District 21 victorious in GNT Open

The central California team captained by Rose Meltzer held off a strong challenge by the defending Grand National Open Team champs from Florida to win 135–116. Playing with Meltzer on the District 21 squad were Peter Weichsel of Los Gatos CA, Kyle Larsen of San Francisco CA, Hugh Ross of Oakland CA, Lew Stansby of Castro Valley CA and Chip Martel of Davis CA. This is the same squad that captured the 2001 Bermuda Bowl (with Alan Sontag of New York replacing Ross).

Playing for Florida (District 9) were Spike Lay and Larry Griffey of Daytona Beach FL, Jeff Meckstroth of Tampa, Michael Seamon of Miami Beach, Russ Ekeblad, and Eric Rodwell of Clearwater Beach FL. Their non-playing captain was Marilyn Garcia. District 9 has won the GNT Open title four of the past five years.

This is the first Grand National victory for Meltzer, and, curiously, for Weichsel, who has multiple victories in world and national events.

Dist. 20 wins GNT C

The motto of the Grand National Teams, Flight C team from District 20 may well be "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." After losing in last year's final, the squad returned with a few changes in the roster to triumph in this year's contest. Returning for the winners were Rohan Coelho and Ralph Henderson, both of Portland OR. They

New Life Masters

Mary Stauf of Lancaster CA not only became a Life Master here – she also went over the top as a Bronze Life Master.

Kathy Swaine got the last half a point she needed in Friday's Midnight Swiss, partnered by District 23 President Rand Pinsky.

Cort Larson of Northfield IL also went over in the Friday Midnight Swiss. His partner was Ellen Gabriel of Chicago, and their teammates were Debbie and Jim Howie of Toronto.

Kim Lacey-Young of Barrie ON got the points she needed in yesterday's knockouts. She was playing with Jack Banks of Bailieboro ON, and their teammates were Paul Crossland of Shanty Bay ON and Graham Warren of Newmarket ON. Crossland recently became a Life Master. The same four team members reached the quarterfinals of Flight C of the Grand National Teams and also won Flight B and C of the Friday Stratified Swiss Teams.

Games named for three clubs

The evening sessions of the Monday-Wednesday Side Game Series honor three clubs that won recognition during ACBL's Bridge Week in North America in January.

The clubs – Bridge Center of Rockford (IL), North Side Bridge Center in Indianapolis and Longview Duplicate Bridge Club in Kelso WA – were recognized for member/guest events, designed to bring non-ACBL members into the clubs.

Prizes were awarded in random drawings to bridge clubs that signed up the most new members in three categories. The Rockford club signed up 14 new members and won category A (13 or more new recruits) while the Indianapolis club signed up seven new members and took category B (5-12 new members) and the Kelso club signed up three new members and won category C (1- 4 new members).

If you win an event at this tournament . . .

And you would like to let the people back home know, you must stop by the Daily Bulletin office (Seaview C, ground floor of the Hyatt) and take a minute to fill out information for the ACBL's new Hometown News Release.

Bet your cookies

It's the guys vs. the gals tonight in the Bridge Bowl competition. Jill Meyers, Kerri Sanborn and Janice Seamon-Molson are prepared to trounce the team of Zia, Bob Hamman and Alan Truscott. Jeff Goldsmith, the evening's emcee, will be armed with bridge trivia questions, the teams will be armed with fast draw buzzers, and the audience can wager their delicious large homemade cookies on their team's final score.

Cohen scores well against a teammate

By Barry Rigal

I played in the Life Master Pairs qualifier with Ralph Cohen, who is the non-playing captain of the American team that qualified in Memphis last month for the Bermuda Bowl in Monaco in November. Incidentally, Ralph looks good and feels great – he has made a remarkable recovery from all the ailments that almost ended his life over the past couple of years.

When Ralph and I ran into one member of his Bermuda Bowl squad, Ralph naturally wanted to see his protege in good form – but a good result for us was not going to go amiss.

