Goodwill says thanks to Nadine

Bruce Reeve, Nadine Wood and Millard Nachtwey at the Goodwill Committee reception.

One of the hardest working and best-known personalities in District 6, home of the 2009 Summer NABC, received a very big thank you for her years and years of hard work for bridge.

And when Nadine Wood was asked by Goodwill Committee Chair Aileen Osofsky to approach the podium a second time, Wood received a standing ovation from the gathered committee members.

Wood was heading for the microphone to respond to tributes from two other stalwarts of the Mid-Atlantic Bridge Conference – Bruce Reeve, District 7 representative on the ACBL Board of Directors, and National Tournament Director Millard Nachtwey, a longtime friend.

Nachtwey said he and Wood began working with the Washington Bridge League at about the same time – in the mid-Eighties. He recalled that the first intermediate/newcomer program took place at the 1984 Summer NABC in Washington. Back then, he said, there was one I/N game during the entire tournament. Nowadays, I/N games makes up 20% of attendance, and Nachtwey credited Wood for a lot of that growth.

"Nadine went to bat for newcomer games with ACBL Headquarters," he said. "She is one of the most fantastic workers and one of the most fantastic people I know."

Nachtwey said Wood also created an essential and authoritative manual for tournament chairs that is still in use.

Goodwill Committee Chair Aileen Osofsky with NABC Chair Margot Hennings.

Reeve said, "It's wonderful to recognize Nadine in this setting."

He said Wood works tirelessly for bridge, and especially women's events. "At the trials," he said, "whatever they want, she gets it."

Wood is an amazing shopper, always on the go buying supplies for tournaments. "Nadine is in the Costco and Sam's Hall of Fame."

Youth NABC co-chair expecting excitement

Last summer, Suzanne Abrams showed up at the inaugural Youth NABC in the Atlanta area to get a sample of what was to come for her this year in Washington DC.

She and Patty Tucker and co-chairs of the second Youth NABC, which begins on Thursday. As many as 150 or more players 19 and younger are expected for the three-day tournament.

Abrams, a retired school psychologist, has lots of experience with young people and bridge. Before she retired, she started a bridge club at an elementary school. She taught the youngsters how to play and had games once a week after school from January to June.

Since her retirement, Abrams has started a club at Thomas Jefferson High School in Washington.

"It's good for the students to learn bridge early," she says. "The elementary kids love the social aspect of bridge." At the tournament in Atlanta, Abrams says, "I was amazed. It was so exciting to see the kids coming from all over the country and having a chance to meet each other. It was fabulous."

Top seeds fall in Spingold

Two high-seeded teams are out of the action after yesterday's first round of the Spingold Knockout Teams.

The 17th-seeded Michael Moss team (Stephen Landen, Nikolay Demirev and Nicolas L'Ecuyer) lost in their four-way match with teams seeded 36, 55 and 74.

A cell phone was the downfall of the No. 22 seed (Brian Glubok, James Rosenbloom, Bill Eisenberg, Connie Goldberg, John Sutherlin and Dan Gerstman). They incurred a 12-IMP penalty for having the phone in the playing area, and those IMPs were the deciding factor in their close loss. The victors in their four-way match were the teams seeded 31, 60 and 69.

Wagar KO in quarterfinals

Form prevailed in the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams, with seven of the top eight seeds advancing to today's round of eight. The format for yesterday's first round was head-to-head matchups and four-way matches, with three advancing from each four-way.

The only casualty among the top eight seeds was No. 7 Judi Radin team (Stacy Jacobs, Catherine D'Ovidio, Danielle Gaviard, Victoria Gromova and Tatiana Ponomareva), who played in a four-way match with the Nos. 6, 8 and 9 seeds. They lost to the No. 8 (Phyllis Fireman, Shannon Cappelletti, Migry Zur Campanile, Mildred Breed, Heather Dhondy and Nevena Senior) and No. 9 (Lynne Schaefer, Susan Miller, Bronia Jenkins, Kyoko Shimamura, Martha Katz and Ellasue Chaitt).

Mini-Spingolds

Play continues today with head-to-head matches in Mini-Spingold I (0 to 5000 masterpoints) and II (0-1500). Mini I is in the round of 32 today and Mini II is now down to 16 teams.

Bisgeier leads Senior Swiss quals

The team captained by Peter Bisgeier topped the field in the qualifying round of the Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss Teams. Bisgeier, playing with Robert Gordon, James Gingrich and Bob Gwirtzman, scored 124 Victory Points in yesterday's opening round.

In second is the squad of Stephen Lucas, Lesley Decker Lucas, Laura Brill and Rick Goldstein.

The cutoff score for qualification was 80 VPs. Fifty of the 100 teams that entered the two-day contest qualified for today's two-session final.

Goodwill Message

Today's opponent may be tomorrow's partner!
That's a good reason to treat opponents and partner with respect and courtesy —- the way you expect to be treated.

Life Master News

Joan Renzoni of Toronto ON is now a Silver Life Master (1000 or more masterpoints) after her team's success in the knockouts. She was playing with Veronica Peacock of Vancouver BC. Their teammates were Audrey Danocup of Beloit WI and Laurie Hamachek of Huntley IL.

