Fleisher strong in final, wins Roth Swiss Teams

Winners of the Roth Open Swiss Teams: Steve Weinstein, Lew Stansby, Chip Martel, Bobby Levin, Martin Fleisher and Mike Kamil.

The Martin Fleisher squad, well back in the pack entering the second and final day of play, came on strong to win the Roth Open Swiss Teams by 5 victory points over the multi-national team captained by Alon Aptecker.

Fleisher led the same team to victory in the United State Bridge Championship earlier this year – qualifying to play in the 2011 Bermuda Bowl. The rest of the squad is Mike Kamil, Lew Stansby, Chip Martel, Bobby Levin and Steve Weinstein. The team finished second in the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams in Reno earlier this year.

Aptecker, of South Africa, was playing with countryman Craig Gower, Frenchman Phillippe Cronier and Americans Jacob Morgan, Adam Wildavsky and Michael Polowan.

The Aptecker team won an appeal after the end of play to move from sixth to second, replacing the team against which they won the appeal (Renee Mancuso, whose team dropped to seventh).

After two qualifying sessions on Saturday, the Fleisher team was in a 21st to 25th tie, well off the pace. They ended the two final sessions with 124.82 VPs to 119.82 for the Aptecker squad.

Second place in the Roth Open Swiss Teams went to Craig Gower, Alon Aptecker, Adam Wildavsky, Jacob Morgan and Michael Polowan. Not pictured: Phillippe Cronier.

New Orleans chairman: Thanks for coming

By John Federico

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the ACBL staff, our local team of volunteers and especially to all the players for visiting. Speaking for the bridge community of New Orleans, we hope your stay has been both pleasant and rewarding. We say goodbye with fond memories of great times and new friendships.

Have a safe journey home.

Songs to play bridge by*By Susan J. Fishbeindoctorf2u@optonline.net*

When our local public library in Huntington NY advertised beginner and intermediate classes in bridge last year, I jumped at the opportunity to refresh my bridge knowledge and meet new people as a recently retired educator on Long Island. Little did I know that I would find myself part of a group of now-dear friends with whom I play rubber bridge three days a week for hours on end!

Known to ourselves as "Bridge Buddies" and "Huntington's Trumpingtons," like family, we banter mightily in a good-natured way and, at the same time, we keep our skills strong. As if playing together were not enough entertainment, we fell into the habit of humming short tunes that pertained to bridge. (No, we are definitely not ready for the duplicate bridge club!) For example, we started singing the phrase, "Second Hand Low," imitating Barbra Streisand's "Second-Hand Rose," at appropriate times in the play of the hand.

Sooner or later, my creativity got the better of me. Before I knew it, I had written out entire lyrics to the first parody and churned out more "bridge songs" within hours, totally inspired by my bridge buddies. The result: a collection of our greatest hits! Now, if my bridge game could only improve as quickly! Happy humming!

(I Could Have Danced All Night)

I could have trumped all night, I could have trumped all night,

And still have trumped some more.

I could have spread my Kings, and done a thousand things,

I'd never done before.

I'll never know what made it so exciting, while all at once my Heart stood still!

I only know when he laid down his Ace to me, And I was void, I trumped all night!

(Maria)

Patricia, I just lost a bid to Patricia*, And suddenly the game will never be the same to me.

Patricia, pre-empted again by Patricia!

We cannot get a score, she's ever such a bore to me!

Patricia, must you always control the bidding? At that level you must be kidding!

Patricia! You never can win with Patricia!

(*a dear member of our group!)