North naturally led a low heart. Ralph won with the king, cashed the A and continued with a diamond to North's ♦K. North made the natural play of the AK, and Ralph followed with the 10 as South encouraged. So North continued with a low spade – and Ralph ducked again! Yes, we can maybe blame South (who is NOT on Ralph's squad) for continuing with a third spade. That let Ralph take his ace, use the heart entry to dummy and steal a precious overtrick with the 13th spade.

Key Card Blackwood is a complex mechanism – but it's a fine deal for the nuances that come up.

At this point in the auction, a 5 \(\infty \) call from East asks West to pass with no key cards and to answer whether he has the trump queen if he has three. So the auction continued:

		5 ^	Pass
5NT (2)	Pass	6♣	Pass
6 ♦ (3)	Pass

(2) ♠Q but no kings.

(3) Third-round diamond control – either the queen or a doubleton.

Now East knows the grand slam in spades is laydown. A practical player would just bid it! However, an idealist wants to get to 7NT to glean all those precious extra matchpoints. But how do you do it? After all, the purist wants to reach 7NT with ♦A-K-x-x facing ♦Q-J-x as well as the actual holding.

Maybe a 7♦ bid here asks West to bid 7♠ with a doubleton diamond, that is, a ruffing value. Now does 7♥ show Q-x-x and 7NT Q-J-x? Maybe it's not worth the effort to find out (or maybe only Eddie Kantar knows!)

Peter Nagy and his son David.

Memorial tomorrow for Peter Nagy

A special memorial service for Peter Nagy (1942-2003) will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Beacon A Room of the Hyatt. Nagy died of a heart attack on Feb. 6.

All his friends are invited. Donna Hay, his widow, asks that you share fond memories, especially humorous or touching stories.

The service will be videotaped for Peter's son David, 13.

Players pay tribute to Max Hardy

Many bridge players paid tribute to one of the best – the late Max Hardy – at a special convocation last night. Lowell Andrews and John Swanson were the masters of ceremonies as players shared their favorite stories about the colorful director. Of course Hardy was much more than a director. He was an outstanding author, a fine speaker, an excellent theoretician and a top-flight player.

Many of his friends talked about their times with Hardy. These included John Swanson, Julie Harding, Henry Francis, Carl Dahl, Paul Ivaska, Dan Nemiro and Joel Hoersch.

North-South got to game after Rose Meltzer of the District 21 team, the event champion, opened the bidding with 1. She got the defense off to a good start by leading the $9. Declarer could have won this, set up hearts with the drop of the jack, and set up a spade for nine tricks, but he actually ducked the first club. Meltzer and partner Peter Weichsel took full advantage.

Meltzer continued with a low club to dummy's king, and declarer led the ♥K, ducked by Weichsel. When declarer then led the ♥Q, Weichsel ducked again, but he took the third round of the suit. Meltzer discarded spades on these tricks.

Weichsel shifted to the ♠10, and this was ducked to the king. Declarer cashed his good hearts as both defenders discarded clubs. When declarer tried the ♠A, Meltzer was johnny-on-the-spot, carefully unblocking the jack. Declarer then led a low diamond, and Weichsel had the picture: he climbed with the 10. His spade continuation let Meltzer win two spade tricks to set the contract.

Grove receives Johnson Service award

National Tournament Director Doug Grove has been named the recipient of the 2003 Jane Johnson Employee Recognition Award for outstanding service and special performance.

Grove, of Silver Spring MD, began his tournament directing career in the early Eighties, and worked at his first NABC in the fall of 1983. He has served as the Assistant Director-in-Charge for the Summer NABCs (working with DIC Sol Weinstein) since 1999. Grove has an MBA form the University of Maryland.

"I'm honored to have my name mentioned in the same sentence as Jane Johnson," said Grove, referring to the longtime manager of ACBL's Club Membership department in whose honor the award is given. Johnson died in 1999 during the Fall NABC. ACBL bestows the award annually to one Headquarters employee and one tournament director who demonstrates excellent customer service. (Memphis staffer Rosie Fairchild was the other recipient of this year's Johnson Award.)

"In a way it's sort of embarrassing to be named the recipient when there are so many excellent directors who should be considered for this award," said Grove.

But Grove's self-deprecation is unwarranted according to Rick Beye, ACBL's Chief Tournament Director.