Lorraine Hinds of White Plains NY earned her gold card by winning 13 gold points in separate KOs in unusual style. The first match was won in overtime by 1 IMP, the same margin in the second match. They won a third match by 110 IMPs and the fourth by 1. Hinds' partner was William Wood of Hartsdale NY. They played with Rosemarie and Rich Letourneau of Bonita Springs FL.

Norm Marks is a new Life Master, earning his rank change in the Sunday-Monday knockout teams playing with his father.

Leia Berla of Old Greenwich CT made Life Master in the Sunday-morning compact KO with pickup partners from New York and New Jersey.

Thanks, Eric

Mark Cohen, on behalf of the Hospitality and Entertainment Committee, wishes to express his sincere appreciation to Eric Rodwell for his generous spirit in performing, on short notice and in adverse circumstances, his very entertaining piano program.

ACBL bans electronic devices in national events

The ACBL Board of Directors approved a comprehensive ban on electronic devices for all national level events, but not regional or Intermediate Newcomer contests:

Electronic devices, excluding health related equipment, capable of sending or receiving communication, including but not limited to, headphones, earphones, cellular phones and minicomputers: (1) shall not be allowed in the playing areas, adjacent hallways, restrooms or accessible break areas; and (2) shall not be used during a session.

These restrictions shall apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, recorders and kibitzers and shall apply throughout any actual playing session or segment.

A violation of this policy shall result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense shall result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team.

Kibitzers violating this policy shall be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

Participants in the following contests will be reminded not to approach the playing area with a personal electronic device in their possession, even if the device is turned off: all flights of the Grand National Teams, the von Zedtwitz, Bruce and Young Life Master Pairs, the Spingold Knockout Teams, both Mini-Spingolds, the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams, the Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss Teams, the Wernher Open Pairs, the NABC+ Fast Pairs, the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams, the Open Swiss Teams and the National 199er Pairs.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Improving your game – part 2

By Leslie Shafer

Several years ago, I attended a regional tournament in Richmond VA and stopped by the

I/N room to see if any of my students were attending. In fact, two of them rushed up to me for advice. "How's it going?" I asked. "Not well," replied Jane. "We haven't been able to get over 50% in the last two days," she sighed.

"Let me see your scores from a recent game," I replied. Perusing it, I saw several instances where the opponents were playing 2♦, 2♥ or 2♠, scoring plus 90 or plus 110. "Well, for starters, tell me why the opponents are playing so many low-level contracts? It's not good to have comfortable opponents."

"But how can we prevent that?" she asked.
"My own game starts in five minutes, but I'll try to make these two points quickly:

"Option #1: Start making some one-level overcalls after they open. All you need is a good five-card suit. If partner can raise your suit, you should be safe at the two level as long as you have a fit, regardless of how many points your side has.

"Option #2: If your pass will end the auction after your opponents have found a fit at the two level, consider bidding your five-card or longer suit (maybe even a great four-card suit - gasp!). If you don't have a suit of your own, double to ask partner to bid one of the other suits. You don't want to let the opponents play quietly in a fit at the two level. Even going down one is better than letting them make two of something. Be cautious about balancing at the three level if you're vulnerable, though."

Sure enough, when I checked up on them days later, they were adding up their newly won masterpoints and were much happier.

It's important to note that we only use option #2 (called balancing) when the opponents have found a fit somewhere. A fit is found when the suit is bid by one partner and raised by the other. If the opponents stop in 1NT, or if I have four or more cards in the suit they stopped in, I usually choose not to balance.

It's good to always get your matchpoint scores for each deal you played at the end of the game. You might have to wait a few minutes for them to be posted, but it is well worth the effort. Many teachers and advanced players are willing to glance at your scores for a quick assessment of your game, maybe giving you a few tips to follow (such as the ones above). It is helpful if you have those scores available for the advice-giver to look over. By the way, your expert friends have usually played the same deals you just played (unless you were in an event that shuffled and played, like a knockout or Swiss teams). Talking about deals everyone played is very entertaining as well as educational, so have your scores and hand records with you at the lunch or dinner break.

Lead commentary: When there are two unbid suits, the general rule is to lead from the one that does not have the ace. If neither has the ace, lead from the stronger.

Play commentary: Woe to the declarer who does not count sure tricks (winners) before playing to trick one. South has 10 top tricks: one spade, five hearts and four diamonds. Taking the spade finesse at trick one represents an unnecessary risk. For the sake of an overtrick, it puts the contract in jeopardy. Playing tournament bridge, where overtricks are important, declarer has a problem.

Defensive commentary: If declarer takes the spade finesse at trick one, East wins and, seeing potentially threatening diamonds in dummy, should shift to a low club, promising a high honor. If declarer inserts the $9, West wins the jack and plays the AA and a club to East's king to defeat the contract one trick.

As declarer, count your notrump tricks (even at a suit contract) before playing to the first trick. If you are used to counting losers, do that too, but be sure to factor in "extra winners" (dummy's fourth diamond). Unless you are playing tournament bridge, don't even think of risking your contract for an overtrick. If you do, you should have a reason to think that the odds are in your favor.

