Never too young

"I love bridge, but none of my friends play," said Konner Spalding last year. What do you do if you're a third-grader and love bridge, but your partner leaves for college? If your grandmother is an avid bridge player, you ask her to teach bridge in your school, or at least that's what Konner did.

There were no young players in Konner's hometown of Versaille KY for her to play with.

That changed last year when her grandmother, Sandra Marlin, taught an eight-week bridge class to third-graders at the Huntertown Elementary School in Versailles. This year Marlin, a Gold Life Master, taught two classes for fourth-graders at the same school.

Grue remembers time as a Junior

"I can't play bridge with someone who is not my friend," said Joe Grue when asked how he picked his partners. Grue was the guest of honor at the Junior Reception yesterday for players 25 and younger.

Grue talked about how he began his bridge career as a caddy. When he was 12 years old, he found he was fascinated by the game and asked his grandmother to teach him to play. He says she is still his favorite partner.

Grue is now 29 years old, but he remembers his time as a Junior player. Grue competed on three teams that won the Junior World Championship. He also talked about how his bridge travel has allowed him to see the world. He's played bridge in France, Brazil, Australia, Thailand, China and many other places. "Bridge has changed my life," he said.

After his brief talk, he answered questions. Jay Baum, the league's CEO, welcomed all

Polish president issues invitation

After enjoying Louisville's hospitality for several days, Polish Bridge Federation President Radoslaw Kielbasinski took the opportunity to invite players at the Spring NABC to enjoy a warm welcome from his home country this summer.

The day before he departed for home, Kielbasinski provided some details about the 5th Open European Bridge Championships, scheduled for Poznan, Poland, from June 17 to July 2.

As an open tournament, players from all countries are welcome, and all events are transnational, meaning pairs and teams can be made up of players from different countries.

One innovation Kielbasinski is looking forward to in Poznan is a new format for the Open Pairs, an event played over six days. Instead of one or two long sessions per day, the event will be played in short, 10-board sessions, followed by 15-minute breaks. Pairs will play 50 to 60 boards per day in that format. Results will be available after each of the short sessions.

The PBF president, who is also a World Bridge Federation vice president, says the tournament venue is a modern, fully air-conditioned convention facility in the center of Poznan, the thirdlargest city in Poland. Access is easy from Munich or Frankfurt, Germany.

June in Poland, he notes, is usually pleasant, with temperatures in the low to mid-70s and sunny with little rain as a rule.

The program includes Mixed Teams and Mixed Pairs; Open, Women's and Senior Teams, and Open, Women's and Senior Pairs. There are cash prizes for overall rankings.

The host hotel, the Sheraton, is within walking distance of the convention center.

Kielbasinski says Americans always enjoy the wide variety of inexpensive but excellent food available in Poznan.

"If you are interested in good bridge versus tough competition in a well-organized tournament

The Lebhar IMP Pairs winners are Runar Lillevik and Oyvind Ludvigsen.

Norwegian pair win IMP Pairs

Runar Lillevik and Oyvind Ludvigsen, both of Oslo, Norway, claimed the Lebhar IMP Pairs. They scored 52.14 IMPs in the afternoon session and 45.32 IMPs in the evening. Their final score (with carryover) was 107.46, giving them the title by a 5-IMP margin. The winners had 18 plus scores in the evening, including bidding a small slam (plus 9.27 IMPs) and a grand slam (plus 5.64 IMPs).

The pair grew up in the same home town and learned bridge together and have been partners since 1977. This is their first NABC title, but they each have won Norwegian national titles, both as partners and with other players.

The Icelandic pair of Thorlakur Jonsson and Jon Baldursson were second. Their total was 103.52 IMPs. In third-place were Carlos Pellegrini, Argentina, Hector Camberos of Charlotte NC with 93.98 IMPs and fourth were James Tullis of Yarmouth Port MA and Tim Tullis of Roselle IL. Their final score was 92.17 IMPs.

Zia, El-Ahmady cling to slim Platinum lead

Zia Mahmood and Walid El-Ahmady, openingday leaders in the Norman Kay Platinum Pairs, enter today's two final sessions of the event with a carryover lead of about half a matchpoint.

The leaders zoomed out front in the first qualifying session with a game of nearly 69%, but the field caught up with them in the two semifinal sessions on Saturday.

Right behind the leaders are Texans Tobi Sokolow and John Sutherlin, with Eric Greco and Geoff Hampson also close.

