Meckstroth passes Soloway to become masterpoint king

The Jeff Meckstroth roll continues.

On the heels of winning his ninth Barry Crane Top 500 title, earning 2009 Player of the Year plaudits and racking up his second Player of the Decade honor, Meckstroth is now the all-time leading masterpoint holder. All of that followed his Bermuda Bowl victory last fall as part of the Nick Nickell team.

In the first week of March, Meckstroth and his fiancée, Sallie Chapleau, traveled from Tampa FL to Indiana to play in the Indianapolis Winter Regional with Doug Simson and Walter Johnson of Columbus OH.

They won their first 13 knockout teams matches and went home with more than 120 masterpoints, enough to push Meckstroth past the late Paul Soloway for the top spot.

After the Indianapolis tournament, Meckstroth's masterpoint total was 65,566.69 to Soloway's 65,511.92.

No one familiar with the top levels of bridge is surprised at Meckstroth's success, a by-product of fierce competitive instincts and his love of the game.

As a bridge journalist, vugraph commentator and player, Barry Rigal has seen Meckstroth at work in the toughest of settings.

Says Rigal, "Jeff is perhaps the most difficult person in the world to play against. He never shows any sign of being happy or sad when the dummy comes down, and you can never draw an inference from the tempo of the cards that he plays."

Rigal adds, "If there's one card you don't want to see when he is defending or declaring, you can be sure the card will appear sooner than you would Chip Martel, who figures he has played against Meckstroth as much as anyone, says the many-time world and North American champion "is certainly one of the most – if not the most – intense and fiercely competitive guys. He is willing to back his judgment and do what he thinks is right."

Martel also recognizes Meckstroth's sportsmanship: "At the table, the atmosphere is intense but still friendly."

Zia Mahmood, Meckstroth's teammate on the Nickell team, says it's hard to find enough superlatives to describe the new masterpoint champ. "I would hate to say anybody else is the greatest," Zia says, "but it would have to be him."

Eric Rodwell, Meckstroth's longtime partner, says it is always a pleasure to sit across the table from a person "who plays better than anybody." Says Rodwell, "Jeff has a unique approach to the game. He is a good partner, but he is unpredictable to the opponents."

Meckstroth had not planned to attend the Indianapolis tournament, but he and Chapleau readily accepted when old friends and teammates

Baldwin NAP Flight A winners: Frank Merblum and Doug Doub

New Englanders win squeaker

With one round to go, the leading pair played the second-place pair in the Baldwin Flight A North American Open Pairs. Doug Doub and Frank Merblum had a score of 420.52 while Nikolay Demirev and David Yang stood at 415.21. Close behind in third place were Michael Polowan and Jared Lilienstein with 412.86.

The two final boards were part-scores and Doub and Merblum were slightly below average, but it was enough to hold on for the win. Polowan and Lilienstein had a good last round and moved up to second.

The winners scored 417.53 on a 13 top while Polowan and Lilinstein finished with 416.21. Demirev and Yand had 413.86.

Doub, of West Hartford CT, and Merblum, of Bloomfield CT, won the event in 2001 and were second in 2003. The Chicago-area pair of Yang and Demirev won in 2005.

Merblum and Doub were in fourth-place after the first final session and said they knew they "had a solid game" in the second final session. Merblum is an actuary for a major insurance company and Doub is a bridge teacher.

Platinum Pairs debuts today

Eligible players can make history today as the first NABC+ Platinum Pairs kicks off at 1 p.m.

The event will be played over six sessions, ending Sunday. Eligible players are paid ACBL members who meet one of the following criteria: have earned 50 platinum masterpoints over the three calendar years prior; earned at least 200 platinum points lifetime, or have attained Platinum Life Master or Grand Life Master rank.

No exemptions will be granted for this event.

Slow play: the curse of the game

Patty Johnson, Sebring FL, is a National Tournament Director and the Director-in-Charge for all District 9 (Florida) tournaments.

