Tucker's dream come true: the first Youth NABC

Patty Tucker was ecstatic last summer when the ACBL Board of Directors approved the first Youth North American Bridge Championships, scheduled for next year in Atlanta.

That was just the first step, however. Since July, she has concentrated on getting the word out about the tournament, the first of its kind.

The Youth NABC is set for July 3-6 during the Atlanta Sectional. Any player who will be 19 or younger as of July 1, 2008, is eligible to participate. ACBL membership is not a requirement.

Tucker has left nothing to chance in her quest to make everyone aware of the Youth NABC, sending postcards to every ACBL member who will be eligible (more than 1000), contacting teachers and sending e-mails to the web masters of every unit and district with a home page.

At this point, Tucker is confident attendance at the tournament will be at least 200 youngsters, and she encourages those who are interested to pre-register. "We need an idea of how many are coming so we can

Seed Nos. 2, 5 & 8 fall in Senior KO

The round of 16 in the Senior Knockouts saw three upsets, with the second-, fifth- and eighth-seeded teams exiting the event.

The No. 2 seed led by Gene Simpson was defeated 117-93 by Jim Reiman's squad (No. 15). Reiman's lineup includes Dave Swarthout, Bill Arlinghaus, Jay Baum, Barry Schaffer and Bryan Storey.

The No. 5 seed captained by Carolyn Lynch narrowly lost to the No. 12 seed with Jim Kirkham at the helm, 138-136. Kirkham's teammates are wife, Corinne, Jack Bryant, Greg House, Jay Tipton and Linda Tipton.

No. 8 Jeffrey Miller lost to the No. 9 squad led by Mike Kovacich, 134-60. Kovacich played with Robert White, Jim Linhart, Sangarapil Mohan, Claude Vogel and David Lindop.

See page 14 for today's pairings.

Attending the check presentation from the ACBL Charity Foundation to the local Center for Bridge Education were student Michael Borgert, Tournament Chairman Bruce Blakely, student Lewis Geist, District 21 Board member Roger Smith, Mission High School assistant principal Jennifer Fong and CBE President Richard Bellerose. Local bridge-teaching program receives Charity grant

A program to promote bridge to high-school students in the Bay Area has received a $5000 grant from the ACBL Charity Foundation (see photo on page one).

Roger Smith, District 21 representative on the ACBL Board of Directors, presented the $5000 to the Center for Bridge Education (CBE) at a ceremony yesterday morning. CBE President Richard Bellerose accepted the grant on behalf of the organization which is already active in five public schools in San Francisco. With the help of bridge-playing teachers, administrators or local volunteers, dozens of high-school students are learning the game at their local high schools.

Attendees at yesterday's ceremony also included volunteer bridge teacher Jim Leuker; Balboa Heights High School students Michael Borgert (a junior) and Lewis Geist (a senior); and Jennifer Fong, assistant principal at Mission High School, who is also a bridge player and teacher.

Fong said that 20 students were part of the program at Mission, and that a similar number were playing at Balboa Heights.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Players: By Marti Ronemus

Dear New Players, I enjoy hearing from new players more than you can imagine. I feel like the hosts of "Car Talk," never knowing what they'll hear next. Here's a sample. I found this on my desk a couple years ago, and saved it for whenever I need a laugh.

"Dear Marti, I've decided to give up this game. I can't do anything right. I can't remember anything, and my partner is disgusted with me. (I had trouble reading the next part; it was blurred and smeared. Could those be tear stains?)

"I kept praying for answers until I realized God doesn't listen to bridge players anymore than He listens to golfers. What should I do? Just what does it take to play this game, anyway?"

It was signed by Charlie, who added a P.S.: "My partner and I need teammates for Swiss on Friday. Can you get someone for us?"

Charlie plays at least four times a week at our club and has subsequently become a Life Master, but he raised a question that I bet you have also:

Just what does it take to be a bridge player?

1. A sense of proportion. As soon as you realize that bridge is a game, not a career choice (to quote Edith McMullin), you're ahead of the game. Listen, Binky: The fate of the free world doesn't depend on your score today (thank goodness). The reason you're here is to have fun, enjoy the company of your partner, and go headto-head with the puzzle that each hand represents.

