Trudy Machlin, longtime ACBL tournament director and teacher, died Nov. 21 following a short illness. She was 91.

Bridge was the center of Machlin's life and career.

Trudi Machlin, c.1964

Husband Jerry Machlin, who died in 1997, was a national tournament director and member of the ACBL Hall Of Fame. The two were fixtures at national tournaments and at regionals in the Mid-Atlantic, especially in the Washington DC area. Trudy also served for many years as the editor of the Mid-Atlantic bridge publication.

"Trudy was a fixture in bridge in the Washington DC area," said Steve Robinson. "She was loved by everyone. No one ever said a bad word about her."

"Trudy ran several bridge clubs and they were all successful," said Beth Palmer. "Everyone liked her."

Moss takes lead in Player of the Year

Brad Moss, who placed second in the Nail Life Master Open Pairs earlier in the tournament, has taken the lead in the annual Player of the Year race.

The winner is the player who earns the most platinum masterpoints, available only in nationally rated events with no upper masterpoint restrictions, in the calendar year.

Moss and Fred Gitelman were second in the LM Pairs and members of the John Diamond team that finished 12th in the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams on Monday night.

Eric Greco, also a member of the Diamond team, was leading in the Player of the Year contest coming into the Fall NABC. He and regular partner Geoff Hampson finished fifth in the LM Open. The top 10 in the 2010 Player of the Year race remained the same, albeit changed in order. These are unofficial totals through Monday:

Morse, O'Rourke in Senior Knockout final

Down by 25 IMPs with a quarter to play, the five-man squad with Lou Ann O'Rourke as non-playing captain roared back, outscoring the Rose Meltzer team 77-23 in the last set to win the semifinal match 175-146. O'Rourke will face the Dan Morse squad, 112-110 winners over the Adrian Dovel team, in today's final.

The O'Rourke team is Marc Jacobus, Drew

Casen, Eddie Wold, Roger Bates and Jim Krekorian. Morse is playing with John Sutherlin, Kit Woolsey, Fred Stewart, Dan Gerstman and Steve Landen.

Meltzer's team was Kyle Larsen, Zia Mahmood, Bob Hamman, Rob Rubin and Russ Ekeblad. Dovell played with Patrcia Dovell, John Brady, Brian Gunnell, Bruce Ohmann and Robert Dennard.

Itabashi, Grabel lead Blue Ribbon Pairs

Californians Mark Itabashi and Ross Grabel put together two solid games in the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs to take a slim lead going into the two semifinal sessions of the event today.

Itabashi, of Murrietta, and Grabel, of Palm Desert, scored 58.79% in the afternoon session and 64% in the evening to finish 9.31 matchpoints ahead of the second-place pair, Martin Fleisher and Mike Kamil. Top on a board was 51.

There will be 78 tables (156 pairs) in play today. The event concludes on Thursday.

Levene and Jones lead Mini-Blue Ribbon

Doug Levene and Mark Jones lead the 0—5000 Blue Ribbon Pairs qualifiers. The Birmingham AL pair scored 1012.55, which was 53.71 matchpoints ahead of the next qualifying pair, Jeanne Hughes of Titusville FL and Toni Bales of Pickerington OH. Top on a board was 65. The event began with 256 pairs and 130 of them qualified for today's two-session semifinal round. The field will be trimmed again for Thursday's final two sessions.

It's a long way from Warsaw, Poland, to Orlando, but this week Radoslaw Kielbasinski happily took the flight across the Atlantic, one of many trips he has made to ACBL's big tournaments since the mid-Nineties.

On the occasion of his visit to Florida, the president of the Polish Bridge Union is on a mission: publicizing the 5th European Open Bridge Championships, scheduled for June 17 to July 2 next year in Poznan, Poland. The tournament is jointly organized by the PBU and the European Bridge League.

Love to teach? Want to teach? Join the ABTA By Barbara Seagram

If you've ever had an urge to give your partner a piece of your mind, why not turn this into something constructive and teach a larger audience. As an accredited bridge teacher, your pearls of wisdom will now have more credibility!

The American Bridge Teachers Association is a wonderful organization of bridge teachers all over Canada and USA. There are members also in Mexico, India, Israel, Australia, Costa Rica, Greece and Japan. Their motto: "To help those who teach bridge to do it better - more effectively - more knowledgeably and more professionally."