Rules for being a good partner

By Marty Bergen

Before you sit down to discuss what you are playing, you should start your partnership off on the right note. Half the battle of winning is being a good partner. Always observe the following:

- 1. Do not give lessons unless you are being paid to do so. According to an evening paper, there are only five real authorities on bridge in this country. Odd how often one gets one of them as a partner. Punch (British magazine).
- 2. Never say anything to your partner unless you would want him to say the same to you. If you are unsure whether your partner would want you to say something, don't.
- 3. Never "result" (criticize your partner for a normal action just because it did not work this time).

- 4. Unless your intent is to clear up a misunderstanding, avoid discussing the hand just played. If you cannot resist, be discreet.
- 5. Remember that you and your partner are on the same side.
- 6. Do not forget that your partner wants to win just as much as you do.
- 7. If you feel the urge to be nasty, sarcastic, critical or loud excuse yourself and take a walk.
- 8. When there is time between hands, do not discuss bridge.
- 9. When you want to consult another player about a disaster, ask about your hand, not your partner's.
- 10. Do not ever criticize or embarrass your partner in front of others.
- 11. Remember that bridge is only a card game. Re-printed, with permission of the author, from Points Schmoints! Bergen's Winning Bridge Secrets.

Capital Area Food Bank CEO Lynn Brantley, second from left, accepts two $5000 checks, from Assistant NABC Chair Fred King, Joan Lewis of District 6 and NABC Chair Margot Hennings.

No one, Reeve said, deserves a round of thanks more than Wood.

Back at the dais – she had spoken earlier to praise NABC Chair Margot Hennings - Wood said, "My talent is getting people to help me, and when you need someone to do something, Goodwill members come through and do it."

She announced that David and Avril Rodney were going to be named to the Goodwill Committee the next time appointments are made. Also on the list is Dan Per-Lee, one of Wood's most loyal Another highlight of the meeting was presentation of a $5000 check from the ACBL Charitable Foundation to the Capital Area Food Bank, the largest, public nonprofit hunger and nutrition resource in the Washington DC metropolitan area. Each year, the CAFB distributes 20 million pounds of food, including six million pounds of fresh produce, to more than 700 partner agencies.

Accepting the check was CAFB's chief executive, Lynn Brantley, who noted that in the DC area, 633,000 people are at risk for hunger. Half of the children in Washington DC, she said, are also at risk.

Brantley was surprised when NABC Assistant Chair Fred King presented a second check for $5000 from District 6.

ACBL President Jerry Fleming told the group that his trip to Washington for the NABC "is my third in the last three months. It has been an enjoyable eye-opener to see all the work on behalf of the ACBL." On each visit, he added, "I have had a ball and you have made that happen."

Jay Baum, ACBL's chief executive, said the 2009 version of the NABC is the second in Washington on his watch. "It's getting better," Baum said, "and the tournament numbers at this one are very good."

Osofsky told the crowd that the 2009 Summer NABC "has been the most exciting tournament for me," a reference to the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame induction the first night of the tournament. Osofsky was inducted as the 2009 winner of the Blackwood Award for outstanding service to the game.

"To have my family, friends and teachers here – it will be in my memory book for life," she said.

Osofsky also acknowledged the two ACBL Jane Johnson Award winners – Wendy Sullivan, the Ask Me Girl at NABCs, and TD Priscilla Smith, the reputed queen of the I/N games.

Patty Tucker, Co-Chair of the coming Youth NABC with Suzanne Abrams, announced that the second tournament for young people seems to be attracting a lot of last-minute entrants. "People keep calling to tell me they are coming," Tucker said. "We might have as many as 160 kids."

Naturally, there was high praise for Tournament Chair Hennings, especially by David Rodney, who mans the registration desk. "Margot is tireless," he said, "and she does a great deal of everything. She is the world's most organized person."

Stanford reigns as college champs

By Phillip Alder

Twenty-six teams entered the Collegiate Championship. Qualifying matches played over the Internet shrunk that number to eight. They played a round robin on Saturday, from which Stanford, Chicago, Davidson and Harvard qualified for the 28-board semifinals.

In the semis, Stanford beat Harvard by 68-45, and Chicago defeated Davidson by 85-49.

The final would also be over 28 boards. Representing Chicago were Shawn Drenning, Gideon Tan, Rolf Hoyer and Wen Yang Qi. The Stanford team was Elena Grewal, Alex Lovejoy, Eric Mayefsky and Zizhuo Wang.

The report of this match is made better by Jimmy Wang (no relation), who recorded the action

Chicago won 3 IMPs on the first board. It was passed out at one table, but when Lovejoy opened his 12-point hand, it let his opponents into the auction and they reached a making two spades.

After a flat board, came . . .

Four hearts made with two overtricks. The size and direction of the swing would depend upon the defense against 4♠ doubled.

If West had followed the reliable principle of leading trumps when his side had the balance of points, the contract could have been taken down four, minus 800. But West led his singleton club. And when declarer called for dummy's king, East won with his ace and lost another trick by cashing the *Q. Now declarer conceded only one spade, one heart and three clubs to go down two.

Plus 680 and minus 300 gave Stanford 9 IMPs. Chicago regained the lead on the next board. Mayefsky played in 3♠ and made it after a misdefense. The stakes were higher at the other table, where Tan was in 3 doubled. Both defenders missed their chances and this contract made as well, giving Chicago 11 IMPs.

Another 12 IMPs went to Chicago when Lovejoy failed in a hopeless 4♥ on a 5-2 fit after a bidding accident. In the other room, Hoyer was in 3NT. This could also have been defeated, but it was harder and the contract made. Chicago was ahead by 17 IMPs.

