BridgePad scores a hit in newcomer test

Una Lynch-Long of Lincoln CA sat North in section DDD in the newcomer game on Friday. In that position, she was responsible for the scores at her table.

After a session of scoring in a brand new way – with the BridgePad wireless scoring system – she was ready to endorse the new method.

"It's pretty good," Lynch-Long said. "I think it will catch on."

One person who hopes she is right is Henryk Szejnwald, the developer of the BridgePad.

Here's how they work. There is one BridgePad on each table. After the auction, North enters the contract into a device that looks like an oversized calculator.

When play is completed, North enters the result, then hands the device to one of the opponents to verify that it is accurate. After the opponent okays the score, it is sent via radio signal to a computer that is compatible with ACBLscore. When the final score of the session is entered, the complete results are available for printout – just as though the data had been entered by hand.

Friday's test was the first at an NABC. The devices were to have been given a dry run at the Summer NABC in Nashville, but the user interface needed some tweaking.

Szejnwald and his bridge and business partner Franklin Gonzalez made some adjustments and rolled them out in the newcomer game.

Chief Tournament Director Rick Beye was pleased with what he saw. "The players seem to like them," he said.

Griffey, Eaton lead Women's Pairs

Candace Griffey and Joan Eaton posted the highest total in the qualifying round of the Smith Life Master Women's Pairs. Capping a 56.62% performance in the afternoon session with a 65.38% score in the evening, Griffey, of Vero Beach FL, and Eaton, of North York ON, led the field by half a board. Their matchpoint total the first day was 793.

Top on a board was 25.
Tied for second-third with 781 were Maria Pendergrast of
West Hollywood CA and Judi
Radin of New York with Sue
Weinstein of las Vegas and Cheri
Bjerkan of Elmhurst IL.

Of the 130 pairs that entered the two-day contest, 64 made the cut to today's two-session final. (See page 8 for the list of qualifiers.)

New partners win Non-LM Pairs

Two natives of Turkey who didn't know each other until four months ago put together two solid sessions in the Rufus L.

Local player Smith excels at bridge, music

Ron Smith is a familiar face at the North American championships, but although many players are aware of his prowess at the bridge table, many more are surprised to discover that Smith is also an expert at the piano keyboard.

Smith, an ACBL Grand Life Master who has called San Francisco home for the past 13 years, began taking piano lessons when he was just 3 years old. Bored with the usual proceedings at the church his

Moss, Gitelman lead LM quals

Longtime partners Brad Moss and Fred Gitelman topped the field of 360 pairs in yesterday's qualifying round in the Bobby Nail Life Master Pairs. Moss, of Tarzana CA, and Gitelman, of Las Vegas, scored 60.77% in the first session and followed it up with a very strong 67% game in the second session. Their two-session total is 1262.36.

Top on a board was 38.

In second with 1239.56 are Josh Sher of Woodland Hills CA and Christopher Monsour of Chicago.

Third place is held by the Venezuelan duo of Jose Valdes and Paolo Pasquini with 1226.64.

Today's two-session final will be contested by the 182 pairs that made the cut in the qualifying round. (See pages 6-7 for the list of qualifiers.)

How he played the game

Friends of Paul Soloway are invited to celebrate his life tonight at 11:45 p.m. in Yerba Buena 8 at the Marriott.

The ACBL's all-time leading masterpoint holder died Nov. 5 and was cremated with a deck of cards in his right hand.

While much of the event tonight will center on Soloway's lasting contributions to the game of bridge, there probably will not be a lot of detail about his superior card play.

Top seeds cruise in Senior KO

The top 16 seeds in the Senior KO advanced in yesterday's first-round action. Thirty-three teams entered the event which is restricted to players 55 and older.

The defending champions from last year's Senior KO in Honolulu are the No. 1 seed. The multi-national squad includes Amos Kaminski (U.S.), George Mittelman (Canada), Melih Ozdil (Turkey), Pinhas Romik and Yeshayahu Levit (both from Israel).