See www.abtahome.com for information on how to join ABTA. Dues are $35 (U.S.) per year.

The ABTA has an annual convention that takes place in the few days leading up to the Summer NABC. This year, the convention is set for July 19-22 in Toronto. Here is a draft of the program of hospitality events we are planning:

Tuesday morning – Drive by bus to beautiful Niagara-on-the-Lake (about an hour away). Have a back-stage tour at the Shaw Festival, lunch, wine-tasting, shopping and more. Then take in a performance (2 p.m.) at the famous Shaw Festival (www.shawfest.com), the second-largest repertory theatre company in North America.

Return to Toronto in time for dinner. Optional dinner out on the town with group.

Wednesday – Conference commences at 9

Experience an urban safari of one of Canada's most beautiful cities with all its historic sites and magnificent waterways. This 90-minute tour will be followed by dinner with group at one of Toronto's superb restaurants.

Thursday morning - Conference continues.

Thursday noon: Luncheon at the top of the CN Tower. A spectacular view of the city is available from the revolving restaurant.

Afternoon: Conference reconvenes.

Evening: ABTA Awards Banquet.

Friday morning – Conference continues, finishing at noon, in time for you to play in the 2011 Summer NABC.

Program Chairs Amy and Steve Nellissen are planning extraordinary speakers for three days. Pick up all kinds of ideas and brainwaves from your peers as they make presentations. Hear experts such as Fred Gitelman, Jerry Helms, Larry Cohen, Audrey Grant, David Lindop, George Jacobs, Haig Tchamitch, Donna Compton and more.

The NABC starts Thursday, July 21, and concludes July 31. Plan to stay for the full tournament after attending the ABTA meeting. Space on the tours will be limited, so make plans now and let Barbara Seagram (co-hostess of event with Enid Roitman) know if you would like us to hold space for you for a particular event. We have to charter various buses and buy theatre tickets now so we need lots of lead time and frantically need to know numbers.

E-mail Barbara now at bseagram@ca.inter.net. See you in Toronto!

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Players:

From your e-mails, it sounds like, for the most part, you are having an outstanding time, but I'm a little worried you're not getting your rest. It sounds like there is no game, party or event that you are missing. Oh well, you can sleep on the way home, no?

Meantime, most of your e-mails are dealing with relationship problems rather than bridge problems. Interesting. That just proves my central thesis that bridge is not a game, but a microcosm of life. Here are a couple samples:

Dear Marti,

Help! A pair came to our table at last evening's game and they were squabbling like they were fighting over the last seat on the lifeboat! My partner and I had no idea what to do, but I bet you have advice in case this happens again.

Signed, Don't want to get in the middle of THAT!

Dear Middle,

You bet I've got advice. Depending on your personality, you can take one of two approaches.

You can call the director and very nicely say, "These people are having a problem with each other, and they are inhibiting my enjoyment of the game." The director will assess the situation and, using Advanced Zero Tolerance Technology, solve your problem.

Or if you have a streak of mischief, you can use their anger with each other to your advantage. The beauty of people who are fighting is that they are more interested in defeating each other than defeating you. You can just sit back and allow things to take their natural course. Remember, they would rather prove themselves right than win the board. Sit quietly and stay calm. You are about to get a top.

Even better is a pair who have been out to dinner first and "had a few." Wow. Guaranteed tops for you.

Thinking bridge By Eddie Kantar

Some card combinations will recur throughout your bridge career. You better recognize them when they come up. See how you would do with this one.

Next letter...

Dear Marti,

What happened to the partner I arrived with? All of a sudden, she's playing like she never heard of this game. All I can think of is that old saying, Where is the hand you were bidding with? She is playing like an amateur. What can I do?

Signed, Saddled with a Loser

Dear Saddled (and the rest of you out there),

First, I'm going to give you the best advice you ever got to not only win games, but enjoy yourself more at tournaments...and dare I say, life.

Love your partner. Let me repeat: Love your partner. During the course of the game today, you may begin to think your partner is something less than absolutely perfect. Perhaps you may even think he has gone insane (and often we can make a good case for that, can't we?). Your ordinary reaction will be to try to "help" him improve!

Wrong! Never, never "help" partner to "improve" until the next day. Even if you just want to avoid misunderstandings? Error! Tackle that project tomorrow. I know, you think if you don't say something right away, the rest of the session will be played on uncertain ground with future misunderstandings. That might be true, but so what?