Then came the biggest swing of the match. ♠ J 10

This team from the University of Chicago was second in the Collegiate Team Championship: Rolf Hoyer, Wen Yang Qi, Shawn Drenning and Gideon Tan.

Harvard finished in third place in the Collegiate Team Championship. Their lineup was Dan Recht, Dana Berkowitz, Jonathan Bittner and Sam Lichtenstein.

Davidson College was fourth in the Collegiate Team Championship: Esther Cline, Robbie Squibb, Austin Bell and Jim Dickson.

Minor suits get insufficient respect when slam is in the picture. If West's suit had been a major, he would have transferred into it, then rebid five notrump to ask his partner to pick the slam. With a minor, that is harder to achieve. Tan selected 6. and Mayefsky 6NT. Tan might have been right, but Mayefsky's bid feels like the percentage action.

When Lovejoy led the spade jack against 6. declarer had no chance. Declarer won with dummy's ace and played a club to his jack. North won with the queen, led a spade to his partner's king and got a spade ruff for down two.

Qi led a diamond against 6NT. Wang won in his hand and played a club to the jack. North won and shifted to the AJ, but declarer put up his ace and ran all of his minor-suit winners, hoping that if a defender (South) had four hearts to the jack, he would be squeezed in the majors. However, since South had only three hearts to the jack, that suit was worth four tricks and the contract made, giving Stanford 17 IMPs to tie up the match.

That board started a 53-0 run for Stanford. They gained 6 on a partscore swing when Grewal bid better than Qi. There was a flat board, then South held:

♦ A K Q 10 ♥ A K Q J 9 5 ♦ 2 ♣ A 7.

With only the opponents vulnerable, partner deals and opens two diamonds, a weak two-bid. How would you plan the auction?

Qi responded 2NT, Ogust. Partner rebid 3*, showing a poor suit and minimum point-count. Now Oi rebid a very cautious 3NT.

Lovejoy responded with a forcing 2♥. That worked better because partner raised to three hearts. What would you do now?

I expected Lovejoy to launch Roman Key Card Blackwood, but he bid $3 \clubsuit$, a cuebid showing a control. When partner settled for $4 \blacktriangledown$, Lovejoy bid 4NT, heard about no key cards (of course) and jumped to $6 \blacktriangledown$. Sitting behind Lovejoy, I was thinking that a club lead would probably kill this contract. However, this was the full layout:

Surely Hoyer, especially given the prevailing vulnerability, should have called his suit good. On a club lead, declarer took his 11 top tricks.

In 6♥, though, what a partner for tabling a singleton club! Grewal should have control-bid 4♣ over 3♠, which would have made life much more comfortable for Lovejoy. That gave Stanford 11 IMPs.

On the next deal, misdefense allowed Mayefsky to make 4Ψ , which had been defeated at the other table, for 12 IMPs. Then an underbid by Hoyer cost a nonvulnerable game for 7 more IMPs.

Chicago stopped the rout, gaining 6 IMPs when Lovejoy tried for a vulnerable game opposite a 15-17 notrump with a flat 8-count. And Chicago did even better here:

Qi won with dummy's ace and called for a low diamond. When the ace popped up, declarer had nine tricks: two spades, five diamonds and two clubs.

Grewal took the first trick in her hand and led the diamond queen. East won with his ace and played another spade. Since East had played his diamond ace so smoothly, declarer felt sure it was a singleton. She intended to play a club to her king, then to finesse dummy's diamond nine, but she momentarily lost concentration, calling for the diamond king. Now she could not avoid going down, giving Chicago 14 IMPs.

The last deal of the half was flat, leaving the score at Stanford 62 Chicago 46.

The players stayed in the same rooms but changed cardinal points. The boards were quiet, with only three big swings. First:

At both tables, East led the ◆2. Tan ducked the first trick, won the diamond return and led the spade queen from his hand. Now he had nine easy tricks: four spades, one heart, two diamonds and two clubs.

Mayefsky took the first trick and played a heart, ducking when East put up his queen. East led the ◆Q, which held, and played another diamond. Now declarer had no chance.

Plus 600 and plus 100 gave Chicago 12 IMPs and closed the margin to 6.

Chicago was only 2 IMPs behind when this board was played:

I am a firm believer in bidding notrump as quickly as possible with a balanced hand, and naming two suits only when I have an unbalanced hand. If Qi had known his partner was unbalanced, perhaps he would have rebid 2, an overbid but justified at IMP scoring.

To make matters worse for Qi, 3♥ had no chance, going down two.

Against 5♦, South led the ♥Q. Lovejoy discarded a spade on dummy's ace, then called for the club king. North won with his ace and returned a spade, but declarer won with his ace and discarded dummy's remaining spade on the ♣Q. Then East crossruffed home, losing one more trick to the ♦Q. Plus 200 and plus 600 gave Stanford 13 IMPs.

On the final board, Tan passed over his partner's 1♠ opening bid with a 2=3=3=5 6-count.

At the other table, Mayefsky responded 1NT and reached a making 3NT opposite a 5=4=1=3 18-count. The contract was no great shakes, but the distribution was very friendly.

