Cohen, Meltzer honored at Goodwill Meeting

David Berkowitz and Larry Cohen.

Larry Cohen, once a fixture at NABCs, is working in other areas of bridge these days and not attending so many tournaments.

He was persuaded to travel from his home in Boca Raton for the Fall NABC in Orlando, in part because he's not that far away – but mostly because of a major honor the ACBL Board of Directors has bestowed on him.

At Monday's Goodwill Meeting and reception, Cohen explained to the gathering that he received a phone call a few days ago from Board Members Al Levy and Nadine Wood. "I thought it was a crank call," he said.

It wasn't.

Levy and Wood were calling to tell Cohen that he has been selected as the 2011 Honorary Member of the Year, one of the ACBL's highest honors – for long and meritorious service to bridge.

Cohen related that over the past few days, Levy has been calling him regularly to offer advice, among other things, about how to dress for the meeting.

"I saw last year that Bill Gates and Warren Buffett were Honorary Members," said Cohen. "Al, did you call them every morning?"

Cohen modestly thanked the board for the honor, noting that "there are 100 people in this room who spend thousands of hours on bridge. You all are deserving of this honor."

Before Cohen made his remarks, his longtime partner, David Berkowitz, amused the crowd by telling a couple of stories about their 25-year partnership.

Berkowitz said he became a good partner when Cohen threatened to quit one time after Berkowitz demonstrated poor partnership behavior. "He said, 'I quit,'" Berkowitz recalled. They worked out an arrangement for Berkowitz to have one "yell" every six months, but Berkowitz comported himself perfectly as a partner for 20 years.

"I told him that after 20 years with no yells, I had 40 yells coming," Berkowitz noted, "so he

Winners of the Mitchell Open BAM: Andrew Gromov, Josef Blass, Marcin Lesniewski, Cezary Balicki, Aleksander Dubinin and Adam Zmudzinksi.

Polish-Russian combo claims Open BAM

The team captained by Adam Zmudzinski ran away with the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams by nearly four boards. They qualified tied for fifth and had the highest score across the field in both final sessions.

The winners are Adam Zmudzinski, Katowice, Poland; Andrew Gromov and Aleksander Dubinin, Moscow, Russia; Josef Blass, Chapel Hill NC; Marcin Lesniewski, Zakopane, Poland; Cezary Balicki, Smolec, Poland.

Second place was hotly contested. Only 1.45 boards separated second through fifth place and all were in contention for the runner-up spot with one round to go.

In second place team were Rob Brady, McLean VA; Alan Kleist, Cheverly MD; Howard Liu, Naperville IL; D. Dong, Chicago IL.

Hampton defends Women's BAM title

Jim Sternberg with the winners of the Women's Board-a-Match Teams named for his late wife, Marsha May: Benedicte Cronier, Sylvie Willard, Jenny Wolpert, Joyce Hampton, Daniela von Arnim and Sabine Auken.

The team captained by Joyce Hampton, defending champions in the Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams, had a big first final session and just enough in the second to win the event again.

The team is Hampton, Jenny Wolpert, Sabine Auken, Daniela von Arnim, Benedicte Cronier and Sylvie Willard. Their final score of 34.11 put them just ahead of the Geeske Joel team, whose total was 33.86.

Joel played with Tobi Sokolow, Jill Levin, Jill Meyers, Debbie Rosenberg and Janice Seamon-Molson. That same squad finished second last year.

The Insider

Yesterday was a big day at the NABC. It appears everyone left Disney and Universal and came back to play some bridge. The S.C. sends his thanks. And, since the S.C is happy, Boss Baum is happy. Ergo, the Insider is happy. The Cypress Room (in Del Rey Beach or wherever it is) was 33 tables short of being totally full after moving 32 Compact KOs out and over to the Grand. Can these directors predict event size or what?

The Insider heard at the Goodwill Reception that for two of the Services Guys, Orlando is the 50th NABC that they have worked - unloading trucks, setting up tables, moving boxes and then packing it up to send back to Metro Horn Lake. If you run into Martin Ware or Jeff Johnston congratulate them on the fact that they have probably moved more card tables in the last 16 years than anybody alive. And, they manage to keep smiling - at least when they are around the players. We won't talk about what happens behind the closed doors of the Services Shack out back of the hotel.

Another milestone to recognize at this tournament is - as far as the Insider knows - that a Daily Bulletin was actually bartered for tangible property yesterday. We now know that fair market value for a Daily Bulletin is two gummy bears -- a super value in the Insider's book. The S.C is off to the theme parks today since he knows the Tuesday after Thanksgiving is traditionally the quietest day at the parks. Watch for a full report tomorrow.

Food discount

Bridge players get a 20% discount at the food court if they mention they are bridge players.

The tour desk has arranged some fantastic events. Please come see Ellie Hanlon and Mary Savko if interested in finding out more about them. Arabian Horse Show and dinner on Tuesday at 5 p.m. to 9 p.m; Morse Museum and extensive Tiffany Collection on Wednesday at 8:45 a.m. to 12: 15 p.m..; All you can eat lobster dinner on Thursday, (two seatings) at 5:15 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. The ladies say that reservations are closing soon, so hurry!

Snack bar hours

The cash concession stands have new hours. Outside the Crystal Ballroom, the hours are: 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Outside the Cypress Ballroom, the hours are 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

District 9 offers goodies

Complimentary coffee and orange juice is available in these two places: The station in the foyer between the Grand Ballroom and Crystal Salon G will be set out at 10 a.m., The station at the beginning of the Cypress Ballroom Foyer just after the escalators will be available after 9 a.m.