Play continues today and will conclude on Tuesday.

Goodwill message

Today in Junior Day, the day we celebrate – and salute – our Junior players.

These players, ages 25 and younger, are the future of the ACBL. Encourage them. Today's Junior player is tomorrow's Rose Meltzer.

Notice to players who live outside North America

Participation in the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs and the 0-5000 Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs is limited to those ACBL members who have earned a Blue Ribbon qualification (or for those members on the Lifetime Top 100 masterpoint list).

Participation in the Life Master Open and Women's Pairs is restricted to ACBL members who have achieved the rank of Life Master. Foreign players who do not meet these criteria, but feel they are otherwise eligible, must receive a waiver prior to the commencement of these Previously granted waivers will be honored. For waiver information, please contact ACBL Chief Tournament Director Rick Beye here at the tournament. He may be contacted through the Tournament Operations office and he will also be available at the selling sites.

Notice to players
Each player must have an ACBL convention card filled out and on the table. Please note that other types of convention cards, such as the WBF convention card or homemade cards that do not sufficiently resemble the ACBL convention card, are not acceptable substitutes.

Book help sought

Author Gary Pomerantz is interested in interviewing anyone who can provide information about the legacy of Ely and Josephine Culbertson, the Bennett murder case or the dynamics of playing bridge with one's spouse. Pomerantz, who lives in the San Francisco area, is doing research for a book about bridge. He is also looking for a copy of a short film released by RKO in the Thirties, "Murder at the Bridge Table."

He can be reached via e-mail at cgpom@aol.com or by phone at 415-927-1314.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

No calls, please

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or event.

Dress Up Night

Players are encouraged to dress up for the evening session Saturday, Nov. 24. This is a regular feature of all NABCs.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Player: By Marti Ronemus

I overheard you complaining in the restaurant this morning about your trials and tribulations. You were relating how badly you played a few hands, how your partner wouldn't know what to lead if it were outlined in neon, and that someone called the Bridge Police (aka, the tournament director) on you. You were fussing that North-South got all the cards, and that these darn computer hands were awful.

I'm sorry, but I just can't work up any sympathy. If you want to hear about a really bad day, read on.

This is a True Story from the Las Vegas NABC, many years ago. Gary and I were still under 20 MPs, but as I told you yesterday, we were hooked, and all vacations were now planned around tournament locations.

We were playing in our third session of the day. Now, I have a confession to make. I can barely get through two sessions, even now. Two-thirds of the way through the second session, I begin to lose all interest and focus. I want a snack, some gossip, a place to put my feet up, some shopping. Can you imagine how bad I am by the third session?

So, anyway, here we were in our third session of the day. Gary was alert, bright-eyed and bushy-tailed. I was having an out-of-body experience. I played a hand in notrump, forgetting I was in diamonds. I passed out of turn. I spilled water on the opponents. The director was so nice.

Then I pulled the wrong card out of my hand. "Director!" The director was still kind as could be, explained all the various options, and left. He should have just parked a chair at our table. Not two tricks later, didn't I do the same thing?

"Director!" Same director, same kindness, perhaps the teensiest bit strained.

I was so tired, I was having trouble seeing, and two deals later, I did it again. Everyone at the table was looking in disgust. After all, how hard is it to detach the right card from your hand and play it? This time, the call was loud and angry, and even the wonderful director had a hard edge to his voice.

I burst into tears, left the table in the middle of the round and ran into the nearest ladies' room, crying hard. My plan was to hide in a cubicle, sneak out under cover of dark, dye my hair and skulk home. Gary would know I was gone when he saw the missing suitcase.

Next thing I heard was my husband inside the ladies' room, calling for me. "Come out of there, Marti. Don't try to hide. I know your shoes!"

"No! I'm quitting this game. Everyone is laughing at me. The director was upset. Those people were smirking! I give up!"