This swing gave Stanford 10 IMPs and a final score of 98 IMPs to 72. Elena Grewal, Alex Lovejoy, Eric Mayefsky and Zizhuo Wang were worthy winners. And they will all still be at Stanford next year, although there is an age-limit issue for Grewal and Mayefsky that will have to be resolved.

As a concluding issue, how can we get more juniors to play bridge? The entry to this event was reasonable, but having only three teams in the youth trial, held earlier this week, is frightening. How about offering college scholarships to high-school players? If, for example, a girl or boy could win, say, $10,000 toward college tuition, wouldn't parents encourage their children to play the game? And surely we can find sponsors willing to put up this money, which would be contingent on the recipient obtaining a degree.

NABC Insider 5

The Supreme C came down from the 42nd floor suite for the first time in several days to demonstrate to the Insider how to get the hotel people to warm up the playing rooms. While the Insider feels that his constant badgering of the engineer was at least partly the reason the weather improved, the SC is taking full credit for meeting with hotel executives and fixing the problem. Either way, the Insider hopes you noticed an improvement and that the situation will continue to be controled.

The Insider also knows that some of you, especially those following the NABC from home, noticed some problems on the web site yesterday. The SC pointed out that the web roster for the Wagar was awfully similar to the top 14 teams in the Spingold. No, the Wagar has not been opened up to a mixed field. Several files were inadvertently switched and it took the directing staff and the web folks some time to get things straightened out. We apologize for the mix up and have instituted massive safeguards to be sure it doesn't happen again. Well, perhaps not massive safeguards, but The Insider will do anything to be sure he doesn't have to listen to the SC's version of the birds and the bees discussion.

By the time most of you read this, Ask Me Girl will be winging her way back to Memphis. We'll all miss her. She has done her usual wonderful job of answering even the most outlandish questions as well as setting a personal record for number of time saying the words "exhibition" and "escalator" in a single day. At this NABC she took steps to ease her departure by training several of the Marriott's staff to take over now that she is gone. Between Mighty Michelle learning enough about how the NABC works to know where our various events are played (even solving the Hide the Side Game Challenge) and Captain Kirk's countdown to game time, the Insider is sure there will be plenty of help available at in the pre-function space. Thanks Wendy: We'll see you in San Diego!

History of the Spingold

The Spingold Master Knockout Teams was originally known as the Masters Teams-of-Four, and it was first contested in September 1934 as a separate event held in conjunction with the Masters Individual. Although not contested in 1935, it was again contested with the Masters Individual in 1936 and 1937. In 1938, the event became known as the Spingold Master Knockout Teams and was included in the summer schedule.

At one time the Spingold was a double elimination event scored by total points, usually lasting nine or ten sessions, restricted to players of Senior Master rank (100 or more masterpoints) and higher. Beginning in 1958, all matches were scored by IMPs (international matchpoints). In 1965, the double elimination method was replaced by three qualifying sessions (subsequently reduced to two), followed by single elimination knockout matches. The preliminary qualifying sessions were dropped in 1970.

The Spingold Trophy, donated by Nathan B. Spingold in 1934; the Vanderbilt Trophy, awarded to the winners of the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams at the Spring NABC, and the Reisinger Memorial Trophy, donated by the Greater New York Bridge Association in memory of Curt H. Reisinger and awarded to the winners of the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams, are ACBL's most highly prized team trophies.

Spingold (1886-1958), a New York publicist, motion picture executive and patron of the arts, was one of the most influential men in bridge administration from 1937 to 1943.

Born in Chicago, he became a reporter on The Chicago Examiner, The Chicago Record Herald and The Chicago Tribune. Spingold's interest in show business brought him to New York City in the Thirties.

In 1932 he joined Columbia Pictures in a public relations capacity. He was named to the board of directors in 1940 and three years later was appointed vice president in charge of advertising, publicity and development. He became a vice president of the company in 1954.

Active in bridge from its earliest days, Spingold was named ABL Honorary Member in 1936. He was instrumental in effecting a peaceful merger between the American Bridge League and the United States Bridge Association in 1937 and became president of the newly formed American Contract Bridge League the following year.

He served for many years on the League's Board of Governors and Board of Directors. Spingold was also president of the Cavendish Club in New York.

A leading view By Rekloc Drahcir

In one semifinal of the Grand National Teams, Championship Flight, the Rose Meltzer and Jill Meyers teams traded blows in the first two quarters, so that at halftime the match was in a virtual deadlock, with Meltzer ahead 59-55. The match was blown open in the third quarter, thanks in part to a brilliant opening lead by Kit Woolsey, who was South on the following deal, playing with his wife, Sally.

East's 3NT bid normally shows a hand of about 18-19 high-card points with a good six-card suit. Assuming the slam was not off two aces, it was clear to Kit that the \forall K had to be on his left and that declarer might not hold a high honor in the suit.

Kit backed his judgment by leading a low heart, striking gold when the full deal turned out to be as diagrammed.

Declarer, not Sally, held the ♥J, presenting him with a losing option. Did Kit really underlead an ace against a slam?

When declarer ducked, Sally won the trick with the queen and returned a heart to Kit's ace for a 13-IMP gain (East-West at the other table were in game, scoring 11 tricks when declarer misguessed the heart suit).

Meltzer won the third quarter 63-21 and never looked back, winning 172-102 to get to the final, where they won the event with a win over a team from New York.

