Children at the NABC child care program enjoy many activities, one of which (naturally) is playing cards. This service is popular with parents of young children, as well as the children themselves.

Child care service great for parents, kids

If you ask players why they enjoy attending the NABCs, the answers are varied: good bridge, great venues, a chance to meet old friends and make new ones — the list is long. But if those players also happen to be parents with young children, another answer you'll probably hear is "child care".

ACBL has offered child care at its NABCs for the past several years, providing a valuable service to members who enjoy playing but need someone to babysit. The service is a plus for ACBL as well, since it allows families who might not ordinarily travel to an NABC to do so.

Donna Compton, the child care program coordinator, said, "Parents can bring their children to child care for the morning, afternoon or evening sessions. There's also a dinner session from 5 to 7 p.m., and this has become increasingly popular, especially with the kids. They enjoy eating dinner with their friends. We even have an after-hours ses-

Freak storm KOs Memphis

A powerful storm with 100-mph winds passed through Memphis Tuesday morning, cutting off power to most of the city and causing extensive damage.

ACBL Headquarters is without power; members will not be able to access the ACBL web site for several days possibly. Phone service has also been interrupted.

Compton tops Prize Money Bridge opener

In what proved to be the largest Prize Money Bridge event held to date with 100 entrants, Chris Compton of Dallas TX scored seven top boards and a 71% game to take the lead in the opening qualifying round of the $12,000 Los Angeles Open. Coming in second was David Chechelashvili from Arlington VA with a 62.07% game followed by Marco Toasa with a 61.41% game.

Shugart team falls by Spingold wayside

Quite a few impressive teams will not be playing in today's Round of 16 of the Spingold KO Teams.

Rita Shugart's three-nation team fell victim to John Swanson and Co., 157-134. Playing with Shugart were Andrew Robson, Tony Forrester and Boye Brogeland. Swanson's teammates were Mitch Dunitz, Iftikar Baqai, Ed Davis, Brian Maksymetz and Lars Andersson.

Kit Woolsey, Fred Stewart, Mark Feldman and Barnet Shenkin also are on the sidelines. They were eliminated, 187-110, by Billy Miller, Curtis Cheek, Continued on page 7

Adams leads Senior quals

Forty-two of the 84 teams that entered the Senior Swiss Teams on Tuesday made the cut to today's two-session final. The squad of David Adams, Jim Barrow, Barry Shaffer and Colby Vernay led the qualifiers with a score of 125 Victory Points. Close behind with 124 was the team of Aram Bedros, Leo Bell, David Lindop and Marshall Miles.

The cut-off score for qualification was 82. Play continues today a 1 p.m. in the Convention Center Ballroom, Upper Level.

Top seed sidelined in Wagar Teams

The team captained by Laurie Vogel took a small lead in the first quarter and increased it the rest of the way to unseat the Wagar Women's KO Teams No. 1 seed, the squad captained by Sheri Winestock. Vogel, as a result of their 104-84 victory, will oppose the squad led by non-playing captain Disa Eythorsdottir in one of today's semifinal matches.

Vogel will play with Jacqui Mitchell, Amalya Kearse, Gail Greenberg and Irina Levitina. The Eythorsdottir team consists of Lynn Baker, Karen McCallum, Kerri Sanborn, Debbie Rosenberg, Lynn Deas and Beth Palmer. Eythorsdottir defeated the Edith Freilich team yesterday, 145-119.

The other semi will match teams captained by Carlyn Steiner and Valerie Westheimer.

Steiner, with Marinesa Letizia, Janice Seamon-Molson, Tobi Sokolow, Jill Meyers and Randi Montin, defeated Jane Segal and company, 191-119. Playing with Segal were Judy Kay, Gloria Rabinowitz and Donna Morgen.

Westheimer trailed the team captained by Jan Martel after the first 16 deals, but then they pulled away to win, 162-112. On Westheimer's team are Judi Radin, Shawn Quinn and Mildred Breed.

Ace in the "Holes"

One of the advantages of playing bridge near L.A. is that you get to meet some people "in the business" — Hollywood business, that is. Although Louis Sachar is best known as the author of some two dozen books for children including his very popular 1998 effort Holes, he recently adapted the work for the big screen, and Holes the film, which was released this year, has already grossed $65 million.