After the evening game, all players are invited to enjoy snacks and entertainment at 10:30 p.m. in Crystal Salon J.

Smith, McDaniel remembrance

Friends of Tom Smith or Garner McDaniel are invited to a celebration of life tonight after the evening session. The celebration will be held in Room 22176, East Tower, 21st floor. Friends are invited to give two-minute talks about Smith or McDaniel.

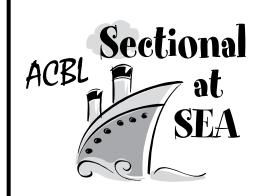

Lost and found

The hotel has a lost and found where most things are turned in. There is also a lost and found box in the Daily Bulletin Office in the Tampa Room.

Slow Play

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents -- and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time are subject to penalty

In general, pairs who are rarely late will be warned while pairs who are habitually tardy and/or pay no attention to time limits will be penalized.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Players:

Another day in paradise...it just gets better. And wait till you see the hands awaiting you today.

But first – some Life Skills guidance garnered at the bridge table. Today we tackle Skills for Managing Feelings ... dealing with anxiety.

My bridge mentor and one of my best friends and I were laughing yesterday about what we call Newcomer Nerves. (She won't let me use her name...she's afraid someone will watch me play and think it's her fault!) She was remembering a time when she was a newcomer with very few masterpoints and had entered a two-session event at the Summer NABC in Washington DC. She was sitting amongst a monstrous group of other anxious competitors, asking herself why she was putting herself through the torture. She finally decided that if some disaster hit and future archeologists were unearthing their bones, they would think this was some kind of punishment colony.

You know the feeling, I know the feeling, we all know it. And I have a confession. This feeling has not totally abated to this day. Even now, when I see a top pair of world champs approaching my table, I say a brief prayer, begging the bridge gods to not give me six points. Then I can just sit quietly, with no chance of making a mistake. Unless I'm on lead.

Here's a thought to add to your Life Skills on anxiety management. Remember, these people don't know you. You will never see them again (maybe). Also, they are all feeling the same thing you are.

I also found something else that makes a difference. Before I go to what I consider an important game, I open up a bridge book and "play" a few hands. Then when the tournament starts an hour later, I'm not starting out cold; I'm warmed up and my opponents aren't!

I won't belabor the obvious by telling you how this applies to life away from the table. You can do that for yourself.

Another thing I've learned is not to get to the table too early. Ignorance is bliss. I don't want to know those "first table" people ... they are just hands in a bridge book. I'll be social with the next 12 pairs!

Incidentally, it is important to be as nice as you can to as many pairs as you can. First, you'll need to find partners for upcoming Swiss Teams events. If the people at one table do very well against you, ask them to be your teammates. Better to bring the enemy inside your tent! Then you won't have to play against them.

You're going to find a terrific assortment of people at the NABCs, as you're already discovering. In many cases, you'll be seeing them again during your bridge career and may even end up traveling to tournaments together. (I was just kidding previously when I said you'll never see them again. That was just to make you feel better.) You'll find that folks who play tournament bridge are exciting people. They are out there testing their mettle in the real world. Many of them already know bridge is not a game! And since you're meeting them in Intermediate-Newcomer games, you don't need to feel overshadowed by

One more important thing to remember in your Life Skills training is that when you make a mistake, put the blame where it belongs. You'll find many times that you bid or played in a way you actually know you shouldn't. Normally you say to yourself, "Why did I do that? I am so stupid!"

Wrong! If you are playing bridge, it is a given you aren't stupid. However, you might get me to agree you did a stupid thing. Join the group. You are human. You made a mistake. Big deal.

THAT GUY JUST TOLD ME
HE LIKED MY SWEATERSAID IT MATCHED THE WALLPAPER IN HIS HOTEL ROOM...

I once gave a lecture on this very subject at a tournament in Gatlinburg TN. Afterwards, a youngish man sitting in the lobby got up and approached me. He thanked me for the speech and said he had done something so egregious in a bridge game the previous week and he was still beating himself up for it. Now he realized he wasn't stupid, he had just done a stupid thing. Turns out he was the Chief Internist at a hospital!

And finally, keep track of your worst mistakes. Remember, bad decisions make for great stories.

Send me your disaster stories, all your questions. I'm ready! mronemus@comcast.net

Thinking bridge By Eddie Kantar

There are many card combinations to consider when you play bridge. When you read about them and study the subject, it can help when the key situation arises at the table. How would you do with this one?

▲ A J 10 Dlr: North Vul: Both ♥ QJ654 ♦ A K 6 3 . 5 ♦ 98642 ♠ Q 7 ♥ A 8 3 ♥ K 10 9 2 ♦ Q 10 8 7 ♦ J 9 ♣ Q 6 3 ♣ 8 7 2 ∧ K 5 3 v 7 ♦ 542 ♣ A K J 10 9 4 West East South North 2* 1 v Pass 2NT Pass 2♦ Pass 3NT All Pass Pass

Opening lead: ♠9.

Bidding commentary: Playing 2/1 game force, 2NT is forcing. Not playing 2/1, it is not. In either case, 3NT will be reached.

Defensive commentary: The lead is normal. Fourth best should not be led when a suit is headed by a 9 or an 8. It is just too misleading.