I heard a woman say, "Must be one of those bridge players."

I heard the ladies' room attendant encouraging my husband to leave. "Marti, come out now or we'll have to forfeit! Listen, people survive parachute jumps when the chute doesn't open."

"I'm too embarrassed to ever leave this restroom. Bring me food and a double scotch. Maybe I'll come out then."

"If you don't come out right now, I'm going to rip the door off." My husband is a very powerful man. This was a real possibility. "Besides," he encouraged, "You'll never see these people again." Well, that made sense. I came out, sat down and played the next hand like a good girl. The game eventually ended, we went to the bar, I had a sandwich and a drink. Then we went to play in a Midnight Speedball game and got more points.

P.S. What happens in Vegas does not stay in Vegas. The news of my misadventures beat me home. Sheesh.

Dlr: South ♠ Q 9 ♥ 64 Vul: None ♦965 ♣ A K J 10 7 3 ♦ 5 4 3 2 ♦ A 7 6 ♥ K 9 8 3 ♥ 10 7 5 ♦ K 7 3 2 ♦ A 10 8 4 4 6 5 ♠ KJ 108 ♥ A Q J 2 ♦ Q J ♣ Q 9 8 West North East South 1NT Pass 3NT All Pass Opening lead: ♥3.

Bidding commentary: North, with six potential club tricks, has an automatic raise to 3NT even without the  $\triangle Q$ .

Lead commentary: West, with two relatively equal-strength suits, selects the major. Why?

When responder does not use Stayman, responder figures to have minor-suit length.

Play commentary: As declarer, win trick one with the  $\Psi Q$ , not the jack. With two equals, take the trick with the higher equal. It is far more deceptive. If you win the  $\Psi Q$ , West can't tell who has the jack. East's play of the 10 does not deny the jack, but it does deny the queen. If you take the trick with the jack, you tell West you have the queen. Don't be so friendly. Next issue: Being wide open in diamonds, should you try to steal your ninth trick by leading a low spade at trick two, or run the clubs and hope for a discarding error? Choices, choices, choices.

Defensive commentary: If declarer runs clubs, East discards three spades and a heart, no diamonds! Discard losers, keep potential winners! West, who knows partner needs the ♦A to defeat the contract (otherwise declarer has nine tricks), discards two spades, a heart and the ♦ 7. When a spade is eventually led, West wins and shifts to a low diamond, asking for a diamond return. East wins and returns the 4, original fourth best, and the contract is defeated. If South leads a low spade at trick two, West must apply the rule of "unattended suits." What's that? When a long powerful suit in dummy is left unattended, assume declarer has the missing honor. If so, South must be stealing a ninth trick. West jumps up with the AA, and shifts to a low diamond. Down one.

Irene Williams of Elk Point SD considers her bid during the Walter Miller II 0-5 Pairs on Friday. The 9-year-old has been playing bridge for 15 months and was attending her first NABC. Her take on bridge: "It's a fun game."

Did You Know?

Many players wonder how the game we play came to be called bridge.

Some theorize that it arose from the Russian word "biritch," the name of a card game also called Russian Whist. In fact, the earliest printed mention of bridge appears in a pamphlet published in 1886 on the game biritch.

Soloway

Here are three deals, published in the Bridge Bulletin, that demonstrate Soloway's consummate skill as a card player.

They were published under Sue Emery's byline in 1991 on the occasion of Soloway's overtaking Barry Crane as the all-time leader in masterpoints.

The following deal was first published in The Bridge World magazine and comes from the national Men's Pairs at the 1969 Fall NABC in Miami Beach. Soloway was playing with Jerry Hallee:

| Dlr: East    | ♠ Q | 4        |                  |

|              | ♣ A | 10 4     |                  |
| West         | North      | East     | South            |
|              | Hallee     |          | Soloway          |
|              |            | 2♥       | Dbl              |
| Pass         | 3♣         | Pass     | 3♥               |
| Pass         | 4♣  | Pass     | 4♦               |
| Pass         | 5♦         | All Pass |                  |
|              |            |          |                  |

West led a heart, and Soloway ruffed the second round. Figuring West had the  $\bigstar K$  because of East's weak two-bid, Soloway made a good move by leading a low spade from hand at trick three. West won the  $\bigstar K$  and continued the suit.