Sachar is not, however, actually part of the Hollywood scene. He lives in Austin TX, but played here in Long Beach in the top bracket of the Dodger KO Teams with partner Nancy Jo Grody, also of Austin, and teammates Bruce Keidan of Pittsburgh PA and ACBL President-elect Bruce Reeve.

Jeff Meckstroth

Eric Rodwell

Meckwell victors in Menton Open Pairs

Jeff Meckstroth and Eric Rodwell were the only American pair to reach the 52-pair final of the European Open Pairs at Menton, France, last month. They played strongly through the final and won the event. Congratulations!

We are also making an addition to one of the Spingold Trivia items from yesterday. Rodwell also has done very well in the Spingold with nine firsts and four seconds. Meckstroth isn't far behind with eight victories and four seconds – he was not Rodwell's partner the first time Rodwell won in 1979.

Looks easy – it wasn't

Mike Cappelletti Sr., playing with his son Mike, thought he was going to have an easy time with this deal from the Life Master Pairs. Then he discovered the trumps were breaking 4-0, so he had to go to work. This helped father and son on their way to a 68% session.

The opening heart lead went to the ace, and East cashed the  $\P Q$  as well. East played the  $\P A$  and led another club, ruffed. Cappelletti led a spade to the queen and was not happy when West showed out. He ruffed another club to get a better idea of the layout. When East followed, he knew East had five hearts (from the opening bid), four trumps and three clubs. That left room for only one diamond. It also was clear that West had the  $\P K$  Q and the  $\P K$ . So Cappelletti reasoned that East probably had the  $\P K$  for his opening bid.

So he won the ◆A and sure enough, down came the king. So he drew trumps and claimed. Of course it would have been a good board even if he went down – East-West can take 12 tricks in hearts.

Quick-witted strategem pays off handsomely

by Roger Lord

B. Satanarayana and Kiran Nadar have come to this NABC all the way from New Delhi, India. Judging from this deal played in Friday evening's session of the Life Master Open Pairs, they did not come in a boat.

1 🖍	Pass	3♣	Pass
3♦	Pass	4♠	All Pass

3♣ was a fit-showing jump. 3♦ was a counter game try, which Nadar accepted.

My partner, Jacqueline Sincoff, led the ♥A and continued the ♥5 to my king, declarer following with the 6 and the queen. Because our method is to show present count on the second play of a suit, including leads, I imagined partner's original heart holding to have been A-J-5-3-2, a notion "confirmed" by declarer's falsecards. There seemed to be no danger of losing partner's ♦ A if she had it, so I switched to a trump to cut down on diamond ruffs.

Declarer guessed to drop the  $\mathbf{AQ}$ . Then he laid down the  $\mathbf{VJ}$  and - surprise - the  $\mathbf{V2}$ , pitching dummy's diamonds and claiming the balance.

For his quick-witted play to succeed, Satanarayana needed a 3-3 split in hearts. Although he had wasted a natural heart winner in case of a 4-2 split, that was not likely to matter.

Making 11 tricks was worth 50 of the 51 points.

Pulling the goalie

This auction actually occurred on the last board of a Bracket 2 knockout team match. Eugene Chen of Vancouver WA held the following hand:

♦ 8 6 5 ♥ J 9 3 ♦ Q 5 4 ♣ K Q 8 7

He explained his double on the fifth round of the bidding as a case of pulling the goalie. He believed he was losing the match and needed a big swing. The goalie reference is to hockey where a team that needs a goal in the final minutes pulls the goalie to put another offensive player on the ice. Here are the nine rounds of bidding:

West	North	East	South
Pass	Pass	Pass	1 ♣
Pass	1♥	Pass	2♥
Pass	2NT	Pass	3♥
Pass	3NT	Pass	Pass
Dbl (!)	Pass	Pass	4♥
Pass	Pass	Dbl	Pass
Pass	4 ♠ (!)	Dbl	4NT
Pass	Pass	Dbl	Pass
Pass	Pass

The double of 3NT was really something, but it sure opened up the floodgates. Why did North pull the double of 4♥ to 4♠? Actually he had a reason – he pulled the wrong card out of the bidding box when he responded 1♥. If he had realized it immediately he could have changed his call, but he didn't notice the wrong card on the table until too late.

The "goalie" tactic worked -3NT went for 1400-16 IMPs, and the Chen team won the match.

Incredibly complex

By Barry Rigal

I was given two stories about this hand from the Life Master Pairs finals.