Play commentary: This contract is going to live or die with the club suit. If you have a club loser, you will need a return entry to your hand to cash them! You have that entry in the ♠K. So win the ♠A in dummy and lead a club to the jack. If it loses, there is really nothing West can lead to prevent you from taking 10 tricks as the AQ happens to be doubleton.

Defensive commentary: If declarer plays the ♣10 from dummy at trick one, cover with the queen. If declarer allows you to hold the trick, and you read what is going on, you can defeat the contract by playing declarer for a singleton heart and shifting to a low heart at trick two.

If partner wins the ♥A and returns the ♥8, duck when an honor is played from dummy. When partner gets in with the ♣Q, a third heart play sinks the contract once and for all! When you lead a low heart, partner can also play the ♥8, driving out a heart honor from dummy. When he gets in with the ♣Q, he plays the ♥A and another heart through dummy's jack—or Queen.

Are you a star?

Even for Hamman ... By Phillip Alder

We have often seen Bob Hamman win more tricks than seems possible, but this deal from the Senior Knockout Teams surely sets a new high. It was sent to me by Karen Allison, who was watching on BBO.

At the other table, Ron Rubin (West) opened 1NT, North passed, Russ Ekeblad (East) responded 2. South jumped to 3. West's double ended the auction.

Rubin led the $\.J. Declarer won with dummy's ace and played a spade to his queen. West took his king and played a second club. South ruffed, cashed the ♠A, and led his ♦9. West won with his ace, cashed the ▲J and ♥A, then played another heart to his partner's queen for down one.

Hamman was in 4♠ doubled. How could he possibly avoid losing the same five tricks?

Well, West led the ♥A and East played an unclear ♥5. West cashed the ♦A and continued with the ♦8. Hamman won with dummy's king, then, believing East's signal, ruffed the ♦J with his ▲10. What happened next?

Most players would shrug their shoulders and cash the A. Not Hamman. Judging from the defense that West thought he had four winners, Hamman led the ♠5 from his hand and the trick went 45, 4, 2, 3!

Hamman cashed his A, played a club to dummy's ace, and discarded his second heart on the ♦10. He lost only one heart, one diamond and Plus 200 and plus 790 gave the Rose Meltzer team 14 IMPs on the board, and that decided the match. Meltzer won by 16 IMPs, but if Hamman had gone down two tricks, Meltzer would have lost 7 IMPs on the board, a difference of 21.

Notice to players who live outside North America

Participation in the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs and the 0-5000 Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs is limited to those ACBL members who have earned a Blue Ribbon qualification (or for those members on the Lifetime Top 100 masterpoint list).

Participation in the Life Master Open and Women's Pairs is restricted to ACBL members who have achieved the rank of Life Master. Foreign players who do not meet these criteria, but feel they are otherwise eligible, must receive a waiver prior to the commencement of these contests.

Previously granted waivers will be honored. For waiver information, please see Tournament Director Millard Nachtwey here at the tournament. He may be contacted through the Tournament Headquarters office, and he will also be available at the selling sites.

Parking shuttle notice

The parking shuttle takes people from the parking area to the hotel lobby. Bridge players can ask the shuttle driver do drop them off at the convention center instead to avoid the long walk.

Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs now a six-session event

The Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs, a national-rated event limited to players with fewer than 5000 masterpoints, begins today. The contest, formerly a four-session event, is now a six-session contest featuring a two-session qualifier, a two-session semifinal and a two-session final.

There is a pre-qualification requirement: players must have earned a Blue Ribbon qualification to participate. (Players from outside North America must be granted a waiver to enter. Contact Tournament Director Millard Nachtwey at the Tournament Headquarters office or at the selling locations prior to game time.)

The entry fee is $17 per player per session.

Previous winners:

2005 1. Marty Harris, Jacob Morgan; 2. Frank Wharton, Paul Walker

2006 1. Joe Houde, Divakar Bhargava; 2. John Klayman, Lawrence Lau

2007 1. Patricia Menefee, Andre De Leon; 2. Metin Gokcen, Sadik Arf

Pick up fliers on regional information tables

Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs

Bramley, Fallenius won 2009 contest

The partnership of Bart Bramley and Bjorn Fallenius has quite a record. They have played together exactly two times: On the first occasion, in 2006, they won the six-session von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs. On their second outing, they won last year's Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs in San Diego. The duo finished just ahead of runners-up John Hurd and Joel Wooldridge.

The event

The Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs ranks with the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs (and now the new Platinum Pairs in the spring) as one of the most prestigious -- and toughest -- pair events on the ACBL calendar. Like the LM Pairs and Platinum Pairs, the Blue Ribbon Pairs is played over three days and includes two qualifying, two semifinal and two final sessions.

Entry is restricted to winners and runners-up in regional championships -- plus high finishers in North American championships, members of current Grand National district championship teams, members of current official teams representing ACBL and the top 100 lifetime masterpoint holders.

The Blue Ribbon Pairs was renamed the Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs in 1999 to honor one of bridge's all-time great players, writers, administrators and the authority on the laws of the game.

Kaplan (1925-1997) won his first North American championship in 1953 -- the Vanderbilt -- and his last in 1997 -- the Open Swiss Teams at the Spring NABC in Dallas.

Kaplan was recognized as the world's foremost authority on the laws of duplicate and rubber bridge. He became co-chairman of the ACBL Laws Commission in 1978 and was co-chairman of the WBF Laws Commission at the time of his death.

He was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1993. In 1995 he was inducted into the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame and the WBF Hall of Fame.