2. A tolerance for ambiguity. There is nothing in bridge that three people agree on. Look in our own Bridge Bulletin, where bidding problems are presented to a panel of experts. You'll see almost as many answers as there are panel members. There are hands for which there is no easy bid. There are many who will tell you otherwise, but there is no absolute right or wrong. Don't ever let anyone tell you that you are wrong, and don't you ever tell anyone that you are right. As we said back in the Sixties, "Go with the flow, baby."

3. Forgiveness for your own (and your partner's) shortcomings. Face it, kiddo. Unless you are in the extreme minority, you will probably never compete at the top levels. That takes a very special kind of mind. Most of us don't have it. So what? I took up painting a few years ago. I have absolutely no talent whatsoever. Does that stop me from enjoying the process? No. Should it bother you that you'll never be the Picasso of bridge? No. Enjoy the ride. And work on your personality. When people call me asking for a partner, they rarely say, "Get me a top player." No, they say, "Get me someone nice."

4. A firm belief in an alternate universe. I read an article in a science magazine (at the doctor's (where else?) that was about the presence of dozens of parallel universes where we are duplicated - almost. Where events vary slightly. Where we lead similar lives, but with different outcomes to events. I was stunned. That explained everything! Now I know where those extra pounds keep coming from (I(m skinny in one universe! In > another, I can actually keep a plant alive! And, best of all, I know where all my failed finesses are working. It has to be true. It's the only explanation.

So keep playing, folks. This game is too great to play for any reason except the pure pleasure of it.

And please be in touch with me. I yearn to hear your experiences, and anything you want to tell me. Marti can be reached at mronemus@comcast.net

Bidding commentary: South's reopening bid of 2NT shows 14-17 high-card points. North has a no brainer raise to 3NT. A 3* response by North would be Stayman.

Play commentary: As South, you start with seven top tricks and need two more. You could easily set up three extra tricks in clubs — if you had time. Unfortunately, you have only one spade stopper left and would have to let the opponents in twice to set up clubs. It doesn't compute. When they get in with the first club, they knock out your last spade stop, and when they get in with a second club, a torrent of spades will rain down upon you. Down two. You must look elsewhere for tricks.

How about diamonds? Given this meager diamond combination, you need to find East with exactly K-x-x (an 18% chance) to build up two extra diamond tricks. An 18% chance is better than a 0% chance. Enter dummy with a heart, finesse the ♦Q and play the ♦A and a diamond (or duck a diamond and then play the ace. Whatever you do works (am I good to you, or what?) as long as you attack diamonds, not clubs. It's all a matter of time. When a contract looks desperate, dream up a winning lie of the opponents' cards and play for it. When a contract looks too good to be true, start looking around for safety plays. This contract falls into the desperate category.

Tournament Terminology 101

If you're confused by the terms used to describe the different types of bridge events played at clubs and tournaments, you're not alone. Here's are some common bridge events with explanations.

Knockout Teams: an event in which a team (of four, five or six players – with four playing at a time) plays another team. The losers are eliminated (knocked out) while the winners play other winners until only one winning team

The length of a KO match may vary from a single session to a full day (the Vanderbilt and Spingold) to a multi-day event (the Bermuda Bowl).

Bracketed Knockout Teams: a KO event in which teams are divided into groups usually of 8, 16 or 32 teams – based on their masterpoint holdings. The top group – Bracket I – and all other groups compete in a separate event with their own set of winners.

Compact Knockout Teams: a shorter version of Bracketed KO teams.

Swiss Teams: an event in which a team (of four, five or six players – with four playing at a time) plays other teams in seven-, eight- or nineboard matches. Team A sits North-South at Table 1 and East-West at Table 2 while Team B sits East-West at Table 1 and North-South at Table 2. The results are compared and scored by International Match Points (IMPs).

Pairings for the first round are random. Pairings for succeeding rounds are determined by a team's win-loss record or victory point total.

Put the pressure on

Larry Cohen will tell you all about the law of total tricks, but it is not so effective when you can't work out your opponents' trump fit.