Re-read the first letter. See what happens when you try to "straighten your partner out?" No one can play well when they have three opponents. Two is enough. No one can play well when they are already bleeding from a bad hand. Don't add another wound.

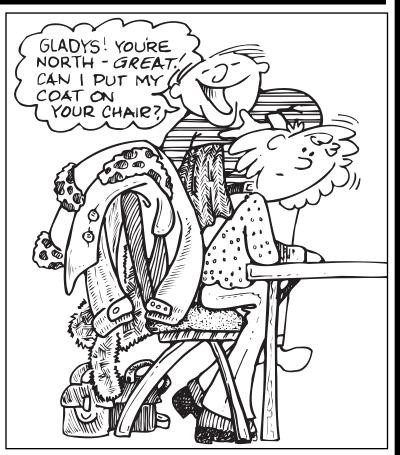

Here is what you should say when things go wrong: "Tough break, Pard."

When he puts down a dummy void in the agreed trump suit, try saying, with a big smile, "That's loverly, partner."

If he revokes and costs the contract, you should say (and with a large degree of honesty), "Sorry Pard. That's my fault. I should have been watching more closely!"

outside of clubs, the suit you plan to use for your extra needed tricks. Translation: You only need four clubs tricks to make your contract. However, if you give up the lead in clubs and spades are 5-3 (47%) as opposed to 4-4 (33%), you are headed for the water cooler.

To give yourself the best chance of taking

Or if he fails to draw trumps and claim, tell him, "Tough contract, Pard. I would have played it the same way."

Okay, you're getting the idea. Now, how do you contain your true feelings and bring those words out of a smiling mouth? Easy. The first time something goes even slightly wrong, the first time he misses a signal or boots a bid, tell yourself that you are a professional, and partner has hired you at $500 a session. And if he makes a lot more mistakes, you can raise that silently to $1000. This is tried and true. Once I was mentally making $5000 for the session and never smiled so much in my life.

Not only will you be having a good time (you'll be honestly surprised!) but even have a good chance at placing. A happy partner plays surprisingly better than a scared, uptight one.

The only downside is you won't be able to get rid of him, as he's going to like and admire you so much. Smile on.

Please let me hear from you. I know you've got your computer with you (you won't leave home without it, will you!) so keep me posted. mronemus@comcast.net #### games with you.

There are many suit combinations where the longer hand has: A-K-10-x-(x), K-Q-10-x-(x), or A-Q-10-x-(x) facing honor third in partner's hand. Correct technique is to start with a high honor from the long hand and then cross to the remaining honor doubleton in partner's hand ready to take a marked third-round finesse if necessary.

That precious overtrick

The win by the Joyce Hampton team in the Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams was by the slim margin of a quarter of a board. This deal, played near the end of the second final session, was vital to the team's success. North-South were Sabine Auken and Daniela von Arnim

When von Arnim played her club to dummy, West could comfortably discard a spade or a heart. On the *K (declarer pitching a heart) West could let go of a card in the other major, but when von Arnim cashed the *Q (pitching another heart), West was down to A 9 and VK J. If she pitched a heart, von Arnim could lead dummy's heart to her ace, dropping the king to claim 13 tricks.

West eventually pitched down to the singleton A, so von Arnim played dummy's K, discarding the  $\checkmark$ 10. West won but had to lead from  $\checkmark$ K J into von Arnim's ♥A O.

Eleven tricks were made in the same contract at the other table, so plus 690 was a win. Had von Arnim made only 11 tricks to tie the board, the half-board loss would have dropped the Hampton team to second place. West could have held von Arnim to 11 tricks with a club lead, which destroys the timing for the eventual squeeze without the count, but that lead would be found only by a player looking at all four hands.

NABC Diary

Here in spirit

Tournament Director Jackie Matthews, "Mother" to legions of caddies over the past three decades, is missing at this tournament because she is recuperating from surgery to improve the flow of blood to her legs.

Reached by telephone at her home in Sacramento, Matthews said she is "doing fine" and looking forward to the next NABC – 2011 Spring in Louisville.

In more than 30 years of working at tournaments, Matthews has missed only three NABCs. She sends thanks for all the good wishes of her friends. "I'm there in spirit," she said, "and missing everyone."