The trophy

The event is contested for the Cavendish Trophy, awarded for the National Open Pair Championship and donated by the Cavendish Club of New York in 1928. Since 1963, the trophy has been awarded to winners of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Winners and runners-up:

- 1. B. Jay Becker, Dorothy Hayden; 2. Harold Harkavy, Cliff Russell

ACBL President Rich DeMartino and Bonnie Bagley, new District 17 representative to the ACBL board and chair of the Goodwill Committee meeting on Monday.

said 'I quit.' It's not fair. Now he's playing at this tournament. He just wanted to get rid of me."

Another major announcement at the meeting was that Rose Meltzer has been selected to fill the remainder of the term of Aileen Osofsky, the longtime Goodwill chair who died last summer. That announcement drew loud applause from the crowd at the meeting.

Meltzer has made her mark as a player, becoming the first woman to win the Bermuda Bowl (2001) and the Rosenblum Cup (open knockout, 2006) among many achievements in competition. She has also created a series called Breakfast with the Stars, where bridge stars meet face to face with aspiring players for social and learning opportunities.

She has also demonstrated a high degree of sportsmanship and goodwill as a player.

Chair of the Monday meeting was Bonnie Bagley, newly elected as the District 17 representative to the Board of Directors. She chaired the last Goodwill meeting in New Orleans, leading an emotional tribute to Osofsky and her many years of service to bridge, the ACBL and the cause of goodwill.

Other news items from the meeting were the naming of the 2009 Volunteers of the Year, presented by 2009 ACBL President Jerry Fleming. His choices are Pat Rasmus, Hamburg NY, representing District 5, and Bagley.

Fleming said of Rasmus: "I didn't know Pat until I went to the Buffalo Regional, and I found out she is responsible for the great tournament." Sharon Fairchild, who represents District 5 on the ACBL board, said Rasmus is the area's "go-to person."

Ken Monzingo, District 22 representative to the ACBL board, said of his longtime friend Bagley, "I've never seen a person more devoted to bridge. She is amazing. She works on everything and won't stop until it's finished."

ACBL Board, selected the district's Volunteer of the Year – Virginia Waterfield of Destin FL and Unit 219 in the Panhandle. "Any time you want something done," said Seals, "just ask Virginia. She is a super, super volunteer."

Volunteer of the Year for 2010, selected by ACBL President Rich DeMartino, is Carl Sharp of Chicago. He will be honored at the Summer NABC in Toronto next year.

Bagley started by noting that two ACBL staff members at this tournament are working at their 50th NABC – Jeff Johnston, director of operations, and Martin Ware, tournament services manager.

She also recognized a host of winners from two different recent tournaments:

Team USA, which won the Buffett Cup played in September in Wales. Modeled after golf's Ryder Cup, the event pits the best players of the U.S. versus the best of Europe.

There was also a long list of winners from the 13th World Bridge Series Championships in Philadelphia – and there were late awards of medals from the tournament to teams of ACBL members.

Dan Morse, who represents District 16 on the ACBL Board of Directors and an ACBL representative to the World Bridge Federation, presented medals for the medalists in the Mixed Swiss Teams, won by teams of ACBL members. The Greg Hinze squad – five Americans and a

Cohen enjoying stress-free life

Larry Cohen is taking a brief side trip to the NABC to play in a couple of major events, but his appearance in Orlando does not herald a return to the wars.

"It's just a one-time thing," says Cohen, 2002 ACBL Player of the Year who has won 26 North American championships. In Orlando, he will be playing with Steve Weinstein in the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs and with Jeff Wolfson in the Keohane North American Swiss Teams.

Cohen says he is actually spending more time on bridge than when he was playing practically all the time. He teaches bridge in various settings, including cruises, "and teaching involves a ton of preparation."

The author of six books and six software programs says he quit the tournament scene in part because of the high stress of regularly knocking heads with the best players in the world. His new life, he says, is not stressful. "I have a much more normal lifestyle now," he says, "and it suits me better."

He also feels more satisfaction in helping aspiring players improve. "Teaching is giving," he says.

Cohen says he probably won't be competing again within the next year or so, but he did not rule out a return at some point in the future.

Mini-Blue now a six-session event

The Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs, a nationalrated event begins today. Note that the contest, formerly a four-session event, is now a six-session contest featuring a two-session qualifier, a two-session semifinal and a twosession final.

What would you do?

Dan Levin of Aurora IL, playing with Christopher Monsour of Hartford CT, declared 6 no this deal:

♠ J 3

Dlr: West

(1) 10—12 high-card points.

Suppose you are West and on lead against the slam. Say you lead the $5. Declarer ducks in dummy, partner plays the $J and South wins the ace. He plays the $A K and partner follows with the 8–Q. Now Declarer advances the $3 – over to you.

Here are all four hands:

A J3 V A J 8 3 2 V Q 7 4 X K 8 3 A 6 4 V Q 10 4 V A 10 9 6 2 A 10 6 5 A K 10 9 7 5 2 V − V K 3

When Levin was declarer, West ducked the trick. The $\blacklozenge Q$ won and Levin discarded the $\blacklozenge K$ on the $\blacktriangledown A$. He played $\clubsuit K$ and a club, and claimed his contract when the suit split 3–3. This was a win on the deal from the Open BAM Teams – at the other table they played $4 \spadesuit$ with the North-South cards..

West did well to lead a club. Deep Finesse says that with any other lead, South can make the contract by playing along the line that Levin did – a Morton's Fork Coup. West has to take his ace or lose it. If West takes it, he establishes an extra trick for declarer.