"I received an unsolicited comment from a player here in Long Beach who complimented Doug as being 'aggressively helpful'. This is a well deserved honor for him," said Beye.

"Customer service is an ever expanding goal," said Grove. "You can always be better."

New pre-Alert/ Disclosure forms

If your partnership plays special overcalls, you must fill out a new pre-Alert/Disclosure form and make it available to your opponents when you play in events that allow Mid-Chart and Super-Chart conventions.

This applies to NABC+, regional or higher knockout and Flight A Swiss games. Look for the light blue forms on the table where convention cards are available.

Here's your chance to win 'green' points

Does a game with no Alerts and no Announcements sound good to you? And you never have to play with the same partner twice – you get a new partner for every board. Not only that, you'll face new opponents on every deal. And you can make real money while playing in such a game, thanks to BPT Prize Money Bridge.

As you have guessed by now, the event is an Individual. BPT Prize Money Bridge will stage three money game Individuals this week. And you won't even have to decide what conventions you're going to play with each partner – everyone will be playing the Standard American Yellow Card.

The biggest money will be in the Fish Division. First prize will be $4000, and total prize money will be $12,000. This event is open to everyone for a $100 entry fee, which includes four sessions of play.

Check-in time will be 8:30 a.m. Tuesday – MAKE SURE YOU GET REGISTERED ON TIME. The sessions will take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday starting at 9 a.m. Watch out in this division – there are occasional sharks and barracudas lurking.

If you want to avoid those dangerous big fish, probably the Minnow Division is best for you. First prize will be $400, with a total prize pool of $1200. The entry fee is $50 which covers three sessions – Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 9 a.m. This also is an open event. YOU MUST REGISTER BY 8:30 a.m. WEDNESDAY. This event will require a minimum of 10 tables.

And then there's the Guppy Division for players with fewer than 200 masterpoints. This is for those who want to get wet, have fun and not be devoured. The $40 entry fee covers three sessions – 9 a.m. on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. REGISTER BY 8:30 a.m. WEDNESDAY! First prize will be $200, and a total of $600 will be distributed. This event also requires a minimum of 10 tables.

Please note that entrants must register at least 30 minutes prior to game time. You can register right now at the Prize Money Bridge Booth (next to the book seller.

Money event today

BPT Prize Money Bridge is sponsoring a twosession Stratified Open Pairs event today at 1 and 7:30 p.m. The top three pairs in each strata will share in the distribution of $1500 worth of ACBL Bridge Bucks.

Dist. 23 scholarships go to four students

Three bridge-playing local high school seniors received $1000 scholarships yesterday at a special presentation just before the start of the afternoon game. A fourth youngster also earned a scholarship but was unable to be present. Rand Pinsky, District 23 president, presented the awards..

Actually the scholarships will be worth more than $1000. As long as the youngsters maintain at least a B average and carry a full academic load, they will receive an extra $1000 each year. District 23 has been making these scholarship presentations for 10 years.

The recipients:

Cecilia Chen will pursue a degree and graduate work in the arts. She plans to start her own advertising and web design business. She is working as a caddy at this tournament.

Christina Moore plans to double major at Vassar in psychology and theater. She already has had several lead roles in local theaters.

Tiffany Talen will first attend Long Beach City College and then Cal State Long Beach to attain her necessary teaching credentials.

Meredith Symonds has been accepted for the Letters and Science Honors Program at the University of Wisconsin. She was unable to be present yesterday.

District 23 solicits donations, small or large, from individuals and businesses for this bridge-oriented program, which is unique among all ACBL districts. "Our yearly award is small by necessity," said Pinsky, "but it does served to remind these young bridge players that the bridge world does care about them."

If you think this project is a worthwhile idea, why not make a donation? Make a check payable to the ALACBU Scholarship Fund and send it to Paula Oliver at 4545 Briggs Avenue, LaCrescenta CA 91214. For more information, call Paula at 818-249-7822.

What a wonderful way this would be to celebrate winning an event, becoming a Life Master, celebrating an anniversary or a birthday! It always feels good when you help a young person along the way.