On this deal from the second qualifying session of the Bobby Nail Life Master Pairs, I totally misjudged the auction. Could I recover in the play? The hands are rotated.

I thought there were 17 total trumps (nine hearts for our side, eight spades for theirs), so I tried 3♥ and was happy to see four trumps come down in dummy, but not so happy to realize I had rescued the opponents from their 3-3 spade fit..

On the lead of the $7, what could I do? I followed the mundane line of taking the $Q$ with the ace and leading a trump from hand. West took the $\varphi A$ and shifted to a diamond. Curtains! Down one.

I realized too late that inasmuch as my left-hand opponent was surely 3-5 in the black suits, I should play him for 3=1=4=5 shape.

I should have played dummy's ♠K at trick one and led the ♥Q from dummy. Yes, RHO should probably not cover, but we've all made worse plays. Now perhaps the spade position is less clear and I won't get the diamond shift even if the defenders don't crash their heart honors.

Blocking play

West had to be alert in defense on this deal from the second qualifying session of the Bobby Nail Life Master Pairs.

North declared $4\clubsuit$ on the lead of the \bigstar K. He won and saw that his only hope of success was to establish a second spade trick. Declarer played the \clubsuit 2 to dummy's king, then led the \spadesuit Q. West got that right, covering with the king, so declarer won the \clubsuit A and ruffed a spade low. Now he played the \clubsuit 6 off the dummy.

If West plays low, declarer puts in the $7, ruffs a spade to bring down the jack, then crosses to the $A and cashes the $10 for 10 tricks. But West was up to the task and put up the $9. Declarer could win the $A and ruff out the spade, but now he had no entry to hand to cash the established spade winner, having no club in dummy lower than his 7.

West did well to recognize the necessity for the blocking play, but declarer should have been successful – do you see his error?

Had declarer taken the first spade ruff with the 8 instead of the 4, dummy would have retained two club spots that were lower than declarer's 7. Now the blocking play does not work because declarer can lead to his 7 on the third round of trumps.

A slightly premature claim

By David Berkowitz

Follow the roller coaster auction with me and Larry Cohen, from the second qualifying session of the Bobby Nail Life Master Pairs.

I held

♦K Q J 10 2 ♥A ♦A K J 5 ♣A J 10

Playing Precision I open 1♣, strong. My left-hand opponent overcalls 2♣ (natural), and LC bids 2♠, natural, game-forcing at least five diamonds and 8 high-card points. My hand is picking up.

Nobody leaves you alone any more, and my RH pest gives me 5. No problem as of yet. Systemically, I double to show a slam-try raise, which I really have.

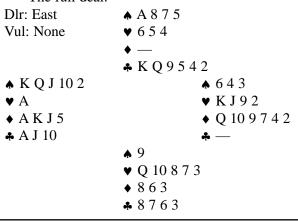

Larry retreats to $5 \spadesuit$, and I try once more with a $6 \clubsuit$ cuebid. Once again, Larry retreats with $6 \spadesuit$, and now it is back to me.

I start thinking, which some would say is a mistake. The opposition has marked partner with short clubs, so he must have some spades. I figure 6♠ must be cold, maybe still seven. This is matchpoints – I cannot play 6♦ when 6♠ is laydown.

Larry now tries 74, and with some trepidation I try 74. When it goes all pass, I am filled with joy. I have a claim.

Larry has the trump ace. I can't wait to get this auction to the Daily Bulletin. They lead a club and dummy hits with three low spades. I call the director. I explain that since neither opponent could hold the trump ace, Larry had to produce it. Alas, LHO had it. He said he had too much respect for us to double. Never will I mentally claim again.

P.S. I made the DB in a different way. The full deal:

San Francisco 1996: A look back

A total of 12,984 tables of bridge were in play at the last NABC held in San Francisco in the fall of 1996.

Some highlights of the 1996 tournament:

It was announced that Jeff Meckstroth, one of the world's top players, had agreed to coach one of the U.S. teams that was going to play in the World Junior Team Championships to be held in Hamilton ON in 1997. Carol and Tommy Sanders were named the co-Honorary Members for 1997. The Senior Knockout Teams drew a (then) record 48 teams.