The club lead could have set the contract, however, because West could have won the ◆A and returned a club. That would kill dummy's entry before the diamond suit is unblocked.

0.88

0.88

Did West err? Perhaps West should picture the heart void because Levin didn't check on aces.

Canadian -- captured the gold medal; the Hansa Narasimhan team won the silver and the American team calling themselves Steelers took the bronze.

Morse also presented Donna Compton, winner of the Mixed Pairs with Fulvio Fantoni, with a trophy for her victory.

Phil Altus, one of the co-chairs of the Orlando tournament, took the podium and welcomed everyone to "sunny Orlando," then noted that District 9, hosting the tournament, has 19,000 ACBL members, more than any other district.

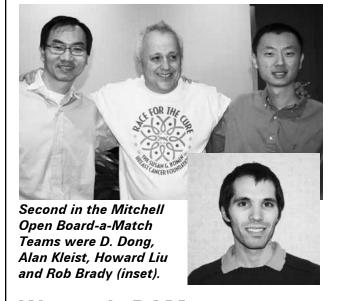

Among the many notables in the district, he said, are Jeff Meckstroth and Eric Rodwell. "I have played against them, and no one has better goodwill than those two."

When Altus mentioned that the district is also home to Jayne Thomas, there was loud applause for the six-time NABC chair and who has worked tirelessly for bridge for more than 25 years.

The Hampton team's winning margin in 2009 was two boards. Team members contributed to the slim margin this year with an action they took in the first final session.

As reported by Rosenberg, the Hampton team scored a board incorrectly as making six against the Joel team. No one on the Joel team noticed that the trick total should have been 11 instead of 12, but the error was detected by the Hampton squad, who reported the mistake to the tournament director. The change cost Hampton half a board, and gave half a board to the team closest to them.

Hampton started the day in 11th place – Joel was in second – but posted 17 (65%) in the first final session to get to within a quarter board of Joel, in the lead at that point.

Second in the Marsha May Sternberg Women's BAM: Janice Seamon-Molson, Tobi Sokolow, Geeske Joel, Jill Levin, Debbie Rosenberg and Jill Meyers.

unanimously is based on references to slow play in the Laws of Duplicate Bridge – 103-49: Slow Play Regulations.

This is the language of the motion approved by the ACBL Board in their meetings earlier this week:

When a pair has fallen behind, it is incumbent on them to make up the time lost as quickly as possible whether at fault or not. All players are expected to make a concerted effort to catch up when they have fallen behind, regardless of the reason for their lateness.

In the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary, the director should presume that a pair finishing a round late by more than two or three minutes on more than one occasion during a session is responsible for the lateness. There is a strong expectation that the director will penalize such a pair. The size of a penalty will tend to increase for subsequent instances of slow play and for chronic or egregious slow play. While warnings typically will be given before a penalty is assessed, failure to do so in no way limits the director's authority to issue a penalty.

An appeal of an action taken by a TD with regard to time may be taken to the Director in Charge of the tournament, and no further.

Florida team of Adrian and Patricia Dovell, John Brady, Brian Gunnell, Bruce Ohmann and Robert Dennard.

Dovell will face the Dan Morse team, big winners over Harry Tudor, who withdrew at the halfway point, trailing 102-16.

In the other semifinal match, Lou Ann O'Rourke (npc) will face Rose Meltzer. O'Rourke had an early night when their opponents, led by Mark Ralph, withdrew after three quarters, behind 179-59. Meltzer eliminated Mike Levine 145-98.

Bridge Hall of Fame nominees selected

The nominating committee for the next class of the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame has published the ballot that electors will be perusing early next year. To be elected, a player must receive at least 50% of the votes (electors may choose up to four names).

The ballot for 2011 will have these names: Marty Bergen, Peter Boyd, Bart Bramley, Gail Greenberg, Kyle Larsen, Jill Meyers, John Mohan, Sue Picus, Judi Radin and Tobi Sokolow.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Disaster in Denmark

Part 1 By Steve Garner

Gromov-Shanurin, Russia; Helgemo-Helness and Brogeland-Saelensminde, Norway; Bertheau-Nystrom, Sweden; Wrang-Ventin Sweden/Spain; Askgard-Bjarnarson, Auken-Christiansen and Blakset-Ron, Denmark; Auken-von Arnim, Denmark/Germany; Carroll-Hanlon, Ireland; Hallberg-Cronier, England/France; Jassem-Martens, Poland; Welland-Zia and Garner-Weinstein, USA; Assael-Zorlu, Turkey; Bocchi-Madala, Italy/Argentina.

Scoring was based upon imps across the field for each 10-board match with the high and low result being thrown out. Forty IMPs would be the average score each round. Eighty IMPs a blitz. Cash prizes would be awarded the top three finishers.

The venue was the new Tivoli Congress Center and Hotel, which offered very fine playing conditions. And I must add that Copenhagen is terrific city, home to many shops and cafes with an eco-clean and friendly atmosphere. Bicycles are a dominating form of transportation and it's true when I tell you I was more fearful of the maze of bicycle lanes than confronting a rush-hour taxi cab in NYC. The riders are fast and do not readily stop for pedestrians guilty of jay-walking. It's no wonder the pedestrians diligently obey the traffic signals.