Other pairs with double-digit carryovers are Gary Gottlieb – Peter Fredin, John Hurd – Joel Wooldrige, Jay Borker – Jan Jansma, Mike Becker Aubrey Strul and Ken and Laurie Kranyak.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Racetrack revisited By Marti Ronemus

"Five minutes to post time...place your bets." "Lemme have $5 on the 3 horse to win." "Look at the odds on that 5 horse...85 to 1!" "Who do you like for the daily double?" "Where do I cash my winning tickets? (Rarely heard)" "Got a tip for the fifth race?' "Waddaya mean, my horse was scratched?"

Sounds familiar, no? Such excitement and carrying on around the betting windows, all based on that most basic and venal of human desires: The wish to Get Rich Quick.

Common sense flies out the window. "I never bet on gray horses." "I always bet on gray horses." "That driver never wins in the rain." "That jockey is wearing my lucky color." Knowledge of the known universe is ignored. All statistics and math concepts are abandoned...all in hopes of the illusive long shot.

And not surprisingly, this kind of thinking is why the majority of bettors at the track go home poorer than when they arrived. Careful observation also shows us that when someone does win big, it invariably ends up being just a loan. The winner can't wait to give it back through other bets.

Think this doesn't apply to bridge? Just you watch when someone does very well on a hand. All too often, he bids or plays the next hand in a haze of misplaced optimism.

Back in the day when my dad would take us all to the track to see one of his horses run, he would give us each some money to spend any way we wanted. I always knew in advance that I would lose my money if I bet it (this was the precursor to my inability to make "eight ever, nine never" work for me), so I would stash it in a pocket, guaranteeing I would go home with more money than I had arrived with. My sisters however, would bet every last penny...and lose it! It's possible they had more fun than I did, so I guess in all fairness we should factor that in also.

Let's see how this perverse desire to Get Rich Quick applies to this tournament.

From my unending supply of e-mails:

"Dear Marti:

My partner and I are having a serious debate over this one. I think that, in the competitive world of duplicate, you have to take risks. If you see a way to make an overtrick, you have to go for it. My partner, who usually plays party bridge, says you should just play to make sure you make your contract. Who's right? A dinner is riding on your answer. How much of a bribe do you need to see it my way?

-- Lucky in Louisville."

How about that? I actually get to claim a bribe from each person. I can tell them that they are both right! Or wrong, depending how you look at it.

One of my favorite old-time horseman's sayings is "Go ahead and eat your betting money, but never bet your eating money." In other words, yes! You should always go for the overtrick. And, no! Not if it could jeopardize your contract. If taking the finesse for the overtrick might put the wrong person on lead, for heaven's sake, don't bet that eating money!!

And if you're not sure? Ah, here's where we get into some gray area.

A lot depends on the race you're in, how strong the rest of the horses are and your temperament (and your partner's!). Are you already so far in the hole that a wrong guess can't take you any further down, and a brilliant guess might actually bring you up to a 40% game? Does your partner have a sense of humor? Will she give you the whip for guessing wrong? Up to you, folks!

One way to position yourself to hang onto your eating money is to make your bets based on what you know about the universe rather than just closing your eyes and picking your horse randomly. Careful planning of a hand is how knowledgeable players place their bets. Here's a little puzzle for you. You are South, Pard is North.

East opened the bidding with 1♥, supported by West. You and Pard trot to 4. West leads the ♥Q. The opponents take the first two tricks. At trick three, East plays a low heart. How will you reach the finish line? No fair looking at the answer until after you make your plan. You don't get to see the end of the race before you bet!

Okay. Here's how the winning players lay their bets. You've already lost two heart tricks and you've got an almost-certain diamond loser (you can't ruff it, and there's no long suit in dummy on which you might discard it).

There probably is no danger in ruffing the heart, but if West is playing a devious game by raising his partner with a doubleton queen, you might lose a trump trick and a diamond in addition to the two hearts you have already lost.

Take the safe way out and simply discard your diamond (you could bet on an opponent having a singleton ◆K, but that would be foolish). That's what the smart money would do.

Let me hear from you. How are those betting strategies of yours working? mronemus@ comcast.net

Opening lead: 42.

Bidding commentary: East has a routine takeout double with shortness in the opener's suit. Your redouble shows 11 or more high-card points and promises another bid if West bids and North passes. West's two-level escape suggests a five-card suit, and partner passes to see what you have to say. You double. After an opening bid, a takeout double, and a redouble, any subsequent double by the opener or the responder is a penalty double. Partner, assuming you have fewer than three hearts, accepts your decision and passes, as does East. If East runs to 2♦, partner

Lead commentary: As North, when partner makes a penalty double of a lowlevel contract, a trump lead is usually best. A penalty double of low-level contract shows strong trumps, so don't worry about "finessing partner." Besides, a trump lead often cuts down dummy's expected ruffing power (shortness in opener's suit.)