An old tournament director friend of mine, John "Spider" Harris, was famous for the saying: "Slow play is the curse of the game." Nothing is more frustrating for tournament directors than having to herd players along like cattle when slow play isn't actually the problem.

If you take a moment to think about it, most of your opponents do not take that long to bid or play a deal -- yet before you know it, the round is being called and you are nowhere near finished with the last board.

Here are some suggestions which, if followed, would solve many of our problems.

First: Do not post mortem between deals whether you are in a pair game or a Swiss team event. Finish the round and then discuss hands if there is still time. We, as directors, will not cut your time, but I think you will find yourselves under less pressure by following this suggestion. Remember: We provide hand records in pair games so you don't have to worry about forgetting a particular holding.

Second: If you are on opening lead, make your lead before recording the contract in your private score. You will have plenty of time after leading to record the information and still see the entire first trick.

Third: unless you have a legitimate reason to leave the table, such as the restroom or a smoke break, please remain at the table and visit with your opponents. You might actually find this enjoyable and a new way to make friends or future Swiss team partnerships.

I wish we could make these suggestions into rules enforceable by penalty but none of us wants a bridge event decided by the pair with the fewest penalties. All I can do as a director is to ask the cooperation and help of all players because I think not only you but everyone else will enjoy their tournaments more.

Remember: Those who enjoy a tournament will continue to play. Do your part to make bridge enjoyable for yourself, your partner and your opponents -- you can't play without them.

No smoking

There is no smoking in the playing areas or the hallways outside. You can smoke in the casino area except where signs say otherwise.

Rose Meltzer's "Breakfast with the Stars"

There are just a few spots left to join Rose Meltzer and other world champions for a wonderful hot breakfast buffet. The breakfast will be at 10 a.m. on Saturday, March 13, in the Nevada Room on the lower level.

Tickets are just $20 and can be purchased at the Information Desk.

Life Master news

Melanie Tucker of New York City has advanced to Platinum Life Master, a rank requiring more than 10,000 masterpoints. Tucker has won dozens of regional tournaments and is a contender each year in the Barry Crane Top 500.

Players who earn

Life Master status or reach other major milestones should report in to the Daily Bulletin office in the McKinley Room on the mezzanine level.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Finding your way By Lynn Berg

Even if this is not your first NABC, you may not have been taking full advantage of what is available here for all players, and specifically for 0-299 players. There's a lot going on, and your best source of information is in your hands right now – the Daily Bulletin. Take a good look at this issue – the format will be repeated every day.

Big news and features of interest to everyone appear on page one. Page two has a calendar of special events for the day, with locations and brief descriptions. Now look at the back outside page, where you will find the schedule of games with locations for today. Tomorrow's schedule is on the inside back page.

Some of you know I write a column for the monthly Bridge Bulletin on "Upgrading Your Game." You can take advantage of what is offered in Reno to further that goal. Each day, there are two terrific speakers scheduled for the 0-299 area. These free talks give you access to some of the best bridge minds and best bridge teachers on the continent. Find this list on page two every day. Many times a hand-out will be provided and you will have the chance to ask questions, a golden opportunity rarely available anywhere else but an NABC.

You are probably a member of ACBL (if not, any game director will handle the proper paperwork for you to join). If so, it means that at this NABC you are a citizen of ACBL. You may attend meetings of the Board of Governors. When you see the results of Appeals Committees reported in this paper, they are the result of hard volunteer work by knowledgeable members.

You should also take advantage of the free hand records offered at the end of every pairs game. Instead of discussing issues with your partner during a session, circle any hand that needs discussion and settle down afterwards with the hand record.

Make sure you register. You'll get a copy of the complete 10-day schedule as well as restaurant information and other goodies. You can plan ahead to enjoy lots of different events as well as the entertainment planned by the very energetic host committee.