The event started with a pro-am Thursday evening which included His Royal Highness Prince Consort Henrik of Denmark who has given his enthusiastic support to the Danish Bridge League for many years. It struck me as odd that I noticed a face I swear looked just like Gus Hanson, a professional player often seen on ESPN's World Series of Poker. And that is exactly who it turned out to be. Apparently, he was invited to play with Tom Hanlon and went on to show the field he could hold his own at the bridge table – winning the pro-am event. The remainder of professionals were paired with sponsors who had purchased the right to play. I noticed a few of the men looking envious as I had the fortune to draw a lovely woman named Charlotte Brandgaard.

The organizers also arranged for a very nice buffet and cocktail party after the session where prizes were given to all the top finishers.

Players enjoyed their drinks as we went over some of the hands with Zia, but as the clock nears midnight I chastised him about an old man requiring some sleep if he plans to be ready for the real event tomorrow morning.

It did not take long for Zia's 10 a.m. wakeup call:

Dlr: North Vul: E-W	A J 3 V A K Q 10 9 ♦ 10 4 ♣ 8 3	0 4 3
A K 9 5 4 2 ♥ — ◆ 7 5 ♣ A Q 10 6 2	♠ Q 8 7♥ 8 2♦ K 9 6 3 2♣ K J	106↓ J 765♠ A Q J 8♣ 9 5 4

	1♥	Pass	1NT
2♥	3NT	Pass	Pass

Welland's 3NT was a two-way shot. Maybe 3NT was cold or maybe it was a good save against an East-West contract. Howie's hesitation over 3NT was a combination of never being ready for board one (a lifelong affliction, I'm afraid) and Welland's somewhat quick 3NT rebid. Even with the hesitation, I did not feel I could pass out the auction when partner needed so little to make a game. And although it may not be clear as to what action I should take, it was clear that Welland did not know Zia plays all redoubles as strictly penalty.

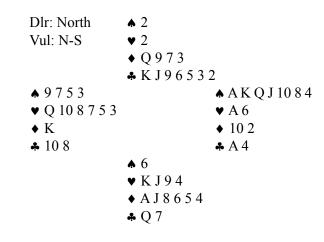

Disaster! We slopped a trick and held the penalty to 1600 with the remainder of the field playing 4 • our way for an easy 620. We won 14 IMPs, but our lead did not last for long:

3 ♦ is the type of bid that is very helpful for partner's decision on opening lead, but here it's debatable. Opposite a first-seat vulnerable weak two-bid and a singleton in RHO's overcall, I think it very reasonable to bid 4♥ directly. The opponents will likely have to guess what to do and many good things can happen. Over 3♦, Zia bid a confident 3NT, and I was left on opening lead. Admittedly, I should have led the heart king (count or unblock), but at the table was worried about partner having a singleton heart or possibly 9-x and declarer with gueen fourth. I led the ♦4 and Howie stuck in the 10. Disaster! We were now dead in the water as Zia was able to endplay me for a heart trick and soon pocketed a very sexy plus 600 and 13 IMPs. Nowadays, it's commonplace to bid 3NT in competitive auctions when it's unclear as to who can make what. And for that reason I think I should have doubled 3NT to alert partner the opponents were in possible danger. No free rides.

We next faced the Turkish pair who were leading after the first round. They reminded me of two old rubber bridge players who employed crude bidding methods but played their cards quickly and quite well. I didn't think much about a seemingly routine 4 deal we defended until I got to a chance to watch Welland-Zia play it on their last deal:

West	North	East	South
Auken	Welland	Christiansen	Zia
	3♣	Dbl	5 .
5♥	Pass	5 ^	All Pass

Once again, fortune favored the bold. Zia often takes the position that these hands belong to him until proven otherwise.

Now it is true that his idea of a first seat preempt at unfavorable vulnerability may vary slightly from that of his partner (a variance possibly as wide as the Grand Canyon), but his logic behind bidding 5. is valid: 5. might be a lucky make, a good save or it may propel the opponents to 5. Ten tricks were the limit for East-West and plus 50 earned a well-deserved 9 IMPs. At our table, Howie also opened 3. but RHO cuebid 4. I thought that this showed majors, but of course RHO converted 4. to 4. and I wimped out again by passing, losing a few IMPs by defending.

Round three was against Wrang-Ventin and I was impressed that seven out of eight pairs managed to stop in 4NT with a combined 32 high-card points:

 \triangle Q 2 \bigcirc Q 10 5 \bigcirc A K 7 4 \bigcirc A J 7 3 opposite a 15-17 1NT. Partner held an average 1NT: \triangle K J 6 4 \bigcirc A K J 4 \bigcirc J 5 2 \bigcirc ★K 4 and even 11 tricks proved difficult.

This was the second slam decision of the round:

Clearly the winning action was Ventin's negative double. I always seem to land in trouble when I choose an action short on shape and high cards, but here it was clearly the winning bid. Well done and worth 8 IMPs as less than half the field managed to bid the slam.

The first of three Danish pairs showed up for round four and we faced an immediate defensive decision:

This is one of those deals on which you need to give partner's lead a close inspection. It appears partner has chosen a heart from K-7-4, Q-7-4 or 4-3-2 instead of a diamond from his presumed four-card holding. Declarer is likely 2-4-5-2. Does a diamond shift look appealing to you? I think partner's decision to lead from a three-card heart holding rather than a fourth-best diamond holds the clue. Is it more likely partner would have chosen a diamond from four to the ace, four to the gueen, four to the ten or even four low diamonds rather than a heart? What about A-Q-10-x? I'm never thrilled about leading a diamond with that because I don't know which diamond to lead. A-Q-9-x or A-Q-x-x? A more appealing lead, although I still worry about J-10-x in partner's hand. Under time constraints, it's difficult to give effective analysis to a deal like this, and Howie led back a heart after some thought. Only one of the five pairs (Wrang-Ventin) defending 3NT found the winning defense and we lost 4 IMPs.