Soloway drew exactly two rounds of trumps and cashed the  $\triangle$ A, pitching a club from dummy. His plan was to avoid having to guess which player held the  $\triangle$ Q, but when East discarded a heart on the third spade, it appeared he had begun with 2=5=2=4 distribution.

Soloway might have gone with the odds and taken the club finesse through the player known to have length in the suit, but he found a better way.

Soloway could see that it was not going to work to discard another of dummy's clubs on the  $\blacktriangle J$ , then play the top two clubs, ending in hand, and ruff a club in dummy. West would be able to ruff in with the  $\blacklozenge J$  for the setting trick.

After thinking this through, Soloway ruffed his good  $\blacktriangle J$  with dummy's last trump. On that play, East was beginning to feel the pressure. If he discarded another heart, Soloway could ruff a heart to establish the  $\blacktriangledown 9$  as trick 11. East, therefore, had to pitch a club.

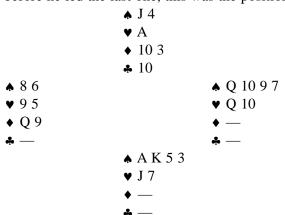

Soloway then ruffed a heart and picked up West's last trump, putting East in an unbearable position. He had to come down to three cards, and one of them had to be the ♥J to cover dummy's 9. Once Soloway knew both hands had two clubs, he didn't care who had the queen. He played a club to the king and overtook the jack in hand, felling the queen, The ♣4 was his 11th trick.

The next deal was reported by Eddie Kantar in Popular Bridge. It was played in a practice game against other experts prior to a team trials in 1976. The deal was dubbed the "minus one squeeze" for the way in which Soloway brought home a difficult contract.

|                | ♣ Q J 7   |              |

Soloway opened the South hand 1NT and soon became declarer in 6NT. West led a heart to dummy. With 10 top tricks and not much time, Soloway first went after the diamonds. The ◆J was covered by the king and ace, and a diamond back toward dummy was ducked by West. Soloway put in dummy's 8, which held.

With 11 tricks in, Soloway ran his clubs. Just before he led the last one, this was the position:

On the $10, East could not afford to throw a heart, so he dropped a spade. South and West pitched hearts. Now Soloway led the $J$ and ducked when East covered with the queen. East got out with a heart, but dummy won, and declarer had the rest of the tricks with the $A K 5.

The final deal comes from the World Bridge Team Olympiad in Seattle in 1984. Soloway showed expert timing to make a 3NT contract (hands rotated).

After three passes, Soloway opened 1NT with the South hand. His partner, Bobby Goldman, raised to 3NT.

Soloway won the opening spade lead in hand with the 10. He recognized the danger of taking the diamond finesse immediately in case West had the  $\bigvee$ A (if the finesse lost and East played another spade, clearing the suit, the contract would be doomed because West would have the  $\bigvee$ A as an entry to the good spades).

To counter that possibility, Soloway led a heart to dummy's king at trick two. When the king held, the defenders were powerless. Whether East played a second spade on getting in with the •K or played on hearts for three tricks, Soloway had his nine tricks and his game.

All other events are $14.50 per player per session for ACBL members, $16.50 for non-members.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6 board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

BridgePad

The BridgePad looks like a large calculator.

Beye noted that before he would agree to the test in San Francisco, Szejnwald had to provide assurance that the bugs had been worked out.

Tournament
Director Dianna
Barton-Paine used
BridgePads at three sectionals leading up to the Fall NABC –

and she happily gave the device her seal of approval. The BridgePads worked so well and the players liked using them so much that Barton-Paine didn't even use pickup slips for backup after the first tournament.