The first was from George Jacobs who started the finals in the bottom qualifying spot with Alfredo Versace of Italy. (Jacobs has been making a habit of this in three-day events – he did it on Day 1 and Day 2 of the Reisinger last year). In the Life Masters, Jacobs and Versace climbed all the way to eighth place.

               ♥ A 3
               ♦ A K J 4 2
               4 10 7 2
▲ J 10 9 5 4
                             ∧ K Q 7 3
♥ K 2
                             ♥ J 9 8 5
                             ♦ 10 5 3
♦ Q
♣ K Q 6 4 3
               ♥ Q 10 7 6 4
               ♦ 9876
               ♣ A J 5

Jacobs (North) opened 1NT and Versace transferred to hearts. West reopened with 2♠, passed around to Versace who doubled for takeout. Jacobs bids 3♠, but Versace was not happy yet – he bid 3♠. When Jacobs bid 3NT, Versace went back to 4♠, raised by Jacobs to 5♠. Note that Versace's transfer had made him the declarer, so naturally West led the ♣K – making five!

Afterwards Jacobs wondered if he should have tried for six – that would really wind up your opponents if you initially tried to stop in a partscore!

David Berkowitz and Larry Cohen held the East-West cards and defended 3NT after West had come in on the second round to show 5-5 in spades and a minor.

Best defense on this incredibly complex hand (note the diamond blockage for declarer) is to try to lead clubs through South. But Cohen assumed that 3NT can always be made. West can be stripped and endplayed in clubs in most variations to concede two heart tricks eventually – maybe he could provide us with a brief analysis in due course.

Real men play 3-3 fits

The Daily Bulletin has recently published several deals featuring Moysian, or 4–3, trump fits. However, Don Spaulding of Los Altos CA and Dennis Newman of Scarsdale NY scoff at players who enjoy the relative comfort of 4–3 fits. On this deal from Monday's Stratified Pairs, Spaulding and Newman announced to the world that Moysians are for sissies. Real men play 3–3 fits.

2♣	Pass	3NT		Pass
4 ^	Pass	Pass		Pass
Como ov	nlanations	oro in	ordor	Chauld

Some explanations are in order. Spaulding intended 4 as a cuebid, hoping to find partner with a magic hand that contained (among other things) a doubleton club honor, appropriate red-suit controls and a fitting spade honor. That's not too much to ask, is it?

Newman, however, interpreted 4 as a choice of contracts, presumably showing some odd type of hand that didn't wish to rebid spades on the first round. Perhaps partner was 4–7?

Anyway, North led the ♦Q against 4♠. True, a trump lead would automatically scuttle the contract, but then there wouldn't be a story to tell. Dummy's ace won the trick, and declarer crossed to the ♣A and ruffed a club. North still could have defeated the contract by discarding a diamond at this point, but he chose to pitch a heart instead. Spaulding took full advantage of the opportunity.

Returning to hand with a diamond ruff, declarer ruffed another club in dummy. Another diamond ruff was followed by a third club ruff in dummy. The •A K were tricks eight and nine, and the trump ace was the 10th.

Plus 620 was worth all the matchpoints.

Let the good times roll

No particular place to go? Well, put on your dancing shoes and bop on down to the Seaview Rotunda for some Old-Time Rock And Roll. Our favorite DJ, George Graham of the DJ Connection, has planned two hours of the best of the Oldies -Motown, classic rock, Fifties, Sixties and Seventies hits.

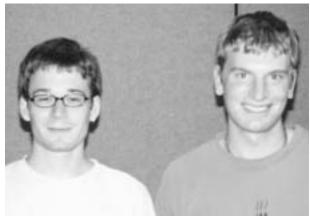

As you know, dancing is just what the doctor orders for getting rid of that tension and stress caused by your partner's dubious bids and plays. There might be some Bridge Bucks flying around for those who really know how to "get down."

NABCs — fun for everyone

One of the best things about the North American Bridge Championships is that there are contests available for players of all levels — beginners to world champs. Just ask Nolan Goodnight of Dallas TX and his partner, Dale Beerman of Ithaca NY. The duo — students at the University of Virginia — played in their first bridge event ever here in Long Beach. Earlier this week, Goodnight and Beerman scored a 62% in the 0-5 Newcomer game to earn their first masterpoints.

Goodnight, 23, and Beerman, 22, even tried a few sessions in the open stratified pairs.

"Everyone we played was really nice," said Goodnight. One reason for that might be what the pair wrote on their convention cards under General Approach: it read "Started playing yesterday."