Judy started it

It has been pointed out that Judy Kay-Wolff was the originator of what has become Breakfast with the Stars, now being guided and organized by Rose Meltzer. The first such get-together was at the Spring NABC in Philadelphia in 2003 and was organized by Kay-Wolff.

Happy feet

Rand Pinsky, who represents District 23 on the ACBL Board of Directors, revealed his strategy for getting the most out of his regular partner, his wife, Kathy Swaine.

Here's the deal: Whenever they win a twosession event, Swaine gets to buy a new pair of shoes, even if the cost is in the $200 range. Pinsky put it this way: "She has good taste in shoes."

Apparently the strategy works. In the past three of four years, Swaine has earned about a dozen pairs of shoes.

Although Swaine's shoe collection does not rival that of Imelda Marcos, she does have some fine footwear, thanks to her husband's commitment. Says Pinsky: "It's worth it to me."

Good sport

Shelly Zimbler of Lake Tahoe NV dropped in the Daily Bulletin office to relate his experience in one of the Compact Knockout Teams at the NABC.

When Zimbler got to the table to play, one of his opponents abruptly departed, leaving his partner in the lurch. According to Zimbler, the two original opponents reportedly own about 4000 masterpoints.

After the opponent left, a kibitzer was recruited to fill in with Richard Stein, a player from Canada. The new partner has about 80 masterpoints.

According to Zimbler, Stein could not have been more pleasant to his inexperienced partner. "He was the nicest guy I have ever played against," said Zimbler, whose partner, Gary Nitzberg of Carson City NV, agreed.

Even better for Stein and the newcomer, they won a close match.

At another table, Debbie Rosenberg and Janice Seamon-Molson found a different way to win the board on the same deal.

Seamon-Molson opened 1 ♦ and her left-hand opponent overcalled 1♥. Rosenberg made negative double, and Seamon-Molson passed.

Rosenberg started with a high club, continuing the suit, on which Seamon-Molson discarded her singleton spade. Declarer ruffed the second club and played a diamond, Rosenberg going up with the queen to play a second round to her partner. Seamon-Molson played a low trump, taken by declarer with the jack.

A third round of diamonds went to South, and a fourth round was ruffed by declarer with the 7 and Rosenberg with the 9. At that point, declarer's trump holding was K-5. Seamon-Molson still had ♥A Q 10 6 and two good diamonds, so she claimed all but one more trick for plus 1100.

District 9 Director Shirley Seals poses with Carla Burke of Pensacola FL during the Goodwill Committee meeting on Monday. Burke was accepting the District 9 Volunteer of the Year award for Virginia Waterfield of Destin FL. Waterfield was unable to attend the meeting.

People h	ave differe	nt views abou	t when to

People have different views about when to respond in diamonds or a major when partner opens 1. On this deal from the second final of the Nail Life Master Open Pairs, I think the field would be split between those who believe North should respond in the major and those who are prepared to treat the North hand as good enough to force game and bid the suits in the natural order.

The unexpected benefit of responding  $1 \blacklozenge$  is to encourage competition, and rarely has it proved as useful as on this deal.

West led a heart and East did his best by winning and continuing the force. My partner, Eric Leong, ruffed in dummy and played the  $\blacktriangle J$ , covered all around, then played the A and a diamond to the 10 and queen. Again, the defenders led hearts in this ending:

	♦ 97
	♦ K 9 5
	♣ A K 4
^ —		▲ 10 4 2
♥ K J 6		♥ Q 8 7

* 9873		♣ Q 5
	▲ A 8 6
	♣ J 10 6 2
T . 1	11. 1. 1	1

Leong pitched his diamond and ruffed in dummy, ran the  $\clubsuit$ 9 then cashed the  $\clubsuit$ A and ran the diamonds. East could discard and be caught in a trump coup or ruff in and let declarer overruff and claim. A very nice plus 650.

Slow Play

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents -- and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time are subject to penalty.

In general, pairs who are rarely late will be warned while pairs who are habitually tardy and/or pay no attention to time limits will be penalized.

National 99er offers gold

The National 99ers Pairs will be played today. This is a one-day, two-session event for players with fewer than 100 masterpoints. Masterpoints awards for overall places will be 5% gold points.

Last year's winners were Elsa Castillo of Wilton Manors FL and Malvina Aljure of Las Angeles.