Computer scoring for clubs was new. A complete kit was for sale and included a 24 baud modem, black and white monitor and a dot matrix printer — all for $350.

There were many well-played deals from 1996. For example:

A cruel game

Isn't it just like bridge to deal you a wonderful hand and then arrange things so that elation is replaced by exasperation? Many players who sat South found themselves with that attitude with the deal shown here:

Doug Heron and David Kent played the deal against George Rosenkranz and Eddie Wold. Heron and Kent found themselves on the wrong end of a nice piece of bidding judgment by Rosenkranz.

- (1) Two suits of the same shape (pointed: spades and diamonds; rounded: hearts and clubs).
- (2) Exclusion Key Card Blackwood asking partner to show key cards outside the club suit.
 - (3) Zero or three key cards.

Wold took advantage of the vulnerability to enter the auction with his shapely hand. Rosenkranz was relatively certain from the bidding that Wold had clubs and hearts, and that he and Wold probably had an 11-card club fit, but he decided to lie low in hopes that the opponents might not sniff out their slam.

No such luck, but Rosenkranz was given a vital piece of information about Heron's hand — the leap to 5. as an ace-asking device indicated a void in clubs. Rosenkranz also knew that Heron and Kent had a massive fit in spades and that slam was a heavy favorite to make, if not ice cold (which it was).

Wold had only three losers in 7.4 doubled and he wound up minus 500 — less than the value of the opponents' game — for 63 out of 77 matchpoints.

Missed opportunity

By Barry Rigal

Different players have different views on leaddirecting actions. Many double for the lead quite lightly when they have no other suit they want led. This is not a bad approach, but you need to know partnership style.

This deal from the second qualifying session of the Bobby Nail Life Master Pairs illustrates the point.

South's 3 h bid showed exactly four spades and denied four hearts.

On a low club lead, declarer might well have taken an early heart finesse. Instead, he won the A and sensibly led a trump to the jack, and a trump back to the queen, both ducked by West. A heart finesse lost to the king, and West was confident he was going to set 4. He led his singleton diamond to the 10 and ace. Declarer unblocked hearts and led a third spade. West won the ace and led a club and was very disappointed to see South produce the king. The result was 11 tricks for North-South.

You could blame East for encouraging in clubs at trick one – he surely knows partner will be able to work out that he has nothing on the side when dummy comes down.

But the fault is really with West. Assuming he trusts East's count signal on the first heart, West should duck the ♥Q smoothly (declarer has ♥AQJ or partner has the doubleton ♥J 8, and either way there is no second heart trick for the defense). Declarer will surely play a spade up after the heart finesse wins.

West can then take the A and return a club. Declarer will go to dummy with the last trump and play another heart. West will win the king and return a heart or a diamond. Declarer takes only two heart tricks instead of three and loses a diamond at the end for only 10 tricks.

Bad guesser

Zia Mahmood is great at guessing the opponents' cards, but he's not too hot when it comes to estimating his own scores. During the first final session of the Bobby Nail Life Master Pairs, someone asked Zia how his game was going. Zia's reply cannot be printed in a family publication, but it equates to "lousy."

So much for Zia's estimating abilities. He and Bjorn Fallenius finished the afternoon with a game north of 67% and they won the event.

Here are a couple of deals that earned the two a lot of matchpoints.

Zia started with a low diamond. Declarer won the ace, cashed the king, pitching a spade from dummy, then ruffed the diamond in dummy. He played the A and a spade to the king, then ruffed a spade, felling the queen. Said Zia to East, "Are you having fun?"

Next came the $9, and declarer erred by playing low. Fallenius was almost certain to hold the $A, and if he held three to the A-Q declarer was always going to lose two trumps tricks.

Had declarer put in the *K, he could have exited with a low club to Fallenius' ace and conceded one other trick to the trump queen. That would have been plus 130.