First-time players Nolan Goodnight and Dale Beerman.

Childcare

sion available from midnight to 2 a.m. Essentially, we have services available from 8:30 a.m. to 2 a.m."

The child care program offers an incredible array of activities for children. Here in Long Beach, for example, there have been field trips to the aquarium and the circus, the children go swimming twice a day, there's a pizza party scheduled for later in the week and there's even a sleep-over this weekend

Other activities include art, science and, of course, bridge.

"We do a lot of card playing in child care, and part of our goal is to introduce kids to bridge early on," said Compton. "So not only does this service allow young families to participate (and stay at an NABC longer than they ordinarily might), but it also teaches the game to the very young."

The reaction of the parents who take advantage of the service is overwhelmingly positive.

"I have parents who come up to me and say, 'Have I thanked you already this week? If not, thank you!" said Compton.

The reaction of the kids is even better.

"Some of them don't want to go with their parents when it's time to leave. They want to stay with their friends and with the staff," said Compton.

Parents interested in finding out more about this service may contact Compton by cell phone at 214–394–5830 or by e-mail cdmra@mindspring.com.

Tooth pain leads to BAM win

Elliott Grubman of Brooklyn NY developed a toothache soon after arriving in Long Beach with his wife Eva. The problem became more and more severe, and his face became swollen. Grubman resorted to taking some pain medication, but it only made him nauseated. To make matters worse, this all happened the night before Grubman was scheduled to play in a two-session Seniors game in the morning and afternoon, followed by a single-session board-a-match event.

His wife took matters into her own hands at this point. She contacted a dentist who could extract the offending tooth — between sessions, of course! She also rented a car to take her husband to the dentist's office.

Everything went according to plan. Grubman had the tooth pulled, and was back in time to play in the afternoon session of the Seniors.

That evening, Grubman (playing with Eva and teammates Roberta Magnus and Marilyn Loesberg) played in the evening board-a-match teams. Despite the trauma Grubman endured that day, his team posted an incredible score of 20 wins (out of a possible 24) to handily win the event.

Maybe he should play in the Spingold next year and have an appendectomy . . .

The Bridge Trip

By Gary King

Gary King of Houston is a Silver Life Master who writes a column for 299er players in the Scorecard, the District 16 publication.

Over the years I have spent time talking with hundreds, if not thousands, of students about bridge. I talk with prospective players who are considering beginning lessons and with rabid duplicate addicts who are consumed with the game.

What strikes me as most interesting is how many things are reflected in this game that we play and love so much. In numerous ways, this game is like other sports and even like life itself.

Several years ago I received a telephone call from a previous student. She and her partner had a dispute about a particular hand and called so that I could mediate.

We discussed the auction and the hand (she was a GOOD student because she had the auction and complete hand written out including all passes, vulnerability, dealer and every hand which remarkably had 13 cards).

After a few minutes of discussion she sighed and with a little frustration said, "Do you ever think I will get this game?"

How would you answer that question? Have you ever felt that way?

My answer was very straightforward. I replied, "You are thinking about this game all wrong!"

There is no Utopia. There is no plateau at which you arrive and realize that you know everything that you need to know. There is no heavenly-like existence where you never make mistakes and can play with little or no effort.

You must realize — and learn — that the enjoyment of this game is the trip. Learn to enjoy your travels along the path to becoming an accomplished player. Enjoy the scenery, the people and the experience.

It is the trip that is the fun. Do not be like the vacationer who is in such a hurry to get to the final destination that he views the Grand Canyon from the car while passing by.

Stop and take in the enjoyment and pleasure that this game has to offer. Enjoy the game, enjoy the people, enjoy making good decisions, enjoy your wins and enjoy the wins of others.

Bridge is also an escape for many players. During a three-hour duplicate game all the stresses of life and everyday living can be forgotten. I have seen players with serious health problems able to take a break from concerns and play for a few hours. What a stress reliever.

I have seen people who are meek and mildmannered in everyday life get to live somewhat vicariously at the bridge table, playing aggressively and taking risks that they are not allowed to take in day-to-day life.

I am also fascinated at how similar our game is to other sporting or competitive activities. For example, in many ways this game is like golf. Good golfers spend time doing two main things.

First: when they want to work on their skills, they drive to a practice range and spend an hour or more working with one or two shots in an effort to hone their skills.

Second: when they go to a course and play 18 holes, they PLAY the game. The course is not the place to practice your skills. The course is the place to try to use the skills you have to the best of your ability.