Never participated in a knockout or a Swiss team? Here's your chance. All sorts of events are scheduled at every level at an NABC. If you would like to see how some event works before deciding whether or not to participate, just go along and observe. Kibitzers are welcome. Once the game is running, you can also ask any floor director who is not busy how it works and who would be good to kibitz. A tip:

Try to watch someone better than you, but not so far advanced that systems, methods and even pace could be beyond your interest. Remember that you should look only at one hand, making no comments or expressing any opinion while the boards are being played. Don't be offended if someone says not to kibitz—being watched makes some players uncomfortable. If you have a question about one of the deals you watch, wait until the round is over (not just the board) and be sure it's okay with the person you're watching. Or make a note of the hand and look at the hand record later if there is one.

Within the 299er area, you'll have chances to play in one- and two-session games and to play Swiss teams as well. Take advantage of the efficient and friendly Partnership Desk as needed—just give them enough time to do their jobs! If you do ask for a partner or a team, be honest about your skill level. Don't forget, someone who has fewer masterpoints might still be an excellent partner, especially if your styles are compatible. The first try might not be a good fit. If you've gotten to the Partnership Desk in a timely manner, you'll have a chance to try again.

Take a good look at diamonds. You are

No matter which diamond they lead, (an honor is their best chance) your best bet is to play for split honors. For example, if West wins the spade exit and leads a low diamond, play low from dummy, capture East's jack and lead a low diamond to the 9, playing West for the queen. If West exits with diamond to the 10, playing East for the jack. Play the  $\diamond Q$ , win the ace in dummy and lead a low missing the Q-J and they have to lead the suit.

Opening lead: AK.

Bidding commentary: Of course there are other ways of bidding the South hand, but 6. figures to be a reasonable contract facing most any sane takeout double of  $2 \spadesuit$ .

Play commentary: Counting winners, you have 11: five clubs, three hearts, two diamonds and one spade. Counting losers, you have two, a spade and a diamond. So far so good. Your losers and winners add up to 13.

Play commentary #2: You have several chances to make this contract, including the unlikely ♦Q J doubleton. On a good day, hearts will break 3-3, but even if they don't, you still have a throw-in play available to force the opponents to break diamonds. Win the AA, noticing that both you and dummy each remain with one spade, the perfect setting for an eventual throw-in play, an evenly divided suit with a loser. Draw trumps and play three rounds of hearts. Assuming hearts don't break (otherwise you have 12 tricks), ruff a heart, stripping hearts from both your hand and dummy, and exit with your spade, forcing a diamond return.

Welcome, Intermediate/ Newcomer Players, to Reno! All IN (Intermediate/Newcomer) events will be played in the Carson 1 and 2 at 10 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

On Friday, March 12, there will be free Newcomer games (0-5 MPs) at 10 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

On Saturday, March 13, there will be a reception for IN players Check tomorrow's Daily Bulletin for time and place.

wife, Evelyn. The trophy was previously given to winners of the Mixed Teams but re-designated for the IMP Pairs by the ACBL Board of Directors.

Lebhar (1907-1972), under the name of Bert Lee, earned a national reputation as a sportscaster and later as a bridge player and administrator. In private life, he owned radio and television stations in Florida.

Lebhar was one of the founders of the Greater New York Bridge Association and was elected its first president in 1948.

Lebhar was also a player: He won the Spingold in 1940 and the Master Mixed Teams in 1946. His team was his wife Evelyn along with Samuel Katz and Alicia Kemper.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

Meckstroth

Simson and Johnson invited them to play in the KOs. He and Chapleau have been practicing to prepare for the Mixed Pairs at the World Bridge Championships in Philadelphia in October.

Meckstroth knew he was close to passing Soloway, a member of the Nickell team until his death in 2007, and he was aware that he did so at the regional.

Although the milestone was meaningful because he achieved it playing with Chapleau, Meckstroth says masterpoints are not his focus. Passing Soloway, Meckstroth says, "makes me sad in a way because I miss my friend."