On the actual play, Zia won the AQ and got out with his low heart. Fallenius won the queen and played a diamond. Declarer ruffed with the 10 and could still have made the contract by exiting with a low club, but he played the king. Fallenius won the ace and played one more diamond. Declarer had the AJ 5, and Zia had the AJ 6. One way or the other, Zia had a trump trick coming. Plus 100 was a good for 72.5 out of 90 matchpoints, 50 more than they would have received for minus 130.

On the next deal, Zia took advantage of a slip by the defenders to earn a near top.

Things would have been better for East-West had West led his partner's suit, but West started with the ♠J instead. Zia won in hand with the ♠K and played a low heart to the king and ace. East ducked the second round of hearts and won perforce on the next round as his partner discarded two low diamonds (upside-down signals). The ♠10 went to dummy's ace, and Zia played the ♣Q next. East ducked, which turned out to be a fatal error – and Zia took full advantage.

After the *Q held, Zia played a diamond to his king, then a spade to dummy's queen. On the run of the hearts, West could not stand the pressure. This was the end position:

On the play of dummy's good heart, Zia tossed the ◆J, and West was dead. After some thought, he discarded the ◆Q, but Zia cashed the ◆7 and claimed 12 tricks. Plus 490 was good for 88.5 matchpoints. Plus 460 would have been a 58.

Happy kibitzer

Busaba Williams, tournament chairman at the Fall NABC in Hawaii last year, is attending the San Francisco NABC and enjoying it in an entirely different way than in 2006.

"It's most relaxing," she said, "to see everyone else working hard."

She did allow that she enjoyed being chairman, "and I would like to do it again in Hawaii."

As for San Francisco, Williams said she loves the city, but she was having trouble with the contrast to the balmy temperatures back home. "It's freezing here," she said.

So far, so good

Tournament Director Gary Zeiger, taking his first turn as co-director in charge of the NABC, was asked how things are going so far. "Well," he said, "I haven't killed anyone yet, and no one's killed me."

Zeiger appeared in the Daily Bulletin office wearing a San Francisco 49ers windbreaker. "The TDs were sick of me wearing the same stuff all the time," he allowed, "so they chipped in and bought me a new wardrobe."

A sitout

Somehow, during Zia Mahmood's game with Bjorn Fallenius in the Bobby Nail Life Master Pairs, politics came up. "I don't vote anywhere," said Zia, "and I try not to pay taxes. I'm a conscientious objector to government."

Marsha May Sternberg Women's BAM

Play in the Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams gets underway today, with two qualifying sessions followed by two final sessions tomorrow.

At stake: the Marsha Sternberg Memorial Trophy, honoring the player who died in 2001 after a six-week battle with cancer.

Her husband, Dr. Jim Sternberg of West Palm Beach FL, donated the trophy.

The winners of the 2006 contest were Lynn Baker, Karen McCallum, Beth Palmer, Lynn Deas, Kerri Sanborn and Irina Levitina.

Marsha Sternberg was a former National Enquirer associate editor and the first female writer for the tabloid. Sternberg, once reported to be the highest paid female journalist in America, left the Enquirer in 1989 and married Dr. Sternberg, a radiologist and bridge enthusiast. She joined ACBL in 1990 and became a Life Master in 1997

Sternberg was outstanding in many fields she was an excellent pianist and a sailing instructor. She was also very successful in gold and tennis.

Coffin Trophy

The previous trophy for this event was the Coffin Trophy, one of the oldest and most historic trophies in NABC competition. It was retired.

For years there was only one "National" Women's Team championship - and that was a board-a-match event.

Donated by Charles Emmet Coffin in 1933, the trophy was contested at the "Winter Nationals" in the days when there were only two NABCs - Summer and Winter. In 1963 the event was moved to the new Spring NABC where it was in play until the format was changed to knockout teams in 1976.

For the next decade, there was no national Women's Board-a-Match championship. Swiss teams had become popular and a Women's Swiss with NABC+ rating was established in the early Eighties. But board-a-match play for women was not dead - it was just in hiatus for a few years.

The Coffin Trophy was revived at the Fall NABC in Atlanta in 1986 and new life was breathed into women's board-a-match play.

Many experts consider board-a-match the most exacting form of the game. Equal weight is accorded each deal and every trick is important when scoring is board-by-board.