Wagar Women's Knockout Teams

The Wagar Women's Knockout Teams is played for the Wagar Trophy, which honors one of the all-time great players.

Margaret Wagar (1902-1990), inducted into the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame in 1999, became Life Master #37 in 1943, the fifth woman to earn the rank. She and Kay Rhodes share one of the most remarkable achievements in ACBL history — they won the Women's Pairs four consecutive years: 1955, 1956, 1957 and 1958.

Wagar and Rhodes share another record — one of frustration. They were second in the Women's Teams for seven consecutive years, 1952-1958.

Wagar's impressive record spans three decades and includes wins in women's and open competition. Her open wins include the Reisinger in 1941, the Open Pairs (the fore-runner of the Blue Ribbon Pairs) in 1947 and 1948 and the Spingold in 1946 and 1948.

Wagar served on the ACBL Board of Directors from 1960 to 1972 and was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1979. She was non-playing captain of the U.S. World Women's Teams in 1968 and 1972.

Winners and runners-up

Until 1976 the Women's Teams was a four-session event scored by Board-a-Match. It was contested as a three-session championship until 1972 and again in 1975.

The Women's Teams was held at the Fall NABC until 1963. In 1976 the event became a Women's KO with Swiss qualifying. Winners and runners-up:

- 1933 1. Mrs. Greene Fenley Jr., Mrs. Richard Field, Mrs. John W. Friedlander, Jane Wallace; 2. Mollie Funk, Ethel Gardner, Marguerite Hoffmeier, Marie White
- 1934 1. Gail Hamilton, Marguerite Hoffmeier,
 Helen Pendelton Rockwell, Anne Rosenfeld;
 2. Elizabeth Banfield, Phyllis Gardner, Eva

The Man from U.N.C.L.E.

By Mark Horton

This famous TV series centered on a two-man troubleshooting team working for U.N.C.L.E (the United Network Command for Law and Enforcement), American Napoleon Solo (Robert Vaughn) and Russian Illya Kuryakin (David McCallum). Leo G. Carroll played Alexander Waverly, the British head of the organization (Number One of Section One).

The series, though fictional, achieved such notability as to have artifacts (props, costumes and documents, and a video clip) from the show included in the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library's exhibit on spies and counterspies. Similar exhibits can be found in the museums of the Central Intelligence Agency and other agencies and organizations involved with intelligence gathering.

U.N.C.L.E.'s archenemy was a vast organization known as T.H.R.U.S.H (the Technological Hierarchy for the Removal of Undesirables and the Subjugation of Humanity – in bridge terms, the Appeals Committee), and was supposedly founded by Col. Sebastian Moran after the death of Professor Moriarty at the Reichenbach Falls in the Sherlock Holmes story "The Final Problem."

At the moment, this may appear to have little to do with bridge, but stay with me as we join the table occupied by a well-known pair of bridge troubleshooters, David Berkowitz and Larry Cohen, for the first session of the final of the Life Master Pairs.

1NT promised 14-17, and when North came in with a takeout double East elected to show that his transfer was based on a decent suit by redoubling, although there is a strong case for a simple 3♣. With a heart contract quite likely to make 10 tricks after North's intervention, 3♦ was a poor spot.

North led the AK, but of course East was the declarer. After the director had explained the rules a spade lead was prohibited and South led the A2, third and fifth.

"Your leads are?" enquired East.

"Out of turn," replied South.

Once the laughter had died down, declarer won with the 10 and returned a club to the king and ace. North switched to the $\infty$8, and declarer won in dummy and could now have played a low diamond toward his hand to ensure nine tricks. Instead, he cashed dummy's top diamonds and had to go one down, making a poor score even worse.

Despite the fact that both North and South had a stab at the opening lead, neither found the only one which is certain to defeat the contract, which is a heart

This time 1NT showed 14-16 and South must have been pleased when North turned up with a four-card major.

East led the $\(2\), and West took his ace and failed to find the necessary club switch, preferring the somewhat wooden return of a spade. Declarer won and played a heart to the ace. He won the next spade, played a trump to the king, won the club switch, drew the last trump and claimed plus 170 for another very good score.

Here was yet another notrump range, this time 13-15. This type of gambit can turn out well, but when West used Stayman, his side ended up in a 4-2 fit.

North led a diamond and the defenders played three rounds of the suit, declarer ruffing, unblocking dummy's spades and playing a club to the queen and ace. North returned a club, ruffed by South, who played a diamond, ruffed by North with the ♥9 and overruffed by dummy's ace. Declarer was allowed to win the next trick with the ♣10, but South ruffed the next club and although declarer could overruff, that was his last trick, two down minus 200 − and as usual the "kiss of death" was a poor result.

At another table, South overcalled 1NT with $2 \spadesuit$, that suit and a major, and when West bid $2 \spadesuit$, North made a competitive double. If South had been brave enough to pass, plus 200 (at least) would have been on the cards, but his actual choice of $3 \heartsuit$ resulted in minus 400.

There was plenty of amusement when the next pair arrived at the table and there were a number of references to the subject of my introduction, the Man from U.N.C.L.E. These may have been prompted in some way by the chess playing exploits of the now world-champion bridge player occupying the East seat – who was born in the same country as Illya Kuryakin.