Sure and it's a limerick contest to celebrate St. Patty's Day

Wednesday of next week is St. Patrick's Day, so the NABC committee organized a limerick contest to acknowledge that festive day.

Here are some of the entries. The winner to be announced on St. Patrick's Day.

#101

She was the director's beautiful daughter
Who was doing things she shouldn't oughter
She got kicked in the rump
When she led a trump
Because she forgot what Mathe had taught her.

#102

There was a young man who was dead
From a board partner slammed on his head
At bridge he had tried
But that's why he died
Because he bid too much when he was red

#103

The rare time I open a hand
With aces and faces – How grand!
It's just meant to be
Partner's best card's a three!
I really just don't understand.

#104

Ever wonder where missing queens lie?
Will luck or a guess get you by?
Counting's the key
Count and you'll see
You will know where missing cards hide.

#105

How much you win will depend On one thing pros recommend Experts agree On this, you see You must master how to defend.

#106

He sometimes errs, I don't care
I do too, I'm aware
That's why, you see
We both agree
To continue our bridge affair.

#107

Five finesses it might take
Plus three or four lucky breaks
Never say die
You need to try
Your 6 NT just might make.

#108

The secret to bridge is counting
Without it, your losses are daunting
We all want to win
So when chances are thin
Count and your chances are mounting.

#109

Counts aloud each trick he's taken Doesn't want to be mistaken Pulls a card, then hesitates Starts again, then waits Nervous wrecks of us he's makin'.

#110

Most often his play was so slow
The director was called and said, "Go!"
His friends wrung their hands
And voiced their demands
Please just get on with the show.

#111

Ain't no sunshine when he plays
Jiggles his legs 'til the table sways
Rude and bossy
Unpleasant and cross, he
Rains on the game many ways.

#112

Her bids are from outer space
Her play of the cards a disgrace
It matters not Because she's got
Curves and a beautiful face.

#113

Good partner at cards he is not Agreed-upon bids he forgot She couldn't be mad He's such a great dad Good partner in life means a lot.

#114

To be dummy he just couldn't bear He insisted that he declare He just wouldn't bend Partner left in the end After all, that just was not fair.

#115

In every hand he taught a lesson
This continued throughout the session
The more he insisted
The more she resisted
But succumbed to a deep depression.

#116

At the table, Joe scowled at his wife
She couldn't stand more of this strife
Along came Joe Dunn
Who was so much fun
They escaped to a happier life.

#117

His urge to be the declarer
Made him a bidding terror
She left him at last
Of himself, he asked
"Think I made a great error?"

#118

Opponents with angelic faces
Often hold too many aces
When they start to purr
You can be sure
Missing kings are in the wrong places.

#119

Using keen observation
With leads and distribution
Your mind's reeling
You stare at the ceiling
Hoping to see a solution.

#120

The only bid he doesn't know is PASS; that's our man Joe
No points? That's tough!
13 cards are enough
His partner suffers the blow.

#121

He earns first prize for originality
His new systems abounds with variety
Bids are esoteric
Perhaps eccentric?
Anything to avoid conformity.

#122

A Midwestern player named Cohen,
Hit the tournament trail all alone.
His play was so hot,
That he won quite a lot,
And the Bridge King ascended his throne.

#123

Let me tell you about a strange hand,
Where an end play let me make a grand.
The damage was done,
From the lead at trick one.
Just a routine day out in bridge land.

#124

Eric and Jeff M. could tell,
Their partnership was going to be swell.
So they filled out a card,
And perhaps the Bard,
Would have said, "All's well that's Meckwell".

#125

Bridge is a challenging game we play We're addicted to it night and day If we should stop We'd sure miss a lot Of many happy times, to our dismay.

#126

With her incorrect bid, we summoned the Director
He tried his best to inform and correct her She would not concede
Was very stubborn indeed
Putting the adjacent tables in a stir.