Down Under coup

John Wignall, first vice president of the World Bridge Federation and a visitor to Louisville for the NABC, is a veteran administrator who also knows his way around a bridge table.

On this deal from the Gold Coast Pairs Plate in Australia, he earned his side a great score on the way to victory. His partner was Bob Scott.

Wignall's 2♠ is a Tartan Two-Bid favored by players from the United Kingdom. It shows a two-suited hand with eight or nine tricks. Scott asked with 2NT and, on finding out Wignall's second suit, signed off in the spade game.

West led a low club, taken by dummy's ace as declarer dropped the king. Wignall tried to cash a second club, but East ruffed in low. Wignall overruffed, cashed his two high spades, finding out about the bad break.

It appeared that Wignall was going to have to lose two spade tricks and one each in the red suits, but he wasn't ready to give up.

Wignall took his best chance by cashing the ◆A and ◆K before playing a heart toward dummy's king. West won the ace, but had no safe exit card.

A heart continuation would put him in dummy, where he could start playing on clubs, giving East the choice of ruffing and reducing the trump tricks for the defense to one, or discard and watch as Wignall threw away his diamond losers.

A club return by West would allow East to ruff, but if he ruffed low, Wignall could overruff and hold his trump losers to one. If East ruffed high, he could cash a diamond, but that would be the end of the tricks for the defense.

Plus 420 was good for 90% of the matchpoints.

Nearly all the tricks but few of the matchpoints By Barry Rigal

On this deal from the Norman Kay Platinum Pairs, David Yang found himself in a less-than-stimulating contract. He was playing with Greg Hinze.

Obviously 3NT is where you want to be. Against 2NT, Yang received a spade lead to the king and ace. He ran the diamonds, and North made the smallest of errors, pitching a spade. Yang ran the spades, knowing the ♥A was on his left to reach this ending:

On the $8, North could not afford to discard a heart, so he pitched a club. Declarer pitched a heart from dummy, catching South in a vise squeeze. To keep the club guard, South discarded a heart. Now the $A$ and a heart to the queen, king and ace established the $\infty$8 as the 12th trick for an average minus score.

Too tough By Barry Rigal

On this deal from the first qualifying session of the Norman Kay Platinum Pairs, Richard Popper declared 3NT on an unopposed auction of $1 \blacktriangle - 1NT$; 2NT - 3NT.

Popper won the heart opening lead in hand and ran five spades, North pitching hearts, South diamonds and West clubs (how symmetrical).

Next came a club from dummy. South had to duck or he would get squeezed in the minors when two more heart tricks were cashed. When South played the $10, Popper won the king and played two more rounds of hearts. This was the five-trick ending.

When the ♥A was cashed, South was caught in an odd variety of pseudo-squeeze. If he pitched a diamond, the diamonds would run, and discarding the ♣J would allow declarer to set up dummy's ♣7. The only winning defense is to pitch the ♣A, and at the table that was too tough for South. He discarded a diamond, and Popper claimed plus 690.

Electronic Device Policy

1. For all NABC+ rated events at NABCs: Electronic devices, including but not limited to, phones, cameras, PDAs, and others capable of sending or receiving electronic communication are excluded from the playing areas during any session of play. This does not apply to health-related equipment.

2. For all events at an NABC other than a NABC+ rated event: Except for health-related equipment, or by permission of the Director-in-Charge of the tournament, cell phones, audible pagers or similar equipment may not be operated or operable in any manner in the playing area during a session of play. Any such equipment must not be visible during the session. Sponsoring organizations of other ACBL-sanctioned events are encouraged to adopt a similar policy.

- 3. These restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, play recorders (except those designated by ACBL) and kibitzers and are in force throughout any actual playing session or segment of play.
- 4. A violation of any of the restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above will result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense will result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team. Kibitzers violating this policy will be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

Konner and three of her friends came to play yesterday in the 13-table Bridge-Plus+ game for players with fewer than five masterpoints. Konner has attended all three Youth NABCs – in Atlanta, Washington DC and New Orleans – but this was the first live bridge for her friends. They enjoyed a free lesson, then a 14-board tournament. Konner is an ACBL member — her friends have now joined the league, too. The young players stayed for the Junior Reception where they got autographs from former Junior player Joe Grue.