These are two different activities that relate to two different purposes and two different mind-sets.

Bridge should be approached much the same way. There is a time and place for you (or you and partner) to work on your game and try to develop and perfect skills. This is often alone with a book or across the table from one another with yellow pad and a No. 2 pencil.

There is also a time to play the game. This is usually at the bridge club or local tournament. This is where you should use the skills you have and focus on getting the best results possible.

If you recognize areas that need work (in your own game or in your partnership), make a brief note and discuss it later. During the play is generally not the time

At the very least, wait until the round is over and you have stepped away from the table.

Try to locate a mentor. A mentor should be a player with greater experience and one to whom you have at least regular access (in person, by phone or email). Use the mentor not to teach you but to help you and partner work out the root cause of problems in your bidding and play. With the root cause identified, you can then work on those skills on your own.

Most players are willing to act as a mentor if approached the right way, but you must also do your part. I have had players come to me and begin: "I had some spade and hearts, not sure how many of each, and I really do not remember the auction but I think someone bid diamonds. What should I lead?"

You must be kidding. Bring a hand with the auction clearly written (which players were passed hands?), the vulnerability and the complete hand (S-H-D-C in order). Check to make sure you have all 13 cards. If you want good advice, bring a good setup.

If you think about this game for a minute, it is beautiful in its simplicity. The laws of the game do not dictate how you and partner communicate. At any given time, the methods you choose to use are totally up to you. You can use whatever tools you think are in your best interest. It is this flexibility of design that keeps a player continuously striving to improve. It is also this simplicity that keeps providing greater and greater enjoyment from the play.

In conclusion, my advice to the advancing player at any level is to spend time working on your game and working with partner. The rate at which you expend effort in this regard is up to you and the time you can devote. Also spend time playing the game and enjoying it.

Do not mix the two activities, and your results and attitude will improve. Let me hear from you.

CASE ONE

Subject: Tempo

Event: David Bruce LM-5000 Pairs, Second Qualifying Session

Dlr: West ∧ A 5 Vul: N-S ♥ A K Q J 5 4 2 4 10 6 3 ▲ K Q 8 7 6 3 ▲ J 10 9 4 ♥ 98 ♥ 3 ♦ A Q 10 9 ♦ K 8 7 6 2 ♣ J 9 8 ♣ K ♠ 2 ♥ 10 7 6 ♦ J 4 3 ♣ A Q 7 5 4 2 West North East South 2 3♥ 1 🌲 2v Pass 4♠ Pass (1) 5♥ All Pass

(1) Break in tempo.

The Facts: 5♥ made five, +650 for N/S. The opening lead was the AJ. The Director was called after South bid 5♥. Although the Stop Card was not used, it was agreed that North took 11-15 seconds before passing 4. (she leaned forward as if to bid, leaned back, thought for a while longer and then passed). The Director ruled that South had unauthorized information that her partner had better than a simple 2♥ overcall, which made the 5♥ bid safer. The Director decided that pass was a logical alternative and changed the contract to 4 down one, +50 for N/S.

The Appeal: N/S appealed the Director's ruling. E/W did not attend the hearing. North said she started to lean forward right after the 4 hbid and then remembered she was supposed to wait even though the Stop Card was not used. While she was waiting she did think about what to bid and passed after about 11-14 seconds. North said she was trying to be ethical and believed she was being punished because she went just a little over the time limit. South believed she could bid anything she wished because her partner observed the skip bid requirements. She could give no reason for bidding only 3♥ and then evaluating her hand upward enough to bid at the five-level vulnerable versus non-vulnerable.

The Panel Decision: The Panel polled three experts on two subjects. The first issue was whether 11-14 seconds was enough over the 10-second Skip Bid pause to be considered a break in tempo. All said yes. The second issue was whether pass was a logical alternative. All said yes. Normally a few seconds over the requirement would not be a break in tempo. But here the combination of North leaning forward to bid, then sitting back and thinking and then going over the normal time appeared to create a break in tempo. With the experts fully in support, the Panel decided that pass was a logical alternative to 5♥ and changed the contract to 4♠ down one, +50 for N/S. Since the Panel departed from normal guidelines on the timing question, the appeal was deemed to have merit.