I think in both cases you can be sure dummy will have about 5 high-card points at most. All your minor honors rate to be working. Declarer's only way to come close will be to get a ruff in dummy.

Perhaps that's a simplistic view. The trump lead at our table led to a painless plus 300. At the other table, West decided he should be playing for ruffs. He led the  $\bigstar K$  and shifted to a heart on the sight of dummy. Too late! Linda Gordon stuck in the  $\checkmark$ 9, played a spade up and could arrange a ruff in dummy for plus 590 whatever the defenders did next.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

visa issues, Kielbasinski says, because Poland is a member of the European Union. For example, he says, there is no border between Germany and Poland.

For players interested in sightseeing, Poznan has many attractions of historical interest, and oneand two-day excursions to Warsaw, Gdansk and Krakow will be available.

Many top Polish players are regulars at ACBL's big tournaments, and on Monday night three of them – Marcin Lesniewski, Cezary Balicki and Adam Zmudzinski – helped the Josef Blass team win the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams.

Bridge in Poland, says Kielbasinski, "is getting better and better," in no small measure because it has become a big part of the culture.

At least two schools in Poland, he says, have bridge as compulsory subjects on the curriculum.

Many parents, he says, are grateful for organized bridge "to get the kids away from the computers. We have many very dedicated teachers who organize bridge activities, especially in small towns where there is little to do."

The Polish Bridge Union, Kielbasinski says, is eager to welcome visitors to the summer tournament, offering a full schedule of events – Mixed Teams, Mixed Pairs, Open, Women's and Senior Teams and Open, Women's and Senior Pairs. There will be cash prizes in open, women's and senior events covering 15 places.

The tournament will be played at the Poznan International Fair, a modern, fully air conditioned convention center. The host hotel (Sheraton) is offering a bridge rate of 60 euros per person per night, double occupancy, including breakfast.

More information about the tournament, including registration and hotel reservations, is available at www.poznan2011.pl.

(1) One-si	uited hand,	not Alerte	d.

(2) Transfer to clubs, Alerted.

(3) Improvised bid.

Facts: The contract was 3♥ by South, down two for a score of East-West plus 100, after the ♦J opening lead.

The director was called at the end of the auction when East asked about the double and South said there had been a failure to Alert. West declined to change his call, but East announced to the table that he and his partner would have both changed their bidding. He said he would have redoubled and then, when the hand was over, said that auction would have driven East-West to the 3NT game.

South bid  $3 \div$  because she knew she had to bid to let partner show her suit, but did not realize that East's  $2 \bigstar$  call relieved her of that responsibility.

Director's Ruling: Law 21B3 authorizes an adjusted score in cases where there has been damage as a result of a failure to Alert. Law 12 C 1 (e) (i) requires the most favorable result likely be assigned to the non-offenders if the irregularity had not occurred. 3NT, making, was not judged to be likely, so East-West kept their plus 100. Law 12 C 2 (e) (ii) requires that the most unfavorable result that was at all probable be assigned to the offenders. It was felt minus 600 fell into this category and was given to North-South.

The Appeal: East-West appealed and all four players attended the hearing.

Appealing side: East said he would have redoubled had he known north had a single-suited hand. When asked why he didn't anyway, he said because with the high cards all in one hand, 3NT would not make. It was pointed out to him that knowing where all the values were actually made it easier to make 3NT. The key factor that allowed nine tricks was that South held a singleton heart and if South had held the AK, 3NT would be set. East repeated his argument. He did not explain how he knew West would change his bidding before he saw the hand.

On a constructed auction after a redouble, South would have bid 2♣, North would have bid 2♥ after West passed and East would now bid 3♣. West said he then would bid 3NT.

Non-Appealing side: South was very apologetic for her failure to Alert

2♦. The UI suggests that North should bid again after South's 2♥ call. In accordance with Law 16, the director adjusted the final contract to  $2 \mathbf{v}$ . The director also determined that North-South would take five or six tricks in a 2♥ contract. Pursuant to Law 12e, the director determined that the most unfavorable result that was at all probable was that North-South would take only five tricks in  $2 \mathbf{v}$ . Therefore, the result was adjusted to  $2 \checkmark$ , down 3, for plus 150 to East-West.