How did they enjoy the experience? "It was awesome," said Allison Birch.

"I loved it," said Konner.

"Konner and her friends get to interact with so many different people when they play bridge," said Konner's mother, Ashley Spalding. "I've seen improvement in math skills as well as critical thinking. Obviously there's a lot of strategy in bridge. My other daughter, Kendall, is in kindergarten and she's learning to play, too."

"The kids were nervous at first," said Marlin.

"Allison said the ladies they played at the first table were nice to them and that put them at ease.

"They were exited, but well-behaved, and thrilled to be here," said Marlin. "They had a good time and I'm proud of them."

the Juniors. ACBL President Craig Robinson also addressed the group.

"I've gotten a lot of enjoyment out of bridge, including being president of the ACBL," Robinson said. "Bridge is a complex game. I've played duplicate since I was 20 years old and I still see new things when I sit down and play."

Our mistake, their bad result

By David Brough

Playing in the qualifying for the Baldwin North American Pairs, Flight A, our opponents were the unfortunate victims of our bidding misunderstanding. I held the North hand on this board from the evening session:

oura mom un	o c venning s	Coordin.
Dlr: South	♠ K	4
Vul: N-S	♥ A	K

My partner's $2 \diamondsuit$ showed two or more controls (ace = 2; king = 1) with some other values. It was likely that we would play in notrump because of the form of scoring, and I wanted to protect my kings, so I bid 2NT instead of diamonds. Partner transferred to spades. He had not shown a onesuited positive response with his first bid, so I knew he didn't have the $\triangle A$ and $\triangle Q$. Partner's transfer and raise to game was a mild slam try (he could have transferred with a bid of $4 \heartsuit$ to show a lesser hand).

I thought my hand looked very good for a slam, especially if partner had a few cards outside the spade suit. The opening lead was the $\checkmark 5$, and partner put down an oops for the auction.

He said afterwards that with the 6-4 distribution, an ace and shortness in other major, he decided to treat this as a positive and not a semi-positive. Then he forgot about the transfer and raise being a slam try, which he had not intended.

The good part was that I was not down off the top and did have chances, considering how we got here.

Deciding that I needed the A for a spade play later, I cashed the top diamonds, and my RHO was nice enough to drop the Q. I ran all the diamonds, leaving three clubs and two spades on board. During the run of the diamonds, my LHO pitched the J and 10, giving me hope. I led the low club to the ace, and when I led a spade off board, my RHO flew with the ace. I could now claim with three K's left in my hand – making six.

The opponents were not too happy, even when we apologized for the mixup and result. Three pairs bid 6NT and made it, by accident or design. The poor souls who played in the normal spade contract actually got a bad result because there is no way to avoid two spade losers. All notrump contracts made 12 tricks. Sometimes bridge, especially matchpoints, is not a forgiving game.

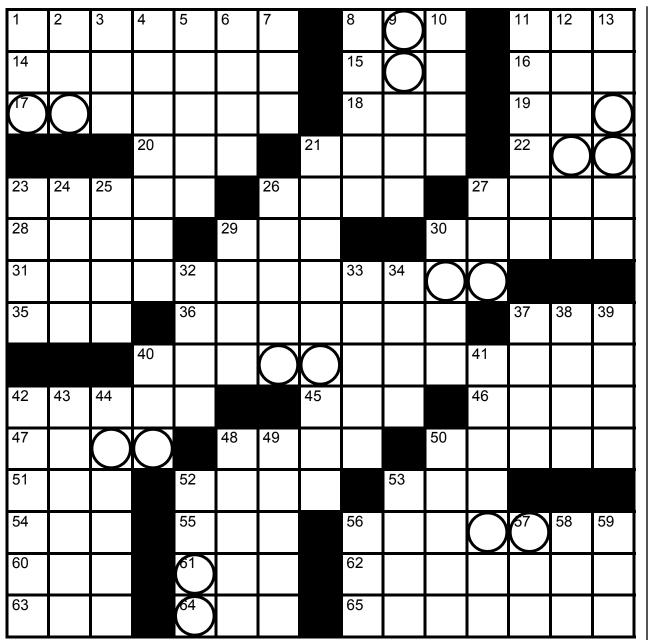

Readmission applications denied

In the Matter of the Application for Readmission to the American Contract Bridge League by Massimo Lanzarotti, ACBL number 9891560, the Appeals and Charges Committee denied his application for readmission.

In the Matter of the Application for Readmission to the American Contract Bridge League by Andrea Buratti, ACBL number 9891552, the Appeals and Charges Committee denied his application for readmission.