6 good seats for "The Producers"

Ron Feldman has six good seats for "The Producers" at the Pantages Theater in Hollywood for Tuesday night, July 22. The price is $110. If interested, contact Feldman at 310-739-9582 or find Feldman in the Life Master Pairs on Sunday in the 5000 flight.

Junior Corps adds four new members

The ACBL Junior Corps inducted four new members at last evening's Junior reception. Charlotte Blaiss, director of ACBL's Junior program, and Peggy Burns, representative of the United States Playing Card Company who sponsored the reception, awarded Junior Corps pins to Lisa Burton, 19, who attends Texas A&M, Lindsay Pearlman, 18, a student at New York Technology Institute, Joon Pahk, 24, a doctoral student at Stanford University and Xing Yuan, 17, a senior at Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor MI.

The Junior Corps is an organization founded to honor those Junior players who actively promote bridge and are good citizens of the bridge world.

On behalf of the U.S. Playing Card Company (who many players are familiar with through their Bicycle brand playing cards), Burns also presented the recipients with sweatshirts bearing the Bicycle logo.

"The U.S. Playing Card Company has an interest in promoting bridge playing among young people," said Burns.

ACBL CEO Jay Baum and ACBL President Al Levy were also on hand to address the dozens of Junior players who attended.

Blaiss also extended special thanks to Jade Barrett and the North American Youth Bridge Foundation for sponsoring the North American youth program for the past 10 years.

In other Junior Corps news, Meredith Beck was elected chairperson of the Junior Corps. Beck and Blaiss will work through the Junior Corps to find new ways to promote bridge to young people.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only Standard American Yellow Card conventions and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6 board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

In second with 782.25 were Kevin Perkins of Austin TX and Al Remer of Fort Lauderdale FL.

The winners, who have played together for more than seven years, were in fifth place after Friday's two-session qualifier.

McCluer and Ozias didn't plan to play in the Young LM Pairs, but events conspired to make it happen. They came to Long Beach to represent District 20 in the Grand National Teams, Flight B. After their squad was knocked out in the second round, they decided to enter the new LM event.

Three-session KOs complete in one day

A new regional event — one-day, three-session knockout teams — will debut at this tournament. They will be held today; Wednesday, June 23, and Friday, June 25..

Make your plans now. These events have proven very popular at our local regionals because:

- 1. No handicapping, no round-robins. Each bracket has only eight teams. Therefore the masterpoint differential between the teams is very narrow. Your team will compete against other teams of equal ranking. There are only head-to-head matches, no round-robins.
- 2. No uncertainty. You complete this KO in one day and do not have to worry about canceling your bridge date for the next day. There is no uncertainty about tomorrow's game or partner.
- 3. Daily bridge options. This first session of the three-session KOs is held in the morning. If you happen to lose in the first round, you can still play in the two-session main event (national or regional) gold-point event that afternoon and evening.

NABC+ entries

In order to play in NABC+ events (nationally rated events with no upper masterpoint limit), a player's ACBL membership dues or Life Master service fees must be current.

These events pay platinum points and the entry is $15.50 per player per session.

Other nationally rated events (those with an upper masterpoint limit, such as the 0-1500 Mini-Spingold Knockout Teams) pay red and gold points. The entry is $14 per player per session for players whose ACBL membership dues or Life Master service fees are current – or $16 per player per session for all others.

Smoking

Smoking is prohibited within the Long Beach Convention & Entertainment Center. This is in accordance with Long Beach City Ordinance No.

Smoking is permitted outside the facility only.

Malley is newest Grand Life Master

John Malley of Pascoag RI came to Long Beach needing 45 points to go over the 10,000 mark. It didn't take him long – he got those points and more by advancing all the way to the Grand National semifinals with his New England team from District 25.

But it takes more than winning 10,000 points to make Grand Life Master – you have to win a major North American championship. Malley did that in 1997 when his team won the North American Swiss Teams. He also had a second in the Senior Knockout Teams in 2002.

Malley, now retired from the furniture business, is enjoying a life of golf, poker and bridge. He's a good poker player too – he's won several poker tournaments.

Nowadays his regular bridge partner is Dan Colatosti
