celebrate a wedding anniversary at a bridge tournament – that is, the Summer NABC. On Sunday, they marked year No. 45. The Cottermans were wed in Kokomo IN, where they live (David is a third generation native of the city). The marriage produced three children, and they now have 12 grandchildren. Judy runs the Intermediate/ Newcomer games. David works on equipment and has never met a broken printer he couldn't fix.

It ain't over

Gary Helman, an outgoing dentist and U.S. Army veteran with tours in Afghanistan and Iraq (among others), is as intrepid in his bridge play as he is in serving his country.

He was supposed to meet Rabbi Leonard Helman (no relation) in Las Vegas for a bridge game or two, but the rabbi couldn't make it. Undeterred, Col. Helman picked up a partner at the last minute for the knockouts and formed a team with Ed Lillard (his partner), Tubby Stayman and Australian Michael Wilkinson. Down 29 at the half of their match in the KO final, they rallied to

"You never say die," said Helman, who ascended to Gold Life Master status at this tournament and dedicated the KO win to the rabbi.

Oh, no

Norwegian expert Terje Aa is a regular at NABCs, and he is used to having his name mispronounced. The first name is TER-hay. The second sounds more like combination of "oh" and "aw" than "ah."

One ACBL official says that whenever he sees his Norwegian friend, the exchange goes like this:

"Ah?"

"Aw!"

"Oh. . ."

Charmer

Nine-year-old Jennifer Molson had a serious conversation with her mother, Janice Seamon-Molson on Sunday. "I want to be in the Daily Bulletin," said Jennifer. "What for?" asked Mom. "What caption would they put with the photo?"

Said Jennifer: "Great personality?"

"Future bridge star" might be also appropriate, said Mom: "She played duplicate once and she has plans to try again. God help the novices."

Don't be cruel

Jeff Johnston, head of meeting services for the ACBL, had an encounter the other day with an Elvis impersonator who showed up right after the start of the afternoon session in a baby-blue jump suit complete with rhinestones. "Elvis" was there to offer his services.

When he was told that the tournament already has Greg Miller lined up for that job, the new Elvis said, "Well, I can impersonate him, too."

Tournament Terminology 101

If you're confused by the terms used to describe the different types of bridge events played at clubs and tournaments, you're not alone. Here's a list of common bridge events with explanations.

Masterpoints: the unit which measures bridge achievement in competition. Masterpoints are awarded at ACBL clubs and tournaments in amounts proportional to the size and classification of the event and the rating of the club or tournament.

- Black points: awarded at club games. Some special club games award red, gold or silver points.
- Red points: awarded for section placements at regional tournaments and NABCs. Also awarded at clubs for special events such as the qualifying rounds of the North American Open Pairs and the Grand National Teams.
- Gold points: awarded for section firsts and overall placing in regionally rated events that have no upper masterpoint restrictions.
- Platinum points: awarded for NABC+ events. Gold points are also awarded for sectional firsts and overall placing in regional events of two or more sessions that have a masterpoint limit of 750 or more points.

One gold point is awarded to section winners in the annual ACBL Instant Matchpoint Game in sections of seven or more tables.

In addition, new players may now win gold points in their own NABC events: 1.50 gold in the National 199er Pairs at the Summer NABC and 1.00 gold in the National 99er Pairs at the Fall NABC (the remainder of the award is in red

A major source of gold points is the bracketed knockout teams. The overall awards for the top brackets are all gold while the lower brackets may receive a percentage of gold points and the remainder in red points.

Silver points: awarded for sectional firsts and overall placing at sectional tournaments. Also awarded at Sectional Tournaments at Clubs

Barry Crane Top 500 race: This trophy is presented to the ACBL player who wins the most masterpoints during a calendar year.

Mini-McKenney races: In 1974 the ACBL Board of Directors voted to recognize masterpoint achievements among player below the rank of Life Master. The Bridge Bulletin recognizes leaders ACBL-wide. At the unit level, winners in each category receive recognition and special medallions.

All points won during a calendar year are counted in these races.

Ace of Clubs contests: This competition was created in 1984 to recognize achievement at the club level. Winners are recognized at the unit level as well as ACBL-wide.

Points won only at the club level excluding the North American Open Pairs, the Grand National Teams and Sectional Tournaments at Clubs — are counted in these races.

TODAY'S SPONSORSHIP

Ethel's Chocolates

As you register at the Summer NABC here in Las Vegas, you'll be treated to a gourmet bar of Ethel's chocolate.

From an experienced chocoholic's view, I promise you it is as good as it gets! You'll also find chocolate silver dollars each day at the tournament . . . again, gourmet goodies from Ethel's, whose "Chocolate Factory" is located in Henderson NV just 10 miles from the Las Vegas Strip. It's the location where all of the Ethel's although they operate several retail outlets located in and around Las Vegas and Chicago.

Also located at this plant are the famous Ethel M
Botanical Cactus Gardens — a great sight seeing break — and a small branch of M&M's World. Ethel M is owned by Mars, Inc. and was named after the mother of Forrest Mars (hence the "M" in Ethel M)

In 2007, the company made the transition from Ethel M Chocolates to Ethel's Chocolates. The new branding boasts a whole new line of 48 different handmade gourmet chocolates designed by their master chocolatier Jin Caldwell.

We are fortunate to have this unique Las Vegas institution as a sponsor of our NABC, and we're proud to showcase their chocolates throughout the event for your enjoyment. Want seconds? Just win your section (section top in any strat) and you get another bar, along with your winner's prize!

Bridge Teachers and Bridge Cruises

Peg Cundiff, host of more than 100 bridge cruises, will educate you on the ins and outs of being a successful teacher/game director on a cruise ship. An interesting morning program for current and prospective teachers/directors.