In the Matter of the Review of the Decision of the Unit 532 Disciplinary Committee against Charles Johnson, ACBL number Q505640, the Committee affirmed both the finding of guilt and the discipline imposed.

Wrong view

Most players who visit the Daily Bulletin office with stories about bridge play are reporting on successful coups, squeezes or other fine plays.

Greg Humphreys of Charlottesville VA had a different kind of story to tell from the Thursday evening pairs game. He was playing with Adam Kaplan of New Port Richey FL.

(1) Precision: strong, artificial and forcing.

(2) Weak hand or trap pass.

North's double of 6NT was ill-advised. His side was already getting a top for plus 50. Plus 100 would not have improved the score. Humphreys, of course, ran to 7♣, also doubled, and it could have been defeated two tricks had South found a spade lead. Instead, South started with the ◆10. Humphreys played the ◆J from dummy and could see that if clubs were running, he could make 13 tricks with 3-3 hearts or a double squeeze on the run of the trumps.

The issue was how to play clubs. Given South's weak jump overcall, Humphreys thought he had a better chance playing the club suit to split 4-1 (North having the length), in which case the odds appeared to favor a first-round finesse.

Unfortunately for Humphreys, a club to the 10 and South's jack produced minus 500 when South made the obvious spade continuation.

Humphreys consulted a number of good players about his decision regarding the club suit, and he reports that most said it would have been better for him to play clubs from the top. Had he done so, the 3-3 heart split would have resulted in plus 1630 without the strain of playing a double squeeze.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

The Insider

The Insider was wandering through the Tournament Services the other day and noticed a whole pallet of playing cards. When asked, Martin explained that the warehouse staff in the greater Horn Lake metro area had stripped all the old cards from all the boards housed there. That meant we needed to bring about 7000 decks to Louisville. At the same time the staff was running about 6600 pre-duplicated hands for the NABC+ events. Add in the various other decks of cards that are here and we're talking almost 15,000 decks of cards on site for this NABC. And, that's just a fraction of the stuff that was on the trailers when they arrived last Tuesday.

The Insider was wandering around downtown Louisville last night and noticed a whole bunch of interesting people, a bunch of limos, long waits at the food places and increased security around the hotel and arena. Because we all know the Supreme Commander's penchant for drama, the Insider figured the SC had arrived. But, about that time the Insider got an urgent call to run off to Home Depot to pickup three rolls of caution tape, and he realized Lady Ga was the one making the dramatic arrival. As reported on TMZ, the SC and Lady GG are a couple, so the drama has doubled. If it all works out, will she tour as the Supreme Lady Ga-Commander? Or will he become Mr. Ga? Either way, the Insider sees the potential for adding a third trailer to ship to NABCs. (For those who attended the show, the guy on the left trapeze was the SC.)

The Insider was wandering around the hotel late last night and noticed a guy running around changing the time on all the clocks. Did you remember to spring ahead? Or, are you reading this when you should be on board three of the morning side game? Sunday is always "Stump the 'Ask Me Girl' Day." So, bring out those questions you have been saving since Orlando and fire away. (Maybe there will actually be some news to report tomorrow – check back here to see if the Insider notices any of it during his wandering.)

Slow players, Alert!

If you are a habitually slow player, be aware that there are new rules governing your conduct at the bridge table. These new, stricter rules will be applied at this tournament.

What the ACBL Board of Directors approved unanimously is based on references to slow play in the Laws of Duplicate Bridge – 103-49: Slow Play Regulations.

This is the language of the motion approved by the ACBL Board in their meetings In Orlando last fall:

When a pair has fallen behind, it is incumbent on them to make up the time lost as quickly as possible whether at fault or not. All players are expected to make a concerted effort to catch up when they have fallen behind, regardless of the reason for their lateness.

In the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary, the director should presume that a pair finishing a round late by more than two or three minutes on more than one occasion during a session is responsible for the lateness. There is a strong expectation that the director will penalize such a pair. The size of a penalty will tend to increase for subsequent instances of slow play and for chronic or egregious slow play.

While warnings typically will be given before a penalty is assessed, failure to do so in no way limits the director's authority to issue a penalty.

An appeal of an action taken by a TD with regard to time may be taken to the Director in Charge of the tournament, and no further.

Can you match Deep Finesse? By Barry Rigal

This board was played in the second qualifying session of the Norman Kay Platinum Pairs. See if you can find the line that Deep Finesse – which always plays double dummy – recommends.