#127

My partner's name was Big Jack
When we played last month in the STaC
His bidding was wild
I sat there and smiled
The silver points I hoped for I now lack.

#128

An accomplished North player named Ted When scoring a hand shook his head All the other teams Made three no trump, it seems But he bid only three clubs instead.

#129

The game of bridge requiring some skill Is played by many of us "over the hill"
Right here in Lincoln
It sure keeps us thinkin'
Oh! What a void it does fill.

#130

For my bridge partner named Jay
There are times he cares not to play
If he had his wish
He'd be out catching fish
And bringing some home to fillet.

#131

This player quite agile and wry

Must have visions from powers on high,

For he seems to intuit

Before we can do it

Exactly the lead we will try.

#132

An opponent whom most players dread
Makes others forget what is led.
For her salads and dips
And her crunching of chips
Makes you think she has never been fed.

#133

Those who arrive at their table have found They are still on the hand from last round.

And although you suggest

That some haste might be best,

They continue their talk most profound.

Tournament Terminology 101

If you're confused by the terms used to describe the different types of bridge events played at clubs and tournaments, you're not alone. Here's a list of common bridge events with explanations.

Knockout Teams: an event in which a team (of four, five or six players -- with four playing at a time) plays another team. The losers are eliminated or "knocked out" while the winners play other winners until only one winning team remains.

The length of a KO match may vary from a single session to a full day (the Vanderbilt and Spingold) to a multi-day event (the Bermuda Bowl).

Bracketed Knockout Teams: a KO event in which teams are divided into groups -- usually of 8, 16 or 32 teams -- based on their masterpoint holdings. The top group -- Bracket I -- and all other groups compete in a separate event with their own set of winners.

Compact Knockout Teams: a shorter version of Bracketed KO teams.

Swiss Teams: an event in which a team (of four, five or six players -- with four playing at a time) plays other teams in seven-, eight- or nineboard matches. Team A sits North--South at Table 1 and East--West at Table 2 while Team B sits East--West at Table 1 and North--South at Table 2. The results are compared and scored by International Match Points (IMPs).

Pairings for the first round are random. Pairings for succeeding rounds are determined by a team's win-loss record or Victory Point total.

International Match Points (IMPs): the most common method of scoring Swiss Team matches. Scoring example: if Team A scores plus 620 for bidding and making 4*S* on a particular deal and Team B scores only plus 170 (they didn't bid the game), the difference is 450 -- which converts to 10 IMPs. The IMP chart is shown on the inside of your convention card.

Victory Points (VPs): a method of scoring Swiss Team matches. After the scores are compared and converted to IMPs, the IMP total is converted to Victory Points. A team's VP total may be used to determine its next opponents and its final standing.

Side Game Series: a series of single-session pair games that pay red points. These series include at least three sessions and may have as many as six. You may play in as many sessions as you like, but only pairs who play in at least two sessions are eligible for overall gold points. Your best two sessions are used for determining overall winners.

Flighted pairs: When flighting is used, the field is divided by expertise or experience or both into several separate games. Flight A -- "unlimited masterpoints" -- will be open to all players while the remaining flights will be limited. Flight B might be 0--500 MPs or 0--1000 MPs while Flight C might be 0--300 or 0--500.

Each flight is scored individually, and masterpoint awards are made for each flight.

The masterpoint holdings of the players determine their flight. If one player is quite expert while his partner is new to the game, the pair must compete in Flight A.

In flighted events, you may play up but not down. That means you may play in Flight A or Flight B even if your masterpoint holding qualifies you for Flight C. Conversely, you may not play in Flight B or Flight C if you are a Flight A player.

Stratified Pairs: The idea is to compete against everyone but to be ranked only with your peers.

Each pair is assigned a stratum or "strat" based on the masterpoint holding of the partner with more masterpoints.