CASE TWO

Subject: Tempo

Event: Grand National Teams - Championship Flight, Second Session

Chris Compton Dlr: East ♠ A K 10 2 ♥ Q 7 4 3 Vul: N-S ♦ J95 4 10 5 Garey Hayden Roger Bates ▲ J 7 3 ♠ 65 ♥ KJ6 ♥ A 8 ♦ K 2 ♦ A 10 8 5 4 ♣ AJ8764 ♣ Q 9 2 Hemant Lall ♦ Q 9 8 4 ♥ 10 9 5 2 ♦ Q 7 6 ♣ K 3 West North East South Pass Pass 1 🚓 Pass 1 ♦ Pass 2. Pass 2v Pass Pass 3NT 3♣ (1)

The Facts: 3NT made three, +400 for E/W. The opening lead was the 4. The Director was called after the 3NT bid. West had taken as much as two minutes before bidding 3. The Director ruled that 3NT was suggested by the break in tempo and that pass was a logical alternative (Law 16). The contract was changed to 3♣ made five, +150 for E/W.

The Appeal: E/W appealed the Director's ruling. East stated that the break in tempo did not suggest that any one bid would be more successful than another; West might have been considering many actions with many possible hands. East also said he would expect his partner to bid 4. with a singleton spade. E/W said the game was not a very good one but that it just happened to make, and that their reaching it was not due to any unauthorized information.

The Committee Decision: After analyzing the possibilities, the Committee determined that East's only logical alternatives over 3. were pass and 3NT. Did the break in tempo demonstrably suggest bidding over passing? Was pass mandatory under Law 73C? The Committee eventually decided that the unauthorized information demonstrably made bidding 3NT more likely to be successful than passing. 3NT was therefore disallowed and the contract changed to 3. made five, +150 for E/W. There was sufficient sentiment on the Committee that bidding 3NT might be lawful in spite of the break in tempo that the appeal was judged to have merit.

CASE THREE

Subject: Misinformation

Event: Sally Young LM-1500 Pairs, Second

Semifinal Session Dlr: West ♦ 8 3 2 Vul: None ♥ J 8 7 5 2 ♦ Q87 \* 86 ♠ J 9 ♠ K Q 10 7 ♥ 6 v 10 3 ♦ J86542 ◆ A K 10 3 ♣ Q 7 5 3 ♣ J 4 2 ∧ A 6 5 4 ▼ A K Q 9 4 ♣ A K 10 9 West North East South Pass Pass 1NT(1)Dbl (2)  $2 \diamond (3)$ Dbl (4) Pass 2v

All Pass (1) Announced – 12-14 points

- (3) Announced transfer
- (4) Extra values

The Facts: 3 ♦ doubled went down one, +100 for N/S. The opening lead was the  $\diamond$  7. The Director was called before the opening lead was made. After the 3 ♦ bid, North asked if that was forcing to game and was told it showed a weak hand with diamonds. Neither E/W card was marked "system on" over double. The information that 2♦ was a transfer was incorrect. E/W did not speak up before the opening lead to correct the misinformation. The Director ruled that N/S were damaged by the failure to correctly explain a bid (Law 40C) and changed the contract to 4♥ made five, +450 for N/S (Law 12C2).

The Appeal: E/W appealed the Director's ruling. E/W both thought that East's explanation after the 3♦ bid that West had a weak diamond hand was enough to correct the earlier misinformation. North said she could not have bid 2♥ or 3♥ because either would have been a cuebid and partner would have taken it out. South gave the same reason for not being able to bid 3♥. After listening to N/S's statements E/W said they thought that after East's explanation over the 3♦ bid any bridge player could have worked out what had happened. E/W gave no other reason for asking that the ruling be changed.

The Panel Decision: Three players, each with about 700 masterpoints, were asked how they would bid the hand if they were told 2♦ was natural. One bid 2♥ to push E/W higher and said it might be tough for South to find a bid if 2♦ were passed back to him. The second, on a possible auction of P-P-1NT-Dbl; 2♦-P-2♥-Dbl; 3♦-P-P-3♥ read 3♥ as exposing a psychic and raised to game. The third did not know what she would do – maybe she would bid 3NT but maybe she would pass or bid 4♥. North thought from the information she was given that West had a weak red-suited hand, so she could not bid 3♥ because that would be a cuebid. Given that at least two of the players consulted reached game, the Panel decided that Law 40C2 had been violated and changed the contract to 4♥ made five, +450 for N/S. The Panel decided that the appeal lacked merit and assessed an, Award Without Merit Warning to E/W.