Say you reach a major-suit game. If you reached $4 \checkmark$ after North overcalled $1 \spadesuit$, well done – and bad luck, unless you got there via a Rubens transfer advance: $1 \clubsuit - 1 \spadesuit - Pass - 2 \spadesuit$; Pass $-3 \checkmark - Pass - 4 \checkmark$; All Pass. That makes North declarer and a lot more difficult to find the killing spade lead from the East side.

Against 4♥ by South, West leads the ♠A, gets to East with a club to the ace and takes a spade ruff. The ♥A is the setting trick.

If you reached 4 , not so well bid. With hearts 2-2, the defenders can't take a ruff to beat you, but repeated club leads set up a force or a trump promotion to beat you.

So why does Deep Finesse say the spade game

Perhaps someone found the double-dummy route to success after two rounds of clubs. Win the ♣K and pitch a heart, cash the ♠A and play a heart. West dives in with the ♥A to play a third club. You ruff, cash the ♠K, ruff a diamond, play a heart to the king and ruff another diamond. In the four-card ending dummy holds the ♠K Q J 7. You lead a spade, the ace pops up and you're left with the ♠K Q J. Try to promote a trump trick now!

Song to play bridge by By Susan J. Fishbein doctorf2u@optonline.net

When our local public library in Huntington NY advertised beginner and intermediate classes in bridge last year, I jumped at the opportunity to refresh my bridge knowledge and meet new people as a recently retired educator on Long Island. Little did I know that I would find myself part of a group of now dear friends with whom I play bridge three days a week for hours on end!

Known to ourselves as "Bridge Buddies" and "Huntington's Trumpingtons," like family, we banter mightily in a good-natured way and, at the same time, we keep our skills strong. As if playing together were not enough entertainment, we fell into the habit of humming short tunes that pertained to bridge. No, we are definitely not ready for the duplicate bridge club! For example, we started singing the phrase, "Second Hand Low," imitating Barbra Streisand's "Second-Hand Rose," at appropriate times in the play of the hand.

Sooner or later, my creativity got the better of me. Before I knew it, I had written out entire lyrics to the first parody and churned out more "bridge songs" within hours, totally inspired by my bridge buddies. The result: a collection of our greatest hits! Now, if my bridge game could only improve as quickly!

Happy humming!

(Second Hand Rose)

Second hand low, you play your second hand low,

Everyone knows you play second hand low, Even when a low Spade from the right plays, Tempting though it is to play my Ace of Spades!

But then my partner would freak, I know my partner would freak!

Every time I'm leading with an honor, Someone covers honor with an honor! But I play second hand low, I must play second Partner would yell at me, making me weak!

hand low,

I play my second hand low!

(I Could Have Danced All Night)

I could have trumped all night, I could have trumped all night,

And still have trumped some more.

I could have spread my Kings, and done a thousand things,

I'd never done before.

I'll never know what made it so exciting, while all at once my Heart stood still!

I only know when he laid down his Ace to me, And I was void, I trumped all night!

(Bali Hai)

Bidding high, overcalling,
Any night, any day,
With your Hearts or Clubs or Diamonds
Or your Spades, or your Spades.
Bidding low or underbidding,
Bidding cues or reverse,
All the ways you do your bidding,
It's a curse, it's a curse!
Your own special suits
Your own special dreams
Bid up the ladder
And lose in your schemes!

If you lie, you'll likely bid it, If you shift and you jump, If you're sly, you'll always bid it,

It's your trump, it's your trump.

Bidding high, bidding high!

(Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend)

The Spades in your hand may be quite monumental,

But Diamonds are a girl's best friend! The Clubs in your hand may be black as a lentil,

But Diamonds are a girl's best friend!

(The Wizard of Oz)

We're off to see the Wizard, the wonderful Wizard of Cards . . .

(On the Street Where You Live)

I have often bid in this suit before,

But the bidding never shot up through the roof before.

All at once am I seven levels high, Knowing I'm in the slam that you bid. Other bids they make, bids for bidding's sake, When pursuing all the cuing and the bids are fake!

Let our slam bid rise through the roof and skies, Knowing I'm in the slam that you bid. And oh the towering feeling, just to know a

And oh the towering feeling, just to know a slam bid is near,

The overpowering feeling when any second all three "passing" cards appear!

Our defenders stare, they don't bother me, For there isn't any contract I would rather be. Let the tricks go by! Let the aces fly! 'Cause we'll win in the slam that you bid! Page 12 Daily Bulletin

Lots more than Gatlinburg

There's still time to make your reservations for April 11-17 at Gatliburg, Tenn, the gateway to the Great Smoky Mountains. These Mid-Atlantic regionals follow, all offering our usual fare: Bracketed knockouts galore, Gold Rush pairs for 0-750 MP players, and hospitality to the max.