Round five started with an evaluation. AA653 ♥-- ♦Q98542 ♣K32.

At unfavorable, you elect to pass in first seat and LHO opens 1 . Partner doubles and RHO bids 1NT (a transfer to clubs). What is your plan?

This is a frightfully good hand. You may invite with 3♦, but of course game will hinge upon how many trumps are bought and how much wastage in hearts partner holds.

I like cuebidding 2♠, rebidding 4♦ over a 3♥ response, but raising 3♦ to 5♦. Partner held a useful 14 HCP:

AQ 4 VQ J 5 4 A K 10 3 AQ 7 6 so 5◆ (and 3NT) was cold with the spade king right and no club ruff. Surprisingly, only two pairs managed to achieve plus 600 to win 9 IMPs.

On the final round of day one, we faced Cronier-Hallberg and I saw only one deal of interest:

♦J 10 4 3 ♥8 ♦K ♣A K Q 10 8 5 2.

At unfavorable vulnerability, you open 14, and partner responds 1 ♦ . 1 ♥ by RHO. Do you bid 1 \(\blacktriangle \), planning to compete in clubs later, or do you simply rebid 2. I think it is a prudent plan to rebid 2, clubs being the primary nature of your hand. LHO offers 3♥, a mixed raise, and partner competes to 44, pass from RHO. Do you bid on?

Partner will need to contribute a decent spade holding to make this a reasonable game. Whenever I am faced with a decision like this I like to apply the Bart Bramley rule – giving partner a perfect minimum. What about something like ♦Axx ♥xxx ♦A109x ♣xxx?

Game isn't great opposite that unless you include the spade 9 in partner's hand. It feels like a random decision, but if you think it a tossup perhaps the lure of a vulnerable game tilts the odds towards bidding. Partner actually held:

great. Three pairs bid it and won 8 IMPs for their efforts.

Day two started with the deal of the tournament:

Dlr: South Vul: None	∧ K J ∨ A 10 7 ∧ A Q 8 7 6 5 ⋄ K 8

Six of the eight pairs finished in 7.4. What would you surmise is the best line of play? At our table, Helness won the spade lead in hand to play ♦A, diamond ruff, then the ♣A and a club to dummy before ruffing a third round of diamonds. Disaster! LHO showed out on the A and declarer was unable to dispose of his heart loser and develop a trump coup against RHO. Six out of six declarers (including Zia) failed to find the winning line: ♠A, ♣A and a diamond to the queen.

Two deals later, Helgemo and Welland picked up:

♦A K Q J 10 ♥10 6 3 ♦Q 3 2 ♣5 4 and heard partner open 1. then raise their 1. response to 2♠. Without much thought, Helgemo bid 4♠, but Welland (who is always looking for the road to 3NT) bid 3♣. Zia rebid 3♥ with \clubsuit 9842 \blacktriangledown AK4 \spadesuit 976 \clubsuit AK3, so it was easy to reach 3NT and win 10 IMPs.

The final deal of the round:

Dummy ♠ A K 7 4

v 8

♦ 72 ♣ KJ9432

> You ♠ Q 10 5 ♥ Q 7 6

♦ J 10 5 ♣ A 10 6 5

With no one vulnerable, South opens 1 ♦ and partner overcalls 1♥. North makes a negative double and you bid 2♦ (a constructive raise in hearts). South rebids 2 and North jumps to 4♠. Partner leads the ♣8. Do you have a strong opinion? The only clue I can offer is partner's failure to bid $3 \checkmark$, which he might have done with 10 cards in the red suits. We went for the ruff (as did four of the other five defenders with this decision). Disaster! Partner held ♠9 2 ♣8 7, ♥A J 9 5 2 ♦K 8 4 3 sso it was necessary to shift to a red suit.

Players can check their phones at the Cell Phone Desk located in the Grand Ballroom foyer. The fee is $2 and the money goes to charity: International Team Challenge of Florida. Santo Horrach (left) and Richard Barnes are members and volunteer workers from International Team Challenge. Suzanne Siebert is the cell phone desk organizer.

Electronic Device Policy

The electronic device policy is revised as follows:

- 1. For all NABC+ rated events at NABCs: Electronic devices, including but not limited to, phones, cameras, PDAs, and others capable of sending or receiving electronic communication are excluded from the playing areas during any session of play. This does not apply to health-related equipment.
- 2. For all events at an NABC other than a NABC+ rated event: Except for health-related equipment, or by permission of the Director-in-Charge of the tournament, cell phones, audible pagers or similar equipment may not be operated or operable in any manner in the playing area during a session of play. Any such equipment must not be visible during the session. Sponsoring organizations of other ACBL-sanctioned events are encouraged to adopt a similar policy.
- 3. These restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, play recorders (except those designated by ACBL) and kibitzers and are in force throughout any actual playing session or segment of play.
- 4. A violation of any of the restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above will result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense will result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team. Kibitzers violating this policy will be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

Biddy Pauley Memorial Stratified Open Pairs

Biddy Pauley was a common sight at bridge tables in Greenwich CT and Hobe Sound FL She loved the game of bridge! Although she took the game very seriously, she always was great fun to play with and was truly amused by the oddities of each deal. Biddy was a dedicated student of the game and left an extensive library of bridge books, which are yet to be touched by her husband.