Sachar describes Holes — winner of the prestigious Newbery Medal for outstanding children's literature, and a fixture on the children's best-seller list (behind the ubiquitous Harry Potter offerings) — as, "a story about a kid who is wrongfully accused of a crime, sentenced to a juvenile work camp and forced to dig holes in the hot sun in Texas."

As with all of Sachar's work, however, the story is uplifting and humorous. Although his books are targeted to older children, they enjoy a wide following among adults.

"The various threads of Holes — which features a plot that moves back in forth in time, a family curse and wild array of characters — unfolds like a bridge hand," said Sachar, who started playing duplicate in the early Nineties.

"I learned from my parents when I was much younger, but after moving to Austin I began reading the bridge column in the local paper. I was then invited to play at the local club, and I've been hooked ever since."

New Life Masters

It took Rita Graybow of Malibu CA only three years to earn her Gold Card. She needed two points when she came to Long Beach, and she collected more than enough when she and her husband, Dennis Liss, won a 299er Pairs game. "I learned bridge by reading. For two years all I did was read about bridge – no newspapers, no TV." Her reading has paid off with gold.

Dan Lavine of Phoenix AZ made Life Master when he earned his last 10 gold points in a bracketed knockout teams in which his team advanced to the semifinals.

Discount Parking

The Landmark Square Garage, located at the corner of Pine and Ocean across from the Renaissance Hotel, is offering discount parking during the Long Beach NABC.

Players who park at this garage should bring their tickets to the Registration Desk or the Local Information Desk where they will be stamped with an "approved" stamp.

When players present their stamped ticket at the garage, they will be charged $8. They can show their receipt for re-entry at no extra charge.

Slow play – it's our game's curse

By Patty Johnson

Patty Johnson, Sebring FL, is a National Tournament Director and the Director-in-Charge for all District 9 (Florida) tournaments.

An old tournament director friend of mine, John "Spider" Harris, was famous for the saying: "Slow play is the curse of the game." Nothing is more frustrating for tournament directors than having to herd players along like cattle when slow play isn't actually the problem.

If you take a moment to think about it, most of your opponents do not take that long to bid or play a deal — yet before you know it, the round is being called and you are nowhere near finished with the last board.

Here are some suggestions which, if followed, would solve many of our problems.

First: do not post mortem between deals whether you are in a pair game or a Swiss team event. Finish the round and then discuss hands if there is still time. We, as directors, will not cut your time but I think you will find yourselves under less pressure by following this suggestion. Remember: we provide hand records in pair games so you don't have to worry about forgetting a particular holding.

Second: if you are on opening lead, make your lead before recording the contract in your private score. You will have plenty of time after leading to record the information and still see the entire first trick.

Third: unless you have a legitimate reason to leave the table, such as the restroom or a smoke break, please remain at the table and visit with your opponents. You might actually find this enjoyable and a new way to make friends or future Swiss team partnerships.

I wish we could make these suggestions into rules enforceable by penalty, but none of us wants a bridge event decided by the pair with the fewest penalties. All I can do as a director is to ask the cooperation and help of all players because I think not only you but everyone else will enjoy their tournaments more.

Remember: those who enjoy a tournament will continue to play. Do your part to make bridge enjoyable for yourself, your partner and your opponents — you can't play without them.

GNT-Flight A Refund

The teams playing in the early rounds of the Flight A GNT event were inadvertently charged the entry fee specified for the Championship Flight. Team captains of those Flight A teams eliminated last Wednesday or Thursday may claim their refund from the Tournament Operations office in the Hyatt Hotel, lower level, Harbor B room. A refund in scrip will be mailed to those captains who are not able to claim it in person.

Silver Life Master

Bart Waxler of San Diego became a Silver Life Master by winning Strat B of the Friday Senior Pairs. "I played with a very nice pickup partner, Dick Fumanti of Long Beach," she said. Fumanti, a tennis coach, was playing bridge because he cut his achilles tendon – so no tennis.

Lost

A digital camera in a black pencil case. A telephone directory also is in the case. The case was lost in the lower ballroom in the knockout teams area of the Convention Center. If found, please contact Roger Clough, tournament chairman, or Eugene Chen of Vancouver BC.

Bridge with a Porpoise

Bridge with a Porpoise T-shirts are available for sale at the Local Information Desk in the Convention Center from 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 6:15 p.m. to 7:15 p.m. The price is $10 for one or three for $25.