The Appeal: North said he would never pass 2♥ because their partnership has the agreement that South cannot have a five-card major and open 1NT. North-South stated that as a result of this agreement, 2♥ was not a good spot, North bid 3♣ to find a better fit. North-South argued that pass is not a logical alternative to bidding 3. East reported that the double of 1NT forced their partnership to 2 A or to double the opponents for penalty.

East-West play takeout doubles in continuing auctions of this sort. A double of  $2 \blacklozenge$  by East or West would have been takeout. East was not sure what his double would mean if the auction went:

West	North	East	South
			1NT
Pass	Pass	Dbl	Pass
Pass	2♦	Pass	2♥

East-West are forced to double or bid through  $2 \checkmark$ , but can allow  $2 \bigstar$  or higher to play undoubled. East thought pass of  $2 \checkmark$  by North-South was a logical alternative to bidding  $3 \clubsuit$ .

The Decision: The committee believed there was unauthorized information available as a result of the Alert of 2. North-South are experienced players but not a regular partnership. It was clear that North-South had an established a runout system over a direct double of 1NT, but had no firm agreement over a balancing double. The committee believed that a pass of  $2 \checkmark$  was a logical alternative to bidding 3. The committee further determined that, based on the explanation of East-West's methods, it was not probable that East would pass after 2♥. Per Laws 16 and 12c1e(ii) the committee determined that the most favorable result likely for East-West was 2▲ making two, while the most unfavorable that was at all probable for North-South was 2 making three. Therefore, the committee adjusted the result to minus 140 for North-South and to plus 110 for East-West. The appeal was found to have substantial merit.

before an adjustment according to Law 12 is made. There must have been an irregularity (a failure to Alert), there must have been damage (East-West thought they were prevented from reaching 3NT) and the damage must have been as a direct result of the irregularity.

Four players with 200--400 masterpoints were consulted to determine if the final condition was met. None felt that their intent to play in a club contract would change if the double was penalty or if it was single-suited. One said she would certainly not want to play 3NT knowing North-South had a long suit.

Based on the consultants' advice, it was felt that there was no damage under Law 40. The panel saw no reason to change the table result, and restored the North-South score of minus 100. The panel considered an Appeal Without Merit Warning, but did not achieve unanimity, so none was given.

Committee: Charles MacCracken, chairman, Jean Molnar, Matt Koltnow and Matt Smith.

The Insider

The Insider wandered into the Grand Ballroom yesterday where the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs was taking place. There were almost 500 pairs playing in the room! Considering the requirements to earn qualification to the event, a lot of people are playing a lot of good bridge at the many ACBL regional tournaments. Which means, of course, a lot of average and not-so-good bridge is being played all over North America as well. In other words, a whole lot of bridge. The ACBL and bridge in general are in pretty good shape. The ACBL Marketing Mavens are working to increase the numbers even more with programs to introduce the game to school-age kids, hosting collegiate competitions, coming up with ideas to remind Baby Boomers and empty nesters that the great game they played in college is still a wonderful activity and to spread the word on the mental health benefits of bridge to the older generations. (Yes, the Insider is aware that some of you feel the insanity of your partner's play is counter arguments to these mental health benefits, but he leaves that to be settled between the two of you.) All in all, the prospects for the future of bridge are looking pretty good.

service here at the Marriott World Center. The staff is friendly, helpful and willing to take the extra steps to help in any way they can. Even during that 2 p.m. rush when the Daylight players flood the Food Court during their short break, the cooks, the cashiers and the attendants have been efficient, friendly and kind. (And, they fix a really, really good oatmeal cookie!)

At press time, the S.C. had not yet returned from The Wizard of Wizzardry of Wizards like Harry the Wizard at Wizard's Wizard World. He was late arriving at the park as he stopped off to make a purchase of the Orlando House of Pizza and Nail Salon. He didn't buy a pizza. Figuring that anyplace that manages to deliver menus to every room in the hotel every single day must be selling a pizza or two, and that he should have a fraction of that action, he bought the whole place and plans to expand to all future NABC sites. He has pulled the marketing department off all the projects listed above and asked them to conduct an extensive survey to determine if the name Orlando House of Pizza and Nail Salon has name recognition in Louisville, Toronto and Seattle. Look for results of this survey in the on-line Insider found on the ACBL Web Site. And, look for that familiar pizza menu everywhere you travel -- coming soon to Gatlinburg!