Shirley Seals Strati-Flighted A/X and B/C/D Open Pairs

Honoring Shirley Seals today with a special game is an easy choice for us. Shirley is a wife, mother, grandmother and best friend. Bridge is easily her favorite pastime and hobby. She has held a number of positions in District 9 that include: secretary/treasurer of District 9, treasurer of the Orlando NABC in 2004 and 2010, chair of many Sectional Tournaments, past secretary/treasurer of Unit 128. At her club, she has been: president, vice-president, secretary/treasurer and club manager. She has served on the ACBL National Board of Directors since 2002. Her committees on the national Board Of Directors include ACBL Board Operations, ACBL Governance & Marketing and ACBL Charity Foundation. Shirley's love of the game of bridge always shows in her bright attitude and desire to improve the game. Come and smile with us today and play this special game. With love, from D, Sherry, Woody, Allen, Karen & Camilla thebridgeplacePalmBeaches Stratified Side BAM Teams thebridgeplacePalmBeaches in Lake Park FL is a popular club in which to enjoy our favorite game. It is among the top attended clubs in the U.S. They assiduously practice zero tolerance and have computerized scoring with pre-dealt hands and hand records. Open games are held daily. There are games for beginners and intermediates (non-life masters with 0--500 points) Monday through Friday. In addition, thebridgeplace provides lessons for all levels that are given by a staff of well-known players. And guess what? They serve free lunches before the games in a friendly and comfortable atmosphere.

Eugene Maurice Short Jr. Memorial Zip KO and 299er Swiss Teams Teams

Gene was a man for all seasons --- a Renaissance Man and a man who loved his family completely. Gene touched many lives in his law career. He served his country in the Korean War.
Gene was a member of the Florida Bar for more than 50 years. He was known in his profession as an attorney's attorney. He was a member of Who's Who on American Law. He started playing bridge when five years old with his father Gene Short Sr.
He was an avid bridge player who played at least five times a week. He started the Eugene and Mary Short Mentor Series for beginning players at the Fort Lauderdale Bridge Club. He was a loving husband and father. His quick wit and charm will be missed at the bridge club.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

Bill Keller Memorial Stratified Senior Pairs

Ruth Keller proudly tells about her late husband, William (Bill) Keller, who directed a sanctioned club game in the basement of their home in Buena Vista VA, when Ruth and another couple in the area started a bridge club where none already existed. He had never played duplicate bridge! With book in hand and no prior knowledge of the laws, this was Bill's first introduction to the organized game. Later, Bill and Ruth moved to Orlando where both played duplicate.

In 1988, Bill and Ruth undertook the task of negotiating with the City of Orlando for land to build a club. In May, 1989, the building was completed and Orlando Metropolitan Bridge Center was in business. They raised the money for the construction of the building by selling bonds to the bridge players. The OMBC has been a huge success ever since.

The members named one of the bridge rooms the "Keller Room." Bill died in December 2008.

Tampa Bay Bridge Center Stratified Open Pairs

The Tampa Bay Bridge Center, in Tampa FL, is a member-owned club that has been going strong for more than 25 years. A long succession of great volunteers helped the TBBC stay vibrant. Many members throughout the years lent financial support, including a generous bequest from a particularly well-liked member who passed away in 2009. Over the years, many members have served in all kinds of capacities and have made the Tampa Bay Bridge Center a strong organization. We are also happy to be the home club of Jayne Thomas, the chair of this tournament. If you have the opportunity to visit our great city of Tampa, please

Bill Passell Memorial Bracketed KO Teams 4

Bill Passell knew bridge. He played and taught bridge with humor and enthusiasm, expertise and integrity. Bill lived bridge history. During his distinguished career, he partnered some of the all-time greats: Howard Schenken, Oswald Jacoby, Alvin Roth and Barry Crane among them. Over the years, Bill successfully combined his capacity to win at the bridge table with his exceptional ability to educate. He was a gentle man who was a gentleman in every sense of the word. He will be missed.

Bernie Chazen Memorial Bracketed KO Teams 5

Rest in peace, Bernie Chazen. Bernie was unique, an entertaining giant of the game of bridge. From the time he taught high school students in Brooklyn NY, to his last bridge cruise, Bernie challenged his students and the students loved him. He was irreverent, funny and honest. He will be remembered fondly and missed, for many years to come. His headstone reads

MASTER OF THE GAME "I PLAYED IT MY WAY"

Marilyn Garcia Strati-Flighted A/X and B/C/D Side Swiss Teams

Spike Lay introduces us to Marilyn Garcia: Marilyn Garcia started playing bridge seriously back in the mid-Nineties when she came back to the states. Before that, she spent 25 years in Panama as a science teacher in the Canal Zone with her husband, the late Dr. Carlos Garcia, and her four children.

Marilyn joined the ACBL in 1991, but didn't start playing seriously until 1994. Since then she has amassed more than 7000 masterpoints, winning numerous regional titles. She twice represented District 9 in the North American Pairs. She also has a couple of high finishes in other NABC events; most recently 11th in the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams in New Orleans. Her goal is to make Emerald Life Master and I like her chances. There will be a party.

Marilyn is a really good bridge player — much better than she gives herself credit for. More important, she is one of the nicest people in the bridge world. When I'm at a tournament without Marilyn, the first question from everybody is "Where's Marilyn?" She makes the game a pleasant experience for her partners and her opponents. If you haven't guessed I'm her biggest fan.