When North overcalled 3♥, East may have thought that the Russian winter had arrived early. North considered a Napoleonic style retreat to 4♣ (which would have worked spectacularly well) but eventually stood his ground.

As East led the ◆A South remarked that he might have opened, which afforded declarer some comfort until he discovered that South had considered opening 2♠. Declarer ruffed and played the ♥K. East won and switched to the ♣A and a club. Now the defenders were in no danger of dropping any of their tricks and the contract finished four down.

As the cards lie, East-West can make 7♦, provided East is declarer, so North-South were sure to score some matchpoints – in the end, minus 800 proved to be almost average.

When West rebid her hearts, a relieved North was kind enough to thank her − right he was, as he would have lost 500 in 1♠ doubled.

East's jump to 3NT looks like an overbid to me, but on this layout notrumps was where the matchpoint money was to be found.

South led the • 10, and declarer put up dummy's queen. When that held the obvious play is to cross to hand with the •Q and play a heart, intending to play dummy's jack. For some reason, declarer preferred a low heart from dummy. Had North ducked this South would have won and switched to a spade, giving the defenders a useful extra trick, but from North's point of view it seemed all too clear that declarer had a singleton ten of hearts. In that case going up with the ace and playing a diamond might well defeat 3NT. As they say, the operation was a success, but the patient died and when North did put up the ace, declarer was soon claiming plus 490 and a virtual top.

In my forthcoming book, The Mysterious Multi, the North hand would be considered too strong to be treated as a weak two bid. In his case, it led to the excellent slam being missed. Declarer made all the tricks, but plus 710 was just below average.

East's poorly judged 5♦ gave North-South an easy plus 500 and another excellent result.

A steady session (and extremely entertaining – at least for your reporter) left Berkowitz-Cohen in eighth place, some way behind the leaders, but still, as always, in contention.

(1) N-S alleged a break in tempo (BIT) about 10 seconds followed by a shrug before passing.

Final contract: 4♠ doubled by South.

Opening lead: 48.

Table result: Down one, N-S minus 100. Director ruling: 3♠ by South making three, N-S plus 140.

Committee ruling: 4♠ doubled by South, down one, N-S minus 100.

The Facts: The director was called after the 4. call and again after the play of the hand. The facts are as above. E-W thought there was no shrug and that the hesitation was between five and 10 seconds.

The Ruling: The director determined that there was an infraction of Law 16B1(b) and in accordance with Law 12C1(e) adjusted the score to 3♠ by South making three, N-S plus 140 for both sides.

The Appeal: E-W appealed. All four players appeared.

E-W thought there was no shrug and that the hesitation was 5-10 seconds. West was counting total trumps. East felt that he had too much to pass; give partner the ♣ AQxxxx and ♠ KJx, and ♣ was a favorite.

The Decision: We judged that there was a BIT sufficient to provide UI. West had a sixth trump and only a few seconds ago learned his partner had club support, which greatly improved his hand. His claim that he was counting total trumps further suggests that the hesitation was present and not very short.

What were the logical alternatives to 4.? After reflection, the committee judged that with three key cards and primary support for a two-level overcall, selling out to 3. was not an option. 3NT was out without a spade stopper. So the choices were to double or bid 4. We felt that an overwhelming fraction of West's peers would bid 4. Very few would double, and nearly zero would pass. Thus, there are no logical alternatives to 4.

Once pass was determined not to be a logical alternative, the ruling had to be that the table result of 4 doubled by South down one, N-S minus 100 for both sides, stands.

The power of the 2!

By Bill Schreiber

The following deal was played in the first round of the 0-5000 Mini-Spingold by David Sokolow, husband of Tobi Sokolow, a woman's world champion. Sokolow, South, was partnered by Matt Meckstroth.

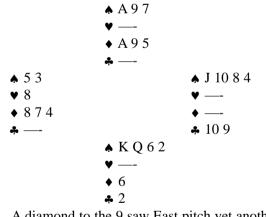

Meckstroth Sokolo
1NT

2♥ (1) 3NT(2) All Pass

(1) Hearts and a minor.(2) No heart stopper.

After this lebensohl sequence, West led a low heart to East's jack and declarer's queen. The ◆J was passed successfully, East signaling his club sequence with the discard of the ♣Q, and the ◆10 was covered by the queen and king. East discarded another club. With the lead in dummy, declarer ran the ♥9 to West, who exited with the ♣K. Declarer, Sokolow, won the ace and cashed two heart winners, with dummy and East pitching two clubs each. The position:

A diamond to the 9 saw East pitch yet another club. Sokolow then crossed to the $\bigstar K$ in the closed hand, returned to dummy with the $\bigstar A$ and administered the killing blow by cashing the $\bigstar A$, squeezing East in the black suits. Although East started with seven clubs to the Q-J-10, the threat posed by declarer's $\bigstar 2$ was too much.

See, Tobi: Even the guys can play, too!

Bidding commentary: North's 2NT response to 1 \(\text{ was the Jacoby forcing major-suit raise convention. This asks South to describe his hand further. In the simple version, a new suit at the three level shows a singleton in the bid suit. A jump to 4 \(\text{ would show a balanced or semi-balanced minimum hand and a new suit at the four level shows a five card suit of some quality. That leaves 3 \(\text{ , which shows a six-card suit, and 3NT, which promises a better-than-minimum balanced or semi-balanced hand.} \)

The continuations of $4\clubsuit$, $4\blacktriangledown$ and $5\blacktriangledown$ were cuebids.