Harry Ross Memorial Stratified Daylight Open Pairs

Harry Ross, born in Vienna, Austria, in 1928, was sent by his parents on the Kindertransport to live with strangers in an effort to save him from the risks of the Nazis. Harry eventually moved to the U.S. and began playing duplicate bridge in 1960. The rest is history! In 1997, he won the Senior Swiss Teams and became a Grand Life Master. Harry had more than 16,000 masterpoints when he died. An avid bridge teacher, he taught for more than 30 years (the last 10 in Florida). Harry was a contributor to the Bridge Bulletin, Bridge World magazine and District 9's Sunshine Bridge News. He passed away in 2010, a week before his 82nd birthday, and he is missed by his students, his readers and especially by his family, including wife, Susi.

and married Muriel, who had attended both junior and senior high school in Miami. Arnold started F&R Builders in 1954, and he and his partner, Leonard Miller, took the company public in 1970 as Lennar Corporation (NY Stock Exchange symbol of LEN). Lennar grew to be one of the nation's largest home building companies. Arnold retired as Executive Vice-President and Director of Lennar in 1977. Both Arnold and Muriel were very active in philanthropic activities in Miami and Boone, especially in the arts, Jewish community causes, and the University of Miami. Arnold died in 2001 and Muriel in 2009. They will both be long remembered and respected by family and friends in both communities.

St. Petersburg Bridge Club Thurs.-Fri. Side Game Series

St. Petersburg (FL) Bridge Club is pleased to sponsor this game. We invite you to join us for our sectional tournament Jan. 13-16, 2011. It will have a great schedule, great hospitality and a great playing area. If you're in the vicinity any time, join us for a game or two. St. Petersburg Bridge Club 8800 49th Street North, Suite 110, Pinellas Park FL, 33782 Phone 727 544-5040 www.stpetebridge.org Steven Clark Strati-Flighted A/X and B/C/D Side Swiss Teams about the game and was the 2001 winner of the prestigious Bridge World Magazine Master Solvers' Championship.

Much to Steve's joy, his daughter, Libby, began to play the game and met and married Michael Steigmann, a two-time NCAA Bridge Champion. Steve and Michael can be found huddled in the corner at family gatherings where the conversation almost always turns to Master Solver puzzles, the laws of the land and Big Ten sports.

Recently retired from practice, Steve is a Gold Life Master and a regular at local Chicago club games and at area tournaments with his partner and wife, Louise. At the 2009 Orlando Regional, his team had a 16-0 KO record (with Louise, Owen Lien and Kevin Dwyer). The team was undefeated in 16 straight KO matches, which was good enough for 88.22 gold points!

Steve and Louise are original members of OKBridge and can be found online playing as spyder and weezy when they are not on the road and are not enjoying three children and six grandchildren.

The irrepressible Garner McDaniel was born in Good Luck AR, the middle child of a large family. It may be where she got her competitive spirit mixed with an incredible sense of humor.

Anyone who knew her wanted to know her better. She spent most of her bridge life in Houston TX where she opened her own real estate firm. Nothing could keep her away from the bridge table where she would play with anybody and everybody at the drop of a hat, just ask Jeff Overby. She had a lot of wins to her credit. Garner was a Diamond Life Master. In 1963 and 1964, she won the NABC Women's Teams. She also won the Master Mixed Teams in 1964. Garner often played with her very dear friend, Terry Michaels, and in 1967 they won the Women's Pairs at the Spring NABC in Seattle. She will be missed.

Muriel & Arnold Rosen Memorial Stratified Mixed Pairs

Arnold and Muriel Rosen were long time residents and respected philanthropists of Miami FL, and Boone NC. After his Navy service in Steve became a life master more than 45 years ago while still in college. He directed the Indiana University game in the Student Union as an undergraduate and as an MBA student. Although bridge was his passion, he put the game aside to graduate from the University of Chicago Law School and for the next 40 years devoted his time to a legal career with Chapman and Cutler in Chicago. The legal profession was demanding, and, although he didn't play much during that time, his love for bridge never waivered. He has read extensively

Biddy Pauley Memorial Stratified Open Pairs

Biddy Pauley was a common sight at bridge tables in Greenwich CT and Hobe Sound FL. She loved the game of bridge! Although she took the game very seriously, she always was great fun to play with and was truly amused by the oddities of the deal. Biddy was a dedicated student of the game and left an extensive library of bridge books, which are yet to be touched by her husband.