"The players liked it," she said, "and I liked it." Szejnwald started developing the BridgePad in early 2007 after 15 years of creating wireless devices for schools. BridgePads go on sale very soon, he said. The company web site is www.bridgepadrf.com.

At the end of the day, Lynch-Long and her partner, Rosemary Hood, gave the BridgePad a thumbs-up rating.

"It eliminates a lot of errors," said Lynch-Long, "from wrong scores and bad penmanship."

Hood said she would use the devices again with pleasure. "I like electronics," she said. "We're getting modernized. What I like is you don't have to wait for the data to be entered."

family attended, he gravitated toward the choir and its music. A series of private tutors trained the young Smith to become skilled in music, especially piano.

Fortunately for the word of bridge, Smith also became interested in bridge at an early age and he became proficient at it as well. He has won six North American titles, and has many more second-place finishes.

Smith recently garnered another accolade in his bridge career by taking home a bronze medal from the Senior Bowl at the world championships in Shanghai, China.

With the Fall NABC in his hometown, Smith is helping out by performing a piano concert, featuring jazz and show tunes, following the evening session tonight. Smith will perform a one-hour show in the Golden Gate Ballroom.

Second in the event were Kevin Shiue of San Francisco and Dan Joo of Burlinggame CA.

Sadik and Gokcen are engineers. Arf, of Cupertino, played competitively in Turkey, but was away from the game for more than 20 years until starting again recently. Gokcen, who lives in Sunnyvale, learned bridge at an early age but rarely played competitively before joining the ACBL.

They met through the extensive network of Turkish people who live in Southern California.

NABC Diary

Feliz cumpleaños

It's almost a week late, but if you see Rick Beye during the NABC, wish him a belated Happy Birthday. You can check with Aileen Osofsky about his age.

On duty

Two players were in the elevator at the Marriott. One asked if the other was playing with his usual partner, a world champion. "Yes," said the second player, "he needs his punishment."

Sharp eye

Tournament Director Dan Plato was visiting Coit Tower, one of San Francisco's landmarks, and as he eyed the murals inside the building, he came upon a section devoted to lawyers. The mural depicted a library, and Plato noticed a book on a shelf that many might consider out of place. It is the Laws of Bridge, with a spade icon on the spine.

Golden Gate?

An observation from Jeff Johnston, ACBL's meeting planner: This is the wrong city for a person to rush into the lobby of the Marriott, five minutes late for a 9 a.m. game, and yell, "Where's the bridge?"

Caddy tracks

Jackie Matthews, the tournament director in charge of caddies, wants to make it known how much she and the caddies she supervises at each NABC appreciate the Bridge Bulletin columnist who calls herself the Hat Lady.

Marie Sander of St. Louis writes mostly about proper behavior at the table, and she ends most columns with the admonition, "Ya'll play nice now."

In the September issue, Sander devoted an entire column to the importance of treating the caddies with respect and kindness. Matthews says she was impressed with Sander's understanding of the challenges of caddying, and she says the message was well received by her charges.

To Sander, Matthews and the caddies send a message: "Thanks for noticing."

That sinking feeling

By Barry Rigal

This deal, from the opening session of the Bobby Nail Life Master Open Pairs featured a brave attempt by declarer to recover from the pit he had dug for himself (hands rotated).

When dummy came down, declarer no doubt wished he was in  $4 \, \Psi$ , but he had to do the best with what he had.

South put in the  $\blacklozenge 10$  on West's lead of a low diamond, East playing low. South overtook with the king to leave an entry to dummy, based on the presumption that West started with the  $\blacklozenge A$ .

Next came the hearts, East ducking the first two rounds. West pitched a discouraging spade, so after winning the ♥A, East played a low club to the king and ace. The ♣10 was returned and ducked, and a third round of clubs cleared that suit.