• Richmond, VA, on May 24-30. There are several Memorial Day regionals, and thanks to a great local newcomer program, this will be the ACBL's largest. Excellent site convenient by air or interstate. Holiday Inn Koger Center (804) 379-3800. Co-chair: Jacki Shuman (804) 307-4304, richmondregional@aol.com

• Greenville, SC, on June 6-12. The Heritage Regional is at one of the Mid-Atlantic's nicest venues, with loads of shops and restaurants a short walk out the front door. Lots of alternative lodging nearby. Hyatt Regency (864) 235-1234. Co-chair: Jim Villanueva (864) 322-6153, jaimepvillanueva@aol.com

- Reston, VA, on June 28-July 4. Our Nation's Capital regional is one of the longest running attractions in the ACBL. This year it's Northern Virginia's turn to pull out all the stops on player hospitality. Chair: Margot Hennings (703) 560-0245, margot10bridge@cox.net.
- Hunt Valley, MD, on Aug. 15-21. New and improved schedule! The countryside outside of Baltimore lures one of the year's largest contingents of East Coast bridge players. Baltimore Marriott Hunt Valley Inn (410) 785-7000. Chair: Patricia Wilson (410) 825-7579, valleybridg@cs.com

Today is Goodwill Day and Frazier International History Museum Day

A walk through the Frazier History Museum is a journey through time and across continents.

As the exclusive home of the Royal Armouries USA, the Frazier History Museum is a world-class museum that provides an unforgettable journey through more than 1000 years of history with everchanging and interactive exhibits, performances by costumed interpreters and engaging special events

Sunday's Sponsors Mike and Sondra Marlin Strati-flighted Swiss Teams

Sandra and Mike Marlin are honored by Sondra and Terrell Holt for their many contributions to enrich bridge for numerous players at the Bridge Club of Lexington KY. Not only are Sandra and Mike outstanding bridge teachers and mentors to us and our fellow club members, the dynamic duo is aggressively promoting Youth Bridge! They initiated and are in their second semester teaching bridge to third-, fourth- and fifth- grade students in an after-school enrichment program at a local elementary school, as well as working with the Summer Youth Bridge Camp at the Lexington Bridge Club. In addition to cochairing sectional tournaments, Sandra has served on both the Club and the Unit Boards of Directors.

Paddi Kline Memorial Side Game

Paddi Cline, of Columbus OH, passed away Jan. 18, 2009. She served for a number of years on the Central Ohio Bridge Association Board of Directors. She was appointed by the ACBL to the National Goodwill Committee. Paddi played and taught the game for many years and also wrote and and programs. Their permanent collection includes such items as the Daniel Boone family Bible, Geronimo's bow, Teddy Roosevelt's "Big Stick" and artifacts from 19th century notables Buffalo Bill Cody and Jesse James.

Currently showing at the Frazier Museum is: "The Good. The Bad. The Cuddly." It's an awesome exhibit that features toys and art from the popular Toy Story movie trilogy, along with other movie and TV-inspired toys from the past 100 years. "The Good. The Bad. The Cuddly.," which runs through March 27, examines the playthings that have entertained generations past through published several bridge manuals.

Paddi Cline was a lady of distinction and was held in high esteem by her peers in Columbus bridge. She was a lady of class, whose sense of humor and positive attitude enhanced the lives of all who knew her.

Owensboro Duplicate Bridge Club Stratified Side Swiss Teams

The Owensboro Duplicate Bridge Club was founded in the early Fifties by Bert and Grace Riley. Bert was considered a legend by his bridge friends, in league with Goren, Jacoby, Blackwood and others. Under his leadership the club flourished, with players such as Jim and Nisa Witt, Gordon Iler, Tom Neudecker, Mary W. O'Bryan, Doris and Ernie Schalk and Marvin Clark. Playing at large area tournaments, they won traveling trophies, silver urns, bowls and julep cups. Then as now, however, the thrill of the game was the biggest reward. Over the years, the silver trophies are gone and the numbers who play have declined, but the spirit of competition and camaraderie is alive and well in our club which meets every Monday night at The Springs Conference Center, 2200 E. Parrish Ave. For many years, we have hosted two tournaments per year a vast collection of classic toys from regional collectors and the Indianapolis Children's Museum. Visitors will enjoy seeing some of their long lost favorite toys, along with original Toy Story movie story boards, stills and concept art, as well as interactive games and fun trivia.