Sharp lessons By Barry Rigal

Everyone would like to be a good partner, but it's also important to be a good opponent, recognizing that from partner's perspective, "good" means finding a way to irritate the opponents. Not by your mannerisms or conversation, of course, but by your bids and plays at the table.

One of the best ways to irritate your opposition is to teach them a sharp lesson (TTASL, as it was abbreviated at the London club where I used to play). The rules are that if your opponents balance, you must double them or bid game. If they sacrifice, you must double them or bid slam.

It was with those thought in mind that I picked up:

★K 5 3 ♦6 ♦J 6 3 2 ♣Q 10 9 8 2 I was West and heard this auction:

West	North	East	South
		1♥	Pass
1NT	Pass	2 .	Pass
Pass	Dbl	Redbl	2♦

Partner's redouble showed a good hand, so I thought I had too much to bid a mere 3*, so I tried 2*, meaning it as a good club raise in the context of a hand that could not bid over 2*. Partner bid 3*, and I bid 5*.

My partner played safe and settled for 11 tricks, but 12 are always there if you get to slam. I apologized to partner for failing to realize that I should have gone even farther in irritating the opponents.

Open BAM gets underway

Play begins today in the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams. The winners of the 2006 Open BAM Teams were George Jacobs, Ralph Katz, Michael Rosenberg, Zia Mahmood, Steve Weinstein and Robert Levin.

The Mitchell Trophy

Players will be competing for the Victor Mitchell Trophy, which honors one of bridge's most colorful characters — a champion player, philosopher and mentor to the stars.

Mitchell, a Grand Life Master with more than 10,000 masterpoints, won five North American championships including the Spingold in 1956 and 1959, the Life Master Men's Pairs in 1962 and the Men's Teams in 1962 and 1963. He was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1988 and inducted into the Bridge Hall of Fame in 1996.

The game

The Open Board-a-Match Teams is a four-session event that consists of two qualifying and two final sessions. It was a men's event until 1990 when it became an open event.

Perhaps the event's high point occurred in 1977 when there were only three winners: Richard Doughty, Ron Smith and Lou Bluhm (plus these players eligible for session awards only: Bruce Ferguson, Sidney Lazard, Leslie West and Irv Kostal).

Lazard was supposed to play with Doughty but after a good first set, Lazard became ill and Kostal took his place for the evening session.

Lazard was better the next day and in his seat for the first final session. Suddenly he toppled over and a call went out for paramedics. They arrived quickly and rushed Lazard to a hospital.

Meanwhile, Doughty had to find another partner and Ferguson was pressed into service. Ferguson, whose team had not qualified the previous day, was technically ineligible but was allowed to play only in the afternoon.

In the evening, Doughty recruited West — his fourth partner in four sessions — and the team went on to victory by a margin of two full boards.

have enough of everything," she says.

Tucker says she thinks 80% of the players will be in the age range of 11 to 15.

All pertinent information, including registration forms, is available at the Youth NABC web site – www.youthnabc.org.

Tucker says that when she first thought of having a big tournament for young players, she didn't get a lot of encouragement. "People told me flat out it wouldn't work, that kids don't want to learn to play bridge," she recalls. "I thought they were wrong."

Atlanta Junior Bridge was incorporated as a 501C3 (tax exempt) organization two years ago, Tucker says, and 600 youngsters have learned to play bridge though AJB.

Poker expert Phil Gordon has stepped up to sponsor the Sportsmanship Trophy for the tournament and that she is looking for other sponsors.

Tucker says that young players who don't feel up to the two-session championship events will have one-session games to play in. Entry fees will be $5 per person per session for non-national events, $7 per person per session for the twosession events.

Parents, of course, will be able to play in the

After 2008, the youth tournament will moved to NABCs, starting with the 2009 Summer NABC in Washington DC.

Shawn Quinn and Jenny Wolpert, who were leading after the first final session, finished third with 993.70. (Baker and McCallum stood in fifth place after the first final.)

Although Baker and McCallum have won other national-level team events, this was the first time the pair has ever won a national pairs game together. The winners had the best score among the 64 pairs playing in the final round.