Example: A = 1000 + masterpoints; B = 300 - -1000; C = 0-300.

Thus, the most experienced players are placed in Strat A, intermediate players in Strat B and less experienced players in Strat C. Masterpoints are awarded for placings in all strats but gold points are awarded only in A and B.

The game proceeds normally -- the difference comes when the scores are tabulated and ranked.

In a three-strat game, the scores are ranked three times. The first ranking is done as in a regular open game. These are the Strat A results.

If a B or C pair does well in this ranking, they receive full credit for that performance. It is not all that uncommon for a Strat C pair to place first overall, and they receive the full masterpoint award for that game.

Note: A pair is eligible for only one set of masterpoint awards and automatically receives the highest award.

The second ranking compares the scores of only the B and C pairs -- the scores of the Strat A pairs are eliminated. Once again, if a C pair does well, they receive points for their finishing position in the Strat B results.

The third and final ranking compares the scores of only the C pairs -- all the scores of the Strat A and B pairs are eliminated.

Strati-flighted Pairs: The top group plays in a game of their own -- Flight A. The rest of the field in divided into strats and plays as in a regular stratified pairs.

There can even be stratification within Flight A. Flight A may be listed as 3000+ MPs while Flight X may be listed as 0--3000 MPs.

Jo Heller of Grass Valley

Jo Heller was born in Wiesbaden, Germany. While working in the PX in Tripoli, Libya, she met her husband Ed, an American fighter pilot. Both were avid bridge enthusiasts. For several years they lived in Greece where Jo ran a bridge club. In 1976, after Ed retired from the service, they moved to Grass Valley CA.

Jo immediately became involved in our

Unit and soon acquired the Wednesday game. Jo was a Master Bridge Teacher and director. Her devotion, efficiency, friendliness and tireless effort succeeded in her game having the largest attendance of our five games; as many as 24 tables with the stratification starting with a 99er group. She happily promoted the extra ACBL games in order to give our members opportunity to earn extra points. She always had a congratulatory cake in honor of a new ACBL Life Master. She stressed "Zero Tolerance" Jo's efforts contributed greatly to our Unit's growth.

Jo Heller was one of the greats in our Unit! Sadly, she passed away on July 15, 2008. She is sorely missed and is well remembered.

The Insider

The NABC Insider is pleased to welcome all of you to Reno. Reno in the spring has always proven to be a great place and time for an NABC --- the three largest Spring NABCs ever have been here at the MGM-Bally's-Hilton-Grand Sierra. The local committee is really not so local this time with volunteers from Nevada, California, Oregon and Washington (at least), but they are pulling together to put on a great event for you. Of course we have tournament directors from all over North America, players from all over the world and some ACBL staff from the Memphis/Horn Lake Headquarters.

(There has been speculation concerning the "logistical issues" that have caused the delay in the Memphis staff becoming the Horn Lake staff. The truth is that the Supreme Commander locked the doors to the new HQ when he left to catch the ACBL Gulfstream to Reno and brought the keys with him. If the S.C, remembers where he left the keys, work will continue on the building and the move will be completed. Any rumors about fiber optics or any other new-fangled technology should be disregarded as these "logistical issues" are nothing more than a lost set of keys.)

For regular readers of the Insider, we have Ask Me Girl who was at her post yesterday, the Bulletin Boys who flew all day and wrote all night, Boss Baum who keeps us all heading in the same direction, the previously mentioned S.C. who is up in his 42nd floor luxury suite, and, of course, the Insider who is here to share the inside stuff with all of you. In addition to both of the regular readers, we hope the rest of you enjoy the tournament, the city and our take on things as the next 10 days unfold.

Welcome to Reno, enjoy yourselves!

Marketing Matters – Live!

ACBL's Marketing Director, Vicki Campbell, will host a program for anyone interested in marketing their clubs or bridge lessons.

Don't miss this chance to meet Vicki and explore your options.

Free of charge.