Louisville Luau NLM Tournament

On May 21 and 22, 2005, the first 299er tournament was hosted by Unit 117 in Louisville. This was also the year we moved into our new facility and we were so excited to show off our new home. At the first tournament, we had a total of 45 tables for the single session pair games and 12 teams for the Sunday Swiss. The next year, the tournament was moved to August, and the tournament was renamed the "Louisville Luau." We turn the bridge center into a Hawaiian Island and even had Don Ho playing on our public address system as the players streamed in. We also offered a free lecture with Verna Goldberg, one of our favorite teachers, between the Saturday sessions which we still continue every year. Our members are very generous and supply a multitude of snacks for all the players to enjoy. The tournament continues to be held in August, and is still a success. This year the the "Louisville Luau" will be held August 13 to 14. We have increased the upper limit to 500 points to accommodate the new members of ACBL. We look forward to

Sunday is Lenny Schmidt day By Ken Hayes

Lenny Schmidt died of a respiratory illness on Oct. 14 in his hometown of Louisville KY. As well as being an accomplished bridge player, Lenny was also President of Schmidt Insurance Agency, Inc., a member of the Knights of Columbus and a lifelong supporter of University of Louisville Athletics.

Lenny and I started duplicate bridge in the Seventies and became regular partners. We became affectionately known as Lenny and Squiggy after the somewhat offbeat duo on the Laverne and Shirley TV Show. Lenny was always very pleasant to everyone at the Louisville Bridge Club. He would always greet people and make the effort to learn everyone's name and he was one of the club favorites. He played three to five days a week right up until a couple of weeks before he passed away.

One of my favorite memories of Lenny was in 1997 at the ACBL Fall NABC in St. Louis. Lenny and I traveled there, and up until then smoking had regularly been allowed in the hallways outside the playing areas, but not in St. Louis. Lenny inadvertently lit a cigarette and was walking down the hallway. He was stopped by a gentleman who informed him he was in a non-smoking area and would have to extinguish his cigarette. Lenny, for whatever reason, picked this moment to challenge the man's authority. Not wanting to put out his smoke, he said, "Well, who are you?" In a flash, the gentleman answered, "I'm Howard Pilch, President of the ACBL, and if you want to continue playing here, you'll be putting out that cigarette right now." You should have seen the look on Lenny's face. Needless to say, the cigarette was extinguished promptly. We have laughed about that with Lenny many times since. Lenny wasn't my fastest friend, but he was my best friend.

In spite of not always feeling great, he always showed up and gave his best at the table, and his best was quite good. Lenny was a Silver Life Master with 1431 masterpoints. When he passed, he was leading his category at the Louisville Bridge Club in the annual Ace of Clubs contest by a wide margin.

Lenny is survived by his wife, Bootsie; his son, Michael, and his wife, Theresa, all of Louisville, as well as his daughter, Debbie, and her husband, Patrick, of Austin TX. Also surviving Lenny are his sister, Sharon Cashon, and her family, and three grandchildren.

Kathleen Ramsey Memorial Senior Swiss

Kathleen Horn Ramsey was born Jan. 10, 1925, in Lexington KY. She was a wife, mother of seven and an avid Bridge player. On Jan. 1, 1974, Kathleen had the added distinction of being the first person in Frankfort KY to achieve Life Master. Harry Gordon, of the Lexington KY Bridge Club, wrote of Kathleen, "As our tight-knit group of bridge devotees ages together, we inevitably lose some of the stellar personalities who helped make the game exciting and entertaining. One such unforgettable player was Kathleen Ramsey, who died May 27, 2010. Not only was Kathleen a formidable club and tournament opponent, but she was a polished raconteur of bridge stories. Her roommates at out-of-town events were treated to sessions of non stop hilarity, lasting into the wee hours. In their retelling, her favorite vignettes became only funnier."

Frances Ambrose Memorial Stratified Open Pairs Sunday, March 13, 1:00

Frances Ambrose was a lifelong resident of Louisville. She was an avid bridge player and played several times a week in many social duplicate and rubber bridge clubs her entire life. Her love of the game inspired one of her two sons, Mark, to take up the game and he is playing in this NABC. Frances made hundreds of bridge friends along the way and she cherished every one. She was a loving wife and mother. Frances retired from AT&T and the former Louisville Naval Ordnance Station. She passed away in 2006, one week shy of her 95th birthday, and was playing bridge until the end. Frances is truly missed at the bridge table by her son and all of her many friends.