The early play

West leads the *Q against your spade slam. You win with dummy's ace and play a trump, East showing out on the first round as you win with the ace. How will you continue the play?

Solution

As you have a certain trump loser, you have to get rid of your club loser on dummy's diamond suit. A 3-3 diamond break is useless because West would be able to ruff the fourth round of diamonds, as you discarded your club loser. He would still score his queen of trumps, so you would be one down.

The only way too make the slam is when West began with at least four diamonds headed by the jack. After drawing a second round of trumps with the king, you lead the ◆10 intending to run it if West does not cover. (The play is straightforward if the ◆10 is covered). You hope the full deal is something like this:

★ 10 7 5 3
★ J 10 8
★ A K Q 5
★ A 7
★ Q 9 6 2
★ J 8 3 2
★ Q J 10 4
★ A K J 8 4
★ A K Q

Is this is the full deal, you can cash four diamond tricks, discarding your club loser on the last of them. Only then will it be safe to concede a trick to West's queen of trumps. You will win the return, draw West's last trump and claim 12 tricks: make four trumps, three hearts, four diamonds and a club.

The lesson of this hand is that when you need the cards to lie a specific way for the contract to be made, be brave and make your plan on the basis that they do lie exactly the way you need them.

Final points

Notice that it would do no good to play East for a doubleton jack of diamonds for, after cashing the A and K, that would leave Q-5 opposite the singleton 9 and there would be no way to make four diamond tricks. Similarly, if you cashed the A before attempting to run the 10, West would foil you by covering this with J, again leaving you with Q-5 opposite the singleton 9.

Underlead the ace?

Chip Martel, a member of the winning team in last weekend's Grand National Teams Championship Flight, was presented with the tempting opportunity to underlead an ace against a slam in the final match. Not only did he know that the king was in dummy, his partner, wife Jan Martel, had doubled for the lead! All the ingredients seemed right for the defensive stratagem, and the lure to try the play was magnified by teammate Kit Woolsey's decision to successfully underlead an ace in the semifinal round to scuttle an enemy slam (see page 8).

See if you would succumb to temptation:

West	North	East	South
Chip M.		Jan M.
Dbl	2NT (1)	Pass	3♥
Pass	4 ^	5 .	Pass
Pass	5♦	Dbl	6♠
All Pass

(1) Limit raise or better.

The 5♦ control-showing bid strongly suggested the ♦K from Chip's point of view. Jan's double? The queen.

Martel ultimately decided against the underlead, however, preferring instead to simply cash the ◆A. The defense eventually collected the ♣K to boot, to beat the slam one trick. This picked up 13 IMPs when their teammates stopped in the spade game.

Notice what happens, however, if a low diamond is led. Declarer has a bit of a guess, but if he trusts his vulnerable opponent's takeout double, he will likely conclude that the ◆A is on his left. If he successfully guesses to play the king, he may then draw trump, cash the ♥A K (pitching a diamond from dummy) and ruff a heart, dropping East's Q-J. The established ♥10 will allow another diamond pitch from dummy, and declarer will lose only a club trick to make the slam. Had this happened, Martel's team would have lost the match.

Pen found

An expensive Mont Blanc pen has been found. If it is yours, you may claim it in Room 8228 at the Marriott. Ask for Tournament Director Sol Weinstein.

Wernher Open Pairs begins today

The Wernher Trophy was donated in 1934 by Sir Derrick J. Wernher and presented to the winners of the National Men's Pairs Championship.

The event was contested at the Summer NABC until 1962. It moved to the Spring NABC in 1963 where it remained for 40 years. In 2004 it returned to the Summer NABC lineup. From 1969 through 1971, it was contested as a three-session championship.

In 1992 the event became Open Pairs II, a foursession event which consists of two qualifying rounds and two finals rounds.

Wernher (1889-1947) was a resident of London, England and Deal NJ. A leading personality in American bridge in the Thirties, Wernher was president of the American Bridge League in 1933, chairman of its Master Plan committee and a member of the board of directors of the American Whist League, Wernher placed second in the Asbury Challenge Teams (now the Spingold Knockout Teams) in 1936 and won the Reisinger (played in conjunction with the New York regional) in 1930.

Mid-Atlantic: Lookin' ahead

With 10 popular regionals a year, the Mid-Atlantic Bridge Conference always offers plenty to choose from. After ringing in the New Year at the ACBL's largest holiday tournament at Myrtle Beach, look ahead to:

Williamsburg, VA, Jan. 18-24

Williamsburg Marriott (757) 220-2500. George Washington slept (and may have played bridge) here. Start the year in one of our country's most historic venues, just minutes from the United States' largest living history museum. Co-chairs: Tom and Melinda Dow (757) 873-0686, dow5@cox.net.

Hilton Head Island, SC, Feb. 8-14

Marriott Beach & Golf Resort (843) 686-8400. We warn our guests, please do not feed the alligators. Two years ago, everyone listened, and we had a record 3,713 tables of bridge. A wonderful midwinter respite on a semi-tropical island. Chair: Lowry Miller (843) 757-4505, djmiller45@hotmail.com.