Declarer confidently played a diamond from hand, inserting dummy's queen when West played low. Disaster! The defenders now had four clubs, three diamonds and a heart for down four.

Who was the player with the smooth duck at trick one? None other than Jeff Aker. His reward was four down and a top.

Laws Commission meeting

The ACBL Laws Commission will meet Saturday at 9:30 a.m. in Pacific G at the San Francisco Marriott. The agenda includes a review of the 2007 laws revisions.

Masterpoint disclaimer

Scores as reported in the Daily Bulletin are subject to change because of score changes or corrections. The masterpoint awards as shown are, therefore, also subject to change.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word — such as "transfer" — and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

ACBLscore Q&A Session

- (1) Five or more diamonds, singleton club, game forcing.
  - (2) Suitable hand for slam.

You could play in a 5 ◆ contract, which is about 60%, or you could play a messy 4 ♠ on a 4-3 fit. The pairs factor persuades you to do the latter. How would you tackle it on the lead of the ♠ 1?

Declarer was disappointed to find such bad spades in dummy, but he had to concentrate on the task at hand.

Declarer won in dummy and played a spade to the 9 and 10. When West continued the attack on diamonds, declarer decided spades were 4-2. That meant he needed the heart finesse against best defense, but the defenders were not always going to find that.

Declarer led a low spade from hand to retain control, and West did his best by rising with the  $\triangle Q$  and shifting to a club, but declarer could not be prevented from taking the rest of the tricks for a great matchpoint score.

Second place in the Non-Life Master Pairs went to Dan Joo and Kevin Shiue.

Memorials and Honorariums

In Memory of Margaret Hale

Zip Knockout Teams

Margaret Hale was one of a kind. Her unique personality intrigued her very wide circle of friends. Her life of 82 years was full of good times and bad. After WWII, when she joined her husband (who was stationed in Japan), she adopted two Japanese-American babies who later returned to the states with them.

Her great grandchild Sophie was the light of her life, and was with her when she died earlier this year. From a very early age she had serious health problems, which became more severe as she aged. But through it all, she just kept going and was amazingly cheerful.

After retiring from the telephone company, bridge became her passion, and for many years she had a weekly game and taught bridge classes. She was one of the friendliest people one might have had the pleasure to know. If she didn't know you, she always introduced herself at the bridge table and asked your name — unfortunately, something rarely done — and, hence, she knew everyone who played. All who knew her became part of her life. This very strong, amazing lady touched many lives and is missed by many.

Honoring Stu Goodgold

Stu Goodgold is the District 21 Vice President. He is a Silver Life Master and has been playing bridge since his college days at Caltech. Recently retired, he was a software performance analyst at IBM for 31 years.

Stu lives with his wife Marli in a rural area near San Jose and has been a resident of the Bay Area since 1978. He can often be found riding his bicycle around the area, many times on the way to a daytime club game.

In Memory of Dee Sauer

Dee was born in Canada and came to the Bay Area in her early 20s. She was an animal lover and always had two or three pets. She also liked sports and was an avid follower of the 49ers.

Dee took up bridge in 1962 and was an owner of a bridge club in San Francisco for a few years where she conducted bridge classes.

Honoring Will Watson

Everyone loves Will Watson. He is able to do anything and everything plus answer bidding problems. He came to California from Connecticut and never went back. Lucky us! Will went to Cal Tech and started as a backup director for the College Club in 1999. He got a job in computers during the tech boom but was laid off during the dot-com bust and then became a full time director.

Will directs games all along the peninsula, plays professionally and serves on the Board of Unit 507. He has won several regionals and has represented District 21 in the GNT Flight A three times. He's the go-to person for all of us from San Jose to San Francisco.

Reception for Junior Players

In honor of Junior Day, there will be a reception for Junior players today from 5 to 7 p.m. in Room 8057 in the Marriott. All Junior players are invited to attend.