Asked how their style of play in matchpoints compared with their rubber-bridge games, Fallenius said they were basically the same - "just solid bridge."

The winners both have multiple North American championships, and Zia was on the squad that earned the silver medal in the Bermuda Bowl in Shanghai.

Memorials and Honorariums

Honoring Will Watson

Everyone loves Will Watson. He is able to do anything and everything plus answer bidding problems. He came to California from Connecticut and never went back. Lucky us! Will went to Cal Tech and started as a backup director for the College Club in 1999. He got a job in computers during the tech boom but was laid off during the dot-com bust and then became a full time director.

Will directs games all along the peninsula, plays professionally and serves on the Board of Unit 507. He has won several regionals and has represented District 21 in the GNT Flight A three times. He's the go-to person for all of us from San Jose to San Francisco.

George William "Bill" Holt (1930-2007)

Today's bracketed knockout event is named in memory of Bill Holt, who died Sept. 18 at his home in Yreka CA. Bill began directing for the ACBL in 1980 and retired in 2000. He directed in Canada, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Northern California. For many years he served as head of Tournament Services at the NABCs. Bill epitomized the service portion of Tournament Services, working long hours for as many as 16 straight days making sure everything was in place for his fellow Tournament Directors and thousands of players as he oversaw the efficient operation of each NABC.

In 2002, Bill purchased the Riverside Bridge Club in Medford OR where he also taught Easybridge! He was affectionately known as "Kurly," for his easy-going style and wit and his unflappable approach to problems arising at the table.

In Memory of Jane Lane

When Jane Lane retired in 1987, she imagined she would spend her time sewing curtains and baking cookies. It never happened. She started playing duplicate bridge in 1988 and never stopped until a month before she passed away.

Playing at least five days a week, sometimes twice a day, she always arrived all dressed up and ready for the contest. There was no activity she enjoyed more. Outside her family, bridge was her life. It filled her retirement years with a wonderful pastime and many new friends. Bayshore Bridge Club was her home away from home.

Jane had a good heart, a sweet smile and a charming manner. She was a lovely person and a devoted bridge player. We all miss her.

Honoring Lura Crossley

Lura Crossley has had a profound impact on duplicate bridge in the San Francisco Bay Area dating back to the 1950s. Lura and her husband Cap Crossley Jr., founded the Marin Unit in 1954. By 1959, there were 250 members. She became a Life Master in 1959, the same year Cap was president of the Western Conference.

Lura started running bridge games and teaching in her home in Greenbrae in the 1950s. She held duplicate games in many locations throughout Marin until securing a permanent "home" in Larkspur for the Crossley Bridge Center in 1970. Lura's mantra was "good bridge and good fellowship." She was known for having a friendly game with wonderful homemade refreshments, and made many bridge players feel at home at her club.

In the sixties and seventies, Lura taught thousands of students in department stores and at clubs around the S.F. Bay Area. She also lectured and directed bridge cruises as the West Coast representative of Travel with Goren, traveling the world many times over. Lura has continued to teach at the annual Crossley Bridge Camp and lecture on cruises into her 80s.

Her three sons, Bill, Dave and Bob, were all young Life Masters, winning tournaments in their teens. Her daughter Janet is a part-time bridge teacher and director. Lura, while still involved with the Crossley Bridge Center, is turning over the reigns to Bob and Janet, but still enjoys playing bridge whenever she can.

Honoring Terry Terzian

Terry Terzian started his bridge teaching career while a student at the University of California at Davis in the late seventies. Since then, he has introduced thousands of individuals to the game through his classes and through the weekly games he directs for the South County Unit 500 of District 21.

Terry is an ACBL-accredited Star Teacher with special Intermediate-Newcomer accreditation, a certified director and a member of the ACBL Goodwill Committee. He has earned the rank of Gold Life Master and has represented District 21 a total of five times in Grand National Team (GNT) and North American Pairs (NAP) competitions, an accomplishment few others can claim.

"It has been a pleasure and privilege serving as Intermediate-Newcomer Chairman for the North American Bridge Championships and giving back to the game that has given so much to me," he said.
